The Neon

DEDICATED TO THE SENIORS OF 1948

. . . who step into a world of confusion, discontent, and maladjustment leaving behind the relative safety of textbooks and classes to face the unpredictable realities of life.

This is a class whose motto and by-word is "Courage." This is a class who enters a broken world with spirit and determination, with renewed faith and hope in the future. To this class we dedicate this book and our belief in their future.

DR. HOWARD W. JONES
President of Youngstown College

This, the largest graduating class in the history of Youngstown College, deserves congratulations of high order. Many of you seniors have returned after years in the service to complete college work started before the war; all of you have held firm to your college goal through times which were confusing, even demoralizing, for people older and more experienced than you. Your steadfastness of purpose is an inspiration and a reassurance to those who look to you for a better world. I wish you all good fortune.

. . . The Senior Class

First row—Phillips, Slifka, Naughton, Blazina.

Our last year the best. Full of responsibility and pleasures. May Day and the prom with a gracious Queen and lovely attendants. Scholarships and awards, Y. C. pins to the few honored at graduation. Scraping together a few forgotten credit hours. Thanks to our patient professors. One final look back and then walk straight ahead.

The Junior Class . . .

Only one year to go. Delta Epsilon members, making Who's Who, joining the honoraries, active in social affairs, a lovely Queen and a prom to remember, all the makings of a wonderful senior class and a promising year ahead. Scholastic, athletic, and social successes were among the accomplishments of the Juniors. Participation in activities with spirit. They've made history and memories. Due to the large number of students in the classes this year only two group pictures have been used as representative of each class.

First row—Maluso, Durso.
Second row—Rosser, Pizzola.

First row—Eisman, Lynch, Laret, Fish.
 Second row—O'Neil, Bartelmay, Shuck, Martz, Rabels.
 Third row—Zucco, Fedore, Kahn, Mason, Dickson.
 Fourth row—Weyer.

First row—Lyle, Nouffer, Wittenauer, Lindsay.
 Second row—Melnick, Hanni, Hengen, Joachim.
 Third row—W. Rosser, J. Rosser, Feyock.
 Fourth row—Sibbio, Capone.

The Sophomore Class . . .

Melnick, Corrado

They did it—they passed the test of their Sophomore year. Making the Dean's List, sponsoring the Bare Brunch, making friends and beginning to feel like a college student. The "in-betweens" with only two years to go for a degree. The Sophomores have established themselves as very capable members of the student body. Good luck for a successful Junior year.

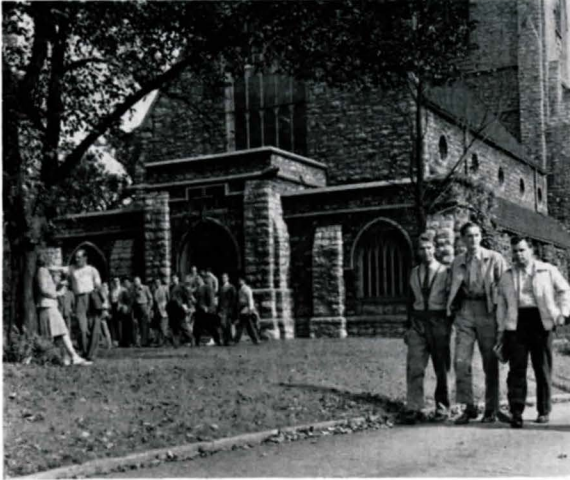

First row—McShane, O'Brien, Sobnosky.
 Second row—Novak, Glover, Flick, Vransick.
 Third row—Symanski, Braydich, Smith, Corrado, Zouck, Altier.

First row—Siegel, Gibba, Feyock, Barton, Lindsay.
 Second row—McDermott, Melnick, Sibbio, Quint, Schwartz.
 Third row—Tabor, Capone, Wright, Jones.

The Freshman Class . . .

Veterans, hundreds of them, getting used to civilian life. High school grads seeking new lights, campaigning for class elections. Two Freshman Receptions, tea for the Freshman girls, some joining Greek organizations, building strong bases for firm college careers. The first year so near the end. A grand year and a trying one. Learning the new and different things, the things that make college. A tough grind ahead.

Angelidies, Lewis, Bloom, Dunn

First row—Lewis, Stefanick, Maxwell, Navin, George, Tines, Walker.
 Second row—Karafta, Dunn, Crone, DiCiccio, Sansone, Lucidio, Cotton.
 Third row—Bloom, Thomas, Davis, Hernan, Sirigas, Ruse, Smith.
 Fourth row—Slaven, Kickich.

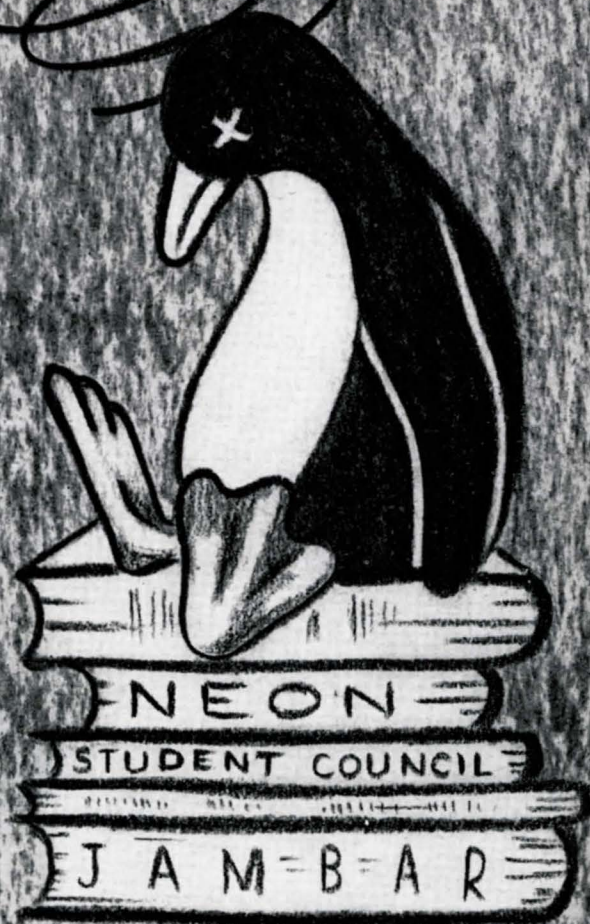

First row—Beale, Tricker, Yovich, Gromofski, Mix, Boyr.
 Second row—Breslyn, McConnell, Johnson, Pantelos, Rodgers, Ardinger, Gibbs.
 Third row—Sovka, Stepanchak, Webster, Black, Round, McFadden.
 Fourth row—Tote, Cavalier, Shirella, Turner, Bannon, Zimmerman.

Fall Semester

Governing body on campus. Regulating organizations' activities. Selecting new Alma Mater. Freshman Reception. Homecoming Dance. Snowflake Frolic. Green hat cheering section at football games. New procedure in selecting the judges for electing queens. Banquet for football players. Two people to have charge of student parking lot. Accepting constitutions of Trowel Fraternity, Married Men's Club, Alpha Sigma Chi, Alpha Phi Omega. Bob Weyer chosen editor of Jambar. Backing Pete Lanzi as outstanding athlete of the year in poll by WFMJ.

First row—Durso, Donnelly, Moore, Geitgey, Traylor.
Second row—Baker, Ezzo, Vesey, Partridge, Lowery.
Third row—Boyer, Thompson, Broderick, Lenhart.
Fourth row—Altier, Carlisle, Davis, McElhanev.

Spring Semester

Advertising Staff

Faced by a bevy of problems again this year, the Neon staff struggled frantically but in vain to meet the final deadline. Editor Mary Vesey and Business Managers Bangas and Martz trying to force the budget to balance. Lots of credit goes to the excellent salesforce under the direction of Schermer and Rabel. John Barrett and Lois Schaible made their typewriters smoke under the pressure of a deadline. The distinctive art work is the product of Jeanette Gibba. Bob Chizmar, ace photographer, snapped the pictures. The task of scheduling pictures fell to Pat Lynch. Chasing down copy on Seniors and Organizations was ably done by Lee Earhart and Cathy Naughton. The Advertising staff made themselves popular hounding the business men. Thanks to John Lehman and Andy Jardein for helping out on pictures when Chizmar was called out of town.

A new staff was organized in an attempt to include all the students who were taking Journalism in school. Operations smoothed out by mid-semester despite the fact that there was no assistant editor active. The business manager did a fine job, making it possible for the Jambar to maintain ten pages of news print for a complete year.

Debate . . .

Active member of the Inter-Collegiate Debate Society. Headed by Mr. Elser. Al Brennan led the Debate Club through a successful year. Women's Debate Tournament at Capital. Men's Debate Tournament at Kent. Northeastern Ohio Novice Tournament at Hiram. Sixth Annual Buckeye Debate at Kent. Varsity Debate at Ohio State.

Plans were made the second semester for a tour of the East and a debate at West Point. Debated at Slippery Rock College. Westminster College. Allegheny College. This schedule ended a very successful year of arguing the pros and cons of important problems.

First row—Morganti, Van Court, Hanni.
Second row—Edel, Holik, Cannon, Molnar, Doyle, Namey, Farrel, Kenny.
Third row—Mr. Elser, Pechio, Benjamin, Houser, Damore, Maluso, Brennan, Crook.

First row—Stanos, Wymer, Angelides, Smaldino, Brennan.
Second row—Crook, Houser, Ortenzio, Slifka.

In the field of dramatics at Youngstown College since 1927, the Mimes Dramatic Club achieved the pinnacle of success in their presentations this year. Led by Frank Barrett Bologna, the organization was responsible for the backstage work and technical development of three productions, all expertly executed with a professional air of big time theater. The operetta "Martha" was given by the Music Department and directed by Dr. Stearns. Three one-act plays sponsored by the dramatic students were received enthusiastically by the faculty and entire student body.

These included "Special Guest," an original written and directed by Donald Elser of the English Department; "The Proposal," directed by Frank Smaldino, play production student; "Fancy Free," directed by Helen Wymer also in play production. The triumphant success in the history of dramatics at the college was the presentation of the Greek classic "Antigone." Under the able direction of Mr. Elser and the Mimes Club, the play was praised as the best ever done at Youngstown College. Credit must be given to every member of the cast for the excellent portrayals and superb acting ability.

Alpha Psi Omega . . .

First row—Wymer, Angelidies, Smaldino, Slifka.
Second row—Crook, Houser, Ortenzio.

Eta Phi chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity. Had been inactive on campus since before the war. Organization meeting called by the advisers, Mr. Elser and Dr. Stearns. First meeting was dinner meeting combined with the business of electing officers. Results of the election were: President, Helen Wymer, Secretary, Betty Houser, and Treasurer, Phil Crooks.

Membership to Alpha Psi is by election and members must have earned a minimum number of points in dramatics work to be eligible. In the spring, seven students were invited to join the fraternity.

Alpha Psi works in conjunction with the dramatics club on campus, the Mimes Club. Most Alpha Psi members quite active in Mimes. Plans were laid for the production of "Antigone" which was presented early in March. New members were formally installed and plans made for a bigger and better season before the curtain fell on another year's activities.

. . . Orchestra

Mr. Myerovich

Mr. Myerovich is the leader of the Youngstown College orchestra. He is trying to put it on the symphonic basis. Their aim is to play American music. They gave several concerts. The New World Symphony by Devorak given in April. The string section played over WPIC several times during the year. Practice was twice a week at Dana's making them worthy of the praise given them.

Second row—Keaggy, Cramer, Partridge, Altier, Lenhardt, Loney, Baker, Brennan.
Third row—Benectic, MacDonald, Schermer, Blazina, Deskin, Slička, Weyer.

These are the Youngstown College members of a national organization. The members appear among those in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." The candidates are selected from the student body for outstanding traits in character and personality. They are screened for scholarship, leadership, and potential usefulness in society and business. This group comprises the most popular and outstanding members of the Youngstown College student body.

Sigma Tau Delta . . .

First row—Thompson, Partridge, Wymer, Schermer.
Second row—Melnick, Deskin, Rabel, Brennan.
Third row—Cramer, Denkelberg, Wining, Phillips.
Fourth row—Baker, Gardner, Davies.

Honorary English Fraternity that places the emphasis on the spoken and written word. Activities of the year included the October meeting at Buechner Hall when Don Elser spoke, Mrs. Botty's talk on the relationship between crime and literature, and the annual Sigma Tau Delta Christmas Party and installation service. The traditional symbol of the organization, the white rose, was presented. Another high-spot of the season was the annual banquet at which Harvey Warren, Director of the Youngstown Playhouse, was guest speaker.

Sigma Tau Delta has always upheld the society's ideal of sincerity, truth, and design, and has developed in its members an appreciation of good English. This year was better than ever under the leadership of President Evelyn Wining.

. . . Alpha Tau Gamma

Alpha Tau Gamma—one of YoCo's newer honoraries continues establishing traditions. Membership is restricted to accounting students of high scholastic standing. High-lights of the year included the fall breakfast at Stitt's Pavilion, the fall banquet at Shuster's, a Christmas Stag, the spring banquet, and many other gatherings such as the poker session at Legion Post 15. Some of the great speakers of the year were John A. Allison, former YoCo instructor and honorary member, and Mr. N. V. McMillen, Trust Officer of the Union National Bank. Fraternity keys were presented to eligible members. Among the honorary members are J. B. Williams, Jr., and Charles Zellers. With Mr. Robert L. Miller as their adviser, this new fraternity is looking forward to bigger and better years in the future.

First row—Annabel, Masonheimer, Patrone, Robinson, Zakucia, Sanzenbacher, Dutko, J. Davanzo.
Second row—Cimaglia, Harshman, Crisafi, Sandberg, Goddard, Kirkland, Moore, Martz, T. Davanzo, Zellers.

Omega Kappa Upsilon . . .

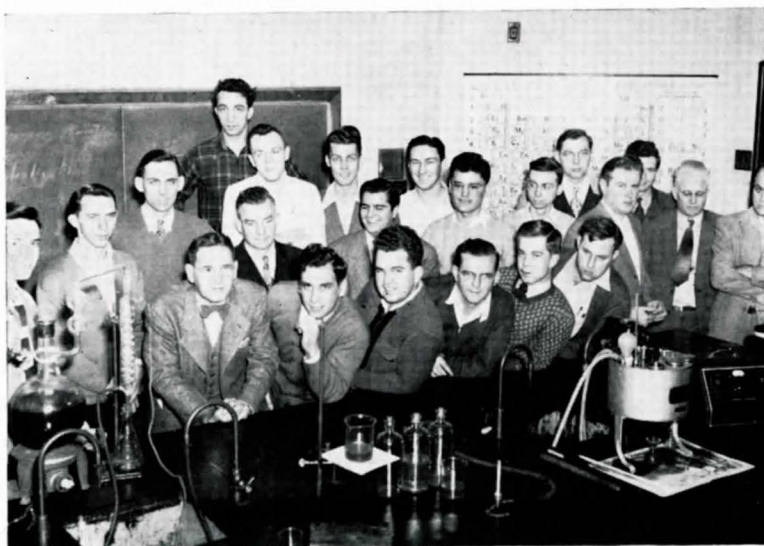

First row—Phillips, Donnelly, Bridgham, Durso.
Second row—Jones, Stefanick, Pannier, Kalla, Gutman, Van Eshay, Edwards.

Women's Honorary Chemistry fraternity of YoCo keeps up its tradition of scholarship and fun combined. This year saw a talk by Miss Beerly and one by Dr. Bridgham. Dr. Bridgham is one of the capable advisers of the organization. She and Dr. Inga Worley work together with the president, Isabelle Durso, Vice-president Dorothy Kurilla, Secretary Mary Wilma Donnelly and Treasurer Vivian Phillips to make Omega Kappa Upsilon one of the best on campus.

. . . Phi Epsilon

Phi Epsilon presents a challenge and a goal to budding chemistry men. All of them are outstanding in the labs. Among their activities were talks by Dean Deesz and Dr. Bloom and Mr. Marcy. Again this year, the boys took an active part in intramural baseball and basketball. An old tradition was upheld in the annual picnic. Bob Dillon and Roy Jones, alumnae of Phi Epsilon, are back at YoCo as lab assistants. Officers of the year are L. Blazina, president; J. Phillips, vice-president; V. Altier, secretary; and C. Brooks, treasurer.

First row—Pesa, Powers, Luginbill, Geanan, Johnson, R. Black, Stevens, W. Black.
Second row—Smiley, Beckman, Altier, Blazina, Dillon, Brooks, Scudder, Jones.
Third row—Criscione, Bulgozdy, Barnes, Phillips, Somple, Haller.

. . . Sigma Alpha Iota

Alpha Nu chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota is the music sorority of Youngstown College. Its members are engaged in making the world more music conscious, and in spreading the beauty that lives in music as far as possible.

During this last year their activities have not been confined to music only, but also in having a good time. There was the hay ride, the Christmas party and gift exchange, the card parties, and many others. On the more serious side were such events as the American Composers Recital, pledging, initiation, and the Province President's visit. Chapter advisers are Mrs. Leah McElroy, Mrs. Nellie Dehnbostel, and Miss Kathryn Guarnieri.

President Leona Earhart

First row—Johnson, Martin, J. Adams, Henderson, Jeffers, Guarnieri.
Second row—Meinzen, W. Adams, Hrecz, Tayler, Bush, Casilini.
Third row—Wells, Booth, Sulenski, Burgoyne.

Omicron Lambda . . .

Omicron Lambda, the honorary fraternity that gets things done. It's members are all biology majors or minors with a 2.0 point average or better. Some of the activities of the past year included a trip to the Western Reserve Museum of Comparative Anthropology, the Receiving Hospital, Mr. George Brown and the pharmaceutical laboratory, and the bacteriology laboratory of the Isaly Dairy. They like to relax and have a good time, too, and so the annual banquet with its fun and food. These are the Sister Kenny's and the Doctor Mayo's of tomorrow who are really going places under the advisership of Dr. Catherine Bridgham.

Officers in Omicron Lambda are President John Phillips, Vice-President Bob Shane, Secretary John Somple, and Treasurer Larry Blazina.

First row—Phillips, Maggiano, Melnick, Pannier, Shaeffer.
Second row—Powell, Dusza, Somple, Campbell, Shreve, Urmson, Stahl, Bridgham.

The Red & White hopped back on the Victory train with a close win over the Chipewas. Michigan was ahead 7-6 with only ninety seconds left to play when Lanzi caught a Gibson pass, lateraled to Lucci who travelled for a T.D. Campana scored first for YoCo.

YOCO 19 OKLAHOMA CITY 13

Another thriller. Behind 7-6 with only seven minutes remaining, the Penguins scored twice to beat a favored Oklahoma eleven. Davanzo scored once and Campana scored twice, with Rowan converting to give our boys the nod.

YOCO 19 ST. VINCENT 0

In a muddy field, the team tallied three times and held the Bearcats scoreless. Gibson passed to Lanzi for one, Lucci bucked the line for another, and Gibson passed to Davanzo for the third and last touchdown of the game.

YOCO 13 JOHN CARROLL 2

The Beedemen substituted brains for brawn to outsmart a Carroll eleven that piled up a lead in vital statistics. Lanzi, on an end-around play, lateraled to Davanzo who ran the distance. Carroll got two points in the second quarter on a blocked punt that rolled into the end zone.

The final YoCo tally came in the third quarter when Davanzo ran to the Blue Streak 38, then lateraled to Campana who went in from there. Gibson converted for the extra point.

YOCO 13 KENT STATE 0

This was an exceptional game. Kent held their annual Migration Day. A trophy was put up by Kent for the winner of the game.

Campana scored both touchdowns, once from the two yard line, and again with a 76 yard run around right end.

This game ended the Collegiate careers of Pete Lanzi and Neal Williams.

The 1947 season ended with eight wins for Youngstown against two losses.

YOCO 12 CANISIUS 6

The visitors scored first, a 54 yard run by Kwasik. With five minutes left in the 1st half, Siciliano tied it up with an 11 yard run. Wise scored the final tally for YoCo from the half yard line in the last quarter.

YOCO 26 BALDWIN WALLACE 6

Lanzi blocked a B.W. punt, picked it up and scored. Rowan converted. Davanzo and Campana both scored in the second quarter. Gene Janecko hit again early in the last quarter to sew up the game.

YOCO 27 GENEVA 7

Geneva scored first. Penguins roared back with two quick tallies to lead 13-7 at the half. Campana and Durina scored in the second half.

YOCO 7 TOLEDO 21

The eight game winning streak begun in 1946 was snapped by a heart breaking loss to Toledo. The score was tied going into the last quarter, but the Toledo team, playing in its own backyard, pushed two tallies over late in the last quarter to win.

YOCO 6 SCRANTON 19

Another bitter pill was swallowed when the Penguins were defeated by the same team they beat so decisively the year before. Scranton led 13-6 at halftime, and made another touchdown in the third quarter to give them the 19-6 advantage.

. . . Basketball

Youngstown College had a fairly successful basketball season in 1947, winning ten games and losing fourteen. Many of the games lost were very close. The season was noted for the number of overtime periods in the games.

The team members handled themselves admirably. Chuck Bush, a veteran from the 1946 team led the squad in scoring. Eli Danilov, a newcomer from Campbell shaped out very nicely with a one handed hook shot. Carmen Di Musio joined the team late in the season but his 6' 4" height was utilized nicely. John Karaffa from Toronto, Ohio, played an aggressive brand of ball. Lee Thomas, a member of the 1946 state champions of Columbiana, also joined the Penguins this winter. Lou Muehlbauer played his second year for Youngstown. He is a good floor man that will be back again this year. Rudy Braydich, a pivot man from Campbell is a good one handed shot.

Golf . . .

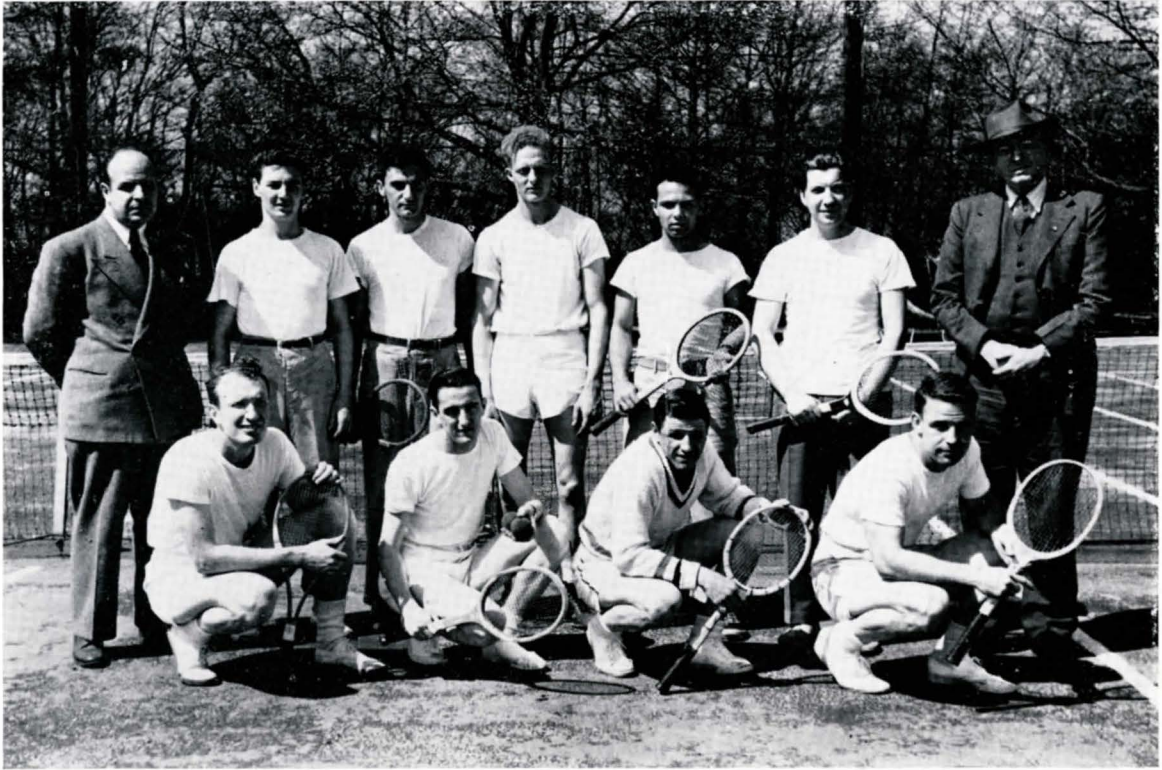

G. Prokop, Novicky, P. Prokop, Kotyshak, Dr. Smith.

"The Gentleman's game," one in which the team members not only demonstrated their ability to play golf, but also the manners and the poise that the game demands. The team had a fine season, winning more games than they lost, and losing by slim margins each time.

This year's team excelled in steady consistent low scores, with each member staying within one or two strokes of his average. Dean Smith was Coach.

The team played a total of 29 games most of which were with schools in Ohio. Other large schools were met and defeated who were from other sections of the country, which gives us a good idea how Youngstown College compared.

. . . Tennis

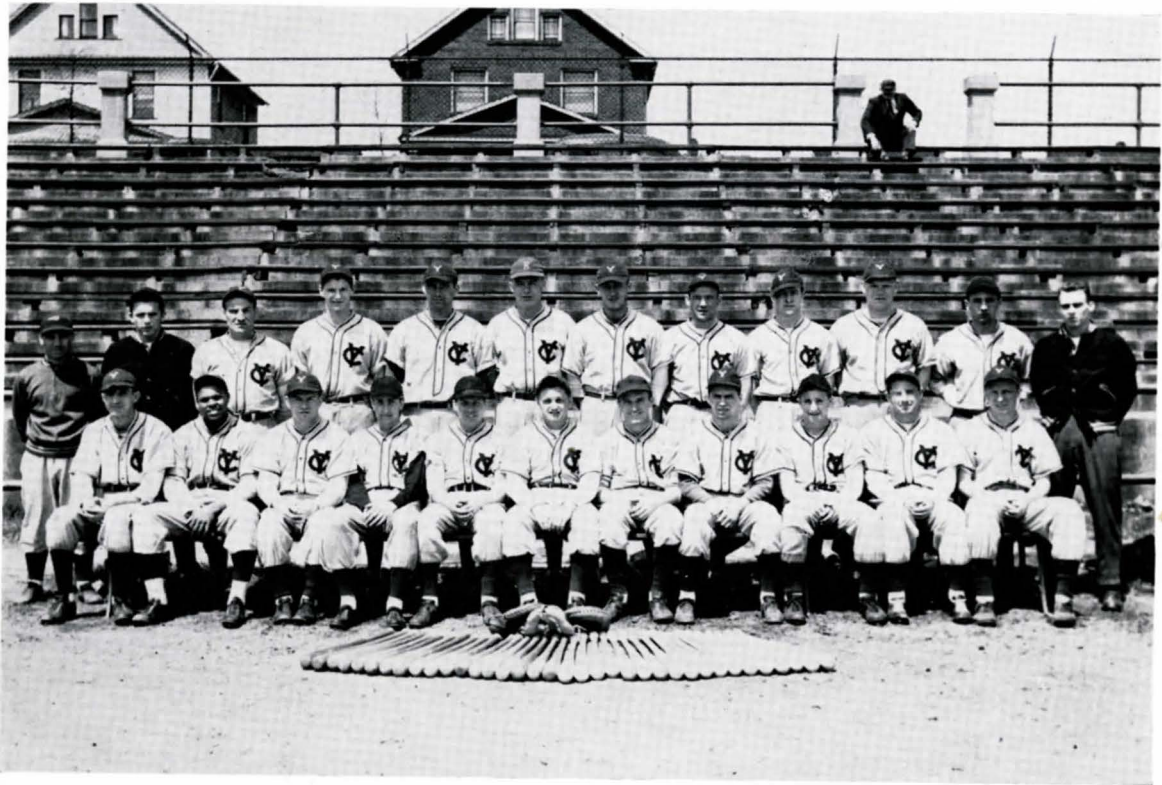

First row—Thompson, Houser, Corsatea, Johnson.
Second row—Beard, Maikranz, Battajarano, Miller, Spagnola, Ross, Mason.

This was a great year for tennis at Youngstown. Playing a terrific schedule of eighteen games without losing, the tennis team earned a rousing cheer for themselves and the coaches, "Doc" Beard and Lee Mason.

Jack Conlan was team manager and a player. Team members all love the game and really sizzled.

Baseball . . .

First row—Braydich, Lawhorn, Battisti, Homsey, Salreno, Kowalczyk, P. DeMont, Gibson, Sosteric, Heatherington, Karaffa.
Second row—Rosselli, Perazich, Semansky, Baker, Hudzik, Bloom, Tumbri, Nottman, Wood, G. DeMont, Muehlbauer.

Only eight letter men returned for the 1948 baseball season, but it turned out to be an excellent one, nevertheless. From last year's team we had Andy Semansky, catcher and a good slugger, Paul and George DeMart, brother combination from Niles, Rudy Braydich, third base, John Hudzik and Willie Aloe, outfield, John Spahia and Lawhorn, pitchers.

Some of the better newcomers were Gibson, shortstop, Karaffa, infield, Bloom, a fast ball pitcher, Bush, Salerno, and Moose Thompson, all infield men.

The season was marked by an unusually strong starting nine plus a well balanced reserve section.

. . . Intramurals

Prokop, Maikranz, Kinney, DeGeorge.

Dom Roselli and a member of Student Council were in charge. Intramural sports covered Bowling, Basketball, and Baseball. Jack Maikranz was in charge of the bowling tournament, Tony DeGeorge was in charge of the basketball, and Ed Kinney was in charge of baseball.

The Scufflers nosed out the New Castle Hurricanes for the basketball championship, and the Collegiates finished ahead of the Fighting Irish for baseball honors.

The activities of the first semester began with a twentieth anniversary tea with the alumnae. Ruth Sweeney acted as chairman of the Freshman Reception. The first rush party was held at the Phi Gam frat house, with a Russian theme predominating. The formal rush dinner was held at the Hotel Pick-Ohio. Our pledges go to jail during "Hell Week." Marty Altman crowned Homecoming Queen. Then the Twentieth Anniversary Founder's Dinner at the Youngstown Club. Pat Ford, chairman of the Snowflake Frolic; and Barb McKinney chairman of the Christmas Dinner-Dance at Carsone's. A party, held at Buechner Hall, celebrated the first anniversary of the Junior Alumnae.

The second semester began with Ruth Sweeney crowning this year's Sweetheart, Barbara Harcar is in the court. The eight active give a style show rush party at Buechner Hall. An informal get-together is the theme of the second party. Lambs and orchids are the favors for the rush banquet at the Hotel Pick-Ohio. Beta Pi Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity was organized on May 16, 1946, accepted by Student Council in February, 1947, when a member was admitted to that body, along with two members to Pan-Hellenic Council. Kappa Alpha Psi is a national fraternity organized at Indiana University during the school years of 1910 and 1911. There are now sixty-six Alumni Chapters and sixty-two undergraduate chapters established in various cities and colleges throughout the United States. Last April Beta Pi Chapter in conjunction with the Alumni Chapter commemorated the National Guide Right Week. This Program's purpose is to enlighten and help high school students plan their future careers. During that week, the program was presented over WFMJ and WKBN. President Jones participated in a panel discussion over WKBN. The Annual Sweetheart Ball was given on June 28 at the Nu-Elms Ballroom. Nadine Johnson, sophomore in the Elementary Education Department, was chosen Queen. In October, a smoker was given for the new male students and in December, ten new members were initiated bringing the total membership to twenty-one members. This year the leadership of the organization was in the hands of Polemarch Isadore Blakney, George Traylor represented the group in Student Council, and William F. Sibly was Pan-Hellenic representative.

This year the Nu Sigma Rhos celebrate their first year on the YoCo campus and a very successful year it has been. The members of the fraternity dominate the football and basketball teams. Boys like Savich, Zangara, and Davanzo helped to make the football season bright. During the year the fraternity has taken an active part in the intramural sports. The Pete Penguin Hop was organized to get funds to furnish a penguin suit to be worn at the football games to represent the school mascot. Don Hanni made a good looking penguin. The boys held a party after the last game of the season to honor the football team. The regular run of schoolwork was brightened up by parties with the various sororities and stag parties for the boys. Don Hanni represents the fraternity in Student Council, while President John Pizzola and Ed Gerberry hold the Pan-Hellenic posts. Pizzola also holds the position of Vice-president of the Junior Class. Jimmy Lowery, active little man, keeps busy as sports editor of the Jambar Radio Show. Winding up a successful year the fraternity sponsored the Spring Roundup featuring Woody Woodell and his Riding Rangers. Best of luck to our graduating members.

Phi Gamma . . .

Officers: Riley, Chuey, Schermer, Weaver.

The oldest social fraternity on the campus continues in the old high tradition. The spring dinner dance at Schuster's went over with a bang.

It was at the Homecoming Game and dance that Bud Schermer with a host of helpers, put on the best celebration that YoCo ever saw. All the boys wore their new green cardigans to the game.

The Toofer dance at the Elms was another feature of the season. The second semester rolled around with a sleigh-ride and box lunch with the Gamma Sigs. The proceeds from that affair, some forty dollars, were given to the March of Dimes Campaign Fund.

The second annual Popularity Dance was held at the Elms, and the most popular man and woman of the year were chosen by a vote of the students.

Participation in Intra-mural bowling, basketball and baseball showed the usual Phi Gam winning spirit. The traditional Phi Gam-Sig Delt basketball game closed the season. To our graduating members, the best of everything in the future. Congratulations to President Mel Weaver for a good year.

Candlelighting Service

The Religion In Life group was formed for the Protestant students of the college. During the year they have sponsored swimming parties, hayrides, and talks by prominent men in the community such as Rabbi Berkowitz, Dr. Humbert, Rev. Taylor, and Mr. Kew. Mrs. Jack gave a very interesting book review. The climax of the season was the beautiful and impressive Candlelight Service. This year Dr. Albert Linder came to the college to act as religious counselor to the Protestant students and the Club. Dr. Linder comes from Mansfield, Ohio. He is a graduate of Denison University and Colgate Divinity School. Although new to the college, he is fast becoming popular with the students through his interest in their work.

First row—McKallip, Joachim, Yoho, Ritter, Kohler, Beale, Dr. Linder.
Second row—Richardson, Van Court.

Newman Club . . .

First row—Organ, Naughton, Gagen, Bertolini.
Second row—Laret, Melnick.

Organization open to all Catholic students of college. Monthly parties and dances at the Catholic Action Center. Ohio Valley Conference at Cleveland. Annual banquet. President Dick Organ taking charge of the semi-monthly meetings with speakers and refreshments. Communion breakfasts. Christmas party. Third annual Mardi Gras with Pat Lynch, Mardi Gras Queen and Dick Organ, the first Mardi Gras King. Officer's convention in May at Ann Arbor, Michigan. A steadily growing organization under the leadership of Father DeCrane. Important problems of the day are discussed at the meetings. Election of officers for the following year. The Day of Recollection.

Father DeCrane came to the college in March of this year to act as counselor and adviser to the Catholic students. He has been adviser to the Newman Club for four and one-half years, and associated with St. Columba's Cathedral for eight years. He is an alumna of Cathedral Latin, John Carroll, and St. Mary's Seminary of Cleveland. Father DeCrane is a great favorite with the students because of his willingness to take an active interest in their affairs and problems. He has done a great deal towards making the Newman Club the successful organization it is today.

Fourth row—Sulek, Rodewalt, Safran, Bowshot, Bertoline, MacDonald, Rodgers, Tueche, Fischer, Thomas, Gardner, Tomasello, Shellhammer, Greco.

All students of the Dana Music School are eligible to become members of the Dana Music Forum. The purpose of this group is to afford an opportunity for music students to hear speakers in the various fields of music, to see music movies, and to encourage attendance at recitals. Also, it provides or sponsors social activities for the music school, as well as an outlet for constructive criticism. Some of the activities of the group this year have been to set up parking regulations at Dana, Hallowe'en and Christmas parties, a reception for the freshman music students, Valentine party, and the annual picnic in the spring. Speakers at the meetings included Rev. Frederick Miller who spoke on his trip to Norway to attend the International Music Conference at Oslo. Samuel Badal spoke on "Raising the Standards of Church Music." The event of the season was the banquet welcoming Mr. Miller, the new dean of the Music School. This was sponsored by the Dana Music Forum, Studio Club, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, and Sigma Alpha Iota. The able leadership of President Lois Keck was an inspiration to the group and brought the season to a successful close.

. . . Eta Delta Sigma

About eighty per cent of the active members in Eta Delta Sigma have their degrees. The other members hope to have their degrees in the near future. The members of this sorority continue to be active and interested in Youngstown College after leaving the campus because the great majority of them are business and professional people. They contributed canned food to the needy in Youngstown at Christmas time. Activities during the year included a Hallowe'en party, picnics, Valentine party, annual dinner, initiation of pledges, and installation of new officers.

Jambar Radio Show . . .

Oliver Davis, Radio Editor

Jim Lowery, Sports Editor

A new feature of the college this year is the weekly radio show heard every Saturday morning at 10:00 over WKBN under the auspices of the Jambar. This feature began in April, with Oliver Davis as Radio Editor and Jim Lowery as Sports Editor. Lasting for fifteen minutes, the show reports the weekly news events from the college, the sports highlights, a few favorite records chosen by the college students, and a feature story of the week. The feature stories bring attention to various college organizations and outstanding college students. News of the favorable reception of the program has come not only from college students but also from students and listeners in various parts of the country. The aim of this program is to bring the college and its members closer to the people of Youngstown in an effort to show them the behind-the-scenes life of the college students.
