YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - "Pension Plans: Sorting Through the Alternatives," a full-day seminar, will be offered Jan. 23 by Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education and the Mahoning Valley Small Business Enterprise Center.

The seminar will be from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on campus.

It will acquaint professionals, small business owners and tax advisors with pension plan/profit sharing alternatives and the effects of the 1986 Tax Reform Act. The seminar is designed to describe alternatives, identify appropriate options and show how to structure the investment portfolio and manage assets. Specific topics will include: SEP/IRA, Keogh, profit sharing, defined contributions and benefits, entity structure, liquidity, cashflow and asset allocation.

The instructor will be Ray DeGatonio, account executive for Butler, Wick & Co., Inc.

The seminar fee is $90, or $75 for registration prior to Jan. 10.

It has been approved for 8 hours of Continuing Professional Education by the Ohio and Pennsylvania Boards of Accountancy.

For more information, or to register for this seminar, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Jan. 2, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Language courses in Japanese and Spanish will be offered at Youngstown State University by the Office of Continuing Education during the Winter Quarter.

"Conversational Japanese" will be held from 5:40-7:30 p.m. Mondays, Jan. 26 - March 16.

This introductory course will cover pronunciation, greetings, numbers and counting, traveling and currency. Japanese culture will also be explored.

Joni Parker, a professional painter who holds a degree in fine arts, will be the instructor. She was born and raised in Tokyo and lived there for 20 years. Since then she has made frequent visits back to her homeland.

"Conversational Spanish" will meet from 5:40-7:30 p.m. Mondays, Feb. 2 - March 23.

This is a practical approach to mastery of everyday conversational Spanish. Designed for busy adults who have had no previous instruction in the language, class members will learn how to read, understand and converse through active participation.

Sylvia Hyre, coordinator of the Language Lab at YSU, will teach the course. She has a master's degree in education.

The fee is $90, or $75 for those registering at least 14 days before the first class.

For more information, or to register, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.
