Mailed April 23, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Dr. George E. Sutton, dean of Youngstown State University's William Rayen School of Engineering, has been chosen to deliver the address at the University's annual Honor's Convocation.

His topic will be "Decisions."

The program, which recognizes students for academic achievements and also designates distinguished professors, will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, May 12, in Kilcawley Center's Chestnut Room. Students in the top one percent of their class in each of the six undergraduate schools and colleges are recognized, and a number of other awards and scholarships are announced.

Dr. Sutton, who resides in Poland, received his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from West Virginia University, Morgantown; master's degree from the University of Florida, and doctoral degree from Michigan State University. He taught at all three institutions, and later taught at Arizona State University and the University of Nevada, where he was chairman of the Mechanical Engineering Department.

He was a fighter pilot with the Royal Air Force and U.S. Navy in World War II.

Before becoming a member of YSU's faculty in 1976, he also served as director of professional service for the National Council of Engineering Examiners.

He has served as president of both the Mahoning Valley and Northern Nevada chapters of the National Society of Professional Engineers, is a former president of

Mailed April 23, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Nearly 500 students from junior and senior high schools in a five-county area competed in the 12th annual History Day April 11 at Youngstown State University in one of the largest such events in Ohio.

Winners will go on to participate in the state contest to be held at Case Western Reserve University on May 16.

The students participated by writing papers, preparing performances, projects or media entries that related to the national and state theme for 1987, "Liberty: Rights and Responsibilities in History."

Several special features were added to the contest this year. A special computer test was given in Meshel Hall to ascertain the area student who scored the highest mark in a test of American history; an award honoring recently deceased colleague, Dr. Joseph T. May, was given to the top scoring student, Lorrie Gasior of Wilson High School.

A short talk was given by Bernardo Colungo, Wean Lecturer from Mexico, who spoke on the creative potential and the uniqueness of each individual.

National History Day is supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities. YSU's History Day was funded by the Jennings foundation, the YSU History Club, and the Department of History in the College of Arts and Sciences, and the Youngstown Chapter of the Zionist Organizations of America, who were recognized with a plaque acknowledging their long-time support of YSU History Day.

Attached are the names of the winners and their schools.
