Mailed November 20, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - As part of the "Day of Solidarity with the People of Palestine," the General Union of Palestine Students and Student Government at Youngstown State University will present a free, public program at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 30 in Room 132 of DeBartolo Hall.

There will be a film strip, "Palestinians: Holding On," and a slide show, "Shots of Conflict."

The first presents the ongoing struggle by Palestinians to gain their human rights and self-determination. The slide presentation depicts life in Lebanon after the Israeli invasion of 1982 and during the occupation.

Also on Nov. 30 there will be a cultural display of Palestinian articles, crafts, dress and folklore items in Room 2036 of Kilcawley Center from 9 a.m. until 7:30 p.m.

At 7 p.m. Dec. 2 in the Ohio Room of Kilcawley Center, Dr. Hatem Hussaini, diplomat and former director of the Palestinian Information Office, will speak on "The Palestinian Problem: Prospects for Peace."

These YSU programs are in conjunction with the Nov. 29 "Day of Solidarity with the People of Palestine" an annual observance started in 1974 by the United Nations.
