

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 6, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education will offer "Programming with Basic II" for those who have some experience with the Basic computer language.

This four-week course will meet from 9 a.m. to noon Saturdays, Oct. 25-Nov. 22. It is a continuation of the "Programming with Basic I" course. It will focus on practical applications of programming, advanced programming techniques, and specialized instruction commands.

Samuel Skarote of Campbell, YSU professor of Electrical Engineering, will be instructor.

The fee for the course is $140.

For a free brochure and a complete listing of YSU non-credit programs, contact the Office of Continuing Education at 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-137
la,c

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 6, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education will offer "Programming with Basic II" for those who have some experience with the Basic computer language.

This four-week course will meet from 9 a.m. to noon Saturdays, Oct. 25-Nov. 22. It is a continuation of the "Programming with Basic I" course. It will focus on practical applications of programming, advanced programming techniques, and specialized instruction commands.

Samuel Skarote of Campbell, YSU professor of Electrical Engineering, will be instructor.

The fee for the course is $140.

For a free brochure and a complete listing of YSU non-credit programs, contact the Office of Continuing Education at 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-137
la,c

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 6, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - An organ recital "J.S. Bach and the 19th Century" will be presented by Dr. Ronald L. Gould of Youngstown at 4 pm Sunday, Oct. 26, in St. John's Episcopal Church, 323 Wick Ave., as part of the 1986-87 Dana Concert Series.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Dr. Gould is a professor of music in Youngstown State University's Dana School of Music, which is part of the College of Fine and Performing Arts.

This concert is an outgrowth of the series of representative programs of the organ works of Johann Sebastian Bach played by Dr. Gould over the past two years as part of the tercentennial celebration of Bach's birth. It will trace the effects of the Romantic movement's rediscovery of the music of Bach and the influence that the composer exerted on various composers throughout the 19th century.

Nineteenth century music by Felix Mendelssohn ("Sonata II in C Minor, Op. 65"), Robert Schumann ("Fugue No. 6 on 'Bach,' Op. 60"), Franz Liszt ("Prelude and Fugue on 'Bach'"), Charles Marie Widor ("Andante sostenuto" from the "Gothic" Symphony, Op. 70") and Max Reger ("Introduction and Passacaglia in D Minor") comprise the main part of the program.

One of Bach's longest and most fully developed organ works, "Toccatina and Fugue in F Major, S. 540," will conclude the program.

###

NEWS SERVICE - JG
86-136
1a,b,c,3

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 6, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - An organ recital "J.S. Bach and the 19th Century" will be presented by Dr. Ronald L. Gould of Youngstown at 4 pm Sunday, Oct. 26, in St. John's Episcopal Church, 323 Wick Ave., as part of the 1986-87 Dana Concert Series.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Dr. Gould is a professor of music in Youngstown State University's Dana School of Music, which is part of the College of Fine and Performing Arts.

This concert is an outgrowth of the series of representative programs of the organ works of Johann Sebastian Bach played by Dr. Gould over the past two years as part of the tercentennial celebration of Bach's birth. It will trace the effects of the Romantic movement's rediscovery of the music of Bach and the influence that the composer exerted on various composers throughout the 19th century.

Nineteenth century music by Felix Mendelssohn ("Sonata II in C Minor, Op. 65"), Robert Schumann ("Fugue No. 6 on 'Bach,' Op. 60"), Franz Liszt ("Prelude and Fugue on 'Bach'"), Charles Marie Widor ("Andante sostenuto" from the "Gothic" Symphony, Op. 70") and Max Reger ("Introduction and Passacaglia in D Minor") comprise the main part of the program.

One of Bach's longest and most fully developed organ works, "Toccatina and Fugue in F Major, S. 540," will conclude the program.

###

NEWS SERVICE - JG
86-135
1a,b,c,3

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Mailed Oct. 6, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Teachers and teacher aides in nursery schools, day-care centers and Head-Start programs will have the opportunity, through Youngstown State University, to obtain 10 of the 15 hours per year required by the Ohio Department of Human Services for child care staff.

The YSU Office of Continuing Education will offer "Pre-school Activities" from 7:30-9:40 p.m. five Mondays, Oct. 20 - Nov. 17, on campus.

Participants will learn how to plan and carry out activities for pre-school children in the areas of art, music, language growth and physical development.

Ester Hallaman of Youngstown will instruct the course. In addition to establishing her own nursery school, she has wide experience in child care. Most recently she worked for the Easter Seal Center with preschool children, their parents and therapists on programming for physical and developmental disabilities. She has also worked as a tutor in Chaney High School and as supervisor of the Children's Therapeutic Program at the Child and Adult Mental Health Center.

The fee for the course is $90.

Although this course is designed for teachers, teacher aides and child care staff, any interested parents, babysitters or individuals may register.

To register or receive more information, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-138
la,c