Prexy Cracks Down On Football Pools

Here's a warning to Youngstown University students who may be thinking of engaging in the distribution of football lottery slips.

An ultimatum, issued by Howard W. Jones, University President announces that students taking part in such business will be expelled from the school.

The text of Dr. Jones' letter to Leonard Loopp, student council president follows:

Dear Mr. Loopp:

As you know, gambling is considered by the administration to be something that warrants the most severe penalty. Obviously it is not possible for the administration to police the campus, and in this, as in other disciplinary matters, Student Council can be helpful.

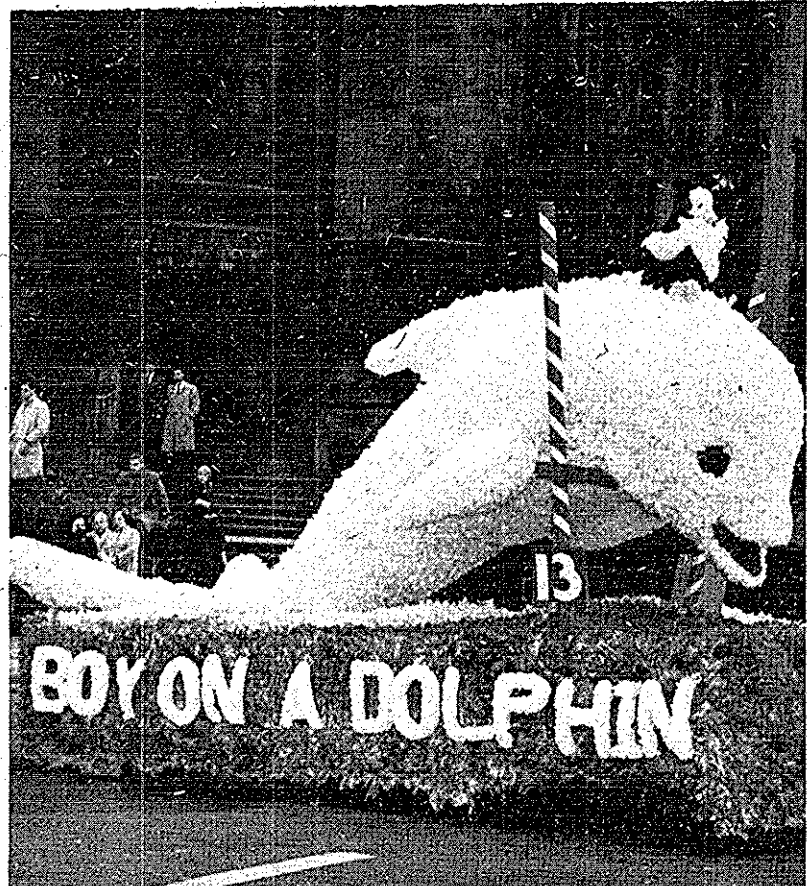

I am referring particularly at this time to football pools. Activity of this sort will not be tolerated on the campus, and prompt disciplinary action will be taken should any student be involved in such gambling. I shall welcome Student Council's cooperation in correcting this situation.

Yours very truly,

H.W. Jones, President

Neon Staff Meeting

There will be a meeting of the entire NEON staff on Sunday November 22, 1959, at the NEON office in the Placement Building on Spring Street. It is very important that all staff members are present.

Snowflake Chairmen Named By SC

From November 13 to 15, there will be a Regional Convention of the National Student Council Association at the University of Michigan. David Clark, who was elected a regional officer of N.S.A., and Marlene Mogish, Chairman of Student Council's N.S.A. Committee, will represent Youngstown University at this Convention.

Snow Flake Frolic Chairmanship has been granted to Gary Jones and Don Preston, members of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity.

Kappa Sig's, Phi Gamma Take Second, Third Place

Alumni Buffet Dinner, Bonfire
Were Huge Success

Beta Sigma Omicron, Delta Chi Epsilon and Sigma Tau Gamma walked off with first place honors in the annual Y.U. Homecoming Float Competition, last Saturday, Nov. 7.

Judges Joseph Ciminelli, Mario Bertolini, and Earl Friucle, basing their decision on originality, workmanship and reference to theme, chose Beta Sigma Omicron's "Trojan Horse" to fill first place in the sorority division. Sigma Tau Gamma's "Boy on a Dolphin" captured first place honors in the fraternity division. Taking the independent float trophy for the second year in a row was Delta Chi Epsilon with their entry "Jonah and the Whale".

Kappa Sigma Kappa placed second with "Cecrops" and Phi Gamma took the third spot with "Casey Jones".

Although the judging took place in the morning, the winning entries were not disclosed until half-time of the Y.U. - Southern Connecticut game.

Following the balloting Saturday, the seventeen float entries, led by the ROTC Color Guard, participated in a parade through the downtown district and out to Rayen Stadium.

Coronation Ceremony

Highlighting the halftime festivities was the coronation of pert, blond, Davene Ucello, Youngstown's 1959 Homecoming Queen. Miss Ucello was accompanied by her attendants, Betty Fabry and Bernadette Polisso. The Queen and her Court then led a parade consisting of the floats around the stadium for the benefit of visiting alumni.

A semi-formal dance held at Idora Park Ballroom after the game, brought a fitting close to the 19th annual Homecoming festivities. Music was furnished by Nick Barle's orchestra.

This notice is to inform you of your senior pictures for the 1960 Neon. For your convenience a studio will be set up on campus in the Purnell Room. No appointments will be necessary. Pictures will be taken:

November 16 9 A.M. to 4 P.M.

November 17 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. 7 P.M. to 9 P.M.

November 18 9 A.M. to 4 P.M.

November 19 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. 7 P.M. to 9 P.M.

If for some reason you cannot meet with this schedule, you will need to make an appointment with Abey Studios before the deadline, December 1. The sitting fee in each case will be $3.00, and this includes four proofs.

The Neon Staff suggests that all girls wear a dark colored sweater, and the men wear suits and ties.

Anthony B. Flask Will Speak To Newmanites

President of Council-elect Anthony B. Flask will speak at the Newman communion-breakfast at the St. Columba cafeteria following the 10:15 Mass on Sunday, November 15. Seats to the front of St. Columba Cathedral will be reserved for Newmanites attending this Mass.

Varsity "Y" Meeting

The members of Varsity Y will hold a meeting November 18, Thursday 10:00 P.M. at Tod Hall. Presiding President is Frank Guarnati. Varsity Y is comprised of the University's athletes who have won a Y.U. letter.

TROJANS WIN AGAIN: Beta Sigma Omicron snared the sorority trophy with their entry "Trojan Horse" modeled after the famous equestrian that featured in the downfall of Sparta in Greek Mythology.

Major Garcia of Cuban Army Will Speak To Spanish Club

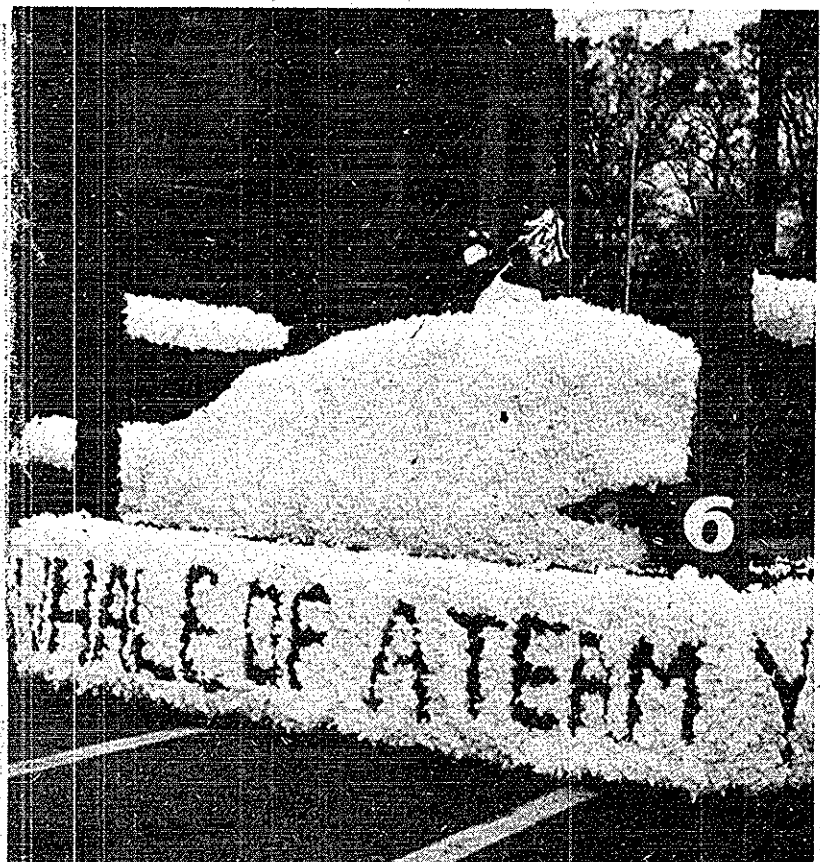

Major Orlando Garcia, retired Cuban army officer, who served under both the Batista regime and the new Revolutionary Government will speak at the Spanish Club meeting. Major Garcia is the brother of Dr. Garcia of the language department here at Y.U.

A lawyer in civilian life, the Major worked in connection with the legal branch of the Army since 1937. Major Garcia is no stranger in the United States, making several official trips

Presents Fall Recital Nov. 18

The Delta Eta chapter of Phi Mu Sinfonia, national professional music fraternity, will present its annual fall recital Wednesday evening, November eighteenth at 8:00 P.M. in Strouss Auditorium. The program will consist of soloists and ensembles taken from the membership of the Youngstown Chapter. It may be noted that this is the same organization that presented "Reflections in Jazz" on October seventh of this year. The forth coming recital will serve to prove the diversity of the fraternity's pursuits and the all-round musical talents of its members.

WHALE OF A FLOAT: Delta Chi Epsilon won the first place trophy for their entry in the independent division.

Scholarships Offered For Graduate Course In Journalism Study

Scholarship resources in the Graduate School of Journalism of Columbia university have been increased by more than $65,000 in recent weeks, it was announced last week by Edward W. Barrett, dean of the school. These funds will produce $12,200 for distribution in 1959-1960.

New Awards

Four new awards have been established. These will yield individual grants ranging from $500 to $2,000 in size. They will provide assistance for superior students who lack adequate financing to pursue the one-year graduate program in journalism. Including these new grants, the total of fellowships and scholarship assistance available at the school is approximately $40,000 annually.

One set of awards that Dean Barrett announced came from the settlement of the estate of the former managing editor of the New York Daily News, the late Frank J. Hause. Hause, who died in 1957, left $50,000 to the University for scholarships for students of journalism. Five grants a year of $2,000 each will be distributed over the next five years. Citizens of the United States who are residents of New York City are eligible for these awards.

Hough Memorial Scholarship

Dean Barrett also announced establishment of the George A. Hough memorial scholarship, an annual award of $500. Hough was a New England editor and publisher of a generation ago, whose two sons and two daughters-in-law are all graduates of the Columbia School of Journalism. The award was set up by his family.

An endowment of $14,000 has been established in the school by the National Federation of Financial Analysts Societies as a memorial to Mrs. Helen Slade Sand-

RIL To Hear Dr. Frederick W. Miller

Dr. Frederick W. Miller, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, will speak on "The Followers of John Calvin", the third in the series "Our Protestant Heritage", at the RIL meeting Sunday evening, November 15. The meetings are held every second and fourth Sunday evening at 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church.

Refreshments and dancing follow each meeting.

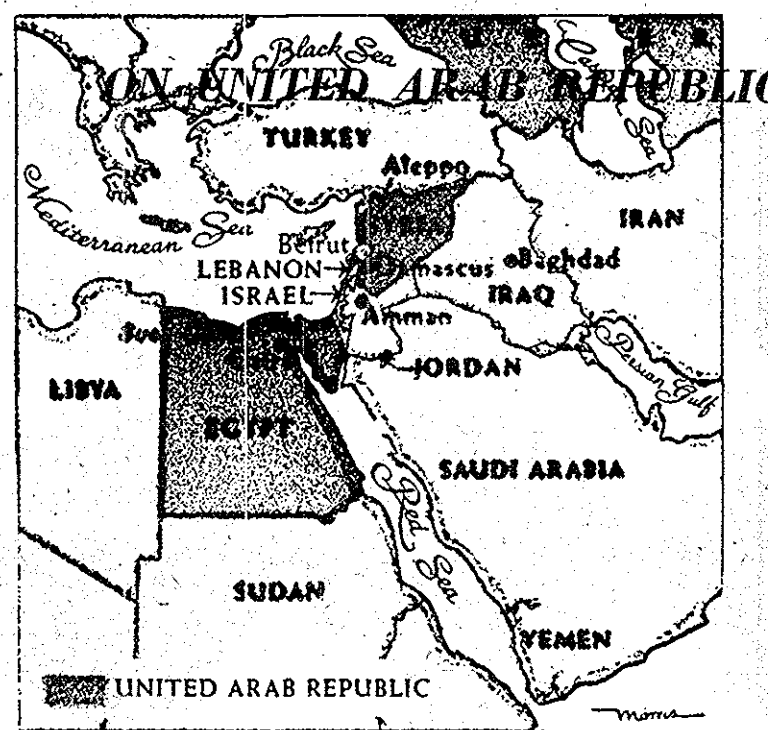

Social Science Club's Meeting A Success

The Social Science Club held its first formal meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. McDonald. A group of thirty people attended.

Mr. Kiriazes, a member of Youngstown University's faculty, spoke on "Social Structures in Primitive Societies". He stressed the fact that we attempt to evaluate the social organization of primitive societies by our Western values. Thus many standards of these societies seem ludicrous, immoral and even complex to us. But each standard is well-defined and has a specific purpose, while in our society standards are not too well-defined. This creates problems in social organization.

Afterwards, coffee, tea and sandwiches were served. The Social Science Club invites all students to their next meeting, which will be announced at a later time.

NEWLAND

On Feb. 1, 1958 the union of Egypt and Syria was formed. This union is now known as the United Arab Republic. Although this event is now 22 months old; the Republic, its government and its geographical location play an important role in current world affairs.

The union was proclaimed by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser and Syrian President Shukri al-Kuwatly.

Purpose

Their proclamation stated "the door is open" to any other Arab state to join the union "for the purpose of protecting the Arab people from harm and evil, strengthening Arab sovereignty and safeguarding its existence."

Nasser

On Feb. 5, Nasser proposed a 17 point program to the Egyptian National assembly which unanimously adopted it and at the same time nominated Nasser for the Presidency of the newly created Republic.

At the same time, in Damascus, President Kuwatly nominated Nasser for President of The United Arab Republic.

Nasser's program outlined liberties similar to those we possess in the United States; but it was evident that Nasser would have dictatorial powers.

Iraq and Jordan Unite

The two countries of Iraq and Jordan united Feb. 14 to form the Arab Union. King Faisal II, of Iraq, was named chief of state and King Hussein, of Jordan, to assume power in his absence. The agreement stated that Iraq and Jordan would preserve their independent existence and sovereignty. This second Arabian federation was declared "open to all other Arab states who wish to join."

Blessed Step

President Nasser proclaimed the Iraq-Jordan union as a "blessed step" toward "greater union" of all Arabs. He did not know, at that time, that the Arab Union had no intention of combining with the United Arab Republic.

At the same time Nasser denounced the new union as "a false federation" that will be scattered like dried leaves before the wind." He pledged to "fight against imperialist stooges," implying the leaders of the Arab Union, adding: "Our union shall bring together the whole Arab nation, whether they like it or not."

Arab Strife

The reason for the hot and cold Arabian strife is quite evident; Nasser firmly believes he is the saviour of the Arab people and the Iraqi-Jordanian union presents a block to his program of unification.

Many problems face Nasser in his drive to attract Arab states to the United Arab Republic.

Egypt does not have a stable currency, the other countries have. The economy of Egypt is controlled, that of the other states is not. Land ownership is another problem facing Nasser. In Egypt, ownership is restricted to 250 acres per family; the other states farm in large estates.

These same problems are also causing poor relations between Syria and Egypt.

Cultural Missions

Egypt and Syria are being heavily bombarded with Soviet propaganda. "Cultural missions" between Moscow and Prague, Cairo and Damascus are numerous. The Russian government supplies Egypt and Syria with movies and their newsstands are filled with Soviet newspapers, magazines and books printed in Arabic.

The U.S.S.R. also makes it possible for young Syrians and Egyptians to receive a technical education in Moscow or Prague.

Cold War Position

The real problem we face today is not the success or failure of the United Arab Republic; the real problem is this, which side does Nasser favor: East or West.

We must remember Nasser's ultimate aim is to bring about a united and independent Arab nation.

Nasser is familiar with American history and a favorite passage of his is contained in Washington's Farewell Address. The passage is concerned with entangling alliances and contains the words "positive neutrality" and "nonalignment."

Three little words; big in meaning. Let us hope Nasser abides by them in his relationship with the Soviet Union.

A Proposal to Student Council

Student Council has been under heavy fire from many students of Y.U. who are critical of the organizations handling of the business and interests of the student body.

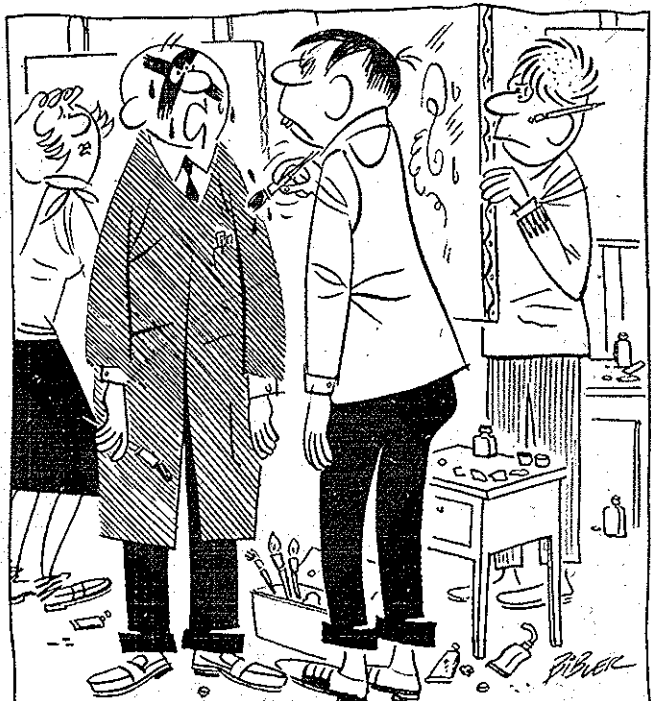

The Jambar and its staff would like to suggest that the difficulty lies not in the individuals who are presently serving on council, but rather with the basic structure of the organization itself. Many questions come to an interested student's mind in regard to Student Council and its function. We would like to propose that a group of faculty members and responsible students be appointed by the President of Student Council, Leonard Loopp, to study the problems and shortcomings of the present set up. We feel that this group should take note of the following and start from the ground up with (1) The constitution (2) More diversified representation and (3) More power vested in the Student Council to adequately deal with problems which will arise in student government.

Let us elaborate. The present constitution of Student Council contains some basic flaws which naturally effects the entire complexion of council and its decisions. In some places it is too specific and allows for little movement of the democratic process while in other articles, such as governing elections, it fails to deal clearly with the matter. We understand that the constitution is now undergoing "surgery" by the Constitution Committee of Student Council, however we feel that an objective study of the whole document by a study group would be a better and wiser investment in the long run.

Diversified representation is something which the Jambar cried out for last year and supported at the suggestion of Prof. Christine Dykema in an interview published in the Nov. 14, 1958 issue. In that interview, Prof. Dykema in answer to a query directed to her by the interviewer in regards to the popular election of Student Council President rejected that idea by stating, "A better attack would be an effort to get diversified representation. I would like to see a plan whereby diversified representation would include independents." This is a point and proposal which Student Council must take note of if it is to exist as the representative body of the students in the truest sense of the word. We would like to see the proposed study group take up the possibility of limiting the number of representatives from any one organization to a number which would be in keeping with the diversified representation theme.

We would like to see this group take a long look at the actual governing power of Student Council and if there is enough authority invested in the organization to make it an effective body of student representation having the power to deal with problems which will arise in student government.

May we add that we make these suggestions only in the interests of better student government and in the interests of the ENTIRE student body. If these proposals can be used to better the organizational set up of student government we will feel that the student newspaper is serving its function properly as the newspaper published by and for the students of Youngstown University.

Looking Y Around...

by Blase DeLeo & Pat McCarren

Happy Friday the Thirteenth, Little One! Glancing about the campus at students, faculty, administrators, visitors, organizations, activities, etc. (mostly etc.), we noticed these developments:

The power supply to the Library and Tod Hall was cut off for several hours last week. As of this writing, no one is exactly sure whether it was accidental or perhaps a new economy move. The cubicles on the first floor and the stacks and study rooms on the second and third floors were quite dark, and one could hear a groan now and then as some person stumbled into a desk or table. No one seemed to be very excited or anxious about the situation with perhaps the exception of one person who happened to be in the elevator and got caught between floors.

It has been reported that someone was hit in the face with a pie in the Snack Bar. We don't know or care who is the big pie-face, but we are interested in the person doing the pitching. Softball season isn't too far off, you know.

Anyone interested in several cases of tea bags, please contact the Bookstore. They are stacked by the door, and have been there for several days. Is someone planning a Youngstown University version of the Boston Tea Party?

Have you noticed all the football spot cards floating around the area? We have only one thing to say - Remember Michigan State, boys!

Molly Stuart wants to know why we haven't mentioned her name yet, and Jack Tesyk has asked if we've forgotten the bicycle race at the YU-OU game. Our answers to these people ... "No reason", and "No, but we thought you wanted to forget it."

FOR SALE DEPT. -- Several slightly used floats, in good condition. Driven very slowly one day only. Reasonable. Contact any greek.

Saw some poor fellow who had locked his keys in his car in the engineers' parking lot. He was last observed pushing a wire through the vent window with several "sidewalk superintendents" close at hand furnishing him with all sorts of useless information.

Congratulations are in order for the freshmen who turned out so well for last Friday's Pep Rally. Of the sixty or seventy people who attended, many were freshmen. Here's hoping they keep up their school spirit throughout their stay here at YU. The greeks were noted by their absence. We thought that IFC and Pan-Hel were backing the school spirit campaign. Wha-hoppen?

The Homecoming dance was well attended, in fact, people were packed in like sardines. About one-third never got to sit down. Our sympathy to those who had to sit next to the walls, for, by the time they fought through the crowd to the dance floor, the band was leaving for another break.

The Military-Mind-At-Work Dept. Following is an order issued by the U.S. Air Force several years ago:

"Effective 12 November, and until further notice, USAF aircraft will not traverse a circular area of two nautical miles in radius, the center of which is located at 77 degrees 15 minutes west longitude, and 39 degrees 47 minutes 37.5 seconds north latitude (about five miles SWS of Gettysburgh Pa.)

Translated into everyday civilian language, the order reads: Stay away from Ike's barn. You say you have had a wonderful Friday the Thirteenth? You woke up to find that your faithful old mutt had spent the night chewing on your new crew neck sweater ... is that what's wrong? You went out to find vandals had stolen the seats from your jalopy and you had to sit on your books all the way to school ... is that what's troubling you, brother? You stepped into the Snack Bar and someone mistook your back for a sinf and spills a trayful of coffee down your neck ... is that what's troubling you, bunky?

Sigma Alpha Iota To Hold Bake Sale

Sigma Alpha Iota, Professional Music Fraternity for Women is holding a bake sale at the downtown J.C. Penny store on Saturday, November 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00. Among the baked goods will be homemade bread, cakes, pies, and some southern European pastries.

All proceeds from the sale will go to the Sigma Alpha Iota Music Therapy Fund.

Barbara Cronie and Fred Kirby are co-directors of the Y.U. show.

Minds, too, need cultivating

Nourish the mind, and the harvest can be bountiful beyond all measure.

Our nation, up to now, has been richly rewarded by the quality of thought nourished in our colleges and universities. The kind of learning developed there has made possible our American way of life.

Today these colleges are facing a serious crisis. Low salaries are driving too many gifted teachers into other fields. Many classrooms are seriously overcrowded. And by 1967 enrollments are expected to double!

Our institutions of higher learning are doing their best to meet these challenges. But they need help. Help the college of your choice now, and help perpetuate the American way of life.

If you want to know more about what the college crisis means to you, write for a free booklet to: HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, New York.

You are undoubtedly an underclassman not doing well in a History Class who has not been made aware of the prime function of a college education, to teach one to think for one's self. Indeed, higher education provides you with much information but this is a defunct tool without reason. Do read the following carefully!

"Let the tutor make his pupil sift everything and lodge nothing in his head upon simple authority and trust. Let not Aristotle's principles be principles to him any more than those of the Epicureans and the Stoics. Let the diversity of opinions be laid before him, he will choose IF HE BE ABLE; IF NOT, HE WILL REMAIN IN DOUBT."

This paragraph is taken from Montaigne's essay "Of the Education of Children" which you might try reading entirely for self enlightenment.

You see, professors are in colleges to CHALLENGE you to think thus enabling you to receive a good grade which seems to be the problem; and, not to indoctrinate you with professorism, as you have stated.

Bobwhite Quail Becomes Legal Game Monday, Nov. 16

Hunting To Be Permitted In State Owned Areas Only

Division Of Wildlife To Enforce Law

By Paul Jagnow
(Jambar sports editor)

On Nov. 16, Ohio nimrods will once again be able to set forth into the fields in search of the bobwhite quail, after a period of 46 years, during which the wily gamebird was on the hunter's taboo list.

Although a bill passed by the state legislature ended the ban on quail hunting, the division of wildlife has placed strict restrictions on the hunting of the bobwhite.

Quail may be taken only on areas of land that are owned by the state, lands controlled by the Division of Wildlife, licensed game preserves or other areas approved by the state. Farmers and their families are also prohibited from hunting quail on their own property, unless they are a part of a unit approved by the state.

There are a number of areas in the Youngstown district that are open to quail hunters such as the Berlin Reservoir, Grand River in Trumbull County, Lake Park and Zepernick Lake in Columbiana County. All are owned and operated by the state.

First Quail Season Ran 140 Days

Quail were not protected at all until 1857, at which time the state set the first season that spread from September 15 to February 1. There was also no limit placed on the number of quail that could be taken.

From 1886 to 1913, however, both the seasons and the bag limit were reduced considerably. In 1886 the season was shortened to 53 days from the original 140. By 1904 the season had dropped to 32 days and a limit of 18 was placed on the number of quail that could be taken in a day.

In the years leading up to 1913 the bobwhite seasons continued to grow shorter and shorter, finally reaching a low of 20 days. The bag limit fell right along with the season changes and finally reached the bottom in 1911, when nimrods were restricted to 12 per day.

1913 Marked Close Of Quail Season

A low quail population, along with numerous other factors accounted for the closing of the season in 1913. Sportsmen interested in keeping the bobwhite as a game bird asked for a two-year closed season and then repeated their request again in 1915, for a two-year extension.

After four years of no open season, a legislative act was passed proclaiming the bobwhite a songbird, where it remained until 1949.

In 1949, after 32 years as a songbird, the bobwhite was again returned to the gamebird status for the purpose of gathering information on its management and to eliminate some of the ill feeling that had existed throughout the years.

First Reopening Attempt Failed

A bill to re-establish quail hunting on a limited basis was drawn up in 1955, but died at Governor Frank Lausche's desk, after being passed by both houses of the legislature.

Finally in May of this year, the "Quail Bill" was given the green light by the Ohio Legislature and was signed by Governor Michael DiSalle, ending the 46 year quail hunting boycott.

Hunter Must Know Quarry's Habits

In order to hunt quail successfully, the hunter must have a sound basic knowledge of quail habits and habitat. The elusive birds generally feed early in the morning and again in the evening. The remainder of the day is usually spent in thickets and briar patches.

When flushed from cover, they will usually fan out and fly widely scattered areas. Many sportsmen follow a rule limiting themselves to only a portion of a covey.

Rabbit Season Opens Monday, Nov. 16

Besides the bobwhite, Nov. 16 also marks the opening date for the hunting of rabbit, pheasant, partridge, racoon, opossum, mink and muskrat. Trapping season for the latter four also begins on the 16th. Raccoon hunting is restricted to the hours between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m.

So far this year the state has issued 63,885 small game licenses, of which 563 are non-resident licenses. A tag maybe purchased from authorized state agencies for $2. A non-resident permit sells for $15.

HUNTING SEASON OPENS: More than 63,000 nimrods will venture through Ohio woodlands during the small game season which opens this Monday. Ohio sportsmen will also be taking their first crack at the bobwhite quail since the season was closed in 1913.

Penguins Bow To S. Conn. 25-22

Harold Green Tosses Three TD Passes

Youngstown University was edged out by the undefeated Southern Connecticut Owls, 25 to 22, in the Penguins Homecoming tilt last Friday night, at Rayen Stadium.

The Owls of New Haven, now with seven victories under their belt, scored in the first period on a 45 yard run by Hank Luzi. They upped the score two more points on a safety when Paul Cerenuga was trapped in his own end zone.

Youngstown made it 10-8 on a 45 yard aerial by Harold Green when he connected with Tom Smolanovich. Southern Connecticut matched the Penguins touchdown when Walt Stosuy plunged over from the one, after a 40 yard drive, to give the Owls a 17-8 halftime lead.

Gray Runs 98 Yards

At the beginning of the second half after Youngstown had driven to Owls one yard line and were penalized back to the five, Harold Gray picked off Green's pass into the flat and dashed 98 yards for another Southern Connecticut tally.

Green Completes 18 Passes

Penguin quarterback Harold Green, who racked up 278 yards as he hit 18 out of 37 passes, connected on a 12 yard pass and then again on an 8 yard aerial for Youngstown's final touchdown in the last period to trim the Owls winning margin. The half-time activities were highlighted by the crowning of Youngstown's Homecoming Queen Davene Uccello and a parade with the queen, her court and an array of colorful floats.

Pitt-Notre Dame Game on Television

The Notre Dame-Pitt football game at Pittsburgh Saturday will be televised to the eastern NCAA region, the National Broadcasting Co. said today.

THE LOCKER ROOM

By Pete Arlow
(Jambar football writer)

The "hard luck" Penguins once again lost a heartbreaker, this time to the Owls of Southern Connecticut, by a 25-22 score. It was the same old story, with the Penguins surging down the field on several occasions, only to fizzle out when the goal line was within a short distance.

Although definitely exhibiting better all round play, Y.U. wound up on the short end of the all important scoring stick. In the last two games the Penguins have been within 10 yards of a score at least seven or eight times, and still have been unable to surge across for the T.D. If the gridiron was only 90 yards long, undoubtedly the locals would only have one game in the loss column.

Larry Jordan Injured

Y.U. suffered a real jolt against the Owls, when Larry Jordan, rugged Penguin tackle, received a head injury and had to be taken to the hospital. His presence was really missed, but his position was capably filled by freshman John Edwards. The injury was diagnosed by doctors as "a slight concussion" and may keep Larry from finishing out the season. Everyone is hoping he'll pull through fast and that his name will reappear on the line-up soon.

A note of thanks to everyone for the fine school spirit shown at Y.U.'s home games. It is really gratifying to know that the fans are behind you, on and off the gridiron. There is nothing that makes one feel better than to have fellow students say, "nice game" whether the Penguins win or lose.

The Lighter Side

An Election was held, recently, in the lockeroom to see who would be voted the "biggest nagger". The incumbent Tom Richards did conduct a very clean, but slightly underhanded campaign, the results of the balloting bearing out this fact.

Markasky Elected

Out of a possible 41 votes, Larry Markasky captured 38, Jerry Stumpo got one, Tom Richards snared one and even team captain, Tom Smolanovich rated one. Larry, who is known to his teammates as "Fisheye" conducted a very respectable campaign and is to be congratulated for his hands down victory. We know that he will do better in the next election.

As of last Sunday the team standings were:

	Points	Won	Lost
Y.U. Strikers	12	9	3
Phi Gamma	12	8	4
Zeta Phi	9	7	5
Theta Chi	8½	5½	6½
Sigma Tau Gamma	8	7	5
R.O.T.C.	7	6	6
Phi Epsilon	7	5	7
T.K.E.'s	6	4	8
Beta Tau	5½	5½	7½
Kappa Sig's	5	5	8

THE GREEK LETTERS

Hello again from the LITTLE PEOPLE.

Now that the hectic Homecoming weekend is over we can get back to the dull routine of sleep and study and sleep and study.

Congratulations to the winners of the float competition. We wish to commend John Hite and Don Riley for a well-planned Homecoming weekend.

We extend our deepest sympathies to the poor brow-beaten pledges of the sororities. Really girls we hope you will enjoy yourselves for these days will long be remembered.

Now to get to the latest news among the Greeks.

Beta Sigma Omicron Sorority

Congratulations to Youngstown University's Homecoming Queen, Davene, and her two lovely attendants, Bernie and Betty.

Beta Sigma Omicron's membership has been increased by four new pledges whom we would like to introduce: Angie Criscione, Becky Gibson, Tish Kachue, and Mary Ellen Murphy, plus two honorary members who don't wish to have their names publicized at the present moment.

The actives and pledges dined at the Venitian Restaurant after an impressive pledge ceremony at the apartment. Last week everyone missed Dulcie Mesaros and Joyce Coble who were spending all their time at the Bus Garage building "Duljob".

What member has been making bi-monthly trips to Cleveland to see what TEKE?

Marion Minghetti is wearing a beautiful diamond. Congratulations Tom Steele. Congratulations are due also to Tish Kachur and Steve Garchar, Sigma Tau Gamma, on their recent engagement.

Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity

The Mothers Club of Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity held its first meeting of the year Sunday, October 25, 1959, at the fraternity house. Officers for the year are Mrs. Torek, President, and Mrs. Byers, secretary-treasurer.

The brothers would like to congratulate Zeta Phi and its fine football team. Nice game, men. Congratulations also to the KSK six on a game well played.

Congratulations are in order also for the newly wedded Wilbur Cole, and to Steve Garchar on his recent engagement to Tish Kachur.

Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority

The sisters of Alpha Omicron Pi wish to thank all who attended our annual "Sweater Dance".

Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority is proud to announce six new pledges who were installed at the Golden Drumstick: Marleta Barnes, Patricia Hackett, Alice Mittman, Carol Patterson, Carolyn Poluso, and Sylvia Smith.

Congratulations to Sandy Bailey on her new position as Senior Class Secretary.

Zeta Phi Fraternity

A spaghetti dinner was held for the rushees at the Airport Tavern. Spotted shirts and full stomachs were the results of the event. A good time was had by all.

Congratulations to the Kappa Sigs on a game well played. They displayed outstanding sportsmanship and fair play which is typical of their fraternity.

Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity

The brothers of Alpha Phi Delta have turned to romance.

After ten years of college and 8 years of going steady, Frank "Batman" Tavocario has become engaged. Congrats Frank.

Anyone wonder why the brother with the largest nose has been frequenting Cadillac Drive? Rumor has it that he's found someone to help him with his homework.

Frank Micchia has decided to pledge TKN Sorority to indoctrinate "Brotherhood" to one of its members.

If anyone wonders what Sammy's smile is for, it's called Janice.

Kappa Sigma Kappa Fraternity

Thanks to everybody for the long hours of hard work put in on the Homecoming float. Jelly roll Collins won the "sore fingers award" for stuffing the most napkins. Now we can start on the IPC Booth.

Congratulations to Bob Cain and Renie McGuire. Best wishes for a happy life to gether.

Dear M.S.: Please remove your bathrobe from the back seat of Tiger's car. Thanks.

Tau Kappa Nu Sorority

Tau Kappa Nu Sorority held its annual rush dinner at the Golden Drumstick Restaurant, October 27th.

Sixty attended and everyone received individual corsages of baby mums.

Theta Chi Fraternity

The brothers of Theta Chi Fraternity wish to congratulate Tom Walsh on his recent marriage to Linda Carosella.

The brothers wish to congratulate Don Riley and John Hite on the excellent way Homecoming weekend was planned.

All of the brothers are resting after working hard all last week on the float.

Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity

The Phi Sigs would like to commend Brothers Walter Bartlick and Richard Maksimowski for the splendid job they did as co-chairmen of the Homecoming float. By the way, the week spend decorating the float was hilarious.

The brothers of Phi Sigma Kappa were recently paid a visit by Brother John Bowker, National Field Secretary of Phi Sigma Kappa. Brother Bowker is an alumnus of the University of Detroit.

Phi Mu Sorority

Phi Mu pledges were installed in an impressive ceremony at the apartment on Friday, October 30, 1959. The new pledges are Angie Calo, Toni Cichon, Lorie Ciolli, Bev Javorsky, Patti Ann Mastran, Judy Powell, Pat Santore and Alice Zebrowski.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity

Best of luck to Brother Mandish in the coming basketball season as he vies for first string at YU.

This year's Founder's Day Banquet at the Key Club was the best ever held, so say the brothers and our 15 alumni present. Why was Zito's name printed so large on the program - your guess is as good as mine. Our Homecoming Float's police escort, with blinking lights and wailing sirens, brought attention to one of the finest floats built at YU, and certainly the best Sig Eps have built. Don Preston's house decorations certainly stand out, even though the owl draped over the goal posts did look like a bear.

Voted as outstanding football player for the Sig Eps, Steve Pigna has let the honor go to his head as usual.

Elected to the all star football team at YU Brother Hoffman well deserves the honor.

Joe Patella, our floats lever man, keeps complaining about a sore arm.

Senior class Vice President Ron Vanatsky says that he will find out anything we would like to know about running an effective organization.

Looking at our pledge program we find some 14 of YU's finest men very much concerned about their ties with a pledge trainer, Bill Black.

Dramatics Fraternity Elects Officers

At a recent meeting of the Eta Phi cast of Alpha Psi Omega honorary dramatics fraternity election of officers and names of pledges were decided upon. The officers are President - Jim Sekinger, Vice-president - Jazy Zemko, Secretary ; Joyce Bryan, Treasurer - Lotus Harris, Pledge master - Gary Norris, Delegate-at-large to the Executive Committee - Anna Marie Zemko, Sergeant at arms - Cheire Mohn. Pledges are Gail Shacter, John Bishara, Vilma Terle, John Ulichney, Rita Nolte, Joe Ashton, Jim Ghroul, Bob Jones, Bob Boye.

Phi Gamma Fraternity

On November 15th the Mothers and Wives Club will have a meeting at Krider Hall to make plans for the future Minerva Club of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

Thanks to all the brothers who worked so diligently on the float. The Phi Gam bowling team has started this season at a hot pace. Hopes are high that Captain Zilnik and his men can continue at their present clip.

LUCKY STRIKE presents

Dear Dr. Frood:

Dr. Frood, Ph.T.T.

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH

When the world seems dark . . . when the sun refuses to shine, do not fret. It happens every night.

Dear Dr. Frood: A professor here says I'm so dumb I can't spell my own name. What should I do?
Willium

Dear William: He's just teasing.

Dear Dr. Frood: Several girls' colleges nearby depend on our college for dates. Some girl is always calling and asking me to go out. How can I politely refuse?
Bothered

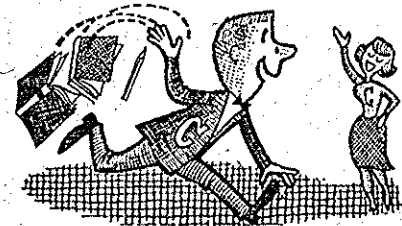

Dear Bothered: Say you have a headache. Better still, admit you have no head.

Dear Dr. Frood: I have gone steady with four different boys in the last three weeks. Would you call me fickle?
L.N.

Dear L.N.: I would call you seldom.

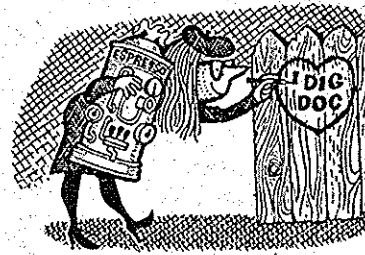

Dear Dr. Frood: I hear that at some schools they let you smoke in class. How can I convince our administration to do the same?
Hopeful

Dear Hopeful: Wherever you smoke Luckies, you're smoking in class.

Dear Dr. Frood: My girl is the best-looking doll on campus. . . honey-blond hair, beautiful face and figure. I date her so often that my marks are suffering. What should I do?
Daddy

Dear Daddy: Better your marks suffer than you.

Dear Dr. Frood: Like you're the most. I mean like you're out there . . . so cool you're iceville. Like you're the ginchiest.
Chick

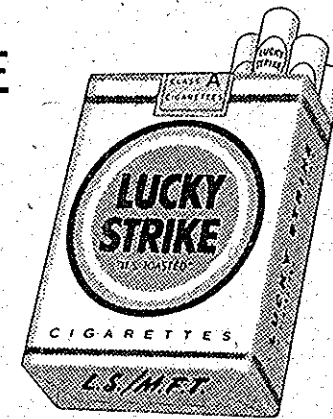

Dear Chick: Like you're sick, Chick.

DR. FROOD ON A CURIOUS DECISION

There is considerable talk in tobacco circles about the introduction of new cigarette flavors. It is expected that you will soon be able to buy cottage-cheese cigarettes, sarsaparilla cigarettes and fresh-garden-vegetable cigarettes. You will be happy to know that Lucky Strike has decided to stick with its own remarkable taste—that of fine tobacco only. A pleasant decision, I'd say.

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

TOBACCO AND TASTE TOO FINE TO FILTER!

NOSMO KING

Campus Philosopher

by Frank Court
(Jambar feature writer)

From the mouth of Nosmo King issues the cry, "Ivy league strait jackets for all the college idiots, and for the social climbers, higher banana trees."

That is the slogan Nosmo will use for his platform in this year's campus Amazon Election.

Nosmo, a candidate for the office of President of Amazons, has outlined a plan that should have a tremendous effect on the welfare of the students.

Nosmo plans:

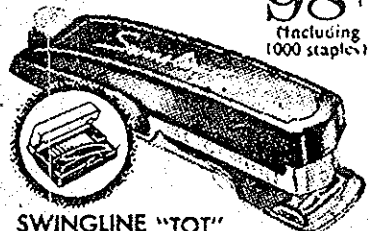

1. Two tall buildings to be erected directly opposite one another in the middle of the campus. One for the Greeks and one for the Independents. These buildings will have huge porches and the porches will be stocked with mud-balls. The Greeks and Independents will then be able to sling them at each other.
 2. Back scratchers will be placed in convenient locations. This will make it easier for certain organizations to scratch each others backs while they are cooking up their corrupt political deals.
 3. Heavy underwear will be issued to all male students who are trying to beat the draft.
 4. Free acting lessons will be given to all students who aren't phony enough yet.
 5. Telescopes will be placed on every building throughout the campus. This should make it easier for the leeches to find their victims.
 6. False smiles, equipped with built in speakers that project an empty "hello" at the press of a button, will be given to all social climbers before every election.
- Afterwards, a trophy will be awarded to the person with the whitest teeth.
7. A new dance will be originated. It will be called, The Ballon-head hop. A prize will be awarded to the student displaying the most hot air.
 8. Several baskets will be placed at favorable spots on the campus. These will be used by the students who lose their heads.
 9. Humility will be abandoned completely and in its place will rise a stink of egotism that will plague the campus and infest the student body.

Remember, at this year's Amazon Election, vote for Nosmo King.

He has YOU in mind.

Library Inventory Shows Improvement

According to the annual report of Mr. George Jones, Youngstown Librarian, fewer books were missing at inventory this August than for many years. Once a year the library staff makes a complete check of all the books on the shelves and removes from the catalog all cards for missing books. The number of missing books had risen so high in years past that the administration had seriously considered returning to the old procedure of closed stacks, and not allowing the students to find books for themselves. However, with this rise in the honesty of library users, the danger of having to wait for someone to deliver each book to the reader has been averted. Judging by these statistics from our library we have done something more important than the Russian improvement in space travel; here at Youngstown University there has been improvement in mankind.
