

New Additions To University Faculty

Two new additions to the Youngstown University teaching staff are Mr. Wallace R. Moore and Mr. Macklin W. Schabitzer. Mr. Moore will teach in the Arts school and Mr. Schabitzer will teach in the School of Business Administration.

Moore, studio supervisor of Radio Station WKBN-TV will teach a class in jewelry work. He received the degrees Bachelor of Fine Arts and Bachelor of Science in Education from Ohio State University and has had experience teaching public school and adult groups. He was art supervisor in Ashtabula Harbor public schools from 1950 to 1952 when he joined the staff of WKBN.

Schabitzer, from Warren, will teach courses in Business Administration at Youngstown. He is a graduate of Cleveland Heights High School and is now employed by the Heltzel Steel Form and Iron Co.
