

Recommended FDC Syllabus Verbiage

This course is part of the campus' course material delivery program, Pete Complete. The bookstore will provide each student with a convenient package for physical books and any digital materials that have been integrated into Blackboard for this course.

You should have received an email from the bookstore confirming your materials and asking you to select how you would like to receive your printed materials. If you haven't done so already, please make sure you select your fulfillment preference through the link below so the bookstore can prepare your materials.

For more information, please go to the Pete Complete Book Program

To access your digital materials [choose one based on faculty chosen delivery method below].
