YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A workshop will be held at Youngstown State University for anyone interested in investigating a career in the field of nursing from 2-3 p.m., Feb. 19 in Buckeye Suite II, Kilcawley Center.

Sponsored by the YSU Student Enrichment Center, the workshop will be conducted by Maureen M. Mitchell, R.N., YSU nursing instructor, and Karen Johns-Mason, academic advisor in YSU's College of Applied Science and Technology.

Students or potential students will have an opportunity to discuss different education possibilities, career objectives and admissions requirements with the workshop leaders.

There is no charge for the workshop, but reservations are required, and may be made by phoning the Student Enrichment Center at either (216) 742-3746 or 742-3730.
