

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 27, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO - The 17th annual "Law Careers Day," sponsored by Youngstown State University's Department of Political Science and Social Science, will be held from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8.

The program is open to all university/college students, high school students, and any interested adults. It will provide an opportunity for those planning or considering a career in law to meet informally with faculty members and admissions officers from a number of Ohio and regional law schools.

Major concerns of the prospective students will be discussed, including school admissions policies, the Law School Admission Test (LSAT), the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS), minority group recruitment, financial assistance programs, the nature of law school study and testing, and career opportunities in the various fields of law.

The general session will be held in Room 2068 of the University's Kilcawley Center, Spring Street, and includes no charge or registration fee. There will be an optional luncheon at 12:30 p.m. in the Ohio Room. Cost of the lunch is $7. Michael Simon, president of the student Pre-Law Society, will give the welcome.

Reservations must be made by 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 7, with the Political Science Department, Suite 301, DeBartolo Hall, telephone (216) 742-3436.

As part of YSU's "Law Career Day," there will be a panel discussion at 2 p.m. in Room 2069 on "Employment Opportunities in the Law Field," organized by Atty. Paul Dutton of the law firm of Mitchell, Mitchell and Reed, and current chairman of the YSU Board of Trustees.

-MORE-

Add One

Also, at 3 p.m. in Room 2067, Prof. Larry Esterly of Poland, campus pre-law advisor and professor of political science, will conduct a workshop, "Applying for Law School Admission."

Dr. William C. Binning, chairman of the Political Science and Social Science Department, will serve as host for this annual event.

For more information on "Law Careers Day," contact Prof. Esterly at (216) 742-3426.

###

NEWS SERVICE - PG
86-174
1a,b,c+

PARTICIPATING LAW SCHOOLS

(as of Oct. 20, 1986):

Akron

Capital

Case-Western Reserve

Cincinnati

Cleveland State

Dayton

Ohio Northern

Ohio State

Toledo

Additional schools may be added later.

#

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 27, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO - The 17th annual "Law Careers Day," sponsored by Youngstown State University's Department of Political Science and Social Science, will be held from 12:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8.

The program is open to all university/college students, high school students, and any interested adults. It will provide an opportunity for those planning or considering a career in law to meet informally with faculty members and admissions officers from a number of Ohio and regional law schools.

Major concerns of the prospective students will be discussed, including school admissions policies, the Law School Admission Test (LSAT), the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS), minority group recruitment, financial assistance programs, the nature of law school study and testing, and career opportunities in the various fields of law.

The general session will be held in Room 2068 of the University's Kilcawley Center, Spring Street, and includes no charge or registration fee. There will be an optional luncheon at 12:30 p.m. in the Ohio Room. Cost of the lunch is $7. Michael Simon, president of the student Pre-Law Society, will give the welcome.

Reservations must be made by 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 7, with the Political Science Department, Suite 301, DeBartolo Hall, telephone (216) 742-3436.

As part of YSU's "Law Career Day," there will be a panel discussion at 2 p.m. in Room 2069 on "Employment Opportunities in the Law Field," organized by Atty. Paul Dutton of the law firm of Mitchell, Mitchell and Reed, and current chairman of the YSU Board of Trustees.

-MORE-

Add One

Also, at 3 p.m. in Room 2067, Prof. Larry Esterly of Poland, campus pre-law advisor and professor of political science, will conduct a workshop, "Applying for Law School Admission."

Dr. William C. Binning, chairman of the Political Science and Social Science Department, will serve as host for this annual event.

For more information on "Law Careers Day," contact Prof. Esterly at (216) 742-3426.

###

NEWS SERVICE - PG
86-174
1a,b,c+

PARTICIPATING LAW SCHOOLS

(as of Oct. 20, 1986):

Akron

Capital

Case-Western Reserve

Cincinnati

Cleveland State

Dayton

Ohio Northern

Ohio State

Toledo

Additional schools may be added later.

#

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 27, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University professor of Anthropology Dr. John White was recently a featured speaker at the Akron Rubber Group Fall Meeting in Akron.

Dr. White spoke on the topic "Ancient Astronauts or Modern Frauds: The Archaeological Views of Erich Von Daniken."

Dr. White serves on the Reception Committee of the Akron Rubber Group. He is a Sigma Xi National Lecturer, based on his achievements in the fields of anthropology/archeology and in the past has served as president, vice-president and secretary of YSU's Sigma Xi chapter.

Sigma Xi is an honorary organization dedicated to the encouragement of research in pure and applied sciences, providing recognition for outstanding scientists.

A member of the YSU faculty since 1971, Dr. White is a two-time recipient of YSU's "Distinguished Professor Award."

###

NEWS SERVICE - PG
86-175
1a,c

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 27, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University professor of Anthropology Dr. John White was recently a featured speaker at the Akron Rubber Group Fall Meeting in Akron.

Dr. White spoke on the topic "Ancient Astronauts or Modern Frauds: The Archaeological Views of Erich Von Daniken."

Dr. White serves on the Reception Committee of the Akron Rubber Group. He is a Sigma Xi National Lecturer, based on his achievements in the fields of anthropology/archeology and in the past has served as president, vice-president and secretary of YSU's Sigma Xi chapter.

Sigma Xi is an honorary organization dedicated to the encouragement of research in pure and applied sciences, providing recognition for outstanding scientists.

A member of the YSU faculty since 1971, Dr. White is a two-time recipient of YSU's "Distinguished Professor Award."

###

NEWS SERVICE - PG
86-175
la,c

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 27, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Dr. Lawrence W. Hugenberg of Youngstown, associate professor of speech communication at Youngstown State University, has been named the "Outstanding College Teacher of 1986" by the Speech Communication Association of Ohio.

Dr. Hugenberg was presented with a gold plaque during the association's recent annual conference in Toledo.

The Speech Communication Association of Ohio provides a forum for interaction among Ohio's high school and college speech instructors. A feature of the annual conference is selection of an "Outstanding High School Teacher" and an "Outstanding College Teacher."

Nominees are selected on the basis of their teaching, scholarship and contributions to speech education.

At the conference, Dr. Hugenberg presented a paper introducing a new method of teaching the basic course, which he is developing with YSU speech professor Dr. Daniel J. O'Neill of Youngstown.

Dr. Hugenberg also was elected vice-president of the Speech Communication Association of Ohio.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in social work, Master of Arts degree in counseling and guidance, and doctoral degree in rhetoric and communication, all from Ohio State University.

Dr. Hugenberg joined the faculty of the Speech Communication and Theatre department in YSU's College of Fine and Performing Arts in 1980. He has supervised the multi-sectioned basic speech courses at YSU since 1981.

-MORE-

Add One

He was the recipient of YSU's "Distinguished Professorship Award" in 1983, and was recognized as one of the "Outstanding Young College Teachers" by the Central States Speech Association in 1984.

Dr. Hugenberg has served as a psychologist with the Ohio Youth Commission and as a counselor in the Big Brother Association.

Among his numerous publications are Structures for Business and Professional Speech, The Public Speaking Workbook, and Speaking in the Modern Organization: Skills and Strategies for Success.

Dr. Hugenberg has also edited the book, Studies in Rhetoric Honoring James L. Golden, and has reviewed textbook manuscripts for many major publishing companies. He has published scholarly articles in The Quarterly Journal of Speech, The Ohio Speech Journal, The Journal of Communication Therapy, and The Iowa Journal of Speech Communication.

###

NEWS SERVICE - PG
86-176
1a,b-,c+

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 27, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Dr. Lawrence W. Hugenberg of Youngstown, associate professor of speech communication at Youngstown State University, has been named the "Outstanding College Teacher of 1986" by the Speech Communication Association of Ohio.

Dr. Hugenberg was presented with a gold plaque during the association's recent annual conference in Toledo.

The Speech Communication Association of Ohio provides a forum for interaction among Ohio's high school and college speech instructors. A feature of the annual conference is selection of an "Outstanding High School Teacher" and an "Outstanding College Teacher."

Nominees are selected on the basis of their teaching, scholarship and contributions to speech education.

At the conference, Dr. Hugenberg presented a paper introducing a new method of teaching the basic course, which he is developing with YSU speech professor Dr. Daniel J. O'Neill of Youngstown.

Dr. Hugenberg also was elected vice-president of the Speech Communication Association of Ohio.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in social work, Master of Arts degree in counseling and guidance, and doctoral degree in rhetoric and communication, all from Ohio State University.

Dr. Hugenberg joined the faculty of the Speech Communication and Theatre department in YSU's College of Fine and Performing Arts in 1980. He has supervised the multi-sectioned basic speech courses at YSU since 1981.

-MORE-

Add One

He was the recipient of YSU's "Distinguished Professorship Award" in 1983, and was recognized as one of the "Outstanding Young College Teachers" by the Central States Speech Association in 1984.

Dr. Hugenberg has served as a psychologist with the Ohio Youth Commission and as a counselor in the Big Brother Association.

Among his numerous publications are Structures for Business and Professional Speech, The Public Speaking Workbook, and Speaking in the Modern Organization: Skills and Strategies for Success.

Dr. Hugenberg has also edited the book, Studies in Rhetoric Honoring James L. Golden, and has reviewed textbook manuscripts for many major publishing companies. He has published scholarly articles in The Quarterly Journal of Speech, The Ohio Speech Journal, The Journal of Communication Therapy, and The Iowa Journal of Speech Communication.

###

NEWS SERVICE - PG
86-176
1a,b-,c+