Historical Background

The Youngstown College Alumni Association was founded in 1934. Jack McPhee was elected its first president, along with Mary Edwards (Vice President), Frieda Flint (Secretary) and Louis Hyman (Treasurer) (see the Jambar, May 25, 1934). As the institution evolved into The Youngstown University (1955), then Youngstown State University (1967), the Alumni Association remained in place and active.

According to the Association's 1980-81 constitution, its purposes were:

- To foster and to promote the influence, welfare and good name of Youngstown State University.
- To strengthen the position of the University in the community through the efforts of its Alumni.
- To establish, promote and coordinate Alumni activities.
- To promote and develop a mechanism for Alumni gifts and University development.

- To create a system of Alumni Advisory Committees to assist and to counsel, where needed, the various academic and auxiliary departments within the University.
- To operate and maintain an Alumni office.

Satellite clubs were permitted to organize by residential location, profession, vocational location, discipline, or any other way relating to YSU identity. Today, there are YSU Alumni organizations in New York, Washington, DC, Dallas, Las Vegas, and other cities, as well as throughout Ohio.

Throughout its history, the Alumni Association provided both fellowship and benefits. Examples of the former include various reunions, homecoming events, and special gatherings. The latter have included special credit card offers, borrowing privileges at Maag Library, and insurance programs.

Operating as an independent organization separate from the University administration, the Alumni Association underwent an amalgamation process with YSU, becoming the Office of Alumni Relations in the late 1990s. In 2015, alumni affairs were merged with the YSU Office of Events Management to become the Alumni & Events office.

Scope and Content

The collection consists chiefly of material gathered and maintained by the Alumni Association, with most of the Alumni events so documented occurring under the leadership of Lori (Skarbinski) Factor. Much of the collection is composed of photographs relating to various Association events (e.g., reunions, awards dinners, and other activities). Printed matter includes various types of campus publications, including various incarnations of the Association's newsletter. Scrapbooks were maintained by the Association, covering fraternity/sorority activities, as well as the life of alumna Mary (Barrett) Marsh, a well-known veteran of the Women Airforce Service Pilots (W.A.S.P.) during World War II.

Colophon

As stated above, the collection was stored by the Alumni Association/Alumni Relations offices in the Alumni House (now Foks Hall). It was transferred to Archives & Special Collections (Maag Library) in 2015 when the organization merged with the Office of Events Management. It was then stored in Archives & Special Collections until being processed in June – July 2019.
