

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill/TF

Mailed February 23, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's annual "College Night" will again take place on the YSU campus in Beeghly Physical Education Center from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, March 24.

For those considering enrolling in college soon, "College Night" offers the rare opportunity of meeting with representatives from approximately 125 colleges and universities from Ohio and other states, both public and private institutions, with two and four-year college programs.

Future students and their parents are given information on admission procedures, academic programs, financial aids, career opportunities and student life.

This free program, sponsored by the YSU Admissions Office, was designed to emphasize the theme that it is never too early to start planning for a future.

Free parking will be available near Beeghly Center on Spring Street.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the YSU Admissions Office, (216) 742-3150.

###

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 223
1 a,b,c,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill/TF

Mailed February 23, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's annual "College Night" will again take place on the YSU campus in Beeghly Physical Education Center from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, March 24.

For those considering enrolling in college soon, "College Night" offers the rare opportunity of meeting with representatives from approximately 125 colleges and universities from Ohio and other states, both public and private institutions, with two and four-year college programs.

Future students and their parents are given information on admission procedures, academic programs, financial aids, career opportunities and student life.

This free program, sponsored by the YSU Admissions Office, was designed to emphasize the theme that it is never too early to start planning for a future.

Free parking will be available near Beeghly Center on Spring Street.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the YSU Admissions Office, (216) 742-3150.

###

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 223
1 a,b,c,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill/TF

Mailed February 23, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's annual "College Night" will again take place on the YSU campus in Beeghly Physical Education Center from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, March 24.

For those considering enrolling in college soon, "College Night" offers the rare opportunity of meeting with representatives from approximately 125 colleges and universities from Ohio and other states, both public and private institutions, with two and four-year college programs.

Future students and their parents are given information on admission procedures, academic programs, financial aids, career opportunities and student life.

This free program, sponsored by the YSU Admissions Office, was designed to emphasize the theme that it is never too early to start planning for a future.

Free parking will be available near Beeghly Center on Spring Street.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the YSU Admissions Office, (216) 742-3150.

###

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 223
1 a,b,c,d

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill/LW

Mailed February 23, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A member of Youngstown State University's own Board of Trustees, Mrs. Ann Isroff, will be speaker for the university's eleventh annual Winter Commencement, to be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 28, at Beeghly Center.

Mrs. Isroff has chosen as her topic, "A Touch of Class."

Some 884 students will receive degrees during the ceremonies.

While serving as a YSU trustee, Mrs. Isroff has been chairman of the board for two years; served as chairman of the Personnel Relations, Student Affairs and Budget and Finance committees; and chaired an ad hoc committee on insurance and university audit. She is also Board representative to the YSU Schermer Trust program.

Mrs. Isroff's nine-year term on the YSU Board of Trustees expires this year. She is a lifetime member of the YSU's Alumni Association.

Long active in the community's service, philanthropic and religious affairs, she served as member of the Youngstown Human Relations Commission under two mayors; was a member of the National Urban Affairs Commission of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Boards, and a trustee of the Women's Division of the Jewish Community Relations Council.

Mrs. Isroff was named "Woman of the Year in Human Relations" by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

Mrs. Isroff's services to the community do not stop there. She established the training program for Youngstown's Rumor Control Center, and serves on the Board of Trustees for the Urban League, Trustee Board of St. Elizabeth Hospital Medical Center, Executive Board of the Health Systems Agency, and Board of Trustees of the Youngstown Area Kidney Foundation.

MORE

ADD ONE

She is a member of the Council of Jewish Women, Friends of American Art, Hadassah, Rodef Sholom Sisterhood, Alpha Epsilon Phi Alumnae, and Phi Beta Alumnae.

Mrs. Isroff received a Bachelor of Science degree in Speech from Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., and did graduate work at YSU. She is also a free-lance writer.

Her professional work included: associate director of Films, Radio, and TV for Fuller and Smith and Ross, Inc., Cleveland; and Jessup Advertising, Akron.

Mrs. Isroff resides with her husband, Dr. Leonard Isroff at 11 Wildfern Drive, Youngstown. They have two children.

The Winter Commencement exercises will be broadcast live on YSU's fine arts radio station, WYSU-FM (88.5) beginning at 10 a.m.

###

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 222
1 a,b,c,d,2

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill/LW

Mailed February 23, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A member of Youngstown State University's own Board of Trustees, Mrs. Ann Isroff, will be speaker for the university's eleventh annual Winter Commencement, to be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 28, at Beeghly Center.

Mrs. Isroff has chosen as her topic, "A Touch of Class."

Some 884 students will receive degrees during the ceremonies.

While serving as a YSU trustee, Mrs. Isroff has been chairman of the board for two years; served as chairman of the Personnel Relations, Student Affairs and Budget and Finance committees; and chaired an ad hoc committee on insurance and university audit. She is also Board representative to the YSU Schermer Trust program.

Mrs. Isroff's nine-year term on the YSU Board of Trustees expires this year. She is a lifetime member of the YSU's Alumni Association.

Long active in the community's service, philanthropic and religious affairs, she served as member of the Youngstown Human Relations Commission under two mayors; was a member of the National Urban Affairs Commission of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Boards, and a trustee of the Women's Division of the Jewish Community Relations Council.

Mrs. Isroff was named "Woman of the Year in Human Relations" by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

Mrs. Isroff's services to the community do not stop there. She established the training program for Youngstown's Rumor Control Center, and serves on the Board of Trustees for the Urban League, Trustee Board of St. Elizabeth Hospital Medical Center, Executive Board of the Health Systems Agency, and Board of Trustees of the Youngstown Area Kidney Foundation.

MORE