Dear Dr. Somonkos:

This letter is to formally request a grade of "I" for History 655 cc. 2231, in which I am enrolled. I have recently encountered a number of family problems which make it impossible for me to continue this quarter. I am, however, very interested in continuing this course some time in the future when my problems have been resolved.

Thank you.

The Legend of Valentine's Day

In ancient times, so the story is told, a religious man named Valentine was put to death for his faith. Despite the fact that soldiers had been forbidden by law to marry, Valentine, no enemy of love, performed a marriage ceremony in secret.

For his crime he was arrested, jailed, and sentenced to death.

While a prisoner, the legend holds, Valentine fell deeply in love with the jailer's daughter and she with him. On the day he died he left behind in his cell a love letter to her. The signature, so the tale goes, was "Your Valentine."

February 14, when the first stirrings of spring are in the air, when birds—tradition holds—choose their mates, was allotted to St. Valentine. The day has since spawned numerous customs and usages associated with love.

In medieval England it was customary for ladies to tie colored ribbons around the head of their beds and to eat special food to induce dreams of the one who would marry them.

Tradition held it that the first unmarried man a girl met on the morning of this day would become her sweetheart and marry her.

Valentine's Day meant elaborate letters and handmade cards. As the craft of printing became more refined, valentine cards came into common use.

The customs remain with us today; at the heart of the celebration is, as always, the traditional valentine card.

All of these expressions of love were inspired, so legend tells us, by the simple note left by a saint as he faced martyrdom signed "Your Valentine."

Dear Les,

I have been meaning to write and thank you for a most entertaining presentation to the Akron Rotary Club for the past week. Good intentions have been scuttled by classes and committee work. We are involved in National Engineer's Week in our School, and I am leading the activities.

I have had many comments from Rotarians about your talk. They all enjoyed it, and your delightful sense of humor. Some did not think that St. Valentine could be made so appealing.

Thanks again for sharing your thoughts and research with us.

Sincerely,

Kedves Laci,

Szeretném nyugtázni és szivből megköszönni a mai postával kézhezvett irásodat; köszönöm, hogy azon bizonyos jubileum kapcsán elmondtad azt, és köszönöm azt is, hogy megőrizted s továbbítottad nekem. Különösen hálás vagyok a sorok mögött és között kiérzett barátságodért.

Örömmel leirom azt is, hogy Brooke már majdnem normálisan tud járni; a közelgő Sándor nap kapcsán már majd kergetőzünk az asztal körül is.

Vasárnap este a Magyarok Nagyasszonya Egyháznál a vacsora kapcsán jó volt látni Édesanyádat. Neki kimondottan jól áll a fehér hajkoszoru...

Éppen most volt egy óras telefon-beszélgetésem Carol Fischer-rel. Sajnos - se rövid se hosszú távon - nem néz ki ígéretesnek a kelet-európai szponzorálás. Ugyanakkor, úgy hírlik, kb. 15,000 ember érkezett ki Erdélyből magyar földre az ujesztendő első két hónapjában.

Évával együtt szeretettel ölel, ismételt köszönettel,

Sándor

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Domonkos:

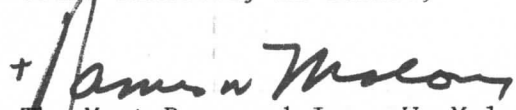

Again our Catholic Charities Appeal theme is "Reach Out In His Name." This theme explains the motivation for the work you do through Catholic Charities in our diocese. It also explains the motivation of your contribution to our annual Appeal.

In response to Jesus' call to share with those in need, people like you "reach out" and support our Appeal. Because of your generosity, Catholic Charities reaches out through seven area Social Service Agencies, the Departments of Family Life and Social Action and various Community Services. In the name of Christ Jesus we together touch the lives of thousands throughout the six-county Diocese of Youngstown.

In 1988, you supported Catholic Charities with your gift of $80.00. THANK YOU. Now as we begin our 1989 Appeal, I ask you, as a Bishop's Advance Gift Pacesetter, to "reach out" by repeating your gift or to consider increasing it to $85.00. Your gift can be paid in four installments of $21.25 each. Reminders of your pledge will be sent from Catholic Charities in August, November and January of 1989.

The enclosed pledge card and envelope is for your response. If possible, may I hear from you by April 3, 1989. Your pastor knows that I am writing to you, and your parish, Our Lady of Hungary, will be credited with your pledge. Thank you for your kindness and help.

Your sincerely in Christ,

Dear Eva and Les:

Youngstown State University seeks to identify men and women who have had some connection with the University and who have so lived their lives that students of today may justifiably look to them as role models. We believe that by recognizing such people, we help YSU to serve the community. For this reason, YSU is awarding an honorary doctorate degree to Dr. Morris Slavin, Professor Emeritus of History, Youngstown State University. The degree will be presented to Dr. Slavin at Winter Commencement Saturday, March 25, 1989, at which time he will also deliver the commencement address.

You are cordially invited to a reception and dinner honoring Dr. Slavin on Thursday, March 23 in Kilcawley Centre. The reception will start at 6:30 p.m. in the Special Lectures Lounge and dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. in the Ohio Room.

Enclosed are instructions regarding parking and pertinent information needed if you plan to attend the Commencement ceremonies. A response card is also enclosed and should be completed and returned at your early convenience in order that we might know of your plans. We hope you can join us.

DATE March 6, 1989

Carol will not be here this evening because her daughter is ill.

Could you announce the date and time of the final exam? Will we be permitted to use another referral card for the exam? This information would be extremely helpful to me in the preparation of my study schedule. You see, I will be moving to the fruit cellar to study and it is very cold in there. At least this way I will be prepared for how long I must live there. (a taste in barbarism!!!)

Most important of all, I have really enjoyed this class and your teaching. I must admit, when I entered this class I was totally ignorant of the Middle Ages and was skeptical as to how "interesting" this period could be. You brought this period alive for me, and I have discovered so many new things. (I thought our generation invented the escapades Justinians wife was purported to do.) Thank you for the experience and knowledge. I only regret that I am unable to study under you next quarter. But...if I am still here after that, you will see me again.

Again, thanx

Darlene

Re: February 14, 1989, Program

Dear Leslie,

The purpose of this letter is to confirm your presentation to the Akron Rotary Club on Tuesday, February 14, 1989, and to furnish you further details regarding that occasion.

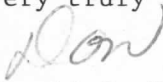

By way of format, we convene at noon, starting with lunch at that time. We generally commence the business portion of the meeting approximately 12:15, and try to reserve the period from 12:30 to 1:00 for the speaker, allowing a brief period for questions and answers at the end.

You should plan to arrive at approximately 11:45 a.m. at the ballroom of the Cascade Holiday Inn. If you park in the Cascade Garage (yellow section), you should bring your parking ticket with you to the meeting. Your meal will be provided at no charge, and the parking ticket will be stamped.

Our executive secretary is Margaret J. (Peg) Schobert, who usually arrives for the meeting no later than 11:45 a.m. The individual who will be introducing you is Les Smith. Les should similarly be there at approximately 11:45 a.m. Our sergeant-at-arms is Hugh B. Alpeter, who is with Malone, Inc. and who is always present early to make the necessary meeting preparations.

I will be in attendance and will look forward to meeting you and listening to your presentation. Thank you again for your interest in participating in our program.

Very truly yours,

Dear Dr. Domonkos:

We are looking forward to your February 14 presentation to the Akron Rotary Club on the history of Valentine's Day. As promised, a map showing how to get to the Cascade Holiday Inn, where the Rotary meeting will be held, is enclosed. Parking is in an underground garage under the Holiday Inn, off of Mill Street, and the meeting will be held in the ballroom on the Plaza level. I will meet you in the Plaza-level lobby just outside the ballroom at 11:30 a.m.

Thank you for generously agreeing to address our Club. We will, of course, be pleased to reimburse you for your mileage to and from the meeting at a rate of 27 cents per mile.

In the rush of the final I am sure I won't have the opportunity to tell you how much I have enjoyed this class (not to mention your wit & humor). Most of the ten weeks has been a nightmare in my personal life and your class offered the only relief from the stresses that have arisen. Myself and family have been harassed and threatened senselessly to the point we are as jumpy as Gipper jumping beans. Unfortunately, we had more problems this weekend which curtailed a large percentage of study time. If you wondered why this exam wasn't as good as the first (which to me was not good either), it is because of this constant threat. Again, thank you for a wonderful 10 weeks. And, if we don't transfer I'll see you again.

DRAFT LETTER TO DR CHOMIAK

Thank you for your kind letter of 6 March and the enclosures. We are, frankly, disappointed about the decision, but appreciate very much your encouraging words and ^{also} the good counsel you have given to Dr Bak regarding our new submission.

We are also ~~very~~ ^{almost} pleased that ~~all five~~ ^{almost} reviewers whose reports you have sent ~~to us~~ ^{affirming} concur in ~~the~~ ^{essential} value of the project and the ~~details~~ ^{essential} of our proposal. I cannot suppress, however, ~~that~~ ^{our surprise that} "Reviewer 1" seems to have ~~judged our procedure~~ ^{misunderstood} our use of Hungarian translations ~~(which may have been unclear in our submission)~~. We are, of course, translating all decreta from the Latin original, ~~(and, actually, the one printed in Dr Bak's book, is also in Latin;~~ ^{the appendix to} ~~the title may have given false impression to the reviewer who failed to inspect the book (itself).~~ ^{monograph} ~~only~~ ^{existing} consult the Hungarian translation of the best medieval legal Latinist in Hungary, for his reading ~~may~~ ^{is} clarify many passages which have obtained a traditional interpretation in ~~Hungarian legal practice.~~ ^{juridical} We wish to take cognizance of such interpretations ~~(and are very pleased to have~~ ^{in order to render a relevant text,} ~~at our disposal~~ ^{at our disposal} ~~six~~ ^{the late} ~~decreta~~ in the translation of Prof. Döry. ~~Approximately one third of the decreta to be included have been translated by him, in manuscript, hence the reviewer can not know how many there are. The~~ ^{Printed} ~~translations of the Corpus Juris cover another third, but those are of limited value and will~~ ^{not} ~~be consulted~~ ^{only} ~~only tangentially.~~ ^{are}

We ~~only~~ ^{while} hope that you will be able to find more careful reviewers in the future, ~~and~~ ^(#2) we have learned our lesson to formulate the submission so that no literate person can misunderstand it. Actually, it is peculiar to see that a learned reviewer ~~does not recognize a typographical error, when he/she objects to our translating~~ ~~vocem~~ ^{vocem} as "note", where we obviously meant "vote". But then, incomplete proof-reading is our fault, and we seem to deserve to be punished for it.

this translation

This translation exists in one manuscript copy in the legacy of Prof. Bónis, to which we have access; hence ^{grounds how} the reviewer ^{was able to} cannot make a judgment ^{conits the extent} about ~~how~~ many ~~known~~ decreta are contained in it.

We also hope to have the first volume of this project (a volume that was prepared and is to be published without any support from public funds!) will leave press in this coming summer and convince the authorities about the ^{quality} ~~progress~~ of our work.

Thanking you once again for your kind words, I remain

Dear Dr. Chomiak:

Thank you for your kind letter of March 6, and the enclosures. As you can imagine, we were disappointed that our grant proposal was not funded, but also appreciate very much your words of encouragement and the good counsel you have given to Professor Bak.

We were most pleased that almost all reviewers concurred in affirming the value of our project, as well as the essential details of the proposal. I cannot, however, suppress my annoyance and surprise that "Reviewer I" seems to have completely misunderstood the method by which we arrive at the English translations. Our proposal, I believe, made it quite clear that we were translating all decreta from the original Latin, and not from existing German or Hungarian versions. The learned Reviewer makes reference to the appendix of Dr. Bak's monograph as an example of the use of non-Latin text as the basis for the translation. He has obviously not seen the volume, for the decretum in the appendix is in Latin. We sincerely hope the scholars who evaluate our proposal next year will read the material with greater care than "Reviewer 1". We do not mind being criticized for our real shortcomings, but do not particularly like to be accused of things that we are not doing. As indicated in our proposal, we do intend to consult the existent Hungarian translations made by the best legal latinists in Hungary, among them the late Prof. Dory. It is important for us to have such translations at hand because they help to clarify many passages which have obtained a traditional interpretation in Hungarian juridical practice. Consulting such Hungarian translations will only help to make the English texts better, more readable and more accurate.

We hope to have Volume One of this project (which is to be published without any support from public funds!) available this coming summer. This should help to convince the authorities of the quality of our work.

Dear Professor Domonkos:

By this time you will have received the official notification that the translation project for which you had submitted an application last June had not been recommended for funding. While this news is disappointing, I wanted to let you know that the project is among those that continues to be very highly regarded.

Let me summarize the major issues that were raised during the course of this review and let me enclose copies of the reviewers' comments, from which only material that could identify the reviewer was removed. You may wish to address these concerns when you decide to submit a new application for the June 1 deadline.

As you can see, there was no question of the importance of the material or of the team assembled. The issue of the translations being made from German and Hungarian versions of the laws, rather than from the Latin originals, as you propose in some cases, will probably have to be addressed. You may also want to give more thought to the actual putting together of the application. Finally, once the first volume will be out, the proof of the productivity of the undertaking will be in hand.

I need not remind you that all resubmissions are reviewed as new proposals. For your convenience I am enclosing a new application form. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions, or to discuss the new proposal.

Sincerely,

Dear Leslie:

Here is an update on recent AASHH business. I hope that you will be at the AASHH meeting in November so that we can begin the transition to your presidency.

We must begin now to plan for the AAASS in 1990. Due date for proposals will be January 1. At one point we discussed the idea of a panel on some aspect of the Renaissance in Hungary (the Corvinus court, etc.). Would you like to put together such a panel for the AAASS? If so, who would you propose as participants?

I hope all is well with you and look forward to seeing you again in the near future.

Another's Word

I said to him: don't go to Spain.
And so we argued on --
Of Stalin's purges -- were they bad?
And what of Trotsky -- was he mad?
Till half the night was done.

He went to war and ne'er returned.
His girlfriend pale with strain,
Laughed mockingly that he had said
The theories that I'd advanced
Had not improved, when heard in Spain.

I smiled politely, turned my head;
I would not quarrel with the dead.

Yet there was more, I knew e'en then.
The argument that we had had --
The words, the phrases, the cliches --
They all had come from other men.
I'd really meant: You're not eighteen.
Why seek out battles? They'll arrive!
Your girlfriend's here.
We are your friends.
Remain with us! Remain alive!

These word, I felt, were never heard,
Immured too deep behind a wall
From which, at times, I would emerge
Riding a war horse all my own
And armed with another's word.

gyanúim nincs, de egyelőre nem tudom, hogy él-e?
Látod, isten akkor, amikor azt álmodtam, hogy meghaltál, és erre semmi reakció nem jött. (Nem mintha én a legmereszesebb levélíró lennék...) Na, hogyan ert a meghaságot. Az ünnepek gyorsan eltelték (Anyám halála óta valahogy ilyenkor a legnagyobb a hiányérzetem), amikor éppen a vonatra és meg sem álltam Kremsitz.
Ott van az Institut für mittelalterliche Realienkunde Österreichs, amely az ontrák akadémia intézete. Hálhatságra érdekes, rengeteg kis könyvtárral, számítógépes ker-tek- és fényképrandzserrel, ahonnan pillanatok alatt ki-kereshetsz, ha mondjuk a középkori bölcsőábrázolásokról vagy kőírásokról. Gyakran látok minden középkori festményen található tárgy közül is van fényképezve. Sok érdekes réndettel tudtam a filmem anyagát kibővíteni. Még valami jött, amire nem is számítottam: 1990-ben Németújváron (Güssing) nagy kiállítás-rendezték a knightokról (Das Rittertum im Wesen und Wandel) és rögtön felkérték a magyar féllel való együttműködés koordinálására. Erikel és Maroni Ernővel fogunk együtt dol-gozni. Wolfentűtlenül bizony egyre kevesebb az idő, időnként elcsúsznak, nemcsak mindent meg kellene még csinálni ápri-lisig. Még a péni tapasztalatom is, csak egy kicsit sok az a háromórás utazás, és bizony a Trabanttal egyre nehézebben bírom... Jó lenne már átmozgálni, de mire?
Egyszer a pauperizálódásunkról gondoskodnak!
Lacikám, szíved a postára, és teljesen remélem, hogy nincs valami komoly baj! Erikel és a gyerekeket sokszor csókolom, Tegeid nagy szeretettel ölelek

CHAPTER 143

THE HONOR SOCIETY OF PHI KAPPA PHI

YOUNGSTOWN STATE UNIVERSITY
YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO 44555

April 1989

Dear Phi Kappa Phi Member,

You are cordially invited to attend the 1989 Convocation/Banquet of the Youngstown State University Chapter 143, of Phi Kappa Phi, to be held Thursday, May 18, 1989, in the Chestnut Room of Kilcawley Center. At the dinner, the initiation of the 1989 inductees to Phi Kappa Phi will be held. Dr. Elaine Hairston, Vice Chancellor for Special Programs for the Ohio Board of Regents, will be the speaker at the banquet this year. An informal reception will be held at 6:00 p.m.; dinner will follow at 6:30.

It is especially important to any university that occasions such as the honoring of outstanding scholarship and service should be held. We sincerely hope that you will be able to join us on May 18. A reservation form is enclosed; please return the form to John Grim, Accounting and Finance Department, Youngstown State University, Youngstown, OH 44555-0001, by May 15, 1989.

Chapter 143 at Youngstown State University is committed to a goal of not only recognizing but also furthering scholarship, and for that reason, the Chapter has established a scholarship fund for graduate study and special awards for outstanding academic achievement. The recipients of these awards for 1989 will be honored at the Convocation/Banquet. If you are unable to attend the banquet but would like to make a contribution to the Scholarship fund, we would be most grateful for your help.

We hope to see you at the 1989 Convocation and Banquet.

Sincerely,

Dr. Barbara Wright, President
Phi Kappa Phi, Chapter 143

Sehr geehrter Herr Kollege, nach einer langen Planungsphase, die sich an unser Symposium in Budapest 1987 schloß, haben wir, meine Herren Kollegen Bák, Vancouver, Macek, Prag, der leider kürzlich so unerwartet verstorbene Herr Sozúcs, Budapest und ich eine nächste Tagung in Bad Homburg vom 17. bis zum 19. Juli d.J. beschlossen unter dem Titel 1490 - Mitteleuropa an der Schwelle der Neuzeit.

Die Gliederung und damit zugleich auch das Anliegen dieses Symposiums, für dessen Förderung wir der Werner-Reimers-Stiftung dankbar sind, entnehmen Sie bitte dem beiliegenden Programm.

Wir erlauben uns, Sie zu diesem Symposium einzuladen. Unser Programm sieht Referate von zwanzig Minuten Dauer, nach einem vorgelegten Thesenblatt von höchstens dreißig Zeilen vor. Das Thesenblatt soll zur Vervielfältigung und zum Versand bis zum 1. Juni in meinem Sekretariat an der Ruhr-Universität Bochum vorliegen.

Wir bitten Sie, zu unserem Symposium mit einem Referat beizutragen. In der Annahme, daß Näheres dazu schon zwischen Ihnen und einem der Mitveranstalter vereinbart wurde, habe ich mir erlaubt, das entsprechende Referat im beiliegenden Programmblatt anzustreichen.

Unser Symposium soll dem intensiven und möglichst fachnahen Gespräch dienen. Deswegen haben wir zu 15 Referenten noch 10 Kollegen aus dem internationalen Kreis der Sachkenner eingeladen, die wir ohne feste Zuschreibung um Koreferate und lebhaftere Diskussionsbeteiligung bitten. Ohne besondere Kennzeichnung auf dem beiliegenden Programmblatt zählen sie zu jenem Teilnehmerkreis nach unserer Planung und sind damit herzlich gebeten, sich auf die entsprechende Diskussionsbeteiligung in den ihren Arbeitsgebieten nahen Referaten vorzubereiten.

Ich danke, in Erwägung aller möglicher Einwände und weit besserer Organisationsvorschläge, zunächst für die geduldige Kenntnisnahme unserer Einladung. Ich hoffe, und das im Namen aller Mitveranstalter, auf Ihre Zusage und Ihre für unser Vorhaben wichtige Beteiligung.

Die Kosten für den Aufenthalt in Bad Homburg vom 17. Juli nachmittags bis zum 19. Juli nachmittags und die Reisekosten bis zum Durchschnittswert von DM 200,00 werden von der Reimers-Stiftung getragen, ebenso die Flugkosten für unsere beiden Teilnehmer aus den Vereinigten Staaten. Für den Aufenthalt in Bad Homburg sind wir ebenfalls Gast der Reimers-Stiftung.

Herr Kollege Winfried Eberhard und ich wollen gemeinsam im Namen der Mitveranstalter alle Organisationsfragen übernehmen und stehen Ihnen natürlich auch für Rückfragen gern zur Verfügung.

Auf wiedersehen in Bad Homburg
im Namen der Veranstalter

Nagy jó uram! Lacikámé!

Ismét eltelt egy csonka félesztendő mióta legutóbb az elétkozott sorsu NATIONES kötetről beszélgettünk, s közeledik a megbeszélte /"1989-90 tele"/ határidő. A helyzet az, hogy a Szücs-töredékek dandárját lefordítottam, úgy-ahogy publikábilissá tettem és Zimmermann, ha igaz, rövidesen megkapja az engedélyt Alföldi Micától, hogy a Deér cikket fordíthassuk/am. Amitis a télen meg is teszek, ha minden jól megy. Vagyislag: még a végén lesz valami ebből a kötetből, feltéve, hogy Te is szabaddá teszel egy csöppecske időt magadnak és gyártasz valamit a sokszor megbeszélte téma erányában. Bátorkodom érdeklődni, hogy mik a kilátások erre?

Mivel epillanatban még semmi sem világos a Dekréta kötetek jövőjét illetően, ezen a télen és tavasszal szeretném a NATIONES-t rendbetenni. És mivel a koranyáron csk röviden leszek Budapesten /májusban/, nagyon kérlek, hogy mihamarább küldj valami olvasnivalót. Ha azután valami megbeszélte való lesz, arra tudunk májusban időt szakítani. Jó lenne ezt a vállalkozást tető alá hozni, még ha foltozott is a tető...

Szives üdvözlettel,

Ezenkívül:

① Törődés a MAA-MAP panelod előadással?! Kinek kell vetítő és hang?
Mi a Birnbaum-pager végleges címe?

② DRMH III-IV ügyben most már ször várhatunk s reménykedhetünk. Ha most nem adja meg, nem elegendő van belőlük. Összepróbál MTA (Fr) pénzt kérni. Persze, a kiadó is reventősen megpróbálhatna... Nem is tudom... Jó lenne elcsucani tőle: de lehet-e? (Alternatívám lenne!) Stiller J.

Budapest, 1989. április 20.

Kedves Domonkos László Professzor!

Igen tisztelt Barátom!

Az idő rohanása miatt csak most nyilik alkalmam válaszolni kedves múlt december 22-i levelére. Nagyon örültem, hogy budapesti utjára olyan szeretettel emlékezik vissza, mind a mediévista kutatásra, mind az egyetemtörténetire.

Az én munkám sem lett könnyebb, mivel a rendszer óratartás és irogatás mellett sok tennivaló és viterészvétel terhelt az elmúlt hónapokban egyetemen és akadémián egyaránt /mindkét helyen az autonómia mai kérdései és a szemléletváltozás tennivalói előtérbe kerültek/, de még mindig a muzeummal kapcsolatban is /mint a tudományos tanács elnöke/. Ez utóbbit a számunkra is közelődő Mátyás-évforduló huzza elé, emiről levelében ragyogó tervet olvastam szerzői minőségében. De ezzel függ össze a szép különnyomata is az AHA Ac.Sc.Hung.-ból az Aragóniai Beatrix-szoborral kapcsolatban, amit melegen köszönök és emihez gratulálok. Mi a Vármuzeumban rendezendő kiállításra veselkedünk, de nagy gond és felelősség ez a budai Zsigmond és a bécsi Rudolf császár-kiállítás ragyogó nivója után... A közelmúltban a volt főigazgatói szobámban fejthettem ki részletes észrevételeimet a csirájában látott kiállítástervhez. A muzeumi kapcsolattal függ össze a mellékelt pécsi program is, ahol résztvettem mint előadó, a rektornő távozása utáni részelnök, mint az osztrák és horvát előadások tematikáját szélesebb középeurópai keretbe helyező hozzászóló.

Igy aztán még sehol sem állok Bad Homburggal kapcsolatban, irtam ugyan már pár gondolatot a vázlatához, de se szervezés, se anyagkiegészítés dolgaihoz nem jutottam. Pedig jó volna ott találkozni, hiszen ott is sok minden új fog kiderülni Mátyás-értékelésünk tárgyában...

Mint kincstartóhoz is fordulok. Végre felvettek a névsorba és kaptam értesítést leendő irországi utitervről. Volna is ehhez kedvem, de mit sem tudok az ideai esetleges összejövételről vagy éppen a jövő évi nemzetközi kongresszus bizottsági tematikai tervéről, profilja alakulásáról, amihez pedig szeretnék magyar előadókat is biztosítani. Ha valamit a büro kialakított volna, legyen olyan jó erről engem tájékoztatni a hivatalos uton kívül is. Előre köszönöm.

A remélt nyári viszontlátásig sokszor üdvözli hiva

Monsieur, cher Collègue,

En 1990 nous célébrerons le 500^e anniversaire de la mort de Mathias Corvin. A cette occasion le Centre de Recherches de la Renaissance de Budapest organise du 16 au 19 mai 1990, dans la ville de Székesfehérvár, lieu de l'enterrement du roi, un colloque international sous le titre

MATHIAS CORVIN ET L'HUMANISME.

Nous nous proposons d'élaborer le programme du colloque autour des thèmes suivants:

- 1/ La culture humaniste de Mathias Corvin, ses lectures, les traits humanistes de son caractère
- 2/ Humanistes (historiens, poètes, savants, etc) à la cour et au service de Mathias
- 3/ Les débuts de l'humanisme centro-européen à l'époque de Mathias
- 4/ Le mythe humaniste de Mathias Corvin

Bien que par ce colloque nous veuillions rendre hommage à la mémoire de la plus grande figure de la Renaissance hongroise, le but de la réunion n'est pas simplement de commémorer, mais d'enrichir l'histoire de l'humanisme par de nouveaux résultats. Nous espérons que les communications feront connaître et exploiteront de nouveaux faits et des sources jusque là inconnues, où traiteront de textes et de données connus sous un nouveau jour, compte tenu du rôle de Mathias, de sa cour et de ses humanistes dans l'histoire générale de la Renaissance.

Les communications et les discussions se feront en allemand, anglais, français et italien.

J'ai l'honneur de vous inviter à faire au colloque en question une communication de 20 à 30 minutes sur un sujet relevant d'un des thèmes ci-dessus énumérés. A Székesfehérvár, pendant la durée du colloque vous serez l'hôte de notre Centre qui se charge de votre logement et subvient à vos dépenses. Vu les circonstances et surtout les difficultés existant dans le domaine des devises, nous ne sommes malheureusement pas en mesure d'assumer également les frais de votre voyage, mais nous espérons que ceux-ci seront couverts par votre université/institut.

Je vous prie de bien vouloir nous signaler le plus vite possible (mais en tout cas avant le 1er septembre), si vous pouvez accepter notre invitation, si oui, quel sera le sujet de votre communication et en quelle langue vous désirez la tenir.

Dans l'espoir de pouvoir vous saluer en mai 1990 parmi nous, je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur, cher Collègue, l'expression de mes sentiments les plus distingués et cordiaux

Kedves Laci,

Mint Asztriktól értesülhettél, immár arra kényszerültem, hogy kerülő uton próbáljalak becserkészni és valami értesülést szerezni Rólad. Örömmel olvastam Asztrik leveléből, hogy a Mátyás könyv befejezése mégis csak elkészül. Nagyon várjuk! Hiszen eredetileg arról volt szó, hogy azt 1988! Őszén megkapjuk. De jobb későn mint soha. Ha belátható időn belül eljut hozzánk, nagyon fogunk örülni, s mindent elkövetni, hogy minél előbb megjelenjék. Persze, mint-hogy ismerem a mesterséget, tudom, hogy egy ekkora munka mindig késve fejeződik be, s hogy az a fontos, hogy a szerző meg legyen elégedve, nem pedig a határidő.

Most már értem, miért nem kaptam tőled oly régóta levelet, - nyilván a levélnyi időket is a Mátyásra fordítottad s az mégiscsak hasznosabb. Ezuttal azonban kérnelek kell egy levélre, nevezetesen az 1990 májusában Székesfehérváron esedékes Mátyás-ülésszak tárgyában. Meghívó levelünket júniusban, bizonyára megkaptad, biztonság kedvéért mellékelek egy másolatot. Nagyon számítunk Rád, de most már el kell kezdenünk összeállítani a programot, s ezért kellene a válasz. Nagyon kérlek, hogy legkésőbb karácsonyig közöljed, hogy tudsz-e jönni, s mi lenne előadásod címe. Ha ujévig nem kapunk semmi hirt, azt nagy fájdalomunkra ugy kell majd értelmeznünk, hogy nem tudsz eljönni s nem számíthatunk részvételedre.

Nem is folytatom tovább, nehogy haszontalan soraim is elvegyenek néhány másodpercet a könyvtől. A régi baráti szeretettel

ölel

Kedves Domonkos Ur:

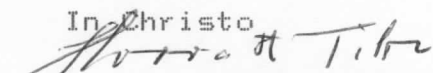

Nagyon örülnénk ha a METEM második évi gyűlését jelenlétével megtisztelné. Törekvésünk az, hogy hitünk jövőjét szolgáljuk a magyar egyház kegyelemében gazdag multjának rendszeres feltárásával.

Nagy vállalkozás ez, de ha kis léptekkel indulunk el, talán mégis csak tehetünk valamit azért, hogy hazánk hívó multja feledésben nem enyészve a jövőben hozza meg százszoros gyümölcsét.

Mindenkire szükségünk van, de főként önre, ki már eddig is annyi áldozatot tudott hozni azért, hogy Magyarország továbbra is a krisztusi hit, szeretet és remény országa maradjon. Ha gyűlésünkre nem is tudna eljöni, reméljük, hogy segíteni fog feltárni a magyar egyház történetét.

A viszontlátás reményében

Dear Friend,

God is good!

It was a spring day, May 28, 1922 when I first opened my eyes on the beauty of God's creation. It was twenty seven years later that by the power of the Holy Spirit and the ministry of Bishop James A. McFadden, God shared with me the Priesthood of His Son, Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The 40th Anniversary of my ordination will be celebrated with a Liturgy of Thanksgiving on Sunday, May 28, 1989 at St. Brendan Church, 2800 Oakwood Avenue, Youngstown, Ohio.

The Mass will be at 3:00 in the afternoon. An open reception will follow immediately.

My family and I would appreciate the grace of your company. No gifts or offerings, please; your presence and prayers is the greatest present!

Dear Professor Domonkos:

The program committee for the combined meeting of The Medieval Academy of America and the Medieval Association of the Pacific has had a large number of both papers and sessions submitted for consideration this year, a much larger number than is usual. This left the committee with an extremely difficult task of making decisions about the final program for the meeting to be held here in April, 1990.

On behalf of the committee I would like to thank you for your proposal. Fortunately I can tell you that it was possible to include your proposed session in the coming meeting. Would you please inform all those who are involved in the session about this decision.

The description of the session as it will appear in the program is:
Quincentenary of the Death of King Matthias Corvinus of Hungary
Chair: L. S. Domonkos, Youngstown State University
Marianna D. Birnbaum, University of California Los Angeles
King Matthias-Corvinus for the Humanists, 'the Just' for the people
Anthony Barrett, University of British Columbia
A Neolatin Poet in a 'barbarian' court
Livia Varga, University of Toronto
The International Aspects of Art and Architecture During the Reign of Matthias Corvinus

Please report any errors to me immediately since we will be going to press with the program in the near future. Your session is tentatively set for Saturday 7 April at 9:00. That may change so rely on the final program.

Further information about local arrangements will follow within the next three weeks and the final program will be available early in 1990. Let me repeat that the program committee is very pleased that you will be participating in the joint meeting.

Yours sincerely,

Lieber Herr Kollege Domonkos,

auch im Namen von Herrn Seibt danke ich Ihnen für Ihre Bereitschaft, an unserer Tagung "1490 - Mitteleuropa an der Schwelle zur Neuzeit" im Juli teilzunehmen.

Nun noch zu Ihren Fragen, die Sie uns mitgeteilt haben: Wir halten es für das beste, wenn Sie Ihr Referat in deutscher Sprache vortragen könnten. Ebenso erbitten wir das Paper ("Thesenblatt") in deutsch. Es soll die Hauptthesen Ihres Referats auf einer Seite enthalten. Wie Sie richtig verstanden haben, werden Ihre Reisekosten und der Aufenthalt von der Reimers-Stiftung getragen. Von dort erhalten Sie auch dann noch rechtzeitig die allgemeinen organisatorischen Informationen zur Konferenz. Demnächst schicke ich Ihnen auch noch Thesen von Herrn Seibt zum allgemeinen Rahmen-Thema der Tagung.

Ich hoffe, Ihnen vorerst mit diesen Auskünften gedient zu haben und bin mit freundlichen Grüßen

Dear Marianne,

thank you for your willingness to serve as commentator of our Session 23: Quincentennial of the Death of Matthias I Corvinus of Hungary. The session was organized and will be chaired by Prof. L. S. Domonkos and contain three papers: Prof. M. D. Birnbaum "Matthias Corvinus - Flagellum Dei;" Prof. A. Barrett "Janus Pannonius: A Neolatin Poet in a 'Barbarian' Court" and Prof. Livia Varga "International Aspects of the Art and Architecture of the Age of Matthias." I have asked the speakers to send you texts or abstracts of their talks, so that you can prepare your comments, for which approx. 10 minutes /at most/ will be set aside.

While the Local Arrangements Committee is pleased to be able to offer hospitality for your stay in Vancouver, we are, unfortunately, not in the position to contribute to your air-fare from the east coast to the west. We hope that you will find a suitable sponsor in Princeton who would enable you to come to the meeting.

Looking forward to greeting you here in April,

Dear Dr. Gammon:

Because of a series of events, I have not renewed my membership for the 1988-1989, 1989-1990 academic years. At the time of the renewal for 1988-1989 I was abroad on a Fulbright Grant and thus did not send in my Membership Fee. ~~Next year~~ The following year I again missed the deadline.

The Association and the AHR has been part of my professional life since 1964 and I do not want to have my membership lapse.

Enclosed you will find a check for $120 to cover dues for 1988-1989, 1989-1990. Would you please instruct your staff to restore my membership and have the issues of the AHR sent to me so that there is no lacuna in my series.

Sorry for the inconvenience. I am looking forward to the ~~can~~ uninterrupted continuation of my membership for the last quarter century.

Sincerely,

L.S. Donovan

Kedves Laciám,

Rettenetesen sajnálom hogy nem tudtunk találkozni, pedig önző okokból is nagyon szerettem volna ha átjöttök egy napra. De valahogy éppen azokra a napokra esett a Sári "fogügye", az én szívorvosom felülvizsgálata, az uszedapumpa letörése, a Csengődyékkel már lekötött program, aki St. Louisból jöttek stb stb. AZ uszedapumpa drámai vége; most irtam alá egy 2500 dolláros szerződést, az ujrabélelés a jövő hetemet is elveszi.

Közben gyakorlatilag befejeztem a könyvemet. Azaz hiányzik az előszó és az utolsó összefoglaló oldalak, amivel a jövőbe szerettem volna pillantani Ezt még "Gorbi" előtt készült, olyan pesszimista hangon, hogy az maga egy temetés volt. Most valahogy szakadoznak az egek kárpitjai, így eldobtam és valami újat kalapálok össze.

Emellett Szeretném még a Mátyásról szóló fejezetbe, a magam személyes élményét is belefűzni. Pesten volt alkalmam végigjárnia a Várban a Mátyás kiállítást. Öt ország anyaga gyűlt össze, hallatlanul érdekes volt, de nem tudtam megszerezni a Schellenburg?? Katalógust a kiállításról. Te említetted, hogy Neked megvan, így újólá Hozzád fordulok légy olyan kedves add postára, címre, nagyon fogok vigyázni rá, és gondos csomagolásban küldöm vissza. Előre is hálás köszönet. A kéziratomat is szeretném ha elolvasnád, és az esetleges tárgyi hibákra felhivnád figyelmemet, majd annak idején.

Novemberben ha itt lesztek, Sárival együtt a legnagyobb örömmel várunk Titeket, csak időben értesíts érzéseitekről. Most átadom a szót Sareltnak.

Dear colleagues:

Returning from two weeks out of town, I found the enclosed memorandum from Bela Kiraly in my mail. It seems to me that we should certainly follow up on his suggestion. Since I will not be able to attend a meeting in New York during September, I suggest that, if possible, Susan attend as the representative of the AASHH. Could you, Susan, please fill out the reply form (number of members, etc.) and return it to Bela by the August 10 deadline? It might also be a good idea to put Bela's letter in our next newsletter so that our members will know about this project and can express their opinions at the November meeting in Chicago. Those who will not be in Chicago could send their comments to me before the AAASS meeting.

Note for Lesile: I'm sorry that I have not been able to follow up on your suggestion for a luncheon meeting in Columbus. My summer was disrupted by a sudden call to jury duty that lasted three weeks. I fear that, given my responsibilities at the university, I will not be able to get away to Columbus for some time. But if you are sure that you will not be in Chicago for the AAASS, we certainly should meet sometime during the fall. For one thing, I must officially transfer to you the "archives" of the AASHH. Let's keep in touch on this.

Best regards,
Tom

Kedee Pasi,
Dear Professor Domonkos:

I am writing to invite you to present a paper at our conference on "The Roots of Religious Toleration, The Unitarian Contribution and the Fate of Transylvania." The conference will be held October 3-6, 1990, at the University of Toledo in Toledo, Ohio.

The scholarly objective of this conference is fourfold. First, to trace the origins of religious toleration and religious freedom within the context of the Transylvanian setting. Second, to pinpoint the role of Unitarianism as a movement for toleration. Third, to discover the linkages between these developments in Transylvania with developments in the rest of Europe and within the context of Western civilization. And finally, to trace the Transylvanian evolution of the toleration concept through the ages to the present.

We would like to achieve these objectives in such a way that there would be an active exchange of views between people in the Toledo metropolitan area (perhaps Northwest Ohio), and the individuals who would be presenting papers.

The conference will be sponsored and supported by the cooperative activities of at least two Universities (Ohio Northern University and The University of Toledo), the First Unitarian Church of Toledo, the Meadville/Lombard Theology School, and a variety of community organizations and cultural foundations.

We feel that the long-range objective of the conference is to produce a significant book on the Struggle for Religious Toleration and Human Rights in Transylvania. We are fairly sure that the Beacon Press of Boston would be interested in the material of the conference.

Because of the above considerations, we would like to ask you to think of your involvement on two levels. We would like you to prepare your presentation with two audiences in mind. You should be prepared to present your study on a popular level orally and on a scholarly level in written form for publication.

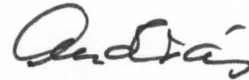

Within the context of the Conference we invite you to be on the First Panel. We would like to ask you to present a study on "Transylvanian Society on the Eve of the Reformation." If you feel uncomfortable with this subject or title/or panel please provide us with an alternative.

Enclosed I am providing you with a tentative outline of the conference. Please feel free to suggest additions to, or alterations in, the program. I

Dear Professor Domonkos,

I have just received Janos Bak's invitation to participate in the programme of the Medieval Academy of America at Vancouver in 1990. I would be happy to attend and to give a paper on "The International Aspects of Art and Architecture During the Reign of Matthias Corvinus." If you require an outline of what I propose to discuss, please let me know.

I can be reached at the above address until 10 September 1989. Thereafter, my address will be: Division of Humanities, Scarborough Campus, University of Toronto, 1265 Military Trail, Scarborough, Ontario, Canada M1C 1A4.

With good wishes.

Dear Professor Domonkos,

I have just returned to England to find a note from Janos Bak (now in Hungary) regarding a submission for the meeting of the Mediaeval Academy at UBC, which he discussed with me some time ago. I enclose an abstract. Janos indicated that you needed the material by the middle of the month, and I appreciate that this may be too late. If so, please do not feel embarrassed about having to say so. These things happen.

Yours truly,

Nagyon szeretem a Judith mamát, és putrát és Israhéle'at, fogadják velem együtt a Húsvéti jókívánságaimat így együtt, egy helyen, nagyon én vagyok putra az időből,
 emlékező ha ez a levél elküldt.

Kis országos fulladozik, nyugodt az elmúlt 40 év. Akármilyen is lenni kell az új szervezéstől, soha lenni még jobb, vagy legalább ugyanolyan mint 2-5 évvel ezelőtt.

Az a lényeg, hogy legalább Tölte, Paliértől és putrától és Pauajt Rudiértől az NSZK-ből nem hallunk

Kedves Lackó:

Köszönöm, hogy felhívtál, scholarly solitude-ömet felvidámitottad.

Here is the original handwriting of Marcus Mark de Kémes. -Na Kémes is a little village next to the place where my Momie was born Páprád in the Ormányság. Her uncle Győry Imre "Intéző" volt, never married loved my Momie as little Girl very much. My Omi was Győry Emilia always admired her for good manners, I was quite a nasty boy full of pep in the paternal house. She tried to educate me not to make grimaces. Now, this is my question...how can a young man from Kémes in th Ormányság manage to go to Paris, and to be a Procurator Nationis Alemanniae. He must had something in his head.

Kedves Éva és Laci,

talán meglepődtök, hogy jelentkezünk, de egy vallomással tartozunk Nektek - talán nem is mi Csabával, hanem az ifjabb Csaba, aki nem nagyon szeret levelet írni és így remélem sikerül őt megelőzni. Többször kérdeztétek, hogy "mikor jön Csaba Amerikába?" Hát most nem róla van szó, hanem legidősebb fiáról, Zoltánról, aki történésznek készül és az egyetemen szerzett -illetve elnyert - egy pályázatot, 3 hónapi amerikai ösztöndijra. A dolog ugyan nem egészen egyszerű, mivel még nincs se végleges dátum, sem hely, hogy hova utazik majd, úgy hogy még nem tekinthető a dolog egészen biztosnak. Tőletek nem kérünk semmit, csak elnézést, hogy már előbb nem irtunk Nektek erről, mivel ő, a gyerek /21 éves/a jelentkezéskor, illetve a pályázatban a Ti neveteket is említette, mint ottani ismerőseit. Tehát csak annyiról van szó, hogy ne legyetek meglepve, ha esetleg információért Hozzatok is fordulnak. Ő most másodéves és mehetne 3 vagy 6 hónapra, de ha a hosszabb időt választja, akkor esetleg évet veszít. Egyébként nagyon jól vegzi az egyetemet és van angol nyelvből középfoku vizsgája is. Mivel valamilyen témadolgozatot is kellett beadnia, ő valamilyen Kovács Mihály ezredest választotta, aki részt vett az amerikai polgárháboruban. Mi most kíváncsian várjuk, mikor lesz folytatása a dolognak, ha majd tudunk valami konkrétabbat, akkor újra jelentkezünk. Zoli persze szívesen menne, mert nagyon érdekli a világ.

Remélem, Ti mindnyájan jól vagytok; mindég kellemesen emlékszünk vissza legutóbbi találkozásunkra itt Budapesten, ahol most eléggé zürösek a viszonyok politikai tekintetben, de mi ebből csak annyit észlelünk, amennyit a rádió, meg a TV elmond. Nálunk sincs semmi különös ujság, mi Csabával rengeteget dolgozunk, bár már elég sok évesek vagyunk. Két unoka jár már egyetemre és kettő most fog érettségizni, illetve felvételizni, Csaba második fia Márton és Pali fia Kristóf. Mind a ketten a műszaki egyetemre, de nem ugyanarra a szakra. A lap másik oldalát meghagyom Csabának én pedig bucsuzom, kedves Mindnyájatoknak sok szerzettal minden jót kívánva

Probably thought you'd never hear from me again;
however, 40 years have passed me by rather gracefully and I'm not as depressed as last year.

I'm continuing to instill the

Robert is thinking college Chapel Hill or Boulder. Jon is thinking pro baseball - he's such a cutie. Steve is now
