YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The Planetarium at Youngstown State University will open a new show, "Pilots of the Purple Twilight," at 2 p.m. Jan. 22.

"Pilots of the Purple Twilight" looks at space flight throughout the world community. In recent years, explorations have expanded to include China, Japan and several Third World countries. This show considers the common capabilities of these countries, as well as the Soviet Union, United States and the European Space Agency.

"Pilots of the Purple Twilight" also considers international contributions to space exploration and future possibilities for cooperation among the world space community.

Planetarium shows are free and open to the public, but reservations are required due to limited seating capacity.

Reservations may be made by phoning the Planetarium at (216) 742-3616. Reserved seats will be held only until five minutes before showtime. All programs begin promptly and latecomers will not be admitted once the show has begun.

Because the subject and setting are inappropriate for them, pre-school children will not be admitted.

Other dates and times for "Pilots of the Purple Twilight" are:

Jan. 23 8 p.m.

Jan. 24 2 and 8 p.m.

Jan. 30 8 p.m.
