

Mr. Gay Appointed English Advisor

Mr. Thomas Gay, professor of communications, has accepted the position of advisor to the English Society. In the past the club has had only two advisors, Dr. Harder, and Dr. O'Brien, both of the English Department. The club, however, felt it would be to their advantage to add another one.

The English Society is now planning entertainment for a Women's Club engagement. They are also trying to gather books for a book sale in December.
