A. V. Committee Sanction Given

The YoCo chapter of the American Veterans committee received its national charter last week. This week the student council of Youngstown College approved the constitution and by-laws recently submitted to them by the local veterans group. These two events have put the new YoCo A. V. C. chapter officially on the map.

Application for student council approval to organize an A. V. C. chapter at Youngstown College was first made in October of 1946 and permission was granted in November. Veteran interest was immediately expressed. Dec. 13 a booth was installed in the main building of YoCo and literature was distributed. An application for a charter was made to the National Planning committee early in January. Today the Youngstown College chapter of the A. V. C. is not only an approved college organization, it is an official national veterans group, approved by the Veterans administration to speak for its members before the administration.

Charter members of the YoCo chapter of A. V. C. are: Cleo C. Austin, Edward J. Barabas, Mildred E. Canon, Alex M. Chubak, John R. Cvengros, Oliver Davis Jr., Wayne R. Dieter, Mac Greenstein, Robert Leepard, Paul Lulich, Thomas C. McFadden, John R. Seman, Robert B. Weyer, Harvey Williams and Walter R. Wellman.

Other members include: John R. Conroy, Cecil L. Eckman, Arthur W. Eisenstot, Benny Fontanarosa, Barnett B. Frank, William N. Gorgas, P. A. Morganti, Herschel Daniels, Michael Cvercko, Anthony D. Kopkash, Margaret P. Ramsey, Robert E. Storey, George L. Williams, C. J. Partridge, Jack Eidelman, Mathew Sevachko, Joseph Kitko, Joseph Dutko, Glenn A. Hoffer, Joe Dubaj, W. Y. Baxter, Frank Carney, A. R. Baytosh, J. F. Smrecansky, L. M. Stoney, A. J. Dinda and Joe Pennell.

Permanent Officers Elected
The A. V. C. met Wednesday night, to elect permanent officers. The term of office of these officers will be one year. New officers are replacing the temporary officers who have served since the local group was organized. The

NEON BOX FOR PICTURES

A box has been provided in the front hall of the main building for snap-shots and any pictures students wish to submit for publication in the yearbook. Each organization as well as individuals is asked to submit pictures so that the Neon will be representative of the whole school. Pictures will be accepted until March 10.

In order that unused pictures may be returned the staff asks that pictures be placed in envelopes which contain the name and address of the person submitting them. It is also asked that some identification of the picture be included in case a notation be desired when it is printed.

Sweetheart Queen Candidates . . .

Above are the five girls who were selected by the fraternities of the school as candidates for Queen of the Pan-Hellenic Sweetheart Dance. They are Georgia Brewster, Rita Donie, Jeanne Mayhew, Phyllis Galose, and Queen Ruth Sweeney. (Story below)

Ruth Sweeney, freshman at Youngstown College, has been chosen by judges as queen of the annual Pan-Hellenic dance. Miss Sweeney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sweeney of 436 Wilkinson ave., Youngstown. Brown haired, blue eyed Miss Sweeney is a graduate of Ursuline high school, where she was junior prom queen in 1945.

Miss Sweeney is majoring in elementary education, and is a member of the Mimes club, Newman club, and Phi Lambda Delta sorority.

Notice to Organization Presidents

- (1) A special Neon bulletin board has been put up on the second floor near the lounge. Please watch this each day as it is impossible for the staff to contact each organization.
- (2) Organization write-ups are due March 1. Organizations not submitting the forms given them with complete information by this date will not be included in the annual. Forms may be placed in the Neon box, No. 4, in the main office or given to organization editor, Kathleen Naughton.
- (3) Snap-shots and pictures of students, organizations and school affairs, etc., which are to appear in the annual must be in by March 10. See that your organization submits some by that date. A box has been provided in the front hall for this purpose.
- (4) Any organization that has not been contacted by the annual staff see the editor immediately or put a note in the Neon box in the main office.

Notice to All Seniors:

The senior class held an important meeting Feb. 19 at which time they came to the following conclusions:

Senior dues will be $6 this year; $2.50 will go toward a senior banquet and $3.50 will pay for your Neon and the cost of putting your picture in it. Senior dues must be paid before you can graduate.

Orders for your class rings must be in by March 15. Prices are posted on the bulletin boards.

Plans have been made for May Day which will be held May 19.

You are requested to leave your cap and gown measurements with Miss Boyer in the main office.

Pictures must be taken by March 15 at Schween-Wagners. The senior class will be granted special rates.

For any additional information see Bill Parmenter.

Pardi Stanos Elected President of Mimes

Former Mimes club officers were harshly criticized for inaction and lack of spirit by faculty advisor Donald Elser Wednesday, Feb. 19, in room 212 of the administration building just before new officers were elected.

The new officers are Pardi Stanos, president; Phil Crook, vice president; Lee Laret, treasurer; Connie Taylor, recording secretary; and George Wood, social chairman. Crook, Laret and Wood were elected by a unanimous vote.

Each new officer promised faithfully to shoulder the responsibilities of their offices.

"Some of the officers in the Mimes club last semester accepted their positions only for social prestige," Elser said just before the election, "consequently the club didn't amount to a row of beans."

"We have a great many things to accomplish this spring," said Elser, "and we need the co-operation of each and every member."

Social chairman George Wood was instructed to start making plans for a party to be held in the near future.

All members of the club and anyone else interested were asked to try out for parts in three one-act plays that are to be given early this spring.

The club as a whole has expressed confidence that this semester will be much more successful than last.

Debate Team Scheduled To Meet Westminster

Westminster college's debate team will be guests of the Youngstown College aggregation on March 4. There will be afternoon and evening contests with a luncheon planned for the visitors.

The varsity team, also known as the A team, will take part in a competitive discussion at Capital university March 1. This same group will seek honors at Baldwin (Continued on Page 6)

College Greeks Will Hold Sweetheart Dance March 7

The fifth annual Pan-Hellenic Sweetheart dance, sponsored by the Pan-Hellenic council of Greek letter fraternities and sororities of Youngstown College, will be held Friday, March 7, at Stambaugh auditorium. Tee Ross and his orchestra will furnish the music from 9 to 12 for the event. Every member of a Greek letter fraternity or sorority will be eligible for a ticket to the dance.

YoCo Advertising Group in 1st Place

Youngstown College advertising students won first place in a recent national contest conducted by the Saturday Evening Post. The local students won 20 prizes during a special study of three issues of this publication.

Individual prizes were awarded each student, and the class instructor, William H. Taft, was awarded a Parker 51 fountain pen for having the students winning the most awards. The students studied selected advertisements appearing in the Post during three issues in January and February, and wrote comments, criticisms, recommendations for changes in wording and layouts, and suggestions for various trade names and other identifying features of the advertisements.

During the first week's study, only one Youngstown student won a prize, but on the second study 13 winners were named. In the final week, six students won top honors.

Woodbury college placed second, while others in the finish included Ohio university, Roosevelt college, Drake university, the University of Pittsburgh, Syracuse University, and many others throughout the nation.

The contests were conducted by Prof. Charles E. Bellatty, of the University of Boston, for the Saturday Evening Post. A booklet, entitled "Criticism, Suggestion and Advice" was issued by Mr. Bellatty for each edition of the Post (Continued on Page 6)

Dr. Worley Attends Medical Convention

Dr. Clair L. Worley, head of the biology department, attended a medical convention at the University of Louisville in Kentucky on Feb. 21-22. There were 72 pre-medical schools and 12 medical schools represented.

The convention was centered around the qualifications for a medical student. The main emphasis was put on the need of greater study in the humanities, and social science. They are also checking more closely to see that the pre-medical student has a sound basic personality.

The deans of the medical schools advise each pre-med student to train for a dual goal. The reason is that less than half of the pre-medical students of today will be accepted into medical school. They said further that the pre-medical college's sole obligation to the student is to educate him. It is the medical school's obligation to train him.

The convention was sponsored by the Alpha Epsilon Delta medical fraternity.

During intermission the "Sweetheart" queen will be crowned by Lola Raptou, the "Sweetheart" queen of 1946. Candidates for queen are selected by the men of the fraternities. After the candidates are chosen the queen is then selected by three outside judges. The judges for this year are: Mr. Gatschene, of Gatschene studios; Mrs. Scannell, Strouss-Hirschberg, and another judge not selected at press time.

The origin of the dance dates back to 1941 when the event was called the Inter-fraternity ball. In 1943 the name was changed to the Greek ball. Due to the war there wasn't a dance in '44 and '45. The present name of Sweetheart dance was attributed in '46.

Leo Casey is general chairman of this year's event. The committee is made up of members of other Greek letter fraternities and sororities.

Friends of YoCo Library Inaugurate Fund Drive

The Friends of Youngstown College Library have inaugurated the 1947 drive to collect funds to further the purchase of books. Members of the board of trustees and of Youngstown College faculty recently spoke over WFMJ and WKBN to create interest in the drive.

James L. Wick, president of board of governors of Youngstown College, made a radio speech to open the campaign Feb. 9, when he outlined the college's progress and thanked previous supporters. The next speaker was Miss Evans, president of the local chapter of American Association of American Women.

Four faculty members spoke on the need of special books in their individual departments and of the need of good reading material in general. They were Dean L. A. Deesz, dean of the engineering school; R. C. Westenfield, social science professor; Atty. Raymond L. Falls, dean of law school; and Dr. Hubert C. Howard, assistant English professor.

Franklin B. Powers, member of the college board of trustees, made the last of the radio speeches in behalf of the drive. The library drives started 10 years ago with a minimum each year of $5,000 as a goal.

FRESHMAN TEA

All women of the college are urged to attend the Freshman tea at the college auditorium Friday, Feb. 28, 3:30 to 5:30. The tea is sponsored by Phi Lambda Delta. Chairwoman for the affair is Pat Ford, assisted by Penny Angillito, Gamma Sig; Dolores Sosteric, Alpha Delta; Maryanna Tornich, Independent; Marge Hobbins, Alpha Iota; and Josephine Tucson, Tau Kappa Nu.

Students Should Be Thinking About

The bill that will shortly be presented to Congress that will provide a new system of military training on a compulsory basis. This bill has many new features that bear special consideration, not only because the military men of our nation deem it wise to maintain a nucleus for possible military might, but also because the provisions of this new bill plainly shows that these men are sure enough of their ground to make a number of changes and improvements over the last bill. The new bill provides that:

Young men from 18 to 20 years of age shall be given training for one year only with a chance to make some important changes after the first six months. They can enlist in the regular service, go to college under a special army program, join the reserve, take special training, or enter one of the service academies. While the boys are taking their training they will not be subject to the Articles of War. They will be governed by a special Code of Conduct, and will be tried by a committee of civilians if they violate this code. They will not be available for combat duty in case of war, but will have to be drafted under the regular war-time powers of Congress as were all the men this last time.

They will be taught military science and arms handling by regular army personnel. They may become trainers themselves if they show an aptitude, and wish to continue in that line of work. The army will pack as much military training as possible into the year's time so that the boys will not be caught short if another war catches us by surprise.

Deferment up to the age of 20 will be permitted if a boy wants to finish his high school education, or he may enlist at the age of 17 with his parents' consent.

Most of the students here have already formed their opinions about compulsory military training. No attempt is being made here to change those opinions. The information is given here in case anyone wants to know later on what the new bill is about.

Think It Over!

Of the various and numerous faults that exist in our present educational system, one of the most profound is the emphasis that has been put on grades. It has come to the point where far too many students are more concerned with the grade than with the material that the course has to offer. And a great many will go to almost any length to obtain that grade. A grade which in many cases is very little indication of what the student knows about the course. This fact is due, undoubtedly, to two reasons. One being that there is no standard grading system, each professor having his own pet way of judging your knowledge of the course. And two, being in the fact that the honesty and integrity of not a few students is doubtful. The latter reason is undoubtedly an outgrowth of this emphasis on grades.

However, to eliminate grades entirely from college life we would need the ideal college student. That type of student is one who has a profound desire for knowledge and needs no superficial goal as does the average student. Unfortunately this type of student is quite rare; therefore we must discard the idea of eliminating grades; at least for the present. For grades will only disappear when the emphasis has ceased to exist.

Assuming then that grades are a necessity, and since one student is compared against another by his grades, we think it only just that an effort be made to give each student his just desserts. This can not be accomplished, however, as long as one professor is grading on a curve based entirely on test results; another grading on a combination of attendance, attitude, class contributions, and test results; while still another may go as far as to allow personal prejudice and past performance record of the student enter into the grade. We feel that this latter situation could be improved a great deal by the introduction of a standard grading system, preferably objective. And this, coupled with a more rigorous system of giving exams (one that would eliminate almost all cheating) would, we think, improve the grading system a great deal. At least it would be far more just. And we think it worth consideration.

Inquiring Reporter . . .

By Dick Baer

In the last issue of the Jambar the student body was confronted with the possibility of having the Youth center for Youngstown College students to use as a recreation center. The center is equipped with a snack bar, ping-pong tables, pool tables, a dance floor and places where sororities, fraternities and organizations of the school could hold meetings. The center is also conveniently located on E. Rayen ave. across from McMillan library. In an effort to help student council find out just how the students feel about the center the Inquiring Reporter asks the following question:

DO YOU THINK YOUNGSTOWN COLLEGE SHOULD SECURE THE YOUTH CENTER TO BE USED AS A RECREATION CENTER FOR YOUNGSTOWN COLLEGE STUDENTS?

WILLIAM W. PARMENTER, 25, Senior, Chemistry Major, Class Pres.
 I think that we should secure the Youth center for a recreation center to be used by the students. It is quite obvious that the lounge is not adequate for the purpose it is intended to fulfill. With proper supervision the Youth center could be turned into a place where a student could relax BETWEEN CLASSES.

ALICE DORNBROCK, 19, Sophomore, English Major
 I believe that the number of students now attending Youngstown College makes it imperative that the school seek a larger place for the students to relax. The Youth center is perfect in size, distance, and accommodations.

BILL REED, 22, Sophomore, Pre-Law Major
 Every school the size of Youngstown College has a recreation center for its students so I think it is a very good idea to secure the center for this purpose.

JOANNE CAMPBELL, 19, Sophomore, Chemistry Major
 I am very much in favor of getting the Youth center for the students of the college. We need a place where students can go during their spare time besides the lounge. It would provide a place for dancing and recreation which would be much better than just sitting in a crowded lounge. It would provide a place for sororities, fraternities and other clubs to meet. We should definitely rent the Youth center for use by the students.

MILDRED NOUFER, 19, Sophomore, Elementary Education Major
 I think the Youth center should be used as a recreational center for the college students. Except for the crowded lounge we have no place in which to gather. We need a center close to the college where we can spend our spare time. I hope that student council will approve of the Youth center as a recreation center.

JOSEPH KEELING, 22, Freshman, Accounting Major, Air Force Vet.
 For students having long periods of time between classes I think the idea is excellent. However, there are many students who do not have time to frequent a place of this type. In my opinion the money needed for this project could be used for better purposes.

Campus Comments

By Kenny Love

Perhaps the most accurate, best expressed opinion that this writer has heard in years originated the other day across a cup of coffee at the Lincoln. In response to my querie as to how she liked the Mardi Gras dance, a certain prettie came across profoundly with this great quip, "It stunk!" An answer which is in the opinion of many, at least, literally true.

"Now what in the name of his multifarious experiences is he talking about?" you ask—you who so wisely stayed home and played checkers on that eventful eve. Well, brother, this one heads the list! The Newman Club held a dance the other night and they called it the Mardi Gras. It was a formal dance and was held at the Stambaugh auditorium. A place where one is apt to run into the strangest things. It seems that there was also a circus in town that day, the final performance to be given at 8 o'clock. And where? Why the Stambaugh auditorium, of course. But the auditorium is a spacious place and perfectly capable of harboring a dance and a circus at the same time. And it did.

The YoCo belles put on their elegant dresses (some of the dresses were eloquent—they spoke for themselves), the boys pressed their Sunday suits and dug down into their starving pockets for funds with which to buy posies for their dates. And off they went with spirits high, ready for the big shindig.

ARE YOU SURE?

Soon they were arriving in twos and fours. And as they stepped through the portals of the great auditorium, their heads held proudly, their eyes shining, it hit them—the unmistakable smell of meat in large, live quantities. Some merely froze in their tracks and looked pitifully at each other with suddenly dulled eyes, others turned to their escorts and gasped, "Are you sure we're in the right place?" To which their escorts gasped back in their most romantic voices, "Come, darling, let me show you the elephants."

DEARIE, WHAT BIG EARS YOU HAVE!

And there they were—Barnum's answer to the meat shortage. Rajah and His Joy, reclining demurely in one corner of the dance floor, all decked out in their best slate grey hides and their toenails painted a beautiful wine red—the celebrities of the evening! So there you have, "little man who wasn't there"; one of the strangest phenomena that ever graced a college dance. And to those of you that have a great craving for the sight of huge animals—you should have gone. But for this brat, orchids and elephants just don't mix, for I'm one of those strange people that likes romance with my dances. And to me elephants aren't exactly the essence of romance. Furthermore, when I pay out hard earned money for posies for my frau, I want to be able to smell that particular posie, be it ever so lowly—even dandelions. But fortunately that is just one man's opinion and it takes all kinds to make a world. But it really was a unique affair—and just to think, I almost bought a ticket to that dance!

Looking Around... . . . with BUD SCHERMER

During the past fortnight there has been a deal of conjecturing 'round and about the school, as to whether or not "leettle Pancho" really knows anybody—except SCHERMER and the members of "the club"—as he so fondly refers to them. Being slightly prejudiced in this matter—I wouldn't attempt to give an answer. Also there has been more than the usual amount of griping about "all the time the same names" in Looking Around. Well, in reply to that accusation I can say that you can't write news about people who are not news. But—to prove once and final that "leettle Pancho" and I are cut from different cloth—this week, at great effort and no expense spared—I bring you a GOSSIP COLUMN—no drama—no travelogue—just GOSSIP.

Incidentally—to my knowledge—none of the following people's names have ever appeared in Looking Around before. But don't take my word for this—check me on it.

To begin with—there is a young lady here in school—the first initials of her last name are ALMA JOHNSON—who thinks that we rude crude men who go about embracing women—that is, putting our arms around them casually by way of a friendly greeting—in the halls are just perfectly terrible. Relax, Alma honey—it ain't never going to happen to you.

Me thinks that if ALICE DORNBROCK keeps running after LEE RUSSELL at the present pace—she is going to run right over him. If Alice is interested, I can furnish testimonials from girls who have over guys—that is, Can't we, G. D.? . . . It seems to me that she, CHARLOTTE AGLER, has been dating him, RONALD PEEBLES, pretty steady of late. The other night—a new one—Tod Boldtman—came around in his new car to take her for a ride. Out near Meander Dam—a flat tire—so out to flag a car for help—second car stopped—and out stepped—Mr. Ronald Peebles. . . . BONNIE BEAL and WALTER SANDERSON are a heart-toddy. . . . And PATRICIA ARKINS and GRANT GILLMAN are a four alarm fire.

NANCY ADLER pulled a nifty—"Man is a perpetual-motion machine—and always the same notion." . . . PAUL BOLHAM is a slick operator—he's been getting away with a gag for several months. It works like this: Paul keeps his ears open and when he hears that some young gal that he has an interest in has a date with some other guy for an important social function—he calls her up and asks for a date for the same event—thereby getting credit for a nice gesture in the little girl's scorebook. A few weeks past Paul got the word that JEANNE DICKINSON had a date for the Mardi Gras—so he called her up—even though he already had a date with MARIE ALBAUGH. He said "Do you?" She said "No." A long silence—gulp—"Well, I do," and he hung up.

By the way—any of you that missed seeing the Mardi Gras were asked if they could make a bed. The boys said yes—and were promptly handed a hammer and saw and told to get busy. . . . The way JANET CALVERT and TONY HANNIN are acting these days—if they were married folk—I'd say they had Reno-in-the-beano.

Calling Mr. Anthony! MIKE BIEGLER and WILLA MAE BANFASH are an old established twosome—but I'm told that Willa Mae years after GUY EMBER—in vain—for not only is Guy usually out with DORIS POUND—but he looks somewhat more than longingly at VERONICA HIGBEY. Veronica—at the time of this writing, is unattached—but does she return Guy's longing looks—no. Veronica mumbles nice things under her breath about VIC FISHER. Vic, in turn, is rather fond of the doings and sayings of LOUISE ADAMS. And here is the twist—Louise is pushing the stardust out of her eyes put there by Guy Ember. Also—Mike Biegler—now that Willa Mae is straying—is hoping to make some time with Louise. Doris Pound further complicates matters by having designs on Vic Fisher. In a diagram it would look something like this: Boy-sub 1 goes with Girl-A. Girl-A goes after Boy-B—who goes with Girl-sub 2 and would like to go with Girl-C. Girl-C goes after Boy-D—who follows Girl-E—Girl-E goes over to Boy-B. Boy-sub 1 goes for Girl-E—and Girl-sub 2 goes after Boy-D. Got it? Didja ever go window shopping—ever buy any windows? One of the campus-low-lives was in the Lincoln the other day and ordered some cheese. "Do you want that on a sandwich or in a trap?" niftied the waitress. . . . Why is it that some guys just can't leave another guy's girl alone—like Frinstance: DAN BOSWICK, HARRY FOYE and PAUL REIDER. Of course the guys aren't the only offenders—there are females amongst us who have trouble that way too: ALICE BACINE, LOIS HECKNER, MARYLYN SMITH, JUNE BERAY and PEG FRANCO. . . . Overheard in the library: HAL BODNER was telling ROY CALLOS, "When I came back from overseas I was crazy to see a woman. I hadn't seen one in over 18 months. The first girl I saw I dragged out to the tennis courts. Would you believe it, she beat me three straight sets?"

This is something I cannot understand—you would think that any guy getting married these days would be only too glad to have it known—what with the increase he would get in those subsistence checks—and the wedding presents that are handed out these days—but FOSTER BLACKMAN and EMMA COLKER are keeping their nuptials a deep dark secret—as are DICK BRICKNEY and MARTHA KELLOGG. Don't say anything to anyone about this just yet though—I wouldn't want the kids to think that I had violated their confidences. . . . HARWOOD BRANCHIER asks what are nylon, but the answer to a maiden's pair? . . . Are ANNE ALLEN, SALLY GATEL, THELMA BARRY, and quite a few others I could name—just keeping up false fronts these days? Hows about this girls, hmmmhmmhmm?

Guess that about wraps it up for this time. Glad you could make it—try and be here when I come around again. I'll hope to see you all—same place—same space—same time—next time.

With the Greeks

The Greeks are looking forward to their big social affair of the year, the Pan-Hellenic dance. Their plans for the rest of the semester are being formulated and some of the organizations are planning for rushing.

ALPHA THETA DELTA —

Alpha Theta Delta sorority held a meeting Feb. 13 at Buechner hall. The pledges of last semester, Billie Carr and Nancy Fannier, were installed as members. They will be given the rough initiation with the pledges for this semester. Following the installation spruce a business meeting was held at which plans were discussed for the rush season that begins soon.

The Alpha Deltas have two bowling teams in the intra-mural league. Although, the teams are not in the lead, they are doing well for beginners. The Deltas, the one team, are ahead of the Alphas, the other team.

GAMMA SIGMA —

The last meeting of Gamma Sigma was held at Mary Vesey's home; Marge Uray was co-hostess. Plans for social affairs for the new semester were discussed including several dances and dinners. The sorority voted to give the Neon their wholehearted support. The Sig Deltas joined the sorority after the meeting.

A party with the Sig Deltas will be held tonight at the American Legion hall on Spring st. Connie Taylor is chairman.

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA —

Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity held a meeting at the YMOA, room 203, on Feb. 18. Plans were discussed for their "Stag or Drag" Dance to be held April 4th. The affair will be open to the public. The fraternity is not rushing this semester.

PHI GAMMA —

Phi Gamma discussed plans for rushing and their coming spring banquet at a meeting at the college Feb. 18. The fraternity nominated Ruth Sweeney, Phi Lambda Delta, as one of the candidates for Pan-Hellenic queen. P. J. Organ has been appointed fraternity fireman.

Mike Kirwan represented Phi Gamma at the National Fraternity council convention at Columbus last week.

A basketball game with the Sig Deltas on March 14 will be followed by a buffet lunch for the two fraternities. Both will be held at the Y. M. C. A.

PHI LAMBDA DELTA —

The Phi Lams are sponsoring a tea for freshman girls and transfer students this afternoon. The tea which is held in conjunction with other sororities and independent women is a semester affair held solely for the purpose of getting acquainted with new students. It will be held in the main auditorium on the first floor from 3 until 5 o'clock.

Pioneer pavilion was the scene of a sport hop sponsored by the Phi Lambda Delta alumni. The dance was held last evening and the actives wish to thank the alumni for a terrific time.

SIGMA DELTA BETA —

Election of officers was held Tuesday, Feb. 18, at the VFW. The new officers include: Robert Boyd, president; Jack Maikranz, vice president; Paul Fergus, treasurer; Duane Rodgers, corresponding secretary, and Tom Manche, recording secretary. Retiring president, Loring Sheffield, turned the meeting over to Boyd and his new officers and wished the new president luck and success.

Several joint parties with other Greek organizations are in the offing.

The library announces that they now have bantam pocket novels on sale in the study hall. These better stories can be purchased for the small sum of 25 cents. Many editions which are scarce in the drug and department stores can be bought here. Literature students may be interested to know that many of their reading requirements are included in the selection.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON —

Plans for the Phi Sig dance to be held April 25 at Stambaugh auditorium are being made. The affair is to be informal and Sammy Monte will play for dancing. Brothers John Henderson, Don Rylander and Dave Miller are back on the fraternity active list.

The next meeting will be held next Tuesday. Dick Eiseman is in charge of plans for rushing season which will be discussed at that time.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA —

Sigma Sigma Sigma is not part of a broken record but the name of the fraternity that has been undergoing organization since last semester. The constitution was approved by the student council last month.

At the initial meeting the following officers were elected: William Bangas, president; Karl Krock, vice president; Earl Farragher, secretary; Gordon McDowell, treasurer; and Eugene Kavanaugh social chairman. The student council representative has not been selected and shall be elected at the meeting which will be held on Feb. 28.

The Tri-Sigs have chosen as its purpose the promotion of good fellowship and social improvement. It is the hope that this organization will be able to aid its members in their social rehabilitation since all of the members at this time are veterans.

The organization would like to take this time to express its thanks and appreciation to all those of the faculty and student body for their kind assistance. A special thanks goes to Lola Raptun, Pat Ford and several others who contributed their efforts towards the selection of the organization's name.

2,439 College Students X-Rayed by Mobile Unit

Miss Houser, Youngstown College nurse, reports that 9,697 students were x-rayed in Mahoning county by the mobile x-ray unit that visited here some weeks ago.

Of these, 2,439 were students of Youngstown College, a number which constitutes 80 per cent of the student body. Out of this number there were only 33 cases with pathological findings. These people were sent letters asking them to see Miss Houser for consultation. Those who received no notification had x-rays with negative results.

Miss Houser wishes to thank all students for their fine co-operation and urges those who have not yet been x-rayed to do so as soon as possible.

The new x-ray unit has been established downtown at the Dollar Bank building, and expects to be ready for business within the next 30 days.

NEWS — from Other Colleges

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY, LA.

Thomas Meunier is a graduate law student who was either born two years too soon or was born too smart. At 19 he has his law degree and has passed his state bar examination, but he can not practice until he becomes 21 years old.

"It's true I can't go into court as an attorney yet, but think of all the experience I'll have when I'm of age to be admitted to the bar," Tom said. "I'll have two years more than the average 21-year-old graduate." While waiting to grow older he is doing legal work for the Social Security administration.

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

G. E. "Skip" Landen of Stuttgart, Ark., took a lesson from the turtle when he decided to enroll at the university. Seeing that the turtle carried his house wherever he went and thus never lacked for a place to "shack up," he figured he could do the same. He bought a 2 1/2 ton truck from the army, put in a refrigerator, a bed, stove and other housekeeping necessities. When he had installed enough to make the truck a fair living place, he took off for school.

Since arriving at the university he has installed shelves, a built-in radio and a sink. The only other feature needed to make his home complete will have to wait. "There ain't enough room for a wife and a radio, too," said Skip, "so I choose the radio — better company."

OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Ohio Wesleyan university played host to the state-wide "Search for World Security" institute held Feb. 28 and to continue on to March 2. Two hundred students from more than a dozen Ohio colleges were expected to attend. The institute is being sponsored by the Columbus branch of the American Friends Service committee, the social service division of the American Society of Friends, better known as the Quakers. The time is to be spent for lectures, discussion periods and prayer service. Here's hoping they come to a sensible decision. Most of us are becoming rather bored with these pseudo-lecturers who claim they have a message for the world.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

Robert Bock, a sophomore of the University of Kansas was elected to the political office of the college student's dreams. Bock ran for office in the Kansas State House of Representatives — and won. Bock is the youngest representative ever to be elected, being only 21 years old. This only goes to show you. You can't keep the veterans out of anything these days.

YOUNGSTOWN COLLEGE

Heredity is something no man wants to believe until his own children start to act like fools.

TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

Frances Myers, a student at Florida State college for women, was completely surprised recently when she received a large and very long box from Rockmart, Ga. Her friends gathered around her as soon as they heard about the strange occurrence, and insisted that she open the darn thing and see what it was. Hurriedly she scrambled around for a claw hammer. When it was opened (the box) there lay exposed to the surprised and somewhat shocked eyes of the girls a nude skeleton. The only discrepancy left now is the fact that Frances says she doesn't know anyone in Rockmart, Ga.

Procedure Altered For Changing Registration

The process for changing registration has been altered to make the handling of attendance records more efficient. The rules are generally the same, but the following procedure is outlined so that all students may have a clear understanding of the process.

1. Consult with your advisor before attempting a change.
 2. Get a change of registration form from the main office.
 3. See the instructor of the class you wish to enter and get his approval and signature.
 4. See the teacher of the class you wish to drop and get his approval and signature. See that the instructor marks the last date you attended class and the kind of work you were doing at the time of withdrawal on the change of registration form.
 5. Then get your advisor's signature.
 6. Make new class cards if they are needed.
 7. Pay the change of registration fee at the bookstore and take the receipt with change of registration form to the main office. Veterans as well as non-veterans must pay their own fee before approval will be given.
 8. If you are a veteran you must get approval from Mr. Pickard's office before returning to the registrar's office.
 9. After all instructors and the business manager have approved the change it should be returned to the main office where Miss Hainley will approve it and keep it. (In case of a veteran Mr. Pickard must okay a drop check on veteran's benefits, turning in of books, letter explaining drop, BEFORE registrar can give the final approval mentioned in step eight.)
- When the registrar accepts a change of registration all the foregoing steps must be completed. The business office will then revise the bill (if it is different) and present it to the individual concerned. The attendance officers from the registrar's office will see that the class cards are removed to their new place of repose in the proper instructor's box. Instructors are then expected to make the appropriate notations on their class lists the next time grades are reported for the semester.

RELAXING . . . with the . . . WAXINGS . . .

By Harry Meshel

*Latch on hip kitties and you shall hear
The tale of some discs as dug by ear.
Dreamed up, written, grooved on wax;
Some so great you'll freeze in your tracks.
Lace up your boots and tighten the knot—
If these don't move you, try a shot.*

For all you piano fans, ERROL GARNER, the rage of the West Coast, has an album out with six really fine sides. Among them you'll find ALWAYS, EMBRACEABLE YOU and I CAN'T GET STARTED WITH YOU. This Pittsburgh cat can't read a note of music but that doesn't deter him from playing some of the greatest stuff heard today. Furthermore, he doesn't care to learn how to read music. He just wants to play what and how he feels.

Another superb pianist without whose work no record library is complete is ART TATUM. This true genius of the piano has examples of his work enclosed within the covers of the folder, PIANO IMPRESSIONS. A few of the numbers included in the album are LOVER, RUNNING WILD and MEMORIES OF YOU. Along with the King Cole trio, Art Tatum's Trio was one of the highest paid combos in the business. Art's technique is so brilliant it allows him to play and express anytime, anything he feels within him. He meddles the peddles not madly, but gladly, and is imitated often but sometimes sadly.

Another album entry into the jazz concert field is RALPH BASS'S "JUNIOR JAZZ" Volume 1. Some of the musicians expounding their musical ideas in this session are HOWARD MCGEE, the re-bop artist, LUCKY THOMPSON and LES ROBINSON. Two parts of "BIG NOISE" etched, feature the screamin' trumpet of McGee and a stormy tenor by Thompson. Piano and bass are prominent between the edges of this oval also. The all-time favorite, "BODY AND SOUL," serves as a well chosen vehicle for Les Robinson's alto. On this, Les mouths a touching horn.

Presenting b. w. from a new angle, EARLE SPENCER'S idea of PROGRESSIONS IN BOOGIE are found in the album of the same name. His purpose in issuing this book of shellac is to illustrate the advancement in boogie from the early stages to what future ideas are now in the making. If you like boogie and don't mind stolen stuff (very Kenton-like arrangements) you may go for these sides of musical rides.

YoCoite and fronter of one of the finest combos in the district, JOHNNY GARDNER has a deal on with Lionel Hampton to record a sextet of numbers for the Hamp's "Hamptone Record Co." Johnny masterfully manicores the ivories on "ST. LOUIS BLUES" while that mad drummer man, AL REYNOLDS, takes the vocal on ROUTE 66. A special arrangement of THIS THING CALLED LOVE by BOB CHRIST, ace trumpet man, gives Al the vocal while showcasing Bob's tasty horn. The whole unit gets on a vocal kick when they shout "THAT'S MY WEAKNESS NOW." "THE BLUES IN B FLAT" presents the great group in a jam session with each of the boys flippin' their tips, JOE McCRAE'S driving doghouse heard throughout. JUNIE LUNCEFORD, Jimmy's brother, weaves a fine pattern with an inspired tenor to TINY'S TUNE. The date of their release will appear in this column. Till then you can dig these cats in person.

DeLuxe Records has the BENNY CARTER band on "REBOP

BOOGIE." The leader's always good alto paves the way till a tram takes over about halfway through with some fair bop. On the reverse side runs by the reed section open up MEXICAN HAT DANCE. Bumps Meyers blows some relaxed tenor, then Benny brings forth a little more of his horn.

WASTED WAX DEPT:
Guy Lombardo and family on "Anniversary Song" and "The Christmas Song." Two fine pieces lost in a syrup mill.

DOUBLE LATHOS
(Greek for "error"):
That's "SATURDAY MATINEE" and not "Matinee Melodies" as was stated in the last issue. And "JAZZ AT THE PHILHARMONIC" will be spun tomorrow and not last week. Any of you who would like to attend these Saturday broadcasts from 1:05 p. m. to 2:00 p. m. may pick up passes at any of the local record shops. Those of you who cannot or who do not have time to procure a pass may drop in at WFMJ around five minutes to the hour and will be admitted as long as the seats hold out. Announcer McNeely says the welcome mat is out to all.

The digits on the timepiece say half-past three,
These nocturnal efforts are bushing me.
Hoping I'll wake up feeling strong,
So, like the disc, I'll be spinning along.

Women's Tea Scheduled For This Afternoon

This afternoon there will be a tea for all of the women of the college. It will be held in the school auditorium from 2:00 till 5:00. The program will consist of six or seven musical selections presented by students in the Dana musical institute.

The tea is an annual affair to better acquaint the freshmen women with the organizations and other women of the college. This year it is being presented by the social organizations.

The committees include: Phi Lambda Delta, publicity and invitations; Gamma Sigma, refreshments; Alpha Theta Delta, decorations; and the Independents, program.

Faculty Members Hold Own Mardi Gras Feb. 22

Faculty members of Youngstown College held a gala Mardi Gras party at the Pioneer pavilion Saturday, Feb. 22. Approximately 60 guests attended the delightful costume affair. Prizes for the most colorful and original costumes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Meiners. Square dancing featured throughout the evening with Mr. Henderson calling. The Washington day theme, in red and white colors with tiny hatchets, featured the delightful buffet luncheon.

Mrs. George Wilcox, chairman of the year's committee, was capably assisted by the following social committee: Mrs. Raymond Falls, chairman, Mrs. Joseph Smith, Mrs. Howard Jones, Mrs. Louis Deesz, Miss Vera Jenkins, Miss Evans and Mrs. Nellie Dehn-bostel.

COLLEGE GRADS WILL BE TOMORROW'S MUSICIANS, SAYS BENNY GOODMAN

By Benny Goodman

Leadership in musical progress and advancement of musicianship will come from America's new crop of university men and women.

I've come to realize the importance of this fact during my six-month stay in California. During these months I have had occasion to work with and to observe many of the new college bred musicians, and I have learned the true extent of the campus influence on modern American music.

Benny Goodman

First, let's take the trends of music. It is the endorsement of campus people across the country that seals the fate of new music. Back in the twenties and the wild college days, we led into an era of rather fantastic musical arrangements.

The more serious nature of today's university students is reflected in today's music. The best and most acceptable must have a studied perfection to meet approval of the critical college group. Musicians who fail to recognize this do not last long at the top, if they ever get there.

Don't misunderstand me. I have no ax to grind with the musician who never went to college. I had no college education myself, for that matter. But I feel strongly that we are getting an increasingly better type of musician from the college group. They not only understand the pulse of today's music better, but they are helping to raise the level of all popular music.

There was a time when the music expression of America came primarily from the violent emotions of large groups of underprivileged people.

But America has come far. The standard of living of the entire country has been raised. The nation suffered the pains of yet another great war, but the growth continued. Today we have more people attending universities than ever before. These influences are already being felt in the music of America, and more and more we must look to the university educated to help us give adequate interpretation to that music.

That is why I feel sure that a large part of my next band will be made up of university-educated musicians. They are the young men of the day. They are the ones who must give voice to the emotions of a people whose standard of living is higher than any others in the world. They are the ones who must give us leadership.

Many college musicians have already played a part in this musical growth. Some good examples are Woody Herman, Marquette university; Les Brown, Duke university; Jimmie Lunceford, Fisk university; Paul Weston, Dartmouth college and Columbia university; and Fred Waring, Pennsylvania state college. Blue Jayes Capture National Loop Title; DANA Take American League Honors

ELI DANILOV IS LEADING SCORER WITH 16-POINT AVERAGE; CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYOFF AT Y. M. C. A. MARCH 3-4-5

By Ralph Goldich
(Jambar Sports Editor)

Boasting an impressive seasonal record of nine wins and no losses, the rampaging Blue Jayes were crowned champions of the National division of the Intra-mural basketball league. Composed of a well balanced combination of speedsters, set-shot artists and a passing attack that moved the basketball like a bolt of lightning, the Tony DeGeorge coached boys showed plenty of class in pounding out decisions over opposition that was plenty tough.

The one-two punch of Louis "Red" Angelo, a brilliant floor man, and Eli Danilov's uncanny marksmanship, figured prominently in the scoring punch of the squad. Danilov won the league scoring honors, pushing through 146 points, an average of 16 per game.

Over in the American league the season ended in a three-way tie. The Nu Sigma Rho, Dana musical institute and the Newman club quintets finished with a record of 7-2. To determine the champion of the loop a playoff was held. Dana's drew a bye while the Newman club was going down to defeat at the hands of the Nu Sigma Rho cagers, 33 to 28. In the final playoff the Dana's handed the Nu Sigma Rho their most costly defeat, 42 to 39. This was a hard-fought battle. Zangara of the Nu Sigs was banished from the game in the first period for unnecessary roughness. His loss was keenly felt by the Rho quintet, who figured Don was unjustly banished from the game by referee Pete Prokop.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 3, 4 and 5, the championship playoffs will be held at the Y. M. C. A., pitting the Blue Jayes against the Dana's. This game should provide plenty of action, the stakes are high, the boys are in top physical condition. The basketball crown of the school will be worn by the victor.

In the preliminary game of the championship affair, an all-star team chosen from each league will play one another. Members of the National league all-star team are as follows the American league team is as yet unannounced):

- American League All-Stars
- M. Bartelmay Aces
 - Lanzi Phi Sigs
 - Belttempo Varsity Hall
 - Chuey Phi Gams
 - Markos Renz
 - Teets Atomic Bombers
 - Bulgozdy Aces

Old scores were evened when St. Francis came from behind to whip the Penguins, 56-48. The YoCoites had everything their way during the first half but St. Francis waged an uphill struggle in the last half and thereby put the damper on the last home game of the Penguins. By William Halferty

Here's some good news for you boys and girls. Bonus payments received by veterans enrolled in educational institutions under the G. I. Bill and engaged in outside work must be reported as earnings to the Veterans administration. VA officials said there is no difference between bonuses given as gifts and incentive bonuses given by many business firms as a regular annual-pay policy. Both should be reported as earnings to the VA. "Compensation for productive labor means wages, salary, commission, bonus or other payments received by a veteran by reason of his employment." They seem to be counting our bonus before it's hatched. Anyway the neck of the chicken is better than none.

Student veterans who have received their terminal leave bonds and who wish to do so may assign their terminal bonds to the Veterans administration as payments on their National Service life insurance should obtain the necessary forms from the nearest VA office. VA representatives will assist veterans in assigning their bonds and will give up-to-date information regarding the G. I. insurance. The VA does not issue terminal leave bonds; the law authorizes VA to accept the bonds in connection with NSLI payments. The bonds may be used to pay premiums on insurance already in force, to purchase new insurance, to reinstate lapsed insurance, to pay the amount required when converting term insurance to permanent forms and to repay policy loans made prior to July 31, 1946.

The VA is now in a position to provide prompt and efficient insurance service, an improvement over the below-par service which prevailed before VA decentralized its insurance program from New York to its various branch offices, including Branch office No. 6, 52 S. Starling St., Columbus 8, O., for Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky. Insurance benefits were materially extended and liberalized by Congress last fall. Amendments to the NSLI Act of 1940 provide endowment types of policies which were not included in the original law, permit the naming of beneficiaries outside the restricted classes included in the original bill, and offer lump sum payments and total disability benefits which were not previously available. You should not convert to the permanent type of insurance until you know what your financial capabilities and insurance needs will be. Permanent forms of insurance include ordinary life, 30 payment life, 20 payment life, endowment at the age of 65, endowment at the age of 60 and 20 year endowment. Go to the VA contact office for further information.

Student veterans who can show that they developed certain chronic diseases within one year after discharge from the service may be entitled to service connected disability compensation. Benefits may include compensation, outpatient treatment and priority in hospitalization. The provision applies to T. B., arthritis, epilepsies, psychoses, endocarditis and others which the veteran did not have prior to induction but occur within a year after discharge. Go after it if you want it because they sure don't come after you unless there is a war in the offing.

AMERICAN VET COMMITTEE

temporary officers have been: John R. Cvengros, temporary chairman; Mildred Canon, secretary; and Thomas McFadden, treasurer. The temporary planning committee has been: Oliver Davis, Robert Leopard, Alex Chubak, John Cvengros and Bob Weyer.

McFadden on WKBN
Thomas McFadden represented the YoCo American Veterans committee on the "Let's Talk It Over" program last Sunday. This broadcast is a regular Sunday feature of WKBN. McFadden outlined the activities and proposed activities of the new A. V. C. chapter and expressed his opinion on veteran attitude and conditions at Youngstown College.

New Members Welcomed
All students, faculty and alumni are invited to join the YoCo American Veterans committee. Prospective members may attend the meetings and join if they wish. A visitor is not obligated to become a member.

YO-CO STUDENTS WIN PRIZES
