

All Greeks Keep Warm In Old Barn

by Elie Clark

With a gust of wind and snow the Greeks on campus arrived at the Old Barn, south of here. It was an evening off for the fraternities and sororities busy with rushing.

As the writer arrived everyone was busy gabbing and listening to the band of Dick Marlowe, known to us as Dick McCullom of Pi Beta Chi, ward Morrisroe of Kappa Sigma Kappa who was drafted by Pan-Hel to be the chairman of the party was busy pouring out food and "cookes".

All the early "class-cutters" and loafers soon began an "exciting" game of "rhythms", "crazy man, crazy." As the evening wore on the Greeks tried out the floor for dancing and found it in grand condition.

Ends on Knees

Some fancy dancing was put on by the guys, each trying to outdo the other. One Sam Drake, a Phi Sig, even ended up on his knees, those "crazy slides". Bill Lavowsky of Nu Sigma Rho thought it looked swell but as usual his main interest was on the food. Missed was Nancy "O" of Gamma Sigma and her usual antics.

The calm before the storm inside had no effect however on the blizzard that was raging outside so it wasn't very late before the guys and queens began to leave. Everyone declared though that more Greek mixers should be held, in Florida where it is warm.

Begin College Series on TV

The first in a series of half-hour programs by Youngstown College was held recently over WKBN-TV.

The series will consist of musical programs from the Dana School of Music, productions depicting educational activities of the college, and round table discussions with faculty members, students, and representatives of various phases of community life outside the college.

The Bricker Amendment was the topic for discussion on the first program.

Programs of the series are scheduled for March 21 and March 28 after which they will appear regularly on alternate Sunday afternoons.

Open WRA Drive; Offer All Sports

The Women's Recreational Association is currently holding their membership drive which will be held annually after this year. Membership is open to any woman student on campus.

The organization was organized to provide recreational activities for Youngstown College women and was started in 1950 under the name, Women's Intramural Planning Board.

At that time only two sports were offered, volleyball and basketball. Since that time badminton, fencing, softball, archery, field hockey, and recreational sports have been added.

Over 700 students participated in the group sponsored activities in 1952-53 and 400 have participated so far this year. Tournaments are also held in which the various clubs on campus can participate as teams.

The present organization officers are: Fran Restelli, president; Rosalie Centofanti, vice president; Noreen Bennett, secretary; Virginia Gething, treasurer; Dee Labriola, sports board chairman. WRA was granted a charter by Student Council this fall.

At the present time, recreational volleyball is being offered at the women's physical education depart-

Candidates Await Vote

A Queen of the May will be selected from this quartet of senior coeds. In elections being held today, full-time seniors will vote for the girl of their choice. May Day on the Youngstown College campus has been set for May 21. Candidates are: (l to r) Norma Deramo, Nancy Crofford, Evy Nannicola, and Ruth Lanz.

Tryouts To Begin For YoCohooey

by Eddie Simon

YoCo-Hooey, after a slight postponement, has been scheduled for production this semester. An appeal for acts has been made and anyone who has ability or desires to work on YoCo-Hooey is welcome to try-out. The type of production will be determined by the number and types of acts available.

Possibilities are, a variety type show with a format of vaudeville acts, a review, similar to TV productions, or an original musical comedy, "The Golden Apple," written by Dr. and Mrs. Hanson, visiting lectures in the department of language and literature.

Try-out dates announced for the show are:

- Monday, March 15 - 11-12 a.m. - 3-5 p.m.
- Tuesday, March 16 - 11-12 a.m. - 1-3 p.m.
- Wednesday, March 17 - 1-3 p.m. - 8-9 p.m.
- Thursday, March 18 - 1-2 p.m.
- Friday, March 19 - 1-3 p.m.

Monday, March 22 has been set as the final meeting date for all those interested in the production. The meeting will be held back stage in the Strouss Auditorium, 7 to 10 p.m. Also scheduled for production if there is interest, is a play entitled "The Bishop Misbehaves," "a

Local Engineers Plan to Attend Akron Conclave

AKRON, O. - Student engineers from Youngstown College will take part in the 76th annual convention of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers in Akron March 25-27. Richard Frank and Robert Dorie local OSPE officers have made reservations for their group.

According to Harold Webb of Akron student program chairman, student delegations from Ohio State University, Ohio University, the University of Dayton, Ohio Northern University, and Youngstown have made advance reservations. Students from other Ohio engineering colleges are also expected to take part.

Akron Chapter Hosts

The O.S.P.E. student chapter of the University of Akron will be host to visiting students.

Student engineers will have a full program of activities, including a field trip through the B.F. Goodrich Company Saturday, March 27.

Their first day in Akron will feature a student council meeting, under the direction of Harold Webb, newly elected council president, to introduce engineering students from throughout the state. This will be followed by a barbecue and square dancing in the Mayflower Hotel.

Carlton is Speaker

Main speaker at the student meeting March 27 will be Professor E.W. Carlton of the Missouri School of Mines, who will discuss "Professional Thinking in Engineering Education."

John E. Kallgren, general convention chairman, has announced that more than 1,000 senior engineers and their wives will attend the O.S.P.E. convention.

NO CARD PLAYING

Card playing is not permitted in the cafeteria between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Violations of this regulation is punishable by the Student Faculty Discipline Committee. It has been announced that this rule will be enforced.

Hold Junior Prom, May Day Election; Pick Queen, Court

Elections for May Day and Junior Prom Queens will continue today from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Only full-time Seniors may vote for the May Day Queen and only full-time Juniors for the Junior Prom Queen.

The final list of candidates will not be completed until all petitions have been cleared by the Student Council Discipline Committee. Petitions have been received nominating nine girls.

Junior Prom candidates are Ariene Barnes, Barbara Griffith, Ann Herschel, Nancy Johnson and Aurora Vona. Nancy Crofford, Norma Deramo, Ruth Lanz and Evy Nannicola are May Day Queen candidates.

Miss Barnes, junior, education, is a member of Phi Mu Sorority. She is also a member of RIL, FTA, and Pan Hellenic Council. She is a drum majorette and treasurer of her sorority.

Is Beta Sig

A member of Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority, Barbara Griffith, junior, sociology, is a member of the Sociology Club and belongs to RIL. She is Beta Sig rush chairman.

Junior, sociology, Ann Herschel, is a member of Phi Mu Sorority, JAMBAR reporter, NEON staff member and Newman Club member. Nancy Johnson, junior, education, belongs to Gamma Sigma Sorority, the Drama Guild and is Social Chairman of RIL.

President of Phi Lambda Delta Sorority is Aurora Vona, Miss Vona is also a member of Newman Club. One of these girls, to be elected by members of the Junior class, will reign over the Annual Junior Prom in April.

Nancy Crofford, senior education, is president of Phi Mu Sorority. She is a member of FTA and RIL and listed in Who's Who. She was co-editor of the JAMBAR last year.

A Gamma Sig, Norma Deramo, senior, education, is a member of Newman Club, FTA, and Alpha Pi Epsilon Service Sorority. She is also a Pan Hellenic representative.

Place Cigarette Machine in Cafe For Student Use

A cigarette machine has been installed in the south wing of Central Hall, (cafeteria) courtesy of Saffron Cigarette Service, Youngstown, Ohio. Negotiation of financial terms were completed by former activities committee chairman, Tom Lavin, in a telephone conversation with Mickey Saffron, vacationing in Florida.

Saffron agreed to pay a $100 bonus to Student Council for permitting the installation and workmen recently placed the machine in its present location. Student Council will receive an income of 2¢ per pack on cigarettes sold and proposes to use the money in setting up scholarships for the Editor of the JAMBAR NEON and perhaps the NEON business manager.

Cigarette service men will restock the machine each day, if enough cigarettes are sold. They regularly service a machine in the Wickwood, used extensively by Engineering students, and estimate cafeteria sales will be comparable.

Student Council members pointed out that the cafeteria closes each day at 7 p.m. and a large number of sales will be lost because night students will be unable to get to the machine. A suggestion to approach the administration about installing an additional machine will

"Ugly Man" Contest Should Boost Fund

An "Ugly Man" contest, an effort to put the student book fund over the top, will begin today. The winner of the contest, conducted by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity, will be the man receiving the most votes.

Votes will be in the form of contributions to the fund. Each candidate's picture will appear over a money container placed in the main hall. Contributions may be made any time between now and Wednesday, March 17. "Ugly Men" will be sponsored by male organizations on campus.

Youngstown College students and campus groups have raised $811 toward their share in the $10,000 campaign being conducted by the Association of Friends of Youngstown College Library to buy needed books.

In addition to previous groups reported, Pan-Hellenic Council has made a contribution of $25; Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, $25; and Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, $10.

Classroom solicitation by students brought contributions totaling $396 and a pre-campaign solicitation among students sponsored by Alpha Phi Delta fraternity netted $250.

The goal of students is $1,000 and they expect to meet their share of the campaign. The association is conducting its 16th annual campaign to aid the college library which now has 58,000 volumes.

Dana Music Recital Marks Founder's Day

Students of the Dana School of Music, members of Delta Eta Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia recently presented their founder's day recital in C.J. Strouss Memorial Auditorium.

Musicians on the program will be Andrew Moreland, Dale Guchemand, Frederick Wilson, Donald William Eyo, Ramon Zupko, Don Fernandez, Robert Miller, William Huribert, Eugene Crone, and David Stokan.

Program included vocal, piano, bassoon, trumpet, trombone, and clarinet numbers.

Phi Mu Alpha is a national honorary music fraternity for men and the Delta Eta chapter is for men of the Dana School of Music.

LOT CLOSED

The Wick Ave. parking lot will be closed to student autos during the evening, Tuesday, March 16. The lot will be used by motorists attending a meeting of the Mahoning County Medical Association.

Either Way

Fraternities and sororities are now busily at work doing their "damndest" to increase their membership or at least to keep it stable. These efforts are commonly called "rushing."

Many new and old students will find themselves faced with the decision of either joining a Greek social group or remaining unaffiliated and independent. This is an individual decision and each student must do what is best for him.

There is much to be said for fraternal life. On the other hand there is always the possibility of joining socially with a group not compatible with your temperament and personality. This is a four year social arrangement you are "setting yourself up for."

If you find a group with which you share social interests, your college life can become rich and meaningful. Unsatisfactory affiliation, will however, hurt you, your school, and the organization you join. Decide whether you can best serve yourself and your school as an independent or as a Greek. In either situation put everything into your college life and it will become full, rich and meaningful.

Fraternal Problem

The following excerpts are from a speech delivered by Arthur S. Flemming, National Interfraternity Council President, at the groups annual meeting in Cincinnati last fall, and would seem to indicate that national fraternities are vitally concerned about discriminatory practices and policies within the various fraternal groups. They must and will resolve their own difficulties if they are to continue functioning as "an integral part of our system of higher education."

"Are we in our colleges and universities doing everything within our power, for example to eliminate those prejudices and practices which relate to a man's race, color or creed, rather than to his merits as a man?"

The members of all national fraternities have a voice in the making of laws and policies which will govern them. Only by permitting more and more individuals opposed to intolerance to join these groups can we have any hope of seeing them "resolve their own difficulties." Only then can we see more and more individuals getting behind and supporting President Flemming when he says:

"I believe that we should repeal clauses in the constitutions of our national fraternities that restrict membership on the basis of race, color or creed. If we do so, it will strengthen the entire fraternity system.

As fraternity men let's not even give the appearance of condoning practices that judge a man on the basis of his race, color or creed, rather than on the basis of his merits as a man."

Nehru, In or Out?

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's recent tirade against the United States, for entering into a military aid agreement with Pakistan, and other mutual-defense policies, has once again caused speculation as to just what Nehru's positions are on world affairs.

For the past several months Premier Nehru has shown himself to be definitely anti-American in many speeches. Such actions are certainly impairing good U.S.-Indian relations.

Those who should know always say that the observer, when discussing India and Nehru, should remember that both are in a unique position and that the exceptional conditions of the caste system should always be taken into account.

Those views, of course, are correct. They are expressed to help clarify the mist that surrounds India and her people, and to stop people from taking extreme views without careful consideration.

However, the intelligent person cannot, even after taking into account such factors, but realize that Nehru's policies and actions bring to light a certain amount of hypocrisy.

The Premier's constant offering of peace plans for both the Korean problem and the French-Indo-Chinese war are yaliant, by their own merits.

And yet, who can deny that Nehru, while seeking peace in the world, is still keeping the fire of war burning between India and Pakistan. Strong armed forces line both sides of the border.

By modern standards India is still, among the nations of the world, a child. The country is hampered by the caste system, overpopulation, lack of technical knowledge and, most of all, by "growing pains."

Premier Nehru is a man of great intelligence. His life has been entwined with India's life. The fate of his nation, and its prestige, rests upon his words and deeds.

He must make his choice clear to the world one of these days. In this life and death struggle between Freedom and Communism, especially with the threat of Red invasion at the back door, neutrality is hardly possible.

In all fairness Nehru should let the world know clearly just who his friends are in the family of nations. He should also make clear to the world just who are his enemies. Time is running out.

Question: What do you think of the new cigarette machine in the cafeteria?

Shirley Pitts - Fr.

Hallelujah! The chains of discrimination are freed. No longer must the slave of nicotine risk life and limb crossing the highways of this fair metropolis to get his hands on a pack of cigarettes.

Although there still remains that inevitable fact "cigarettes are cheaper by the carton", I think the machine is a good idea.

Don Melrose - Jr.

Smoking is permitted, with few exceptions, throughout the college. Therefore, it is reasonable to expect to find a cigarette machine on the campus. The cafeteria is a natural habitat for most Yo-Coites, and so it is a logical place to purchase cigarettes. I definitely approve its installation in the cafeteria.

Richard Redmond - Fr.

I think it was a great idea to put a cigarette machine in the cafeteria. Now you don't have to worry about running out of "smokes". It is there for everyone's convenience, and it is being used very often.

Ted Connelly - Jr.

The cigarette machine being placed in the cafeteria was a desirable installation. The reason that this convenience wasn't attained in the past was the belief that there weren't enough smokers to make the project worthwhile. This belief has not held up in view of what can be observed in the cafeteria or in the halls between classes. This machine is not just a convenience, but is also a necessary change.

Betty McMullen - Jr.

Cigarette advertisements have been displayed in the cafeteria for years, but never a machine. Due to the fact that a large percentage of the faculty and students do smoke, I've often wondered why there wasn't one. I'm definitely glad that it has finally been done. It was rather inconvenient before to run across the street to obtain a package of cigarettes.

Mary Summers - Fr.

A cigarette machine in the cafeteria? It just didn't seem true, but seeing was believing, for there it was staring me in the face when I walked in Monday. No more running to the Lincoln to raid their machine. But it also ruins my excuse of being out of them and can't get them until noon. It really is wonderful and I would like to thank whoever was responsible.

THE TIMES

by George Miller

Secretary of State Dulles, and his advisors, are becoming increasingly exasperated with the French for continually putting off a definite decision on the European Defense Community and the question of permitting Germany to re-arm. Settlement of the issue seems far away. Every day lost means a weaker Europe in the face of a constant invasion threat. France is behind in her own defense system in regard to actual manpower.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent's tour around the world is of great importance to Canada. He had two main reasons for taking this trip. He wanted to let the world know that Canada is not to become a "forgotten" nation in the free world. He also wants to do his part to strengthen the British Commonwealth of Nations by promoting goodwill. Canada's wealth and power is growing daily and investors are pouring plenty of money into the country.

Do not be surprised if a speech of great importance comes from President Peron of Argentina in the near future. Things have been too quiet on the Argentine political front and Peron will have to do something pretty big if he wants to stay securely in power. With the death of his wife, Evita, Peron's cause suffers, lacking a popular publicity artist. Evita was a real value to him and her passing hurt him in more ways than one. He can't afford to slip in popularity.

The present series of articles appearing in various national magazines, and written by leading educators across the nation, are aimed at making the public aware of what is felt to be a threat to liberal education in American schools. Directed not only at Senator McCarthy, but at all attempts regarded as dangers to liberal thought, these articles are well worth reading. They may bring about some really serious discussion on the matter.

Efforts to continue investigations of the Kefauver type will be urged by various Congressmen this session. Too many feel that Kefauver's committee was just the beginning and only tapped the surface of the criminal world. Even with some of the big men in jail, the crime business is still strong and on a big scale. The New York waterfront scandals clearly show strong criminal influence.

Judging from a recent sample, the Spaniards will not be very quiet when Queen Elizabeth visits Gibraltar in the near future. Spain wants the island badly because of the strategic importance and the prestige involved. If she could get Gibraltar, it would be a real feather in her cap. Britain does not, intend, however, to give up any of her possessions without a hard fight. Proof of this can be found in the expensive operations in Kenya against the Mau-Mau.

Iran is quietly being built up by her new government. There is still a tremendous amount of work to do before the nation can be financially sound. Ever since the Shah's dramatic return to Iran, plans have been formulated to start the flow of oil into the export barrels possibly sometime this year. Iran looks like one Middle-Eastern country fairly united among many divided nations.

With all the present talk about reducing government expenses, many fear that one government program will be reduced to meet political demands of economy. That is conservation of our natural resources. It's a costly program but extremely important. The present programs are good in themselves but simply are not adequate. The same applies to flood control programs. Many do not realize that money spent now will save countless millions in property damage and loss of lives.

"We Needed a Library" Says Pirie; We Use It

"We needed the library desperately and we are using it to the hilt, exclaimed James W. Pirie, library director, at the close of a typical day recently, that saw 1,866 students and faculty members make use of library facilities.

The main reading room on the first floor, the Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beeghtly Reading Room, was used at the opening of the new semester for registration of students and making of schedules. It was also used for registration when the annual Solo and Ensemble Competition Music Festival was held at Youngstown last year and will be used for the same purpose this year.

Insure Privacy

The stack alcoves, insuring privacy, have been popular from the beginning. There are 11 of these alcoves throughout the building. The use of the individual study carrels is also increasing. At first these carrels were not popular but students are beginning to use them as they see their advantages.

The reference room on the first floor, the Charles N. Crandall Room, is used regularly by both students and faculty. Current periodicals are kept here and the periodical indexes, such as "Readers Guide," make a variety of periodical material easily available. The reference librarian, Mr. Elmer E. Rodgers, assists students in locating specific facts and figures and in getting together material for research papers.

Basement Used

Even the basement of the library is put to use. At registration time, physical examinations are given here and every Thursday ROTC cadets meet here for drill. Faculty offices on the second floor are being used for interviewing and counseling and for private study by faculty members.

The Frank Purnell Room, on the third floor, for reading and browsing is consistently occupied. Here groups congregate for study and discussions, with an informal atmosphere prevailing.

Houses Meetings

The conference room on the third floor houses meetings of student council, alumni committees, pan-hellenic council, and other groups. The visual-aid auditorium is used for showing motion pictures, slides and film strips related to course material.

The nine classrooms in John Tod Hall are used daily from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., and the athletic offices in the basement provides facilities for all phases of intercollegiate athletics.

Elect Candidates

Ruth Lanz, senior, english, belongs to Phi Lambda Delta and is secretary-treasurer of Pan Hellenic council. She is secretary of International Relations Club and a member of RIL.

Senior, education, Ery Nannicola, is the Pan Hellenic representative for Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority. She is a member of Newman Club, FTA and Alpha Pi Epsilon Service Sorority.

One of these girls will be elected May Queen by members of the senior class and will resign over the entire May Day celebration May 21. She will receive her crown at ceremonies during the day and be honored at the dance that night.

PAY SENIOR DUES

Senior class dues may be paid now at the Cashier's office in the Main Building. Degrees for graduating seniors will be withheld until these dues are paid.

Some of the 1,866 students who used library facilities on a typical day recently leave the building. These students, enrolled in the various schools and departments throughout the college, find texts for outside reading related to their courses and facts and figures for research papers.

Grad Sleeps Way Through College

OMAHA, NEBR.—"I slept my way through college", said Nebraska college graduate A.W. Turnbow, who received his degree last June.

This startling statement came as a complete surprise to ex-student Turnbow's professors who had once predicted his college career would end in failure.

Last week graduate Turnbow disclosed his secret. He had been "Sleep-learning." "I'd read many articles on the theory of sleep-learning," he said, but none told me how to go about it. So I made my own sleep-learning device and experimented. I was working full time and trying to carry 19 credit hours at college. I was told I was failing, so I figured I couldn't lose anything."

Time has proven that he didn't

Art Club Will Show National College Prints

A national print competition is being organized and sponsored by the Art Dept. and the College Art Club.

Open only to faculty and students of accredited universities and colleges, the show will be titled, "College Prints 1954."

To be shown first at the Butler Art Institute, the exhibit will travel to art centers of the South West and Mid-West.

Etching, lithograph, silk screen and woodblock will be included in the show as examples of fine print. April 7 is the deadline for all entries and entries should be sent to the YoCo Art Dept.

Will Give Prizes

Youngstown College will give $200 in purchase prizes and Butler Art Institute will offer a $50 prize. The jury of selection will consist of the art faculty of the college, and George D. Culler, director of the Akron Art Institute, will choose the prize winners.

The exhibit will open at Butler Institute on May 2 and continue through May 23. From here it will be on the road through January, 1955, stopping at the Akron Art Institute in June; Bradley University, Peoria, Ill., in July; September at Immaculate Heart College, Los Angeles, Calif.; University of Colorado at Boulder in October; November at University of Wisconsin at Madison; December at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., and ending the tour in January at Columbia Museum of Art, Columbia, S.C.

Greeks Rush, Sponsor, Elect, Honor Founders

Rush parties, campus projects, raffles, founder's day celebrations and election of officers have recently occupied Greek social organizations.

The Gamma Sigs have adopted "Butch" and the Sig Sigs copped first place in YoCo's recent Canned Food Drive. They also elected new officers. The Phi Gams are making plans for their Annual Popularity Dance, while the Nu Sigs have completed their installation.

The Phi Mus commemorated their founders recently and the Phi Sigs, "ditto", later in the week. The Phi Sigs are also petitioning Sig Eps and the Phi Mus have elected officers. Pi Beta Chi congratulated Paul Richardson, newly elected Pan Hel head and the Phi Lams did likewise for Ruth Lantz, secretary-treasurer.

Hold Parties

Beta Sigs had a party and meeting with their alumni. The Sig Deltas and Gamma Sigs recently held a joint meeting at Pollock House. Rushing season is in full swing for all Pan Hel groups.

The Gamma Sigs are enthused about "Butch", a baby boy whose mother died just after he was born and whose father was nearly 'broke'. They have gifted him with stacks of clothing, toys, and now a bright new stroller for spring walks.

A social room was recently acquired by the Phi Gams, where they have been making plans for the Popularity Dance to be held Saturday, March 27 at the Elms. Last years celebrities, Nancy Johnson and Ron Galip will crown this year's most popular girl and boy.

Honor Founders

The 102 birthday of Phi Mu sorority was celebrated with an active and alumni dinner at the Youngstown Club. President Nancy Crofford welcomed the guests and conducted the founder's day services. At a recent meeting the following officers were elected: Arlene Barnes, president, Gerry Lewis, vice president, Jean Santangelo, secretary, Yolie Morano, treasurer, and Sandy Butler, social chairman.

Other Greek elections saw the Sig Sigs install Carl Vennetti, again, as president, Joe Innat, vice president, Bob Rusnak, secretary, Bill Boyzey, treasurer, Jack Story, Social Chairman, Dick Kukura, sergeant-at-arms, Jack Rusnak, historian, and Religion-in-Life Club, which meets on the first and third Sunday of each month, at 8:00 p.m. in the First Christian Church, is conducting a membership drive.

With a variety of entertainment, RIL offers Protestant students the opportunity to meet in common fellowship.

RIL recently held their Annual Banquet at St. John's Church. Rev. Frieling, President Jones, and Rev. Burt welcomed the guests. With Jack Shafer as emcee, a treble sextet composed of Ginny Shelar, Marilyn Ervin, Kay Reilly, Carolyn Browder, Gerry Lewis, and Elaine Ohl sang several selections and

Colonel Lash Discusses American Military Gov't

"American Military Government" was the subject of Lt. Col. Lash's recent faculty talk held in the Audio-Visual Room of the Library.

Col. Lash explained that the main advantage of good military government is, by helping a conquered people to recover, the U.S. tax burden is eased. He went on to say, "besides restoring Law and order, military government makes friends for our country."

Citing the errors of both Napoleon and Hitler, when they invaded the Ukraine, in not recognizing the nationalistic desires of the people, Col. Lash explained that the U.S. "would not in any future conflict make these mistakes."

Judge Success

"The extent of our success may be judged by the recovery of both Japan and Western Germany, and the fact that both are now on our side", he said.

Col. Lash also explained about the connection between military government where there is direct military control, and civil affairs administration, where there is indirect control in the territory of a friendly power. He said the case of North and South Korea would be the best examples of the two types.

Colonel Eugene Lash, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, discusses the nature and significance of military government as he lectures in a Tuesday morning session of the student-faculty lecture series.

Collegians View Colonial Planets, American Empire

By 2054 the United States will have become the United American Empire, consisting of all North and South America, one of three nations on earth...Space travel will create new problems with a race among nations for the colonization of habitable planets...Charts of insurance companies will show the average life-span to be 114 years.

These are some of the predictions made in manuscripts received to date from students in the $2,000 collegiate science fiction contest sponsored by IF Magazine for undergraduates in the United States and Canada.

Response Impressive

Early, pre-deadline response from students of 78 colleges is impressive and shows that young men and women of today are eager to express their opinions and speculations on what their country will be like a century from now. Although none of the entries will be judged until after the contest closes on May 15, a brief scanning of the manuscripts shows that most popular subjects are space travel, government, electronics, synthetics and human relations.

Since professional writers attending colleges are barred, manuscripts will be judged for ideas and imagination more than actual writing skill, and students are to make their predictions in novelette form of approximately 10,000 words.

A copy of the contest rules may be had by sending a post card to IF Magazine, Kingston, New York. Students submitting manuscripts must have them in the mails before midnight May 15. Winners will be announced nationally the first week in September.

Sell Cigarettes

The $100 bonus will be paid in cash and will be placed in the student fund. A check for the income on cigarette sales will be mailed regularly to the college business office and turned over to council.

A suggestion from the administration that perhaps students do not want the yearbook, NEON, was heard in council and a discussion of the difficulties of financing and producing the book ensued. The point was again made that the senior class had refused to help defray the cost of the NEON.

Senior treasurer and student council member, Ron Esposito, stated seniors already pay a $5 fee for the NEON, in addition to a $3 charge if they desire to have their picture appear in the book. In a recent senior meeting it was proposed that an additional charge of $5 be placed upon graduating seniors "This would mean that seniors would pay a total of $13 for their yearbook," Esposito said.

Following suggestions for the improvement of the main parking lot on Wick Ave., student council was told that a new parking lot behind Ford Hall would be constructed and that some of the income from the Wick lot might be used to finance this project. At present the $6 parking fee is kept by the lot attendant.

Pershing Rifles Are Growing Organization

YoCo's Pershing Rifles, Company P-1, is an example of what work can accomplish. Organized only in May 1952, P-1 has made itself part of student life, both within the ROTC and on campus.

Under the direction of Capt. J. Persch, 1st Lt. A. Radcliffe, 2nd. Lts. D. Boop, J. DeLeo, J. Ihnat and H. Williams, and Exec. Officer

R. Brush, plans are being made for greater participation in campus activities.

The men will take part in the PR Postal Match, to determine the National PR Champion. Several members attended the mid-winter assembly at Ohio State to discuss spring drill.

Fresh from their work on the Snowflake Frolic, many PR men are now heading committees for the Military Ball, the only formal military dance on campus. Though the event will not take place until May 7, plans are to make it surpass last year's dance.

PR is represented in many extracurricular activities. Men are found in the various fraternities, on the school paper, Student Council and Pan Hellenic Council.

New Intra Company social activity is slated to begin in the near future. This will consist of historical and military movies.

Talks will also be given by Lt. Col. Lash, who has advised the group since its inception. As the series progresses, outside speakers will be invited to take part.

At the first signs of good weather, six hours of drill per week will begin under the leadership of R. Pierce and J. Amy, both veterans of the Korean War.

With the arrival of rush period, PR will again maintain its policy of permitting pledges to serve their apprenticeships through constructive work. 1st Lt. A. Radcliffe will serve as Pledge Officer.

hilarious comedy rumpus of pistol pointing, knife brandishing, out guessing and out confessing," to be performed with a student-faculty cast.

This long awaited production represents a challenge to both students and faculty, as a means of working together and getting acquainted.

Another vehicle for student talent will be an evening of one-act operas. Any singers who want to try out for these operas, to be done in English, are welcome. Operas being considered are, "The Old Maid and the Thief," an early opera by Gian Carlo Menotti, and "Down in the Valley," a folk opera by Kurt Weill.

A series of faculty composed one-act productions are also being considered, including an original script by Prof. Donald Elser, an original translation of a German script by Prof. Karl Dykema, to be done for the first time in English, and an original script by Prof. Margarita Mills.

Foreign Service Awards Offered

Students interested in international affairs may win up to $1,000 or a full fellowship, amounting to $1750, at The School of Advanced International Studies of the Johns Hopkins University in Washington, according to an announcement made today by the FOREIGN SERVICE JOURNAL as it launched its Prize Essay Contest.

The essays, to be written on "The Organization of American Representation Abroad", will be judged by a committee of six nationally known men including John Sloan Dickey, President of Dartmouth College, Robert D. Murphy, Deputy Under Secretary of State, and Lt. Gen. Harold R. Bull, former commandant of the National War College.

Dulles Speaks

Secretary of State Dulles, in a statement which accompanied the contest announcement said: "I hope this contest will produce constructive and helpful public thinking on a matter of importance to all Americans."

Students constitute one of four categories of entrants outlined in the contest announcement. Other categories embrace former and present State Department and Foreign Service personnel, personnel of other governmental agencies, and competent persons other than those in the first three categories. A total of $3,850 will be awarded in prizes after the contest closes October 15, 1954.

Full details of the contest may be obtained in the Dean's office, or by writing Foreign Service Journal, Contest Committee, 1908 G Street, N.W., Washington 6, D.C.

A petition to Sigma Phi Epsilon national fraternity is being prepared by the Phi Sigs. Plans were interrupted last week to honor charter members of the local organization with a Founder's Day Banquet at the Elks.

Kappa Alpha Psi has extended an invitation to all second semester freshmen to pledge the fraternity. A pledge to meet their standards, must possess, high moral standards, good character and a qualitative point index of at least 1.35.

Dedicate Opera To Dr. Stearns

A new one act opera, by Robert Middleton, Lake Milton, was recently dedicated to Dr. Henry V. Stearns of the Dana Music Faculty.

The opera, "The Nightingale Is Guilty," was performed in Boston, March 5, 6 and 7, by the Boston University Opera Workshop.

Middleton, now an assistant professor of music at Vassar College, is a former pupil of Dr. Stearns. His first opera, "Life Goes to a Party," has been performed at the 1951 Berkshire Music Center and in Boston.

Middleton's work was inspired by his viewing of the 15th Century painting, "Admiral-Ricasoli Wedding," while in Italy on a John Knowles Paine Fellowship, Harvard's highest musical honor.

A native of Lake Milton, and a nephew of Miss Minnie Roth of the YoCo faculty, Middleton has been with the Columbus Symphony Orchestra and has also taught at Harvard.

Anyone interested in any phase of work for YoCo-Hooey or any of the above proposed productions is urged to show up during the scheduled try-out periods. A plea for musicians to play the shows has also been made. Any musicians interested should try-out.

"Venice" Photos Show Open Now at Ford Hall

The exhibition "Venice", a series of photographs prepared by LIFE magazine and circulated by the Am-Federation of Arts will continue through tomorrow at Ford Hall.

For a thousand years Venice has been the wonder of travellers. In 1365 the poet, Petrarch, wrote, "I know not if it has an equal within the bounds of the world." This exhibition in both text and pictures, suggests the Renaissance splendor and opulence and rich commercialism - in fact the whole extraordinary achievement of art and life in that unique and serene city.

The exhibition opens with a panoramic view of Venice in 1500 as imagined from the air by a Renaissance artist, with the Grand Canal winding like a serpent through the heart of the city. The twenty-four enlarged panels then follow with the story of the fabulous sea-girl

Record Ramblings . . .

By Ben VanCebb

The jukeboxes have been jumping over the last two weeks, and I'll bet the following tunes were among those being played: "Cross Over the Bridge" - P. Paige, "You'll Never Walk Alone" - R. Hamilton, "Wanted" - P. Como, "Frenchman in St. Louis" - J. Pleis, "I'll Be True to You" - R. Brown, "Secret Love" - D. Day.

Have you ever seen anyone do the "creep"? More than likely you have n't and won't, but those who have say that it's really "cool."

Stay Apart

The partners stay a foot apart with the boy always moving backward two steps and one step to the side. A reverse tango, in short. Each partner places a hand on the other's shoulder; they intertwine the fingers of their other hands and point those hands toward the floor. They, they "creep" about the dance floor in what proponents of the style describe as "a relaxed, graceful fashion".

Some say that the dance was started in London by those who couldn't cope with the usual ball-room dancing steps and would shuffle or creep around -- idea caught on.

Oh! Liberate

One of the newest stars in the entertainment field today is Liberate. He not only is a wizard at the piano, but, from the feminine point of view, is quite good-looking. Liberate has his own television program and is slated to begin making more recordings to meet public demand.

What's happening to Julius LaRosa? Many experts predicted that LaRosa wouldn't make it on his own when he split with Arthur Godfrey several months ago. This prediction seems to be coming true. LaRosa whether the public is aware of it or not is slipping fast. This is another case of a youngster not heeding the advice of someone far more experienced in the field. He was able to capitalize on the publicity that he received after the "split" but is finding it difficult to keep his name in lights.

Sergeant Prochak Joins ROTC Staff

Newest member of the ROTC staff is Sgt. John Prochak, a native of Campbell and a man with 13 years Army service.

A Ranger, Sgt. Prochak served in the campaigns of North Africa, Sicily and Italy. After discharge at the end of the war, he re-enlisted in 1946 and served with the Constabulary of the Occupation Force in Austria.

A holder of 3 battle stars and the Bronze Star, Prochak has done extensive work on mortars. Sgt. Prochak's duties will be to instruct the freshmen in infantry squad work and to assist the Pershing Rifles Drill Team.

Mr. B., although still one of the big nite club drawing names in show business, seems to be having a little trouble finding another hit tune via popular records. His latest waxing is that of "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" which is sung as only Mr. B. can sing them. But let's hope that he finds something really great soon, especially for Ernie G's sake.

Joni James has become one of the most startling phenoms in the recent history of the music business. Within the eleven months since "Why Don't You Believe Me?" Joni has sold nearly 6,000,000 records. Her club appearances now bring her from $7,500 to $12,500 weekly, and on a seven-day series of one nites she has earned $18,000 to $20,000.

Two Bop speaking enthusiasts were standing on a corner when a double-decked tandem passed with a load of new cars on it, one turned to the other and said coolly, "Man, dig that crazy parking-lot."

Mitchell Wins Chem. Award

James Mitchell

The highest ranking freshman chemistry major during the past semester, James Curtis Mitchell, was honored recently at a meeting of the Youngstown College Chapter of Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society.

He was awarded the 1954 Edition of Chemical Rubber Publishing Co's. "Handbook of Chemistry and Physics."

A graduate of Austintown Fitch, Mitchell, whose father is a retired chemist, was president of both the National Honor Society and the Science Club while in high school.

Mitchell's award, valued at $10, is considered by Youngstown chemistry professors, an invaluable guide to any student majoring in chemistry. Many refer to it as "the Bible" of chemical study.

Looking Around...

by Roy Schindell

While rummaging through my dresser for a green tie to wear this patty's day, I came across the following list of expressions which, if practiced and used this coming Irish day, will not only make you accepted amongst the one day Irish (Those who suddenly remember a distant relative that passed through Erin on their way to a phone booth, and therefore claim the right to live it up on Green Day.) but also the all year Irish. (If you don't know who they are, they are not Irish -- an outspoken group these Irishers).

Among the goodies on the list were; "Top O' the Morning" literally translated, means the upper part of the morning as contrasted to the lower part. A clever ruse these Irish. Who else would have thought of it, here we are, supposedly civilized and never once have we thought to divide the morning up into sections.

I haven't investigated but I imagine they've done the same with the afternoon, evening and night. Gad, to think of it. Another equally "a papro" is BEJABBERS, English Translation - To be jabbed. ERIN GO BRAGH ERIN GO BRAGH, Shout this frequently through the day and just watch the nods of approval. It is an old Irish expression borrowed from the Latins (At two per cent of course.) which when translated means WHAT'LL YOU HAVE?

To make your day a huge success refer now and then to the OLD SOD - Which is of course sod that has aged, and you know how the Irish feel about anything that has aged properly. But it is their day, and some of the Irish students you'll see with Shamrock in lapel and twinkle in eye this coming seventeenth are Nancy O'Conner, Bill Finn, Maggie Dempsey, Fran Murphy, Bob Dugan, John O'Malley, Lee (Don't forget the Shamrock Shuffle) Casey, Marion (Ditto) McCarthy, and Rosemarie (Metteferanian Irish) O'Altire. That's for the letter Rosie, you're a peach.

Happy birthday to Bob Mahoney. He got a new suit for his birthday and everyone is anxious to see Bob in birthday suit. Nancy Johnson who is usually late for philosophy class out-foxed Father Lucas and made a bit hit with the class - Seems Father Lucas got so used to Nancy coming in late and interrupting his train of thought, that he wouldn't begin anything deep till our "Nance" was seated.

Youths 18-20 Surpass Adults In General Political Survey

by George Gallup
(Director, American Institute of Public Opinion)

Princeton, N.J., March 3 -- Are the nation's 18-year olds smart enough to vote?

To help determine this a quiz, designed by editors of the Gallup poll in cooperation with Princeton University professors, was given to a typical sample of 18, 19 and 20-year-olds across the country.

Results show that, on the whole, the 18 to 20 age group does far better than their elders. On six of the seven questions, their scores surpass those of present voters.

Here are the "average scores" for the seven questions by the various age groups:

18-20 years	41
21-29 "	27
30-39 "	29
40-49 "	27
50 years and over	24

Here are seven questions asked by the Gallup poll:

1. How many states will elect members of the U.S. House of Representatives this fall?

18-20	22%
21-29	10
30-39	9
40-49	13
50 years and over	13

2. How many U.S. Senators are there from your state?

18-20 years	66%
21-29 "	42
30-39 "	54
40-49 "	50
50 years and over	47

3. Can you recall the names of your senators?

18-20 years	29%
21-29 "	24
30-39 "	30
40-49 "	31
50 years & over	34

4. What are the first 10 amendments to the Constitution called?

18-20 years	67%
21-29 "	49
30-39 "	40
40-49 "	29
50 years & over	2

5. What is meant by the electoral college?

18-20 years	38%
21-29 "	40
30-39 "	39
40-49 "	35
50 years & over	32

6. What are the three branches of the federal government called?

18-20 years	50%
21-29 "	20
30-39 "	22
40-49 "	23
50 years and over	15

7. What is the purpose of the proposed Bricker amendment?

18-20 years	15%
21-29 "	5
30-39 "	6

No guessing games with cigarettes
When Luckies are your brand—
A cleaner, fresher, smoother smoke,
A taste that's really grand!

Phil W. Elder

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

Penguins Close Season; Extend Wayne in Detroit

Youngstown College closed out the 1953-54 season with a win and a loss as the "Penguins" upset Western Reserve, 87-81, and bowed in overtime to Wayne University, 77-74, at Detroit.

Playing their final home game of the year, YoCo raced to a 47-34 lead at half-time over the Bear-Cats of Western Reserve. Fred Cleary had 13 points and Tony Knott had 11, as the two classy sophomores accounted for over half of the first half pointmaking.

Bombard Nets

In the second half they continued to bombard the nets as Knott garnered 13 markers and Cleary meshed 9. Their combined efforts were more than enough to offset classy Dick Howard, 6-6, center for the "Bear-Cats," who copped scoring honors with 32 points.

Bob Yuhas, playing his final home game for YoCo with a bad leg, chipped in 14 points and played a good game off the boards. Yuhas and Bob Mayberry teamed up to snare 20 rebounds.

Coach, Dom Rosselli, gave everyone a chance to play as he cleared the bench with 2 minutes remaining, and his "Penguins" out in front 86-73.

Proof that YoCo improved over the season showed up when the Penguins plays Phi Sigma Epsilon. In the 5 o'clock game, the winner of the Sig Sig-Kappa Sig game will play the winner of the Kappa Alpha Psi-Pi Beta Chi game.

This year's tournament, with double elimination set-up, has a new ruling about varsity and junior varsity players. No member of or former member of the varsity or junior varsity basketball squad is eligible to play.

Hit Hard

The teams hardest hit by this ruling will be Kappa Sigma Kappa and Phi Sigma Epsilon. The Kappa Sigs lose the services of Bob Yuhas, Ed Poplava, and Frank Beck, all of whom played varsity ball this year. The Phi Sigs will miss Bill Nagy's play. He played for the J.V.'s in his freshman year.

Pre-tourney favorites are Kappa Sigma Kappa and Kappa Alpha Psi. Even though the Kappa Sigs lose three players under the new ruling, they still have the same team which won the Walnut Division title in the intramural league. Kappa Alpha Psi is also a favorite on the basis of their intramural league showing.

forced Wayne University into two overtime periods before the Detroit boys eked out a 78-74 victory. Earlier in the year Youngstown College was soundly beaten by Detroit University and Wayne beat Detroit just as soundly.

YoCo lost the game at the foul line, as the Penguins hit on 50 per cent of their shots from the field, but only managed to mesh 18 out of 37 free throws.

Repeat as JAMBAR All-Stars

Repeaters from last year's JAMBAR Intramural All-star selections are these two sterling performers. Bill Nagy (left) played with championship Newman Club and was the big man in their attack. His floor play and play making stood out. Bob Lynn (right) a varsity footballer, led his F.I.O. squad into the tournament finals. He shattered all existing individual game records with a 52 point out-put against Phi Gamma.

Newman Club Cops Intramural Crown Jolts F.I.O., 51-48

A well-balanced Newman Club five copped the intramural basketball championship ousting F.I.O., last year's champs, with a 51-48 victory. The Newmanites rolled over A.O.H. and Chugden A.C. to gain the finals, while F.I.O. eliminated the Trophy Trotters and Kappa Sigma Kappa.

Newman Club's victory was almost a repetition of the regular season game between the two teams, except that the tournament game didn't go into overtime.

Bill Nagy and Dom Delsignor led the victory parade. Delsignor was high scorer for the winners and Nagy played an excellent floor game to spark his team throughout.

Mike Butch and Bob Lynn were the big guns for F.I.O. Butch, the play-maker all season, and Lynn, high point man for the losers, played championship ball, but the Newmanites had a little too much.

"How do you feel after the ride on that horse?"
"Say I never knew anything filled with hay could be so hard."

Sports Staff Picks Intramural All-Stars

WALNUT	DIVISION	CHESTNUT

Dick Franko, Kappa Sigs	G	Mike Butch, FIO

(Staff Special)

With the abundance of talent in both divisions of the intramural league this year, it was no small task to select the five top performers. As a result five men were selected in the Walnut Division and five in the Chestnut Division.

From these top 10, a first string all-star squad was chosen. At practically all positions it was a toss-up between the number one man in each division. In those cases where there was little or nothing to choose between two ball players an attempt was made to balance the division representation.

Bob Lynn, FIO, and Dom Delsignore, Newman, in the Chestnut Division were named as the starting forwards on the Intramural All-Star squad. Lynn is a repeater from last year's squad. The 6-1 scoring sen-

'54 Spring Sports Program Planned

Spring is just around the corner and that means spring sports will again be in the limelight.

On the national scene the spotlight is turned on major league baseball as both American and National League teams have already started playing exhibition games.

Here at Youngstown the college will participate in inter-collegiate golf and tennis matches. YoCo's golf team had a fair season last year, winning 8 and losing 2. With most of the team back, the Penguins should improve on that record.

The tennis team is an entirely different story, as coach, Ralph Beard, starts from scratch. Any male student is eligible and everyone will have an equal chance to make the team. There will be notices of tryouts in the JAMBAR and in the campus bulletin.

In order that all YoCo students can have a chance to participate in spring sports, there will be an intramural softball league for men, archery and tennis for men and women, and intramural softball for women.

"A" Bat. Nabs Cadet Crown

"A" Battery got by the Staff, 57-52, to gain the championship of the first annual ROTC Inter-battalion Tournament, as Cadet Dick Franko ripped in 15 points to pace the attack.

The "Able" battery gained the finals by trouncing "D" and "B" batteries. The Staff walloped the Band and then edged "E" Battery, 30-29 in earlier tournament action.

Bill Nagy, individual scoring leader and the Staff's mainstay, was picked as the Tourney's Outstanding Player. Jim Swift, top scorer for "A" Battery, won the Sportsmanship Trophy.

Penguins Select All-opponent Team

An All-Opponent team was picked recently by members of the 1953-54 Penguins. Ten players were chosen on the basis of their individual performances against the locals in regular season play.

George Dalton, John Carroll's 6-4 scoring machine and candidate for All-American honors heads the list. Dalton, who hits with equal consistency from mid-court or directly under the hoop, practically single handedly submerged the Penguins here when he got hot in the second half.

Charles Primas, a Wayne University shooting phenom, turned in one of the highest individual point outputs against the locals, hooping 36 in the "Motor City" finale. Possessor of a pair of mean hips and elbows but a capable shooter, is Western Reserve's All-Mid-American Conference center, 6-6, Dick Howard. His 32 point total wasn't enough to halt the Penguins.

Others named and points scored against the Penguins: Jerry Seuss, Baldwin-Wallace (23); Mark Davis, Marietta (39); Paul Brownlee, Stuebenville (37); Jim Riley, Westminster (31); George Hesch, Gannon (30); Jim Fenton, Akron (27); and Billy Blair, Geneva (25).

sation led his squad for the second straight year to the intramural championships. His 52 points in a regular season game shattered all records.

Delsignore, a varsity footballer and playing his first year of intramural ball, was the scoring leader on a strong Newman Club team. Deadly off the pivot and a strong rebounder, this boy is varsity material and we wouldn't be surprised to see him there next season.

Dick Nuskievich, 6-3 freshman cager with ROTC No. 1 in the Walnut Division, was named to the starting center spot. This boy is also of varsity timber, his shooting and rebounding kept a so-so ROTC gang in the thick of the Walnut race.

The guard berths are manned by repeaters Dick Franko, Kappa Sig, and Bill Nagy, Newman Club. Franko performed with a strong Kappa Sigma squad, who copped their division championship only to lose a heart breaker to FIO in the play-offs. His shooting and all around play featured.

Bill Nagy, 6-2 cager, was named as a starting forward in his division but moves into a guard spot as an All-Star. A deadly set-shot, playmaker and spark plug, this boy teamed up with Delsignore to give Newman Club one of the best balanced clubs in the league. They were eliminated in the play-off finale by a strong FIO squad.

Too much cannot be said about the other performers, named best in their divisions. It was difficult to keep a cager like Mike Butch off the first five, his brilliance made All-Star Bob Lynn look even better. Ned Mervos, burly Kappa Sig rebounder would be an asset to any squad he paced his team mates throughout the year and is a veteran performer. The seasons turned in by "Skip Gears, George Sveda and Ray Baker left little to be desired, it was simply a case of too much talent. All these boys can be called All-Stars.

Honorable Mention went to Roger Ottaway and Tom Mosure, ROTC No. 1, Jack Pierson, Chugden A.C., Jim Ondomessi, Nu Sigs, Jim Lawrence, Kappa Sigs, and Leroy Bolden, Kappa Alpha Psi, in the Walnut Division.

Chestnut honorable mention also went to Ron Shebak, Trophy Trotters, Jim Baytos, AOH, Don Balser and Bill Homick, Newman, Frank Raza, FIO, Don Phillips, Phi Sigs, and Ralph Reel, Phi Gams.

Hixenbaugh Tops Penguin Riflemen

The Youngstown College Rifle Team has had rough slogging this year, compiling a 3-9 record thus far, not so bad when you remember this is only their second year of competition.

They recently traveled to Erie, and defeated Gannon College 1810 to 1763 in the last conference match of the season. Top marksmen and averages are B. Hixenbaugh, 375; T. Terlecki, 366; G. Palombi, 363; J. Sekinger, 356 and J. DeLeo, 350.

They are coached by Lt. Wm. L. Collins and M-Sgt. Robinnett.

The team, open to any male college student, is recognized by the National Rifle Association of America and is a member of the Lake Erie Intercollegiate Rifle Conference.

There will be a match in the near future with the Sharpsville Rifle Club and in the latter part of March YoCo men will travel to K.S.U. to participate in the annual Rifle Team Banquet.

Dykema Attends Composition Meet

Prof. Karl W. Dykema, head of the Division of Language and Literature recently attended the annual meeting of the Conference on College Composition and Communications of the National Council of Teachers of English in St. Louis.

Dykema, a former chairman of the CCCC and a member of the executive committee, presided at an eight-member, three day panel on linguistics and the teaching of Freshman English. He also read the opening paper on the Historical Development of Grammatical Concepts.

CV's Outroll ROTC Cop Championship

The Culture Vultures copped the Intramural Bowling Championship recently, as they beat the R.O.T.C. kglers two out of three games on the Champion Alleys.

The R.O.T.C. team won first half honors with an 11 and 4 record while the C.V.'s were second with a 9 and 6 mark. First half individual average leader was Jim Assion of the C.V.'s with a 174 per game mark. Jim also had high game for the season with a 225 effort.

In the second half the C.V.'s led with a 17 and 3 record while the R.O.T.C. boys tumbled to fourth with an 8 and 12 mark.

The winning squad, which will get a trophy, was composed of Corky Grohovski, Bill Stasko, Jack Broderick, Jerry Thomas, Don Johnson, Jim Assion and Jerry Casey.

All Greeks Keep Warm In Old Barn

by Elie Clark

With a gust of wind and snow the Greeks on campus arrived at the Old Barn, south of here. It was an evening off for the fraternities and sororities busy with rushing.

As the writer arrived everyone was busy gabbing and listening to the band of Dick Marlowe, known to us as Dick McCullom of Pi Beta Chi, ward Morrisroe of Kappa Sigma Kappa who was drafted by Pan-Hel to be the chairman of the party was busy pouring out food and "cookes".

All the early "class-cutters" and loafers soon began an "exciting" game of "rhythms", "crazy man, crazy." As the evening wore on the Greeks tried out the floor for dancing and found it in grand condition.

Ends on Knees

Some fancy dancing was put on by the guys, each trying to outdo the other. One Sam Drake, a Phi Sig, even ended up on his knees, those "crazy slides". Bill Lavowsky of Nu Sigma Rho thought it looked swell but as usual his main interest was on the food. Missed was Nancy "O" of Gamma Sigma and her usual antics.

The calm before the storm inside had no effect however on the blizzard that was raging outside so it wasn't very late before the guys and queens began to leave. Everyone declared though that more Greek mixers should be held, in Florida where it is warm.

Begin College Series on TV

The first in a series of half-hour programs by Youngstown College was held recently over WKBN-TV.

The series will consist of musical programs from the Dana School of Music, productions depicting educational activities of the college, and round table discussions with faculty members, students, and representatives of various phases of community life outside the college.

The Bricker Amendment was the topic for discussion on the first program.

Programs of the series are scheduled for March 21 and March 28 after which they will appear regularly on alternate Sunday afternoons.

Open WRA Drive; Offer All Sports

The Women's Recreational Association is currently holding their membership drive which will be held annually after this year. Membership is open to any woman student on campus.

The organization was organized to provide recreational activities for Youngstown College women and was started in 1950 under the name, Women's Intramural Planning Board.

At that time only two sports were offered, volleyball and basketball. Since that time badminton, fencing, softball, archery, field hockey, and recreational sports have been added.

Over 700 students participated in the group sponsored activities in 1952-53 and 400 have participated so far this year. Tournaments are also held in which the various clubs on campus can participate as teams.

The present organization officers are: Fran Restelli, president; Rosalie Centofanti, vice president; Noreen Bennett, secretary; Virginia Gething, treasurer; Dee Labriola, sports board chairman. WRA was granted a charter by Student Council this fall.

At the present time, recreational volleyball is being offered at the women's physical education depart-

Candidates Await Vote

A Queen of the May will be selected from this quartet of senior coeds. In elections being held today, full-time seniors will vote for the girl of their choice. May Day on the Youngstown College campus has been set for May 21. Candidates are: (l to r) Norma Deramo, Nancy Crofford, Evy Nannicola, and Ruth Lanz.

Tryouts To Begin For YoCohooey

by Eddie Simon

YoCo-Hooey, after a slight postponement, has been scheduled for production this semester. An appeal for acts has been made and anyone who has ability or desires to work on YoCo-Hooey is welcome to try-out. The type of production will be determined by the number and types of acts available.

Possibilities are, a variety type show with a format of vaudeville acts, a review, similar to TV productions, or an original musical comedy, "The Golden Apple," written by Dr. and Mrs. Hanson, visiting lectures in the department of language and literature.

Try-out dates announced for the show are:

- Monday, March 15 - 11-12 a.m. - 3-5 p.m.
- Tuesday, March 16 - 11-12 a.m. - 1-3 p.m.
- Wednesday, March 17 - 1-3 p.m. - 8-9 p.m.
- Thursday, March 18 - 1-2 p.m.
- Friday, March 19 - 1-3 p.m.

Monday, March 22 has been set as the final meeting date for all those interested in the production. The meeting will be held back stage in the Strouss Auditorium, 7 to 10 p.m. Also scheduled for production if there is interest, is a play entitled "The Bishop Misbehaves," "a

Local Engineers Plan to Attend Akron Conclave

AKRON, O. - Student engineers from Youngstown College will take part in the 76th annual convention of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers in Akron March 25-27. Richard Frank and Robert Dorie local OSPE officers have made reservations for their group.

According to Harold Webb of Akron student program chairman, student delegations from Ohio State University, Ohio University, the University of Dayton, Ohio Northern University, and Youngstown have made advance reservations. Students from other Ohio engineering colleges are also expected to take part.

Akron Chapter Hosts

The O.S.P.E. student chapter of the University of Akron will be host to visiting students.

Student engineers will have a full program of activities, including a field trip through the B.F. Goodrich Company Saturday, March 27.

Their first day in Akron will feature a student council meeting, under the direction of Harold Webb, newly elected council president, to introduce engineering students from throughout the state. This will be followed by a barbecue and square dancing in the Mayflower Hotel.

Carlton is Speaker

Main speaker at the student meeting March 27 will be Professor E.W. Carlton of the Missouri School of Mines, who will discuss "Professional Thinking in Engineering Education."

John E. Kallgren, general convention chairman, has announced that more than 1,000 senior engineers and their wives will attend the O.S.P.E. convention.

NO CARD PLAYING

Card playing is not permitted in the cafeteria between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Violations of this regulation is punishable by the Student Faculty Discipline Committee. It has been announced that this rule will be enforced.

Hold Junior Prom, May Day Election; Pick Queen, Court

Elections for May Day and Junior Prom Queens will continue today from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Only full-time Seniors may vote for the May Day Queen and only full-time Juniors for the Junior Prom Queen.

The final list of candidates will not be completed until all petitions have been cleared by the Student Council Discipline Committee. Petitions have been received nominating nine girls.

Junior Prom candidates are Ariene Barnes, Barbara Griffith, Ann Herschel, Nancy Johnson and Aurora Vona. Nancy Crofford, Norma Deramo, Ruth Lanz and Evy Nannicola are May Day Queen candidates.

Miss Barnes, junior, education, is a member of Phi Mu Sorority. She is also a member of RIL, FTA, and Pan Hellenic Council. She is a drum majorette and treasurer of her sorority.

Is Beta Sig

A member of Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority, Barbara Griffith, junior, sociology, is a member of the Sociology Club and belongs to RIL. She is Beta Sig rush chairman.

Junior, sociology, Ann Herschel, is a member of Phi Mu Sorority, JAMBAR reporter, NEON staff member and Newman Club member. Nancy Johnson, junior, education, belongs to Gamma Sigma Sorority, the Drama Guild and is Social Chairman of RIL.

President of Phi Lambda Delta Sorority is Aurora Vona, Miss Vona is also a member of Newman Club. One of these girls, to be elected by members of the Junior class, will reign over the Annual Junior Prom in April.

Nancy Crofford, senior education, is president of Phi Mu Sorority. She is a member of FTA and RIL and listed in Who's Who. She was co-editor of the JAMBAR last year.

A Gamma Sig, Norma Deramo, senior, education, is a member of Newman Club, FTA, and Alpha Pi Epsilon Service Sorority. She is also a Pan Hellenic representative.

Place Cigarette Machine in Cafe For Student Use

A cigarette machine has been installed in the south wing of Central Hall, (cafeteria) courtesy of Saffron Cigarette Service, Youngstown, Ohio. Negotiation of financial terms were completed by former activities committee chairman, Tom Lavin, in a telephone conversation with Mickey Saffron, vacationing in Florida.

Saffron agreed to pay a $100 bonus to Student Council for permitting the installation and workmen recently placed the machine in its present location. Student Council will receive an income of 2¢ per pack on cigarettes sold and proposes to use the money in setting up scholarships for the Editor of the JAMBAR NEON and perhaps the NEON business manager.

Cigarette service men will restock the machine each day, if enough cigarettes are sold. They regularly service a machine in the Wickwood, used extensively by Engineering students, and estimate cafeteria sales will be comparable.

Student Council members pointed out that the cafeteria closes each day at 7 p.m. and a large number of sales will be lost because night students will be unable to get to the machine. A suggestion to approach the administration about installing an additional machine will

"Ugly Man" Contest Should Boost Fund

An "Ugly Man" contest, an effort to put the student book fund over the top, will begin today. The winner of the contest, conducted by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity, will be the man receiving the most votes.

Votes will be in the form of contributions to the fund. Each candidate's picture will appear over a money container placed in the main hall. Contributions may be made any time between now and Wednesday, March 17. "Ugly Men" will be sponsored by male organizations on campus.

Youngstown College students and campus groups have raised $811 toward their share in the $10,000 campaign being conducted by the Association of Friends of Youngstown College Library to buy needed books.

In addition to previous groups reported, Pan-Hellenic Council has made a contribution of $25; Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, $25; and Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, $10.

Classroom solicitation by students brought contributions totaling $396 and a pre-campaign solicitation among students sponsored by Alpha Phi Delta fraternity netted $250.

The goal of students is $1,000 and they expect to meet their share of the campaign. The association is conducting its 16th annual campaign to aid the college library which now has 58,000 volumes.

Dana Music Recital Marks Founder's Day

Students of the Dana School of Music, members of Delta Eta Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia recently presented their founder's day recital in C.J. Strouss Memorial Auditorium.

Musicians on the program will be Andrew Moreland, Dale Guchemand, Frederick Wilson, Donald William Eyo, Ramon Zupko, Don Fernandez, Robert Miller, William Huribert, Eugene Crone, and David Stokan.

Program included vocal, piano, bassoon, trumpet, trombone, and clarinet numbers.

Phi Mu Alpha is a national honorary music fraternity for men and the Delta Eta chapter is for men of the Dana School of Music.

LOT CLOSED

The Wick Ave. parking lot will be closed to student autos during the evening, Tuesday, March 16. The lot will be used by motorists attending a meeting of the Mahoning County Medical Association.

Either Way

Fraternities and sororities are now busily at work doing their "damndest" to increase their membership or at least to keep it stable. These efforts are commonly called "rushing."

Many new and old students will find themselves faced with the decision of either joining a Greek social group or remaining unaffiliated and independent. This is an individual decision and each student must do what is best for him.

There is much to be said for fraternal life. On the other hand there is always the possibility of joining socially with a group not compatible with your temperament and personality. This is a four year social arrangement you are "setting yourself up for."

If you find a group with which you share social interests, your college life can become rich and meaningful. Unsatisfactory affiliation, will however, hurt you, your school, and the organization you join. Decide whether you can best serve yourself and your school as an independent or as a Greek. In either situation put everything into your college life and it will become full, rich and meaningful.

Fraternal Problem

The following excerpts are from a speech delivered by Arthur S. Flemming, National Interfraternity Council President, at the groups annual meeting in Cincinnati last fall, and would seem to indicate that national fraternities are vitally concerned about discriminatory practices and policies within the various fraternal groups. They must and will resolve their own difficulties if they are to continue functioning as "an integral part of our system of higher education."

"Are we in our colleges and universities doing everything within our power, for example to eliminate those prejudices and practices which relate to a man's race, color or creed, rather than to his merits as a man?"

The members of all national fraternities have a voice in the making of laws and policies which will govern them. Only by permitting more and more individuals opposed to intolerance to join these groups can we have any hope of seeing them "resolve their own difficulties." Only then can we see more and more individuals getting behind and supporting President Flemming when he says:

"I believe that we should repeal clauses in the constitutions of our national fraternities that restrict membership on the basis of race, color or creed. If we do so, it will strengthen the entire fraternity system.

As fraternity men let's not even give the appearance of condoning practices that judge a man on the basis of his race, color or creed, rather than on the basis of his merits as a man."

Nehru, In or Out?

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's recent tirade against the United States, for entering into a military aid agreement with Pakistan, and other mutual-defense policies, has once again caused speculation as to just what Nehru's positions are on world affairs.

For the past several months Premier Nehru has shown himself to be definitely anti-American in many speeches. Such actions are certainly impairing good U.S.-Indian relations.

Those who should know always say that the observer, when discussing India and Nehru, should remember that both are in a unique position and that the exceptional conditions of the caste system should always be taken into account.

Those views, of course, are correct. They are expressed to help clarify the mist that surrounds India and her people, and to stop people from taking extreme views without careful consideration.

However, the intelligent person cannot, even after taking into account such factors, but realize that Nehru's policies and actions bring to light a certain amount of hypocrisy.

The Premier's constant offering of peace plans for both the Korean problem and the French-Indo-Chinese war are yaliant, by their own merits.

And yet, who can deny that Nehru, while seeking peace in the world, is still keeping the fire of war burning between India and Pakistan. Strong armed forces line both sides of the border.

By modern standards India is still, among the nations of the world, a child. The country is hampered by the caste system, overpopulation, lack of technical knowledge and, most of all, by "growing pains."

Premier Nehru is a man of great intelligence. His life has been entwined with India's life. The fate of his nation, and its prestige, rests upon his words and deeds.

He must make his choice clear to the world one of these days. In this life and death struggle between Freedom and Communism, especially with the threat of Red invasion at the back door, neutrality is hardly possible.

In all fairness Nehru should let the world know clearly just who his friends are in the family of nations. He should also make clear to the world just who are his enemies. Time is running out.

Question: What do you think of the new cigarette machine in the cafeteria?

Shirley Pitts - Fr.

Hallelujah! The chains of discrimination are freed. No longer must the slave of nicotine risk life and limb crossing the highways of this fair metropolis to get his hands on a pack of cigarettes.

Although there still remains that inevitable fact "cigarettes are cheaper by the carton", I think the machine is a good idea.

Don Melrose - Jr.

Smoking is permitted, with few exceptions, throughout the college. Therefore, it is reasonable to expect to find a cigarette machine on the campus. The cafeteria is a natural habitat for most Yo-Coites, and so it is a logical place to purchase cigarettes. I definitely approve its installation in the cafeteria.

Richard Redmond - Fr.

I think it was a great idea to put a cigarette machine in the cafeteria. Now you don't have to worry about running out of "smokes". It is there for everyone's convenience, and it is being used very often.

Ted Connelly - Jr.

The cigarette machine being placed in the cafeteria was a desirable installation. The reason that this convenience wasn't attained in the past was the belief that there weren't enough smokers to make the project worthwhile. This belief has not held up in view of what can be observed in the cafeteria or in the halls between classes. This machine is not just a convenience, but is also a necessary change.

Betty McMullen - Jr.

Cigarette advertisements have been displayed in the cafeteria for years, but never a machine. Due to the fact that a large percentage of the faculty and students do smoke, I've often wondered why there wasn't one. I'm definitely glad that it has finally been done. It was rather inconvenient before to run across the street to obtain a package of cigarettes.

Mary Summers - Fr.

A cigarette machine in the cafeteria? It just didn't seem true, but seeing was believing, for there it was staring me in the face when I walked in Monday. No more running to the Lincoln to raid their machine. But it also ruins my excuse of being out of them and can't get them until noon. It really is wonderful and I would like to thank whoever was responsible.

THE TIMES

by George Miller

Secretary of State Dulles, and his advisors, are becoming increasingly exasperated with the French for continually putting off a definite decision on the European Defense Community and the question of permitting Germany to re-arm. Settlement of the issue seems far away. Every day lost means a weaker Europe in the face of a constant invasion threat. France is behind in her own defense system in regard to actual manpower.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent's tour around the world is of great importance to Canada. He had two main reasons for taking this trip. He wanted to let the world know that Canada is not to become a "forgotten" nation in the free world. He also wants to do his part to strengthen the British Commonwealth of Nations by promoting goodwill. Canada's wealth and power is growing daily and investors are pouring plenty of money into the country.

Do not be surprised if a speech of great importance comes from President Peron of Argentina in the near future. Things have been too quiet on the Argentine political front and Peron will have to do something pretty big if he wants to stay securely in power. With the death of his wife, Evita, Peron's cause suffers, lacking a popular publicity artist. Evita was a real value to him and her passing hurt him in more ways than one. He can't afford to slip in popularity.

The present series of articles appearing in various national magazines, and written by leading educators across the nation, are aimed at making the public aware of what is felt to be a threat to liberal education in American schools. Directed not only at Senator McCarthy, but at all attempts regarded as dangers to liberal thought, these articles are well worth reading. They may bring about some really serious discussion on the matter.

Efforts to continue investigations of the Kefauver type will be urged by various Congressmen this session. Too many feel that Kefauver's committee was just the beginning and only tapped the surface of the criminal world. Even with some of the big men in jail, the crime business is still strong and on a big scale. The New York waterfront scandals clearly show strong criminal influence.

Judging from a recent sample, the Spaniards will not be very quiet when Queen Elizabeth visits Gibraltar in the near future. Spain wants the island badly because of the strategic importance and the prestige involved. If she could get Gibraltar, it would be a real feather in her cap. Britain does not, intend, however, to give up any of her possessions without a hard fight. Proof of this can be found in the expensive operations in Kenya against the Mau-Mau.

Iran is quietly being built up by her new government. There is still a tremendous amount of work to do before the nation can be financially sound. Ever since the Shah's dramatic return to Iran, plans have been formulated to start the flow of oil into the export barrels possibly sometime this year. Iran looks like one Middle-Eastern country fairly united among many divided nations.

With all the present talk about reducing government expenses, many fear that one government program will be reduced to meet political demands of economy. That is conservation of our natural resources. It's a costly program but extremely important. The present programs are good in themselves but simply are not adequate. The same applies to flood control programs. Many do not realize that money spent now will save countless millions in property damage and loss of lives.

"We Needed a Library" Says Pirie; We Use It

"We needed the library desperately and we are using it to the hilt, exclaimed James W. Pirie, library director, at the close of a typical day recently, that saw 1,866 students and faculty members make use of library facilities.

The main reading room on the first floor, the Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beeghtly Reading Room, was used at the opening of the new semester for registration of students and making of schedules. It was also used for registration when the annual Solo and Ensemble Competition Music Festival was held at Youngstown last year and will be used for the same purpose this year.

Insure Privacy

The stack alcoves, insuring privacy, have been popular from the beginning. There are 41 of these alcoves throughout the building. The use of the individual study carrels is also increasing. At first these carrels were not popular but students are beginning to use them as they see their advantages.

The reference room on the first floor, the Charles N. Crandall Room, is used regularly by both students and faculty. Current periodicals are kept here and the periodical indexes, such as "Readers Guide," make a variety of periodical material easily available. The reference librarian, Mr. Elmer E. Rodgers, assists students in locating specific facts and figures and in getting together material for research papers.

Basement Used

Even the basement of the library is put to use. At registration time, physical examinations are given here and every Thursday ROTC cadets meet here for drill. Faculty offices on the second floor are being used for interviewing and counseling and for private study by faculty members.

The Frank Purnell Room, on the third floor, for reading and browsing is consistently occupied. Here groups congregate for study and discussions, with an informal atmosphere prevailing.

Houses Meetings

The conference room on the third floor houses meetings of student council, alumni committees, pan-hellenic council, and other groups. The visual-aid auditorium is used for showing motion pictures, slides and film strips related to course material.

The nine classrooms in John Tod Hall are used daily from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., and the athletic offices in the basement provides facilities for all phases of intercollegiate athletics.

Elect Candidates

Ruth Lanz, senior, english, belongs to Phi Lambda Delta and is secretary-treasurer of Pan Hellenic council. She is secretary of International Relations Club and a member of RIL.

Senior, education, Ery Nannicola, is the Pan Hellenic representative for Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority. She is a member of Newman Club, FTA and Alpha Pi Epsilon Service Sorority.

One of these girls will be elected May Queen by members of the senior class and will resign over the entire May Day celebration May 21. She will receive her crown at ceremonies during the day and be honored at the dance that night.

PAY SENIOR DUES

Senior class dues may be paid now at the Cashier's office in the Main Building. Degrees for graduating seniors will be withheld until these dues are paid.

Some of the 1,866 students who used library facilities on a typical day recently leave the building. These students, enrolled in the various schools and departments throughout the college, find texts for outside reading related to their courses and facts and figures for research papers.

Grad Sleeps Way Through College

OMAHA, NEBR.—"I slept my way through college", said Nebraska college graduate A.W. Turnbow, who received his degree last June.

This startling statement came as a complete surprise to ex-student Turnbow's professors who had once predicted his college career would end in failure.

Last week graduate Turnbow disclosed his secret. He had been "Sleep-learning." "I'd read many articles on the theory of sleep-learning," he said, but none told me how to go about it. So I made my own sleep-learning device and experimented. I was working full time and trying to carry 19 credit hours at college. I was told I was failing, so I figured I couldn't lose anything."

Time has proven that he didn't

Art Club Will Show National College Prints

A national print competition is being organized and sponsored by the Art Dept. and the College Art Club.

Open only to faculty and students of accredited universities and colleges, the show will be titled, "College Prints 1954."

To be shown first at the Butler Art Institute, the exhibit will travel to art centers of the South West and Mid-West.

Etching, lithograph, silk screen and woodblock will be included in the show as examples of fine print. April 7 is the deadline for all entries and entries should be sent to the YoCo Art Dept.

Will Give Prizes

Youngstown College will give $200 in purchase prizes and Butler Art Institute will offer a $50 prize. The jury of selection will consist of the art faculty of the college, and George D. Culler, director of the Akron Art Institute, will choose the prize winners.

The exhibit will open at Butler Institute on May 2 and continue through May 23. From here it will be on the road through January, 1955, stopping at the Akron Art Institute in June; Bradley University, Peoria, Ill., in July; September at Immaculate Heart College, Los Angeles, Calif.; University of Colorado at Boulder in October; November at University of Wisconsin at Madison; December at Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., and ending the tour in January at Columbia Museum of Art, Columbia, S.C.

Greeks Rush, Sponsor, Elect, Honor Founders

Rush parties, campus projects, raffles, founder's day celebrations and election of officers have recently occupied Greek social organizations.

The Gamma Sigs have adopted "Butch" and the Sig Sigs copped first place in YoCo's recent Canned Food Drive. They also elected new officers. The Phi Gams are making plans for their Annual Popularity Dance, while the Nu Sigs have completed their installation.

The Phi Mus commemorated their founders recently and the Phi Sigs, "ditto", later in the week. The Phi Sigs are also petitioning Sig Eps and the Phi Mus have elected officers. Pi Beta Chi congratulated Paul Richardson, newly elected Pan Hel head and the Phi Lams did likewise for Ruth Lantz, secretary-treasurer.

Hold Parties

Beta Sigs had a party and meeting with their alumni. The Sig Deltas and Gamma Sigs recently held a joint meeting at Pollock House. Rushing season is in full swing for all Pan Hel groups.

The Gamma Sigs are enthused about "Butch", a baby boy whose mother died just after he was born and whose father was nearly 'broke'. They have gifted him with stacks of clothing, toys, and now a bright new stroller for spring walks.

A social room was recently acquired by the Phi Gams, where they have been making plans for the Popularity Dance to be held Saturday, March 27 at the Elms. Last years celebrities, Nancy Johnson and Ron Galip will crown this year's most popular girl and boy.

Honor Founders

The 102 birthday of Phi Mu sorority was celebrated with an active and alumni dinner at the Youngstown Club. President Nancy Crofford welcomed the guests and conducted the founder's day services. At a recent meeting the following officers were elected: Arlene Barnes, president, Gerry Lewis, vice president, Jean Santangelo, secretary, Yolie Morano, treasurer, and Sandy Butler, social chairman.

Other Greek elections saw the Sig Sigs install Carl Vennetti, again, as president, Joe Inat, vice president, Bob Rusnak, secretary, Bill Boyzey, treasurer, Jack Story, Social Chairman, Dick Kukura, sergeant-at-arms, Jack Rusnak, historian, and

RIL Is Conducting Membership Drive

Religion-in-Life Club, which meets on the first and third Sunday of each month, at 8:00 p.m. in the First Christian Church, is conducting a membership drive.

With a variety of entertainment, RIL offers Protestant students the opportunity to meet in common fellowship.

RIL recently held their Annual Banquet at St. John's Church. Rev. Frieling, President Jones, and Rev. Burt welcomed the guests. With Jack Shafer as emcee, a treble sextet composed of Ginny Shelar, Marilyn Ervin, Kay Reilly, Carolyn Browder, Gerry Lewis, and Elaine Ohl sang several selections and

Colonel Lash Discusses American Military Gov't

"American Military Government" was the subject of Lt. Col. Lash's recent faculty talk held in the Audio-Visual Room of the Library.

Col. Lash explained that the main advantage of good military government is, by helping a conquered people to recover, the U.S. tax burden is eased. He went on to say, "besides restoring Law and order, military government makes friends for our country."

Citing the errors of both Napoleon and Hitler, when they invaded the Ukraine, in not recognizing the nationalistic desires of the people, Col. Lash explained that the U.S. "would not in any future conflict make these mistakes."

Judge Success

"The extent of our success may be judged by the recovery of both Japan and Western Germany, and the fact that both are now on our side", he said.

Col. Lash also explained about the connection between military government where there is direct military control, and civil affairs administration, where there is indirect control in the territory of a friendly power. He said the case of North and South Korea would be the best examples of the two types.

Colonel Eugene Lash, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, discusses the nature and significance of military government as he lectures in a Tuesday morning session of the student-faculty lecture series.

Collegians View Colonial Planets, American Empire

By 2054 the United States will have become the United American Empire, consisting of all North and South America, one of three nations on earth...Space travel will create new problems with a race among nations for the colonization of habitable planets...Charts of insurance companies will show the average life-span to be 114 years.

These are some of the predictions made in manuscripts received to date from students in the $2,000 collegiate science fiction contest sponsored by IF Magazine for undergraduates in the United States and Canada.

Response Impressive

Early, pre-deadline response from students of 78 colleges is impressive and shows that young men and women of today are eager to express their opinions and speculations on what their country will be like a century from now. Although none of the entries will be judged until after the contest closes on May 15, a brief scanning of the manuscripts shows that most popular subjects are space travel, government, electronics, synthetics and human relations.

Since professional writers attending colleges are barred, manuscripts will be judged for ideas and imagination more than actual writing skill, and students are to make their predictions in novelette form of approximately 10,000 words.

A copy of the contest rules may be had by sending a post card to IF Magazine, Kingston, New York. Students submitting manuscripts must have them in the mails before midnight May 15. Winners will be announced nationally the first week in September.

Sell Cigarettes

The $100 bonus will be paid in cash and will be placed in the student fund. A check for the income on cigarette sales will be mailed regularly to the college business office and turned over to council.

A suggestion from the administration that perhaps students do not want the yearbook, NEON, was heard in council and a discussion of the difficulties of financing and producing the book ensued. The point was again made that the senior class had refused to help defray the cost of the NEON.

Senior treasurer and student council member, Ron Esposito, stated seniors already pay a $5 fee for the NEON, in addition to a $3 charge if they desire to have their picture appear in the book. In a recent senior meeting it was proposed that an additional charge of $5 be placed upon graduating seniors "This would mean that seniors would pay a total of $13 for their yearbook," Esposito said.

Following suggestions for the improvement of the main parking lot on Wick Ave., student council was told that a new parking lot behind Ford Hall would be constructed and that some of the income from the Wick lot might be used to finance this project. At present the $6 parking fee is kept by the lot attendant.

Pershing Rifles Are Growing Organization

YoCo's Pershing Rifles, Company P-1, is an example of what work can accomplish. Organized only in May 1952, P-1 has made itself part of student life, both within the ROTC and on campus.

Under the direction of Capt. J. Persch, 1st Lt. A. Radcliffe, 2nd Lt. D. Boop, J. DeLeo, J. Ihnat and H. Williams, and Exec. Officer R. Brush, plans are being made for greater participation in campus activities.

The men will take part in the PR Postal Match, to determine the National PR Champion. Several members attended the mid-winter assembly at Ohio State to discuss spring drill.

Fresh from their work on the Snowflake Frolic, many PR men are now heading committees for the Military Ball, the only formal military dance on campus. Though the event will not take place until May 7, plans are to make it surpass last year's dance.

PR is represented in many extracurricular activities. Men are found in the various fraternities, on the school paper, Student Council and Pan Hellenic Council.

New Intra Company social activity is slated to begin in the near future. This will consist of historical and military movies.

Talks will also be given by Lt. Col. Lash, who has advised the group since its inception. As the series progresses, outside speakers will be invited to take part.

At the first signs of good weather, six hours of drill per week will begin under the leadership of R. Pierce and J. Amy, both veterans of the Korean War.

With the arrival of rush period, PR will again maintain its policy of permitting pledges to serve their apprenticeships through constructive work. 1st Lt. A. Radcliffe will serve as Pledge Officer.

Tryouts Start

hilarious comedy rumpus of pistol pointing, knife brandishing, out-guessing and out-confessing," to be performed with a student-faculty cast.

This long awaited production represents a challenge to both students and faculty, as a means of working together and getting acquainted.

Another vehicle for student talent will be an evening of one-act operas. Any singers who want to try out for these operas, to be done in English, are welcome. Operas being considered are, "The Old Maid and the Thief," an early opera by Gian Carlo Menotti, and "Down in the Valley," a folk opera by Kurt Weill.

A series of faculty composed one-act productions are also being considered, including an original script by Prof. Donald Elser, an original translation of a German script by Prof. Karl Dykema, to be done for the first time in English, and an original script by Prof. Margarita Mills.

Foreign Service Awards Offered

Students interested in international affairs may win up to $1,000 or a full fellowship, amounting to $1750, at The School of Advanced International Studies of the Johns Hopkins University in Washington, according to an announcement made today by the FOREIGN SERVICE JOURNAL as it launched its Prize Essay Contest.

The essays, to be written on "The Organization of American Representation Abroad", will be judged by a committee of six nationally known men including John Sloan Dickey, President of Dartmouth College, Robert D. Murphy, Deputy Under Secretary of State, and Lt. Gen. Harold R. Bull, former commandant of the National War College.

Dulles Speaks

Secretary of State Dulles, in a statement which accompanied the contest announcement said: "I hope this contest will produce constructive and helpful public thinking on a matter of importance to all Americans."

Students constitute one of four categories of entrants outlined in the contest announcement. Other categories embrace former and present State Department and Foreign Service personnel, personnel of other governmental agencies, and competent persons other than those in the first three categories. A total of $3,850 will be awarded in prizes after the contest closes October 15, 1954.

Full details of the contest may be obtained in the Dean's office, or by writing Foreign Service Journal, Contest Committee, 1908 G Street, N.W., Washington 6, D.C.

Kappa Alpha Psi has extended an invitation to all second semester freshmen to pledge the fraternity. A pledge to meet their standards, must possess, high moral standards, good character and a qualitative point index of at least 1.35.

Dedicate Opera To Dr. Stearns

A new one act opera, by Robert Middleton, Lake Milton, was recently dedicated to Dr. Henry V. Stearns of the Dana Music Faculty.

The opera, "The Nightingale Is Guilty," was performed in Boston, March 5, 6 and 7, by the Boston University Opera Workshop.

Middleton, now an assistant professor of music at Vassar College, is a former pupil of Dr. Stearns. His first opera, "Life Goes to a Party," has been performed at the 1951 Berkshire Music Center and in Boston.

Middleton's work was inspired by his viewing of the 15th Century painting, "Admiral-Riccardi Wedding," while in Italy on a John Knowles Paine Fellowship, Harvard's highest musical honor.

A native of Lake Milton, and a nephew of Miss Minnie Roth of the YoCo faculty, Middleton has been with the Columbus Symphony Orchestra and has also taught at Harvard.

Anyone interested in any phase of work for YoCo-Hooey or any of the above proposed productions is urged to show up during the scheduled try-out periods. A plea for musicians to play the shows has also been made. Any musicians interested should try-out.

"Venice" Photos Show Open Now at Ford Hall

The exhibition "Venice", a series of photographs prepared by LIFE magazine and circulated by the Am-Federation of Arts will continue through tomorrow at Ford Hall.

For a thousand years Venice has been the wonder of travellers. In 1365 the poet, Petrarch, wrote, "I know not if it has an equal within the bounds of the world." This exhibition in both text and pictures, suggests the Renaissance splendor and opulence and rich commercialism - in fact the whole extraordinary achievement of art and life in that unique and serene city.

The exhibition opens with a panoramic view of Venice in 1500 as imagined from the air by a Renaissance artist, with the Grand Canal winding like a serpent through the heart of the city. The twenty-four enlarged panels then follow with the story of the fabulous sea-girl

Record Ramblings . . .

By Ben VanCebb

The jukeboxes have been jumping over the last two weeks, and I'll bet the following tunes were among those being played: "Cross Over the Bridge" - P. Paige, "You'll Never Walk Alone" - R. Hamilton, "Wanted" - P. Como, "Frenchman in St. Louis" - J. Pleis, "I'll Be True to You" - R. Brown, "Secret Love" - D. Day.

Have you ever seen anyone do the "creep"? More than likely you have n't and won't, but those who have say that it's really "cool."

Stay Apart

The partners stay a foot apart with the boy always moving backward two steps and one step to the side. A reverse tango, in short. Each partner places a hand on the other's shoulder; they intertwine the fingers of their other hands and point those hands toward the floor. They, they "creep" about the dance floor in what proponents of the style describe as "a relaxed, graceful fashion".

Some say that the dance was started in London by those who couldn't cope with the usual ball-room dancing steps and would shuffle or creep around -- idea caught on.

Oh! Liberate

One of the newest stars in the entertainment field today is Liberate. He not only is a wizard at the piano, but, from the feminine point of view, is quite god-looking. Liberate has his own television program and is slated to begin making more recordings to meet public demand.

What's happening to Julius LaRosa? Many experts predicted that LaRosa wouldn't make it on his own when he split with Arthur Godfrey several months ago. This prediction seems to be coming true. LaRosa whether the public is aware of it or not is slipping fast. This is another case of a youngster not heeding the advice of someone far more experienced in the field. He was able to capitalize on the publicity that he received after the "split" but is finding it difficult to keep his name in lights.

Sergeant Prochak Joins ROTC Staff

Newest member of the ROTC staff is Sgt. John Prochak, a native of Campbell and a man with 13 years Army service.

A Ranger, Sgt. Prochak served in the campaigns of North Africa, Sicily and Italy. After discharge at the end of the war, he re-enlisted in 1946 and served with the Constabulary of the Occupation Force in Austria.

A holder of 3 battle stars and the Bronze Star, Prochak has done extensive work on mortars. Sgt. Prochak's duties will be to instruct the freshmen in infantry squad work and to assist the Pershing Rifles Drill Team.

Mr. B., although still one of the big nite club drawing names in show business, seems to be having a little trouble finding another hit tune via popular records. His latest waxing is that of "Don't Get Around Much Anymore" which is sung as only Mr. B. can sing them. But let's hope that he finds something really great soon, especially for Ernie G's sake.

Joni James has become one of the most startling phenoms in the recent history of the music business. Within the eleven months since "Why Don't You Believe Me?" Joni has sold nearly 6,000,000 records. Her club appearances now bring her from $7,500 to $12,500 weekly, and on a seven-day series of one nites she has earned $18,000 to $20,000.

Mitchell Wins Chem. Award

James Mitchell

The highest ranking freshman chemistry major during the past semester, James Curtis Mitchell, was honored recently at a meeting of the Youngstown College Chapter of Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society.

He was awarded the 1954 Edition of Chemical Rubber Publishing Co's. "Handbook of Chemistry and Physics."

A graduate of Austintown Fitch, Mitchell, whose father is a retired chemist, was president of both the National Honor Society and the Science Club while in high school.

Mitchell's award, valued at $10, is considered by Youngstown chemistry professors, an invaluable guide to any student majoring in chemistry. Many refer to it as "the Bible" of chemical study.

Those who join this group are eligible for sports participation and awards which are given at an awards banquet in the spring.

If you like sports and want to meet people, you can join W.R.A. Apply at the Women's physical education building.

Looking Around...

by Roy Schindell

While rummaging through my dresser for a green tie to wear this patty's day, I came across the following list of expressions which, if practiced and used this coming Irish day, will not only make you accepted amongst the one day Irish (Those who suddenly remember a distant relative that passed through Erin on their way to a phone booth, and therefore claim the right to live it up on Green Day.) but also the all year Irish. (If you don't know who they are, they are not Irish -- an outspoken group these Irishers).

Among the goodies on the list were; "Top O' the Morning" literally translated, means the upper part of the morning as contrasted to the lower part. A clever race these Irish. Who else would have thought of it, here we are, supposedly civilized and never once have we thought to divide the morning up into sections.

I haven't investigated but I imagine they've done the same with the afternoon, evening and night. Gad, to think of it. Another equally "a papro" is BEJABBERS, English Translation - To be jabbed. ERIN GO BRAGH ERIN GO BRAGH, Shout this frequently through the day and just watch the nods of approval. It is an old Irish expression borrowed from the Latins (At two per cent of course.) which when translated means WHAT'LL YOU HAVE?

To make your day a huge success refer now and then to the OLD SOD - Which is of course sod that has aged, and you know how the Irish feel about anything that has aged properly. But it is their day, and some of the Irish students you'll see with Shamrock in lapel and twinkle in eye this coming seventeenth are Nancy O'Conner, Bill Finn, Maggie Dempsey, Fran Murphy, Bob Dugan, John O'Malley, Lee (Don't forget the Shamrock Shuffle) Casey, Marion (Ditto) McCarthy, and Rosemarie (Metteferanian Irish) O'Altire. That's for the letter Rosie, you're a peach.

Happy birthday to Bob Mahoney. He got a new suit for his birthday and everyone is anxious to see Bob in birthday suit. Nancy Johnson who is usually late for philosophy class out-foxed Father Lucas and made a bit hit with the class - Seems Father Lucas got so used to Nancy coming in late and interrupting his train of thought, that he wouldn't begin anything deep till our "Nance" was seated.

Youths 18-20 Surpass Adults In General Political Survey

by George Gallup
(Director, American Institute of Public Opinion)

Princeton, N.J., March 3 -- Are the nation's 18-year olds smart enough to vote?

To help determine this a quiz, designed by editors of the Gallup poll in cooperation with Princeton University professors, was given to a typical sample of 18, 19 and 20-year-olds across the country.

Results show that, on the whole, the 18 to 20 age group does far better than their elders. On six of the seven questions, their scores surpass those of present voters.

Here are the "average scores" for the seven questions by the various age groups:

18-20 years	41
21-29 "	27
30-39 "	29
40-49 "	27
50 years and over	24

Here are seven questions asked by the Gallup poll:

1. How many states will elect members of the U.S. House of Representatives this fall?

18-20	22%
21-29	10
30-39	9
40-49	13
50 years and over	13

2. How many U.S. Senators are there from your state?

18-20 years	66%
21-29 "	42
30-39 "	54
40-49 "	50
50 years and over	47

3. Can you recall the names of your senators?

18-20 years	29%
21-29 "	24
30-39 "	30
40-49 "	31
50 years & over	34

4. What are the first 10 amendments to the Constitution called?

18-20 years	67%
21-29 "	49
30-39 "	40
40-49 "	29
50 years & over	2

5. What is meant by the electoral college?

18-20 years	38%
21-29 "	40
30-39 "	39

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason... enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

Penguins Close Season; Extend Wayne in Detroit

Youngstown College closed out the 1953-54 season with a win and a loss as the "Penguins" upset Western Reserve, 87-81, and bowed in overtime to Wayne University, 77-74, at Detroit.

Playing their final home game of the year, YoCo raced to a 47-34 lead at half-time over the Bear-Cats of Western Reserve. Fred Cleary had 13 points and Tony Knott had 11, as the two classy sophomores accounted for over half of the first half pointmaking.

Bombard Nets

In the second half they continued to bombard the nets as Knott garnered 13 markers and Cleary meshed 9. Their combined efforts were more than enough to offset classy Dick Howard, 6-6, center for the "Bear-Cats," who copped scoring honors with 32 points.

Bob Yuhas, playing his final home game for YoCo with a bad leg, chipped in 14 points and played a good game off the boards. Yuhas and Bob Mayberry teamed up to snare 20 rebounds.

Coach, Dom Rosselli, gave everyone a chance to play as he cleared the bench with 2 minutes remaining, and his "Penguins" out in front 86-73.

Proof that YoCo improved over the season showed up when the Penguins plays Phi Sigma Epsilon. In the 5 o'clock game, the winner of the Sig Sig-Kappa Sig game will play the winner of the Kappa Alpha Psi-Pi Beta Chi game.

This year's tournament, with double elimination set-up, has a new ruling about varsity and junior varsity players. No member of or former member of the varsity or junior varsity basketball squad is eligible to play.

Hit Hard

The teams hardest hit by this ruling will be Kappa Sigma Kappa and Phi Sigma Epsilon. The Kappa Sigs lose the services of Bob Yuhas, Ed Poplava, and Frank Beck, all of whom played varsity ball this year. The Phi Sigs will miss Bill Nagy's play. He played for the J.V.'s in his freshman year.

Pre-tourney favorites are Kappa Sigma Kappa and Kappa Alpha Psi. Even though the Kappa Sigs lose three players under the new ruling, they still have the same team which won the Walnut Division title in the intramural league. Kappa Alpha Psi is also a favorite on the basis of their intramural league showing.

forced Wayne University into two overtime periods before the Detroit boys eked out a 78-74 victory. Earlier in the year Youngstown College was soundly beaten by Detroit University and Wayne beat Detroit just as soundly.

YoCo lost the game at the foul line, as the Penguins hit on 50 per cent of their shots from the field, but only managed to mesh 18 out of 37 free throws.

Repeat as JAMBAR All-Stars

Repeaters from last year's JAMBAR Intramural All-star selections are these two sterling performers. Bill Nagy (left) played with championship Newman Club and was the big man in their attack. His floor play and play making stood out. Bob Lynn (right) a varsity footballer, led his F.I.O. squad into the tournament finals. He shattered all existing individual game records with a 52 point out-put against Phi Gamma.

Newman Club Cops Intramural Crown Jolts F.I.O., 51-48

A well-balanced Newman Club five copped the intramural basketball championship ousting F.I.O., last year's champs, with a 51-48 victory. The Newmanites rolled over A.O.H. and Chugden A.C. to gain the finals, while F.I.O. eliminated the Trophy Trotters and Kappa Sigma Kappa.

Newman Club's victory was almost a repetition of the regular season game between the two teams, except that the tournament game didn't go into overtime.

Bill Nagy and Dom Delsignor led the victory parade. Delsignor was high scorer for the winners and Nagy played an excellent floor game to spark his team throughout.

Mike Butch and Bob Lynn were the big guns for F.I.O. Butch, the play-maker all season, and Lynn, high point man for the losers, played championship ball, but the Newmanites had a little too much.

"How do you feel after the ride on that horse?"
"Say I never knew anything filled with hay could be so hard."

(Staff Special)

With the abundance of talent in both divisions of the intramural league this year, it was no small task to select the five top performers. As a result five men were selected in the Walnut Division and five in the Chestnut Division.

From these top 10, a first string all-star squad was chosen. At practically all positions it was a toss-up between the number one man in each division. In those cases where there was little or nothing to choose between two ball players an attempt was made to balance the division representation.

Bob Lynn, FIO, and Dom Delsignore, Newman, in the Chestnut Division were named as the starting forwards on the Intramural All-Star squad. Lynn is a repeater from last year's squad. The 6-1 scoring sen-

'54 Spring Sports Program Planned

Spring is just around the corner and that means spring sports will again be in the limelight.

On the national scene the spotlight is turned on major league baseball as both American and National League teams have already started playing exhibition games.

Here at Youngstown the college will participate in inter-collegiate golf and tennis matches. YoCo's golf team had a fair season last year, winning 8 and losing 2. With most of the team back, the Penguins should improve on that record.

The tennis team is an entirely different story, as coach, Ralph Beard, starts from scratch. Any male student is eligible and everyone will have an equal chance to make the team. There will be notices of tryouts in the JAMBAR and in the campus bulletin.

In order that all YoCo students can have a chance to participate in spring sports, there will be an intramural softball league for men, archery and tennis for men and women, and intramural softball for women.

"A" Bat. Nabs Cadet Crown

"A" Battery got by the Staff, 57-52, to gain the championship of the first annual ROTC Inter-battalion Tournament, as Cadet Dick Franko ripped in 15 points to pace the attack.

The "Able" battery gained the finals by trouncing "D" and "B" batteries. The Staff walloped the Band and then edged "E" Battery, 30-29 in earlier tournament action.

Bill Nagy, individual scoring leader and the Staff's mainstay, was picked as the Tourney's Outstanding Player. Jim Swift, top scorer for "A" Battery, won the Sportsmanship Trophy.

Penguins Select All-opponent Team

An All-Opponent team was picked recently by members of the 1953-54 Penguins. Ten players were chosen on the basis of their individual performances against the locals in regular season play.

George Dalton, John Carroll's 6-4 scoring machine and candidate for All-American honors heads the list. Dalton, who hits with equal consistency from mid-court or directly under the hoop, practically single handedly submerged the Penguins here when he got hot in the second half.

Charles Primas, a Wayne University shooting phenom, turned in one of the highest individual point outputs against the locals, hooping 36 in the "Motor City" finale. Possessor of a pair of mean hips and elbows but a capable shooter, is Western Reserve's All-Mid-American Conference center, 6-6, Dick Howard. His 32 point total wasn't enough to halt the Penguins.

Others named and points scored against the Penguins: Jerry Seuss, Baldwin-Wallace (23); Mark Davis, Marietta (39); Paul Brownlee, Stuebenville (37); Jim Riley, Westminster (31); George Hesch, Gannon (30); Jim Fenton, Akron (27); and Billy Blair, Geneva (25).

sation led his squad for the second straight year to the intramural championships. His 52 points in a regular season game shattered all records.

Delsignore, a varsity footballer and playing his first year of intramural ball, was the scoring leader on a strong Newman Club team. Deadly off the pivot and a strong rebounder, this boy is varsity material and we wouldn't be surprised to see him there next season.

Dick Nuskievich, 6-3 freshman cager with ROTC No. 1 in the Walnut Division, was named to the starting center spot. This boy is also of varsity timber, his shooting and rebounding kept a so-so ROTC gang in the thick of the Walnut race.

The guard berths are manned by repeaters Dick Franko, Kappa Sig, and Bill Nagy, Newman Club. Franko performed with a strong Kappa Sigma squad, who copped their division championship only to lose a heart breaker to FIO in the play-offs. His shooting and all around play featured.

Bill Nagy, 6-2 cager, was named as a starting forward in his division but moves into a guard spot as an All-Star. A deadly set-shot, playmaker and spark plug, this boy teamed up with Delsignore to give Newman Club one of the best balanced clubs in the league. They were eliminated in the play-off finale by a strong FIO squad.

Too much cannot be said about the other performers, named best in their divisions. It was difficult to keep a cager like Mike Butch off the first five, his brilliance made All-Star Bob Lynn look even better. Ned Mervos, burly Kappa Sig rebounder would be an asset to any squad he paced his team mates throughout the year and is a veteran performer. The seasons turned in by "Skip Gears, George Sveda and Ray Baker left little to be desired, it was simply a case of too much talent. All these boys can be called All-Stars.

Honorable Mention went to Roger Ottaway and Tom Mosure, ROTC No. 1, Jack Pierson, Chugden A.C., Jim Ondomessi, Nu Sigs, Jim Lawrence, Kappa Sigs, and Leroy Bolden, Kappa Alpha Psi, in the Walnut Division.

Chestnut honorable mention also went to Ron Shebak, Trophy Trotters, Jim Baytos, AOH, Don Balser and Bill Homick, Newman, Frank Raza, FIO, Don Phillips, Phi Sigs, and Ralph Reel, Phi Gams.

Hixenbaugh Tops Penguin Riflemen

The Youngstown College Rifle Team has had rough slogging this year, compiling a 3-9 record thus far, not so bad when you remember this is only their second year of competition.

They recently traveled to Erie, and defeated Gannon College 1810 to 1763 in the last conference match of the season. Top marksmen and averages are B. Hixenbaugh, 375; T. Terlecki, 366; G. Palombi, 363; J. Sekinger, 356 and J. DeLeo, 350.

They are coached by Lt. Wm. L. Collins and M-Sgt. Robinnett.

The team, open to any male college student, is recognized by the National Rifle Association of America and is a member of the Lake Erie Intercollegiate Rifle Conference.

There will be a match in the near future with the Sharpsville Rifle Club and in the latter part of March YoCo men will travel to K.S.U. to participate in the annual Rifle Team Banquet.

Dykema Attends Composition Meet

Prof. Karl W. Dykema, head of the Division of Language and Literature recently attended the annual meeting of the Conference on College Composition and Communications of the National Council of Teachers of English in St. Louis.

Dykema, a former chairman of the CCCC and a member of the executive committee, presided at an eight-member, three day panel on linguistics and the teaching of Freshman English. He also read the opening paper on the Historical Development of Grammatical Concepts.

CV's Outroll ROTC Cop Championship

The Culture Vultures copped the Intramural Bowling Championship recently, as they beat the R.O.T.C. kglers two out of three games on the Champion Alleys.

The R.O.T.C. team won first half honors with an 11 and 4 record while the C.V.'s were second with a 9 and 6 mark. First half individual average leader was Jim Assion of the C.V.'s with a 174 per game mark. Jim also had high game for the season with a 225 effort.

In the second half the C.V.'s led with a 17 and 3 record while the R.O.T.C. boys tumbled to fourth with an 8 and 12 mark.

The winning squad, which will get a trophy, was composed of Corky Grohovski, Bill Stasko, Jack Broderick, Jerry Thomas, Don Johnson, Jim Assion and Jerry Casey.
