Mailed Oct. 3, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education is offering two full-day seminars for persons interested in the Lotus 1-2-3 software package.

"Introduction to Lotus 1-2-3" is appropriate for anyone who wants to learn the basics of the program and has never had any programming experience. New users of microcomputers will also find the course to be helpful, especially business owners, managers, executives and professionals who are involved in sales, marketing, finance and personnel. This seminar will be from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Oct. 17.

The second, "Intermediate Lotus 1-2-3" is an intensive hands-on seminar covering advanced macros, database and statistical analysis and financial modeling. It will be held from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Nov. 14.

Michael Bshero, Certified Public Accountant, partner of Carbis, Walker & Associates, will present both seminars.

Each seminar has been approved for eight hours of continuing professional education by the Ohio and Pennsylvania Boards of Accountancy.

The fee for each seminar is $240.

For a free brochure and a complete listing of fall non-credit courses, call YSU's Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.
