The 82nd Annual Juried Student Art & Design Exhibition sponsored by the Student Art Association features works

by students enrolled in the Department of Art at YSU. The exhibition opens on March 23 and continues through April 6 at the John J McDonough Museum of Art. Artists will be honored at a reception and awards ceremony on Friday, March 23 from 5-7 pm.

For Immediate Release:

Awards presented at 6 pm during the opening reception range from cash awards to gift certificates. Local businesses and individuals have generously supported the annual exhibition each year. Award categories include, photography, painting, sculpture, digital media, and graphic and interactive design. Don't miss this opportunity to witness the strength, breadth and diversity of YSU's Department of Art. The awards reception and ceremony are free and open to the public.

We are honored to have as the juror for the exhibition, Andrew Ellis Johnson. He is an artist whose work has appeared in galleries, festivals, public collaborations, conferences, and publications in the Americas, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. He has performed as co-founder of the collective PED in Buffalo, Belfast, Chongqing, Rio de Janeiro, St. John's, and Toronto. He studied at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago (BFA) and Carnegie Mellon University (MFA) in Pittsburgh, where he is Associate Professor of Art. Residencies and exchanges over the last decade include those at Korean National University of the Arts, Seoul; University of the Arts London, Camberwell; Fayoum International Art Center, Egypt, and Sites of Passage in Jerusalem/Ramallah/Pittsburgh.
