YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Jazz Ensemble III will present it's first concert of the 1984-85 school year at 8 p.m. Monday, Jan. 28, in Bliss Hall, Room 2036.

The concert is free and open to the public.

The program will include "Samara," featuring Mike Morelli on tenor sax; "What Kind of Fool Am I?"; "Collage"; "One Big Happy Family," and "Pernod," featuring Jim Donovan, trumpet; Bruce Daniels, trombone, and Tom Osuga, piano.

Other featured soloists will include Tracy Guerin, trombone and Tony Audia, trumpet.

Jazz Ensemble III is under the direction of Royce Hetrick of Mercer, Pa., graduate assistant in jazz and trumpet who plays first trumpet in Jazz Ensemble I and the Wind Ensemble.

The program will also include selections by students in the advanced jazz improvisation class under the direction of Tony Leonardi, director of jazz studies at YSU's Dana School of Music, part of the University's College of Fine and Performing Arts.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education/Education Outreach will present a special program as part of its College for the 60-Plus, featuring Dr. Martin A. Greenman, chairman of YSU's Philosophy and Religious Studies department.

Dr. Greenman will speak on "Philosophies We Live By" from 2-3:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 13, in Room 2068 of Kilcawley Center.

The program is free and open to the public, especially those enrolled in or wishing to know more about College for the 60-Plus. An informal social time with refreshments is included in the program.

The College for the 60-Plus enables individuals who are 60 years of age or older, and who have been residents of Ohio for at least 12 months, to enroll in regular credit courses at YSU on a non-credit basis, free of tuition and general fee charges.

Registration for the College for the 60-Plus for the Spring Quarter will be held March 21-22 in the Office of Continuing Education/Education Outreach, Room B087 Cushwa Hall.

Reservations for Dr. Greenman's speech are recommended and may be made by calling (216) 742-3358 weekdays from 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

The Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies is part of YSU's College of Arts and Sciences.
