dibrary

Academic Deam's Council April 26, 1979, 9:00 a.m. Arts and Sciences Conference Room

PRESENT: Edgar, McBriarty, Rand, Scriven, McGraw, Sutton, Paraska, Hammack (for Moore), Seibold, Yozwiak

- 1. Data distributed by Edgar:
 - a. New Student Orientation/Advisement/Registration Design, 1979-80
 - b. Summer 1979 Calendar and Proposed 1979—Orientation/Registration Dates
 - c. Radio and TV Spots for "Spend Your Summer of 1979 at YSU"
- 2. Minutes of March, 1979 meeting accepted and approved.
- 3. Paraska and Sutton objected to "small group" advisement design.
 - a. Paraska: Advisement methodology should be prerogative of individual deans
 - b. Sutton: Too much done too fast
 - c. McBriarty: Research points to "small group" methodology
 - d. Edgar: Continue present system for one more year. Serious doubts about advisability of separating registration from orientation
 - e. Yozwiak: Recommended one-half hour of additional time for advisement

In Favor: all Opposed: None

4. Suggested revision of calendar date for Orientation and Registration (Summer 1979):

Change date from Saturday, 5/26 to Saturday, 5/19. (Rationale: adverse effect of student vacation plans on attendance)

5. New Category designation of adjunct faculty or staff:

(Discussion tabled for future meeting with Dr. Alderman)

- 6. Parking problem for faculty: Advise faculty prior to restricted parking facilities.
- 7. Meeting adjourned at 11:00 a.m.

Frank J. Seibold, Ph.D. Acting Dean School of Business Administration