YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - In addition to his poetry reading at 11 a.m. March 1, contemporary poet Peter Klappert will also give a lecture on the historical background of his most recent work, The Idiot Princess of the Last Dynasty, published in 1984.

The lecture will be held at 11 a.m. Feb. 28 in the Arts and Sciences Faculty Lounge, DeBartolo Hall, and is sponsored by the YSU Special Lecture Series and the Departments of English and History. The poetry reading will be held in the Arts and Sciences Lecture Hall. Both are free and open to the public.

Klappert's works have been critically acclaimed, and his poetry collection, Lugging Vegetables to Nantucket, won him the Yale Younger Poet Award.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A one-day seminar at Youngstown State University previously scheduled for Jan. 25 has been rescheduled for March 15.

The seminar, "Planning for Non-Profit Success," will address both internal and external issues relevant to the problems created for non-profit organization managers as they cope with decreases in funding and increases in the need for their services.

The seminar will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The fee of $60 includes lunch, refreshments, parking, written materials and a certificate of participation.

Larry A. Duck, executive director of Mahoning County Transitional Homes, Inc., will be the seminar instructor.

For additional information or registration, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.
