and

Youngstown State University Chapter of the Ohio Education Association

During the term of this Agreement, should the Board of Trustees amend University policy titled "Faculty workload," 3356-10-20, effective June 17, 2015, to increase the standard workload (which includes teaching, research and service) for all full-time faculty bargaining unit members (excluding Lecturers and Senior Lecturers) beyond 24 workload hours per year, excluding summer sessions, all full-time faculty shall receive an immediate one-time ten percent (10%) increase to base salary. It is understood and agreed by both parties that the workload of individual faculty are subject to change from semester to semester within the above referenced Board approved policy structure, consistent with University needs and college and/or department governance documents.

The duties must be a continuing and recurrent part of the employee's job duties and not temporarily or infrequent job duties.

If the University ceases to assign the bargaining unit member that portion of his/her duties which do not properly fall within the current position title and pay grade, the University will notify the bargaining unit member of the decision in writing.

If the position is assigned a new position title and pay grade, the effective date of the reclassification shall be no later than the beginning of the pay period immediately after the receipt of the written request for the audit by the Chief Human Resources Officer or his/her designee. ARTICLE 16 WORK SCHEDULES

16.1: Schedules:

A) Full-Time Service: Bargaining unit members are Professional/Administrative salaried staff who the University represents that they believe to be exempt from the wage/hour provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. Bargaining unit members are employees whose work schedules are not tied to a fixed number of hours per day or per week. Bargaining unit members are required to work an average of forty (40) hours per week. Each bargaining unit member and his/her supervisor should periodically, but at a minimum once annually, review work demands and scheduling considerations. It is the joint responsibility of bargaining unit members and the supervisor to establish and maintain clearly determined work schedules. Flexible scheduling alternatives may be considered as described in Section (16 B) immediately below.

B) Flexible Scheduling Options:

1. Purpose: The University supports the use of various work scheduling arrangements for bargaining unit members that are designed to meet the operating and service needs of a department in accordance with University policy. The availability of flexible work schedules is not intended to change the department's regular hours of operation, nor does it alter the responsibility or diminish the authority of department heads to establish and adjust work schedules. Instead, this type of flexible scheduling is intended to bolster staff morale and retention while maintaining and enhancing a department's service delivery. The University and the Union agree that flexible scheduling may not be practical in every department or for every position. If a bargaining unit member wishes consideration for a flexible work schedule, he/she should submit the request in writing to his/her immediate supervisor. The request for flexible scheduling will be discussed by the supervisor with Human Resources for contractual compliance and accountability for both the employee and supervisor. Flexible schedule requests shall be made a minimum of two weeks prior to the requested start date. Such requests shall be approved unless overwhelmine circumstances exist to deny such requests.

2. Definitions:

- a. Flex-time is an arrangement that may include a consistent daily schedule with individualized starting and ending times that are the same throughout the week or a varying daily schedule that starts or ends at different times each day. The varying daily schedule may include a consistent 8 hour day throughout the week or a varying daily schedule of more or less than 8 hours. For full-time bargaining unit members, the total weekly hours for both consistent and varying schedules must be 40 for the work week.
- b. Compressed Workweek is an arrangement that enables a full-time bargaining unit member to work longer days in exchange for a shorter day or a day off each week. Examples of a compressed workweek

- schedule are: four ten-hour days with no work on the fifth day; or a four-and-one-half day workweek where 40 hours are worked in four and one-half days.
- C) The parties agree, however, that the University retains the right to schedule bargaining unit members. The denial of a bargaining unit member's requested schedule shall not be arbitrary or capricious. A bargaining unit member may request a meeting each semester with his/her supervisor to review the actual hours worked and time taken off during the previous semester. A bargaining unit member who has concerns about his/her schedule may file a grievance or a complaint under the provisions of Article 8 ("Grievance Procedure"), or may have an informal discussion of the matter with the cognizant principal administrative officer and/or the Chief Human Resources Officer.
- D) The University shall provide cell phones for the use of "on call" employees

- 16.4: Research: All proceeds which result from research by a bargaining unit member, including marketable computer software programs, when research is not conducted as part of the bargaining unit member's specifically assigned duties, belong to the bargaining unit member unless the research is subsidized by the University or an external agency which stipulates contrary terms in a separate and specific contract as a condition of support. The signing of a specific contract with the University for subsidized research cannot be a stipulated condition of employment. This policy shall not apply to royalties, which shall go exclusively to the author.
- 16.5: Outside Employment: Members of the bargaining unit may accept consulting and other employment outside the University as long as such employment does not interfere with the individual's University duties and does not constitute a conflict of interest with the bargaining unit member's position at the University. "Conflict of interest" includes the same services for the same elientele that a bargaining unit member does as part of his/her University duties for pay or remuneration from a person or entity other than the University; use of University materials, facilities, or staff to secure pay or remuneration from a person or entity other than the University; or use of the influence, authority, or privileges that derive from a position at the University for private gain. The right to engage in outside employment exists at all times, including periods of leave other than sick leave.
- 16.6: Access: Members of the bargaining unit whose duties require access to campus buildings when they are normally closed will be issued keys to departmental offices and/or buildings, upon the approval of the department head.
- 16.7: Part-Time Teaching: A member of the bargaining unit may, with the prior approval of his/her department head, engage in part-time teaching during his/her normal work hours and be paid for such duties.

- 18.2: Process: A non-probationary bargaining unit member will be evaluated on his/her performance not more than once each year. The evaluation process will be completed by his/her immediate supervisor by February 28 for the previous calendar year, with the exception of an "out of cycle" evaluation. A probationary bargaining unit member will be evaluated by his/her immediate supervisor on his/her performance at the end of his/her first six (6) months of University employment and again at the end of one year. The evaluation period includes all work time covered since the last date an evaluation was due.

 - Before being placed in the bargaining unit member's official personnel file, a bargaining unit member's evaluation will be signed off by the department head in situations where the evaluator is not the department head.

"Out of Cycle" Evaluations: An evaluator must have supervised a bargaining unit member for at least six (6) months before conducting the evaluation process. In the event that a bargaining unit member has a new supervisor, the evaluation deadline will be extended as necessary to insure that the bargaining unit member has been supervised by the supervisor for the six (6) month minimum time period. Future evaluation dates for probationary bargaining unit members will revert to the annual calendar year evaluation cycle. When a non-probationary bargaining unit member receives an "out of cycle" evaluation, such evaluation will be considered the bargaining unit member's annual evaluation for that calendar year. The next evaluation will be on cycle. A non-probationary bargaining unit member will not be evaluated more than once in a twelve (12) month period.

- 2) Record of Goals, Objectives and Activities: In some instances, it is appropriate to record in writing goals, objectives and activities for the coming year. The bargaining unit member can attach a separate page itemizing this record. If a record of goals, objectives and activities is written, the evaluator reviews the record, discusses it with the bargaining unit member, appends it to the evaluation form, and forwards it as part of the evaluation record. A bargaining unit member who believes that the procedural requirements of this Article have not been met, or who believes that the information upon which an evaluation was based was improper (i.e., erroneous, incomplete, untimely, or irrelevant), may file a grievance under the provisions of Article 9 ("Grievance Procedure"). If the adjustment of the grievance includes a determination that the evaluation was procedurally flawed or based upon improper information, the University will nullify the evaluation and direct that it be redone.

18.5: Exclusivity: During the term of this Agreement, the evaluation procedure and instrument described in this Article (See Appendix F) shall be the only formal system of performance evaluation of bargaining unit members employed at YSU, except for the evaluated judgments required by the other provisions of this Agreement. ARTICLE 29 NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 29.1: Non-Discrimination: The University and the Association reaffirm their mutually held responsibility, under federal and state laws and executive orders relating to fair employment practices, that no individual shall be unlawfully discriminated against on the basis of race, color, age, religion, sex, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, or identity as a disabled veteran or veteran of the Vietnam era.
- 29.2: The University and the Association agree that neither shall discriminate against any individual on the basis of membership or non-membership in the Association or on the basis of lawful participation or refraining from participation in the activities of the Association or its state or national affiliates, or because he/she exercises his/her rights under O.R.C. 4117.

APPENDIX F-4 YSU EVALUATION OF APAS BARGAINING UNIT MEMBER

INSTRUCTIONS

PURPOSE: The primary purpose of the Professional/Administrative evaluation system is to record a formal evaluation of how well a staff member has performed his/her duties. Important subsidiary purposes are 1) to provide for regular discussions about individual performance and improvement thereof; 2) to provide formal recognition for a job well done; and 3) to provide information useful in making decisions concerning salary adjustments.

FREQUENCY: Evaluations are to be completed annually. A department head may initiate an evaluation at any time one is deemed appropriate. An evaluation may also be performed at reasonable Intervals upon a staff member's request.

METHOD: Each evaluation includes an interview, which involves a candid discussion of the strengths and weaknesses of the individual being evaluated, which culminates in completion of the evaluation form. The person being evaluated is given full opportunity to provide additional insight into his/ner performance as he/she perceives it. It is also recommended that the employee's job description be reviewed and updated at thattime.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR EVALUATION: The evaluation of each Professional/Administrative staff member is completed by the person to whom the staff member reports, as reflected on the approved organizational chart of the sen. Evaluations are reviewed by administrative staff in the reporting line and by the divisional vice president.

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS. It is recognized that no two departments in the University are identical. Thus, the meaning and application of terms such as "satisfactory" and "outstanding" will vary somewhat. Similarly, the application and importance of the eleven characteristics listed on the evaluation form will vary somewhat from department to department. It is expected, however, that standards will be applied consistently in the evaluation of comparable positions within a department or an area, and that each person being evaluated will be fully informed concerning the standards to be applied and the expectations of the evaluator.

OPTIONAL APPROACHES:

- a. Self-Evaluation: The person being evaluated may prepare a narrative self-evaluation in which he/she reports and evaluates information related to job performance for the period being evaluated. If a self-evaluation is written, the evaluator reviews the self-evaluation discusses it with the staff member, appends it to the evaluation form, and forwards it as part of the evaluation record.
- b. Record of Goals, Objectives, and Activities: In some instances it is appropriate to record in writing goals, objectives, and activities for the coming year. In such cases, they are recorded as part of the evaluation record. It is assumed that the next evaluation will include a review of the staff member's progress toward attainment of established goals, objectives, and activities.

DISPOSITION: Upon completion, the evaluation is forwarded through usual administrative channels to the Executive Director of Human Resources. A copy of the evaluation is sent to the staff member at the time it is placed in his/ personnel file.

Rx = Expected Claims Liability + (Expected Claims Liability x 3-3/4%) + Fixed Costs

Dental = Fully insured rate as set forth by the dental insurance carrier

Vision = Fully insured rate as set forth by the vision insurance carrier

Should the dental or vision plans become self-insured in the future, the funding rates for those plans will be determined as follows;

Dental= Expected Claims Liability + (Expected Claims Liability x 3.75%) + Fixed Costs Vision= Expected Claims Liability + (Expected Claims Liability x 3.75%) + Fixed Costs

Funding Rates are based on a structure that includes Employee Only, Employee + One Dependent, and Family (Employee + two or more dependents).

Expected Claim Liability is determined by the stop loss carrier and/or Third Party Administrator (TPA) for the Contract Period, and/or actuary for the health care consultant.

Actual Costs = Paid Claims + Fixed Costs - Prescription Drug Rebates

Fixed Costs = Administrative Costs + Stop Loss Premiums

Funding Rates for the medical, prescription drug, dental and vision plans each July 1st, will be determined using the formulas identified above to calculate Funding Level.

Effective with the proposed Plan changes, and future

Reserve

The University will maintain a health care Reserve in accordance with the guidelines outlined in the HCAC Target Reserve Policy.

HCAC Target Reserve Policy

Components of the Target Reserve:

- a. IBNR Reserves represent the funds necessary to cover claims Incurred But Not Reported. For purposes of this contract, IBNR Reserves = 2.5 months of Expected Claims for medical, prescription drug, dental and vision claims. These are claims for which members have received services but the claims have not been paid or billed to the University, and
- Margin represents the difference between the Maximum Claim Liability (applies to medical only) and Expected Claims Liability set by the University's consultant. This amount is calculated by multiplying Expected Claims Liability by 125%.
- Targeted Reserves should be expressed as a range from Optimistic, Intermediate to Pessimistic to reflect the potential for variance.
- III. Funding of the Reserve should target the Intermediate Targeted Reserve Level of 35% of projected annual costs.
- IV. This Reserve Policy should be integrated in the annual Funding Level Calculations:
 - A three-year projection of the Targeted Reserves should be used to effectively plan and adjust accounts through premium increase or decreases;
 - b Should the reserve balance exceed 45% of the average of the annual actual cost, the Health Care Advisory Committee https://doi.org/10.1008/j.mc/luding_premium_bolidays. and make recommendations intended to reduce the reserve balance. The average of the annual actual cost is defined to be the three-vena average of the annual actual cost required to operate the bealth care the plan for the previous three fiscal years. The annual actual costs for a particular fiscal year includes claims or premium costs including stop loss insurance, administrative expenses insurred from vendors and consultants wellness expenditures. all legally required fees and taxes associated with the health care plan, and other expenses that may be required to effectively operate the health care plans.
 - c. Should the reserve balance fall below 25% of the projected annual costs, the Health Care advisory Committee may consider options and make recommendations intended to raise the reserve balance.
- V. An actuarial consultant will confirm annually that the reserve policy is properly aligned with the stop loss coverage and to identify risks associated with the coordinated policies.
