YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The Nontraditional Student Organization at Youngstown State University will hold an orientation program from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, April 5

The program, "I Believe in Me," is to acquaint older, nontraditional students with the campus, programs and procedures and other students.

Nontraditional students are those who haven't attended school for four or more years, never attended college, or attended only briefly. More than one-third of YSU's student body is over 25.

The orientation will begin with a get-acquainted session with coffee and donuts from 9 to 9:30 a.m. in Kilcawley Center. This will be followed by "survival skills" workshop sessions from 9:30-11:15, when there will be campus tours.

A lunch from 12:30-1:30 will include administrators, faculty and staff personnel. There is a $5 fee for lunch and reservations must be made with Mary Ann Echols, director of Special Student Services, telephone (216) 742-3538.

The campus tours will continue after lunch.

The tours and workshops will be conducted by members of the Nontraditional Student Organization.
