

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill
(LW)

Mailed January 22, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Where can I find a job? What do I need to prepare? How do I apply? These questions and more can be answered at Youngstown State University's "Government and Social Service Career Day," from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m, Wednesday, Feb. 4 in Kilcawley Center's Ohio Room.

"Career Day" is sponsored annually by YSU's Career Service Office. More than 35 government and social service agencies will be on hand to discuss careers in government administrations, social work, counseling, medical service, military and corrections. Opportunities will be available locally, state wide and nationally.

To encourage individual discussion with representatives, tables will be arranged in an informal career fair setting. Pamphlets and additional information will be distributed along with application forms for the Professional Administrative Career Exam, the test required to establish eligibility for many entry level federal government positions.

The program is open to all area students, as well as the general public. Last year over 300 attended.

Other government agencies that have not confirmed a spot for the careers day program are encouraged to contact Rosanne Maister at (216) 742-3515.

###

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 190
1 a,b,c,d

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill
(LW)

Mailed January 22, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Where can I find a job? What do I need to prepare? How do I apply? These questions and more can be answered at Youngstown State University's "Government and Social Service Career Day," from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 4 in Kilcawley Center's Ohio Room.

"Career Day" is sponsored annually by YSU's Career Service Office. More than 35 government and social service agencies will be on hand to discuss careers in government administrations, social work, counseling, medical service, military and corrections. Opportunities will be available locally, state wide and nationally.

To encourage individual discussion with representatives, tables will be arranged in an informal career fair setting. Pamphlets and additional information will be distributed along with application forms for the Professional Administrative Career Exam, the test required to establish eligibility for many entry level federal government positions.

The program is open to all area students, as well as the general public. Last year over 300 attended.

Other government agencies that have not confirmed a spot for the careers day program are encouraged to contact Rosanne Meister at (216) 742-3515.

###

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 190
1 a,b,c,d

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill
(LW)

Mailed January 22, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Where can I find a job? What do I need to prepare? How do I apply? These questions and more can be answered at Youngstown State University's "Government and Social Service Career Day," from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 4 in Kilcawley Center's Ohio Room.

"Career Day" is sponsored annually by YSU's Career Service Office. More than 35 government and social service agencies will be on hand to discuss careers in government administrations, social work, counseling, medical service, military and corrections. Opportunities will be available locally, state wide and nationally.

To encourage individual discussion with representatives, tables will be arranged in an informal career fair setting. Pamphlets and additional information will be distributed along with application forms for the Professional Administrative Career Exam, the test required to establish eligibility for many entry level federal government positions.

The program is open to all area students, as well as the general public. Last year over 300 attended.

Other government agencies that have not confirmed a spot for the careers day program are encouraged to contact Rosanne Meister at (216) 742-3515.

###

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 190
1 a,b,c,d