YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Swing into Spring with either "Beginning Golf" or "Intermediate Golf" at Youngstown State University. Both courses are being offered by YSU's Office of Continuing Education.

"Beginning Golf" will teach the fundamentals of golf, including grip, stance, swing patterns and putting, as well as rules of course play. Classes will meet from 5:40 to 7:30 p.m. Thursdays, beginning April 17 and running through May 22.

"Intermediate Golf" will consist of a review of the fundamentals of golf with expansion in the areas of stance, swing patterns and putting. Classes will meet from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturdays, April 12 through May 17.

Equipment will be provided for both courses although participants are welcome to bring their own clubs.

Eugene Barrett of Alliance will instruct "Beginning Golf." He is an associate professor in the Health and Physical Education Department at YSU.

The instructor for "Intermediate Golf" will be George Repasky, a limited service faculty member.

Each course costs $75, or $60 for individuals registering at least 14 days before the first class.

For additional information, or to register, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Faculty Development Workshop program will sponsor two workshop sessions April 3, conducted by Dr. John E. Roueche, director of the Program in Community College Education at the University of Texas in Austin.

The sessions, entitled "Working With the Underprepared Student," will be held in Buckeye I and II of Kilcawley Center.

A morning session from 9-11:30 will be conducted for Student Services personnel, Learning Assistance Center personnel, professional academic advisors, and other professional/administrative personnel. The afternoon session from 1-3 will be primarily for faculty.

Both sessions are open to other YSU personnel and those from area colleges and universities.

Dr. Roueche is nationally known for his work with low achievers and developmental studies. He has created a national network of more than 200 colleges and universities committed to professional growth for teachers and administrators.

He has written three books and is the recipient of the Council of Universities and Colleges' 1978 "Outstanding Research Award."

For registration, or additional information, contact Beth Kushner, research coordinator, Office of Associate Provost, at 742-3089.
