

FOR RELEASE: HOLD FOR RELEASE ON SATURDAY, AUG. 23, 1986

Mailed Aug. 19, 1986

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Six advanced cadets in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Youngstown State University were commissioned this morning (8-23) by Major General Donald R. Infante, who was commissioned here in 1958.

He was assisted by Lt. Col. Paul W. Fellingner of Boardman, chairman of YSU's Military Science Department and commander of the ROTC unit.

Four of the new Army lieutenants also graduated today. Two received early commissions because they have completed their Military Science courses and can begin service while still pursuing their YSU degrees.

The graduating seniors commissioned were:

James R. Borthwick of Warren, who majored in Political Science and is assigned to the Field Artillery;

William R. Florig of Austintown, History, assigned to the Infantry;

Thomas J. Hartzel, Youngstown, Law Enforcement, Field Artillery;

Mark E. McGill of Masury, Geography, Ordnance.

Commissioned early were:

Patrick J. Gaia of Youngstown, a History major assigned to the Field Artillery who is scheduled to graduate in December 1986;

Dwayne A. Lewis of Monaca, Pa., Mechanical Engineering Technology, not assigned as yet, who is to graduate in March of 1987.

Commissioned earlier this week by his father, Lt. Col. John R. Flick, a retired Army officer, was Dohn M. Flick of Austintown. He is majoring in Computer Science and will graduate in June 1989. He has been assigned to the Field Artillery.
