YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Special programs are being held this week at Youngstown State University in observance of national Fire Prevention Week.

Seminars are being held today (Tuesday, Oct. 6) and Thursday (Oct. 8) for faculty, staff and students on fire suppression and detection. Sessions will be from 9-11 a.m. and 1:30-3:30 in Kilcawley Center.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, (Oct. 7, 8 and 9), Youngstown firemen will tour campus structures. This annual visit allows them to become familiar with building layouts, equipment routes, etc. It starts in Kilcawley Center.

The seminars, and the update tour for firefighters, will be conducted by Ronald Aey, associate director of YSU's Facilities Maintenance Department.
