YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Fifty-four outstanding students at Youngstown State University have been selected for inclusion in the 1988 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

They join an elite group of outstanding campus leaders selected from more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign countries.

The students are chosen by campus nominating committees and editors on the basis of academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges has been honoring outstanding students since its first publication in 1934.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Jean Engle of Youngstown, former administrative assistant with the Youngstown State University Alumni Association and former part-time assistant with the YSU Publications Office, has been named publications editor for the University.

In this post, she is responsible for the writing, editing, layout and design of YSU's catalogues, brochures, pamphlets and newsletters, as well as printing coordination of all University public relations materials.

Ms. Engle received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Pennsylvania State University in 1973 and Master of Arts degree in English from YSU in 1986.

From 1977-1985 she was co-owner and operator of the Ink Well Press in Youngstown before becoming a graduate assistant in the University's English Department. Ms. Engle had apprenticed as a press operator at Youngstown Lithographing Co. and had been public relations assistant for the Episcopal Diocese of New York in New York City.

She is a photographer as well as a writer, and has had photos exhibited in local juried art shows, including the Annual Area Artists' Show at the Butler Institute of American Art and the YWCA's "In Celebration of Women Artists."

She wrote a selection for YSU's Festschrift for Hildegard Schnuttgen, and is printing production coordinator for that project. She has been actively involved in several projects of the Women's Resource Center at YSU, including a promotional slide show and the center's program for Women's History Month in March.

Engle is a member of the Society for Technical Communication, the National Women's Studies Association and the Youngstown Writers' Group.
