

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 7, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Fifteen Youngstown State University faculty members will be working outside the classroom during the 1988-89, academic year. All have been granted YSU Research Professorships.

Each year, according to YSU-Ohio Education Association agreement, faculty members whose unsubsidized research is judged by a committee to warrant support are selected as research professors and granted a one-third reduction in teaching load.

Those faculty members and their projects are:

Dr. Frederick Blue of Youngstown, professor of History,
"Arthur St. Clair: Governor of the Northwest Territory."

Dr. John J. Buoni of Boardman, professor of Mathematical and Computer Sciences, "A One-Dimensional Chebychev Polynomial Method for Higher Dimensional Heat Equations."

Dr. Steven L. Ellyson of Medina, assistant professor of Psychology,
"Explorations in Human Visual Dominance Behavior."

Edward Gillin of Youngstown, assistant professor of English,
"Fitzgerald's Twain."

Dr. Beverly Gray of Youngstown, assistant professor of Psychology, "Stress, Support Systems and Coping Strategies of Black Professionals."

Dr. William D. Jenkins of Macedonia, professor of History,
"An Evaluation of Female Voting Patterns During the 1920s."

MORE

ADD ONE

- Dr. Robert E. Leipheimer of Poland, assistant professor of Biological Sciences, "Androgenic Regulation of a Spinal Reflex in Rats."
- Dr. Gratia Murphy of Hubbard, professor of English, "Text Language: The Relationship Between Reading and Writing in the Development of Style Among Junior High Writers."
- Dr. Steven Rodabaugh of Youngstown, associate professor of Mathematical and Computer Sciences, "Space Presentations of Lattices: Their Applications to Meta-Diagrams of Lattices, Classical Topology and Probability Theory."
- Dr. Kriss Schueller of Youngstown, assistant professor of Biological Sciences, "Characterizations of Multiple-Valued Functions for Inclusion in an Optimal Costtable."
- Dr. Jeffrey J. Sich of Youngstown, assistant professor of Biological Sciences, "Modulation of Immune Functions Relevant to Resistance."
- Dr. Sandra Stephan of Youngstown, assistant professor of English, "Formal and Popular Scientific Discourse in the 17th and 18th Centuries."
- Dr. Ronald G. Tabak of Canfield, associate professor of Physics and Astronomy, "The Dark Side of Iapetus."
- Dr. John White of Youngstown, professor of Sociology, Anthropology & Social Work, "Mother Hubbard's Cupboard: Archaeological Excavation and Interpretation of the Historic Hubbard House," (in Ashtabula).
- Dr. Raj N. Varma of Poland, associate professor of Home Economics, "Detection and Treatment of Drug-induced Malnutrition in the Elderly: A Study of Nursing Home Practices."

###

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 7, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Fifteen Youngstown State University faculty members will be working outside the classroom during the 1988-89, academic year. All have been granted YSU Research Professorships.

Each year, according to YSU-Ohio Education Association agreement, faculty members whose unsubsidized research is judged by a committee to warrant support are selected as research professors and granted a one-third reduction in teaching load.

Those faculty members and their projects are:

Dr. Frederick Blue of Youngstown, professor of History,

"Arthur St. Clair: Governor of the Northwest Territory."

Dr. John J. Buoni of Boardman, professor of Mathematical and Computer Sciences, "A One-Dimensional Chebychev Polynomial Method for Higher Dimensional Heat Equations."

Dr. Steven L. Ellyson of Medina, assistant professor of Psychology,

"Explorations in Human Visual Dominance Behavior."

Edward Gillin of Youngstown, assistant professor of English,

"Fitzgerald's Twain."

Dr. Beverly Gray of Youngstown, assistant professor of Psychology, "Stress, Support Systems and Coping Strategies of Black Professionals."

Dr. William D. Jenkins of Macedonia, professor of History,

"An Evaluation of Female Voting Patterns During the 1920s."

MORE

ADD ONE

- Dr. Robert E. Leipheimer of Poland, assistant professor of Biological Sciences, "Androgenic Regulation of a Spinal Reflex in Rats."
- Dr. Gratia Murphy of Hubbard, professor of English, "Text Language: The Relationship Between Reading and Writing in the Development of Style Among Junior High Writers."
- Dr. Steven Rodabaugh of Youngstown, associate professor of Mathematical and Computer Sciences, "Space Presentations of Lattices: Their Applications to Meta-Diagrams of Lattices, Classical Topology and Probability Theory."
- Dr. Kriss Schueller of Youngstown, assistant professor of Biological Sciences, "Characterizations of Multiple-Valued Functions for Inclusion in an Optimal Costtable."
- Dr. Jeffrey J. Sich of Youngstown, assistant professor of Biological Sciences, "Modulation of Immune Functions Relevant to Resistance."
- Dr. Sandra Stephan of Youngstown, assistant professor of English, "Formal and Popular Scientific Discourse in the 17th and 18th Centuries."
- Dr. Ronald G. Tabak of Canfield, associate professor of Physics and Astronomy, "The Dark Side of Iapetus."
- Dr. John White of Youngstown, professor of Sociology, Anthropology & Social Work, "Mother Hubbard's Cupboard: Archaeological Excavation and Interpretation of the Historic Hubbard House," (in Ashtabula).
- Dr. Raj N. Varma of Poland, associate professor of Home Economics, "Detection and Treatment of Drug-induced Malnutrition in the Elderly: A Study of Nursing Home Practices."

###

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 7, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Some 150 high school students and their English/drama teachers from nine area high schools participated in the annual musical theatre workshop held recently (3/3) at Youngstown State University.

The annual event was sponsored by the YSU chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatics fraternity.

The workshop focused on University Theatre's production of Aristophanes' classical musical fantasy, "The Birds," with special sessions in choral singing, costume, makeup, stage lighting, improvisational acting, and ritualistic ethnic theatre dance. Halim El-Dabh of Kent, world-renowned ethno-musicologist and composer who was commissioned to compose original music for the YSU production, was keynote speaker.

The workshop sessions were conducted by Jane Shanabarger of Boardman. University Theatre costumer: W. Rick Schilling of Poland, University Theatre costume assistant: Dr. Bruno Kazenas, Dana School of Music choral director: and members of the cast and crews of "The Birds."

Schools participating in the workshop included Crestview, Poland, Ursuline, LaBrae, Lakeview, Campbell, Shenango, and Sharon and Farrell High Schools.

In addition to the workshop session, students were treated to a complete performance of "The Birds" with the world premiere of the original musical score. The production was directed by Dr. Dennis Henneman of Boardman, professor of Speech and Theatre.

###

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 7, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Some 150 high school students and their English/drama teachers from nine area high schools participated in the annual musical theatre workshop held recently (3/3) at Youngstown State University.

The annual event was sponsored by the YSU chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatics fraternity.

The workshop focused on University Theatre's production of Aristophanes' classical musical fantasy, "The Birds," with special sessions in choral singing, costume, makeup, stage lighting, improvisational acting, and ritualistic ethnic theatre dance. Halim El-Dabh of Kent, world-renowned ethno-musicologist and composer who was commissioned to compose original music for the YSU production, was keynote speaker.

The workshop sessions were conducted by Jane Shanabarger of Boardman. University Theatre costumer: W. Rick Schilling of Poland, University Theatre costume assistant: Dr. Bruno Kazenas, Dana School of Music choral director: and members of the cast and crews of "The Birds."

Schools participating in the workshop included Crestview, Poland, Ursuline, LaBrae, Lakeview, Campbell, Shenango, and Sharon and Farrell High Schools.

In addition to the workshop session, students were treated to a complete performance of "The Birds" with the world premiere of the original musical score. The production was directed by Dr. Dennis Henneman of Boardman, professor of Speech and Theatre.

###

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 7, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Twenty-three graduating high school seniors have been awarded a total of $34,500 in recognition of their academic achievements, under the third annual Youngstown State University Dean's Scholarships.

The Dean's Scholarships are given to as many as four incoming freshmen in each of the six undergraduate colleges and schools within the University. They are renewable for up to three years providing recipients continue to meet the criteria established by their particular school or college.

Since each individual school decides which students will receive the scholarships, each has its own set of requirements students must meet.

The following names are those incoming freshmen who are recipients of 1988-89 Dean's Scholarships:

###

NEWS SERVICE

87-332

NAMEHOMETOWNHIGH SCHOOLCOLLEGE OF APPLIED SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

Marie Gedra	Youngstown	Chaney H.S.
Karen Thompson	Hubbard	Hubbard H.S.
Kelly Fulton	Warren	Champion H.S.
Andrea Howie	Lowellville	East H.S.

WILLIAMSON SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Christopher Minnie	Poland	Poland Seminary H.S.
Joanne Edling	Columbiana	Columbiana H.S.
Christine Lovrinoff	Canfield	Boardman H.S.
Paul Simmer	Youngstown	Ursuline H.S.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Kristine Foster	Youngstown	Chaney H.S.
Heather Kutyl	Youngstown	Wilson H.S.
Pamela Moody	Youngstown	Chaney H.S.
Leonardo Rodriquez	Youngstown	East H.S.

SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

Donna Gardner	McDonald	McDonald H.S.
Todd Ferrante	Leetonia	Leetonia H.S.
Julie Grafton	Warren	Champion H.S.
Chris Kiszely	Boardman	Boardman H.S.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Theresa Marx	Hubbard	Brookfield, H.S.
Melissa Shearer	New Waterford	Crestview H.S.
Eunice Santos	Canfield	Austintown Fitch H.S.
Jonathan Bryan	Canfield	Canfield H.S.

COLLEGE OF FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS

Kati Ricker	Ashtabula	Ashtabula H.S.
Susan Ferrara	Poland	Poland Seminary H.S.
Matthew Myhal	Youngstown	Liberty H.S.

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed March 7, 1988

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Twenty-three graduating high school seniors have been awarded a total of $34,500 in recognition of their academic achievements, under the third annual Youngstown State University Dean's Scholarships.

The Dean's Scholarships are given to as many as four incoming freshmen in each of the six undergraduate colleges and schools within the University. They are renewable for up to three years providing recipients continue to meet the criteria established by their particular school or college.

Since each individual school decides which students will receive the scholarships, each has its own set of requirements students must meet.

The following names are those incoming freshmen who are recipients of 1988-89 Dean's Scholarships:

###

NEWS SERVICE

87-332

NAME	HOMETOWN	HIGH SCHOOL
COLLEGE OF APPLIED SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY
Marie Gedra	Youngstown	Chaney H.S.
Karen Thompson	Hubbard	Hubbard H.S.
Kelly Fulton	Warren	Champion H.S.
Andrea Howie	Lowellville	East H.S.
WILLIAMSON SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
Christopher Minnie	Poland	Poland Seminary H.S.
Joanne Edling	Columbiana	Columbiana H.S.
Christine Lovrinoff	Canfield	Boardman H.S.
Paul Simmer	Youngstown	Ursuline H.S.
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
Kristine Foster	Youngstown	Chaney H.S.
Heather Kutty	Youngstown	Wilson H.S.
Pamela Moody	Youngstown	Chaney H.S.
Leonardo Rodriquez	Youngstown	East H.S.
SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING
Donna Gardner	McDonald	McDonald H.S.
Todd Ferrante	Leetonia	Leetonia H.S.
Julie Grafton	Warren	Champion H.S.
Chris Kiszely	Boardman	Boardman H.S.
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
Theresa Marx	Hubbard	Brookfield, H.S.
Melissa Shearer	New Waterford	Crestview H.S.
Eunice Santos	Canfield	Austintown Fitch H.S.
Jonathan Bryan	Canfield	Canfield H.S.
COLLEGE OF FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS
Kati Ricker	Ashtabula	Ashtabula H.S.
Susan Ferrara	Poland	Poland Seminary H.S.
Matthew Myhal	Youngstown	Liberty H.S.