FOR RELEASE:

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The characters of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol have come off the pages and into the classroom thanks to Professor Joseph Babisch of Youngstown and his art class, School Arts and Crafts - Primary. This is a required course for elementary education and art education majors.

The 18 students in the class created marionettes in the likenesses of Dickens' characters with wood, papier mache and, as Babisch put it, "imagination."

Babisch has been a member of the YSU faculty since 1962, ~~A native of Buffalo, New York, he received a bachelor of science in education degree~~ He has authored numerous articles for education journals dealing with creative aspects of teaching art to children. He has also presented lectures on art-education to community groups, and during 1976 and 1977 he presented original puppet shows to junior and senior high schools. The puppet shows were written by Babisch and produced during his art class.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Chi Sigma Iota at Youngstown State University held its second annual initiation ceremony recently in the Ohio Room of Kilcawley Center. Thirty-seven area professionals and professionals-in-training were inducted into the international counseling honor society (see attached list).

The keynote speaker at the ceremony was Dr. David Cliness of Poland, chairman of the YSU Counseling Department, who spoke on "New Directions in Counselor Education at YSU."

The purpose of Chi Sigma Iota is to promote scholarship, research, professionalism and excellence in counseling, and to recognize high attainment in the pursuit of academic and clinical excellence in the field of counseling.

The chapter was established at YSU in January 1986.

The next quarterly meeting of the society will be held at 8:15 p.m. Jan 14 in the Ohio Room of Kilcawley Center. Helen Deneselya, a well-known area expert on suicide, will be the featured speaker. A short business meeting at 7:15 p.m. in the Cardinal Room of Kilcawley will precede the lecture.

Dr. Janet Gill-Wigal of Boardman, assistant professor in YSU's Counseling Department, is the chapter's advisor.

Officers include Sharon Forte of Warren, a recent graduate and graduate assistant, president; Dee Hall Edwards, Youngstown, limited service faculty member, secretary; and Donald Nolfi, Lowellville, member of the Mahoning County Mental Health Board, treasurer.
