The Commencement Speaker and Candidate for the Degree Honorary Doctor of Science

Lois Margaret Nora

Today's commencement speaker, Lois Margaret Nora, M.D., J.D., was named president and dean of the Northeastern Ohio Universities College of Medicine (NEOUCOM) October 15, 2002. Youngstown

State University is a consortium member of the medical college, which is located in Rootstown, Ohio.

Dr. Nora comes to NEOUCOM from the University of Kentucky College of Medicine in Lexington, where she served as associate dean for academic affairs and administration and as a professor of neurology. She also was a professor of law at the university. In her administrative role at the college of medicine, Dr. Nora was responsible for the medical education mission of the institution and was involved in the development of productivity guidelines linking research, education, and clinical practice.

Dr. Nora earned her medical degree in 1979 from the Rush Medical College in Chicago and her law degree from the University of Chicago in 1987. More recently, she earned a master's degree in business administration from the University of Kentucky Gatton College of Business Economics. Dr. Nora is a neurologist with subspecialty certification in electrodiagnostic medicine and fellowship training in clinical medical ethics.

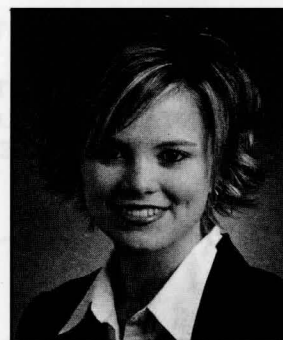

Among many honors and awards, Dr. Nora has been an American Association of University Women Foundation Research Scholar-in-Residence, an American Council on Education fellow, and a participant in the Executive Leadership in Academic Medicine Program. She is a fellow of the American Academy of Neurology. Dr. Nora also has been a visiting professor and an invited lecturer at a number of universities and medical schools in the United States and abroad.

Dr. Nora's research focuses on the interface of medicine and the law, and topics in medical education.

The Commencement Student Speaker

Today's student commencement speaker is Kristin Serroka, who graduates today magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in political science and a minor in journalism.

Kristin Serroka

Kristin recently returned from Washington, D.C., where she served as an intern with Rep. Michael G. Oxley of the Ohio 4th District. She has been offered a full-time position with Rep. Oxley upon graduation.

A 1998 graduate of Liberty High School, Kristin has made a number of outstanding contributions to the life of the University. In the academic year 2000-2001, she served as a student member on the YSU Board of Trustees and was vice president of YSU Student Government. In 2001-2002, she served as executive secretary of Student Government and president of the Alpha Omega Pi sorority.

Kristin received the Arby's Leadership Award for outstanding contributions to student activities. She was awarded a Department Scholarship, as well as the Black Family Memorial Scholarship.

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

Because the list of candidates had to be prepared ahead of time, it is tentative. The diploma, together with a certified transcript, is the proof of graduation.

Alma Mater

All hail to thee, O Youngstown,

Our Alma Mater fair;

In sunlight and starshine

We see thee in all thy glory.

The Red and the White, thy glorious colors,

Ever we praise and hold them

High to the breeze as the symbol of our

Most loyal allegiance.

This anthem, O Youngstown,

Our pledge of trust shall be

That thy sons and daughters

Shall keep faith with thee forever.
