

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Feb. 27, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - World renowned otologist Dr. William H. Lippy of Warren will give the address at Youngstown State University's Winter Commencement at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 28, in Beeghly Center, Spring Street.

The ear specialist will receive an honorary Doctor of Science degree during the commencement exercises for some 840 graduates.

Dr. Lippy has an international reputation in reconstructive hearing surgery, including stapedectomy, and has had many papers and articles published in medical journals.

Since 1978 he has been an instructor for head and neck surgery for the American Academy of Otolaryngology. This field of medicine deals with the ear, nose and throat.

Dr. Lippy is also chief of otology at St. Joseph's Riverside Hospital and a member of the courtesy staff at Trumbull Memorial Hospital, both in Warren.

Currently a lecturer at Kent State University, he previously was a senior instructor at Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

He is an otologist with the Warren Otologic Group, Inc., founder and advisor to the Warren Hearing Research Foundation and advisor to the Halsey Taylor Rehabilitation Center in Warren.

In 1966, Dr. Lippy was nominated by the Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce as "Outstanding Young Man of the Year."

-MORE-

In addition to his numerous medical, surgical and academic achievements, Dr. Lippy is noted for his humanitarian work. This includes promoting and assisting a vast program which has established free tennis centers in Israel and involves more than 120 coaches and 80,000 young people.

Dr. Lippy graduated from Oberlin College in 1950, and Ohio State Medical School, in 1954. He served his internship at Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y., and completed his residency at University Hospital, Columbus. He did post-graduate work at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., and Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York. He also served two years as flight surgeon with the Strategic Air Command at Loring Air Force Base in Maine.

The entire commencement program will be broadcast live over the University's fine arts radio station, WYSU-FM (88.5), beginning at 9:55 a.m.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-384
la,b,c,d,e,f+

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Feb. 27, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - World renowned otologist Dr. William H. Lippy of Warren will give the address at Youngstown State University's Winter Commencement at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 28, in Beeghly Center, Spring Street.

The ear specialist will receive an honorary Doctor of Science degree during the commencement exercises for some 840 graduates.

Dr. Lippy has an international reputation in reconstructive hearing surgery, including stapedectomy, and has had many papers and articles published in medical journals.

Since 1978 he has been an instructor for head and neck surgery for the American Academy of Otolaryngology. This field of medicine deals with the ear, nose and throat.

Dr. Lippy is also chief of otology at St. Joseph's Riverside Hospital and a member of the courtesy staff at Trumbull Memorial Hospital, both in Warren.

Currently a lecturer at Kent State University, he previously was a senior instructor at Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

He is an otologist with the Warren Otologic Group, Inc., founder and advisor to the Warren Hearing Research Foundation and advisor to the Halsey Taylor Rehabilitation Center in Warren.

In 1966, Dr. Lippy was nominated by the Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce as "Outstanding Young Man of the Year."

-MORE-

Add One

In addition to his numerous medical, surgical and academic achievements, Dr. Lippy is noted for his humanitarian work. This includes promoting and assisting a vast program which has established free tennis centers in Israel and involves more than 120 coaches and 80,000 young people.

Dr. Lippy graduated from Oberlin College in 1950, and Ohio State Medical School, in 1954. He served his internship at Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, N.Y., and completed his residency at University Hospital, Columbus. He did post-graduate work at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., and Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York. He also served two years as flight surgeon with the Strategic Air Command at Loring Air Force Base in Maine.

The entire commencement program will be broadcast live over the University's fine arts radio station, WYSU-FM (88.5), beginning at 9:55 a.m.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-384
la,b,c,d,e,f+

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Feb. 27, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Women's Resource Center will present its "Women's History Celebration" March 2-12.

The programs include several films and lectures, a dinner, and a theatre production.

All events are open to the public.

"Sexism and Racism in the Home: What Can We Do About It?," a black and white women's dialogue, will be held from 7-10 p.m., March 5 in the Ohio Room of Kilcawley Center.

Laverne Love of Cincinnati, federal women's program manager for the Ohio River Division, Army Corps of Engineers, will present "A Look at Women's History" at a dinner at 5 p.m. March 10 at YSU's Wicker Basket. The dinner, co-sponsored by the Youngstown chapter of the National Council of Negro Women, is open to the public. The cost is $6.95 per person. Reservations are required.

Love will also speak from 9-11 a.m., March 11. Her lecture, "Fifteen Steps to Career Development," will be held in the Scarlet Room of Kilcawley Center.

Other activities include:

*March 2 -- 3-4 p.m., movie: "Speaking Our Peace" in the Scarlet Room, Kilcawley Center. Sponsored by Organization for Women's Equality (O.W.E.).

*March 3 -- 12-2 p.m., lecture on "Women of the Western Reserve," featuring speaker Dr. Donna DeBlasio, program supervisor of the Ohio Historical Society, Youngstown office.

-MORE-

- *March 3 -- 3-4:30 p.m., movie: "Small Happiness: Women of a Chinese Village" in the Scarlet Room, Kilcawley Center. Sponsored by O.W.E.
- *March 4 -- 3-4:30 p.m., movie: "With Babies and Banners" in the Carnation Room, Kilcawley Center. Sponsored by O.W.E.
- *March 5 -- Two showings -- 12 and 2 p.m., movie: "American Women: Portraits of Courage" at the Women's Resource Center.
- *March 6 -- 7-8 p.m., movie: "The International Sweethearts of Rhythm: Americas' Hottest All-Girl Band" in the Pub, Kilcawley Center. Sponsored by O.W.E.
- *March 7 -- 8 p.m., play: "A...My Name is Alice" in the Spotlight Theatre, Bliss Hall. Free admission.
- *March 9 -- 2-3 p.m., movie: "Abortion Stories from North and South," in the Carnation Room, Kilcawley Center. Sponsored by O.W.E.
- *March 12 -- Three showings -- 12, 2 and 6 p.m., movie: "She's Nobody's Baby: American Women in the 20th Century" at the Women's Resource Center.

For more information, contact Danna Bozick, coordinator of the Women's Resource Center, at (216) 742-7309.

The Women's Resource Center is located in Dana Hall, at the corner of Spring and Bryson Streets at YSU.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-385
la,d,e,h