

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed: Dec. 24, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A new concept in listening, "Performance Today," will be presented by National Public Radio and Youngstown State University's fine arts radio station, WYSU-FM (88.5) beginning at noon Jan. 5.

The one hour show will be aired each weekday at noon with Kathryn Looman as host.

"Performance Today" will feature noted commentators from the U.S. and abroad offering views on openings, premieres, debuts and other happenings in all the arts--music, books, film, dance and the visual arts. Musical performances will include studio and concert segments.

#

NEWS SERVICE
86-270
la,b,d,h

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed: Dec. 24, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A new concept in listening, "Performance Today," will be presented by National Public Radio and Youngstown State University's fine arts radio station, WYSU-FM (88.5) beginning at noon Jan. 5.

The one hour show will be aired each weekday at noon with Kathryn Looman as host.

"Performance Today" will feature noted commentators from the U.S. and abroad offering views on openings, premieres, debuts and other happenings in all the arts--music, books, film, dance and the visual arts. Musical performances will include studio and concert segments.

#

NEWS SERVICE
86-270
1a,b,d,h

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Dec. 24, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Chapter 199 of Delta Nu Alpha, the international transportation fraternity at Youngstown State University, installed new officers recently at its annual dinner at the University.

The 1986-87 officers are: Kenneth J. Raub of Niles, president; Jeanette Wining, Austintown, vice president; Howard Pincham, Youngstown, treasurer; Randall Dettmer, Canfield, secretary; and John Bancroft, Hubbard, and Paul Hickson, Austintown, trustees.

The installation ceremony was conducted by Jay M. Fleenor of Akron, field agent in the Weighing/Inspection Division of the Eastern Central Motor Carriers Association.

Advisor for the fraternity is Joseph C. Long of Liberty Township, professor in the Department of Management of YSU's Warren P. Williamson, Jr. School of Business Administration.

Chapter 199 was chartered March 12, 1966. Delta Nu Alpha International has more than 12,000 members in over 200 chapters.

Objectives of the fraternity include encouraging young people to enter the field of transportation and traffic management, to foster academic and practical transportation advancement, and promote the exchange of information, experience, ideas and cooperation among members.

#

NEWS SERVICE
86-271
1 a,d