FROM BEHIND THE DESK

No time for poetic introductions this time. Just a few plain facts.

Next Sunday afternoon at 4:15 another stepping stone in the progress of Youngstown College will be reached.

At that time the cornerstone of the new building will be laid with short but appropriate ceremonies. Already the walls are taking shape and within a short time the roof will be on and the work of finishing the interior will begin. The con-

EDITORIAL

And now we take pleasure in delivering an oration to the sophisticated inmates of Youngstown College. We are no preachers of the Gospel, but there are times when someone must take the stump and fight for our rights. Here goes. Have you ever enjoyed the thrilling, delightful, invigorating, soul stirring experience of speaking to a brother or sister member of this college only to have a cold glance tossed back as a reply? You have and so have we. What can we do about it? Plenty.

The JAMBAR would enjoy the job of sponsoring a 'SAY HELLO' campaign. Perhaps after months of persuasion, the high hats, if we may use plain English, and the I--Love--Me's will be tempted to come down to earth and be their natural selves. They might realize that every one of YoCo's student body is worth at least a cheery nod regardless of color, appearance, affiliation, or social or financial rating. And the faculty isn't excepted either.

THE YOUNGSTOWN COLLEGE DRAMATIC CLUB

ANNOUNCES

A COMMENCEMENT PLAY AND DANCE - MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1931

----

PARTICULARS

The PLAY, 'THE THIRTEENTH CHAIR', will be presented from 8:30 to 11:30 at the IDORA PARK PLAYHOUSE.

The DANCE, following the play, will be held at IDORA PARK
PAVILION, 11:45 P.M. to 2:00 A.M.

The MUSIC will be created by the full park orchestra,
'CHIC' SCOGGIN and his 14 BRUNSWICK RECORDING ARTISTS.

The TICKETS will be on sale shortly, and at amazingly low prices. A combined ticket, good for both the play and the dance, may be procured for one dollar.

This is going to be the outstanding affair of the year, and will be the last social event for a goodly number of upper-classmen. It is all-important that you bring the folks and friends; show them what Youngstown College is doing.
If the folks or friends do not care to come to both the play and the dance, separate tickets may be had for either one.

It will be a sure cure for all your blues.

Come one, come all, get ENTHUSED.

MAY DAY

After passing through considerable fermentation in the minds of the members of the Student Council, the program for May Day has finally been completed. Festivities will begin promptly at 2 P.M. and will present themselves in the following order: Coronation, Aesthetic Dancing, May Pole Dance, Women's Glee Club, Dramatic Club Play, Men's Glee Club, and Refreshments.

The Coronation of the May Queen will be the crowning feature of the day and will head the program. The girl's gym class is participating in the dances.

Everybody be there!!!!!!!!!!!!

Aha, a deep mystery brews about the building! Benevolent Joe Sheban will insist upon bringing things to school-eats for the office force, cats for the Zoology class, and what not. The other day Freda's office was fairly infested with pies that Joe had brought. Why he does these things, no one knows, at any rate, there must be something on Joe's mind. This calls for investigation.

CORNER-STONE LAYING

Sunday, May 24, will mark the date for the laying of the cornerstone for the new educational building. A fitting program is planned for the occasion, in which the Men's Glee Club will take part. The program will be as follows:

Master of Ceremonies - J.L.Wick

Selection Y.M.C.A. Boy's Band

Invocation Dr. W.E.Hammaker

Selection Men's Glee Club of Youngstown College

The Educational Building - a Civic Project
Henry Butler

New Building, from Alumni Viewpoint - Sid Collins

Short Address
Dr. L.W.S.Stryker

Laying of Cornerstone Directors H.L.Nearpass

WE'RE OFF our feed, today. The little bird that used to tell us things is out on strike. This morning he sat outside our window in the Jambar sanctum to give us the Frigid Optic.

"LAY OFF the romance stuff, kid and stick to comedy. That's your line. You know any old onion can make folks cry, but it takes a mighty fresh vegetable to make 'em laugh.

OH, WELL, why cross bridges-- when you can ride on your weekly pass.

WORDS are funny things. When a centipede is lying on his back, he is a hundred feet off the ground.

JOE SHEBAN wants to come to the Commencement Play and Dance, but he wants to know what a "Stag", Joe, is a dear without any dough.

ALL THE FLAPPERS will flap their wings; the sheiks will strut at the biggest fun-fest of syncopation YoCo has had in the last spell of blue moons. Doc Bowden's Thespians will present YOCO IS going to end things with a BANG this year! Friday, the 22nd, all of our prettiest pretties will be seen in aesthetic dances. But first we'll have the crowning of the May Queen, Betty Miller, an eye-ful hard on a weak heart, and who radiates personality.

ON THE PROGRAM is the May Pole Dance, selections by Men's and Women's glee clubs and refreshments! Yum, yum! Where are we going to be Friday afternoon about two o'clock? A wool blanket and ear muffs to the first brightly that sends in the correct answer.

FREDA wants to know how we mana ge to keep laughing. Don't you know, Freda, that our mattress is stuffed with horse-feathers?

NEXT WEEK'S Jambar will carry a surprise for everybody. That will be in the last 'Banal-ology'. We always end up BIG, so be around to visit us, next week.

A BIT OF PHILOSOPHY

Why take life too seriously?
You'll never get out of it alive.

All the good things in life may be free; but it often takes away one's freedom to help oneself to those things.

-----
Only salesmen were like opportunity---knock on the door once and go away.

Mother---"Have you anything to say before I punish you?
This is going to hurt me
worse than you, George."

Naughty Boy (George B.)---"Well, as long as you haven't done anything wrong, Ma,
why don't you let yourself
off?"

Hayden Cain, the illustrious night school student, walked into the office the other day
with knickers. Florence, rather unconsciously said,
"The next time you come into this office, dress like a man."

-----
Jack H. (musingly)--"Gosh, I wonder why they keep lions at the telephone office. When I call (who does Jack call)-- the central girl sometimes says, 'The Lion's busy'."

-----
Jack E.---"I'm glad to see you back after that accident.
How do you feel?"

Wad Y.---"Rotten! I only got one dent in the car."
