

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed March 31, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's eighth annual "Foreign Language Day" on Saturday, April 11, will have some 600 junior high and senior high school students from throughout the district participating in contests and activities.

Theme of this year's program is "Foreign Languages: We Are Not Alone." The event is sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, YSU College of Arts and Sciences, to recognize the achievements of the many students who share a special interest in the cultures and expressions of other peoples.

Students from schools in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania will have individual entries in poster and/or reading contests, and groups will be presenting original skits in other languages. Prizes will be presented to the top three winners in each category. Anyone, regardless of age or language level, may enter the poster contest.

Free parking will be available.

Registration will be at 8:15 a.m. in the lobby of the Arts and Sciences Building, Fifth Avenue and Spring Street. Contests will begin at 9 a.m. Awards will be presented about 1:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room of Kilcawley Center.

Detailed information and entry blanks may be obtained from the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, or by calling (216) 742-3461.

###

News Directors/Editors
Best time for photos of winners is about 2:30 p.m. Saturday (April 11) in Kilcawley Center Multi-Purpose room (big room on ground floor). Ask for Dr. Mario Veccia, who will have release ready listing winners and their schools.

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 262
1 a,b,c,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed March 31, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's eighth annual "Foreign Language Day" on Saturday, April 11, will have some 600 junior high and senior high school students from throughout the district participating in contests and activities.

Theme of this year's program is "Foreign Languages: We Are Not Alone." The event is sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, YSU College of Arts and Sciences, to recognize the achievements of the many students who share a special interest in the cultures and expressions of other peoples.

Students from schools in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania will have individual entries in poster and/or reading contests, and groups will be presenting original skits in other languages. Prizes will be presented to the top three winners in each category. Anyone, regardless of age or language level, may enter the poster contest.

Free parking will be available.

Registration will be at 8:15 a.m. in the lobby of the Arts and Sciences Building, Fifth Avenue and Spring Street. Contests will begin at 9 a.m. Awards will be presented about 1:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room of Kilcawley Center.

Detailed information and entry blanks may be obtained from the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, or by calling (216) 742-3461.

###

News Directors/Editors
Best time for photos of winners is about
2:30 p.m. Saturday (April 11) in Kilcawley Center Multi-Purpose room (big room on ground floor). Ask for Dr. Mario Veccia, who will have release ready listing winners
and their schools.

NEWS BUREAU
80 + 262
1 a,b,c,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed March 31, 1981

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's eighth annual "Foreign Language Day" on Saturday, April 11, will have some 600 junior high and senior high school students from throughout the district participating in contests and activities.

Theme of this year's program is "Foreign Languages: We Are Not Alone." The event is sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, YSU College of Arts and Sciences, to recognize the achievements of the many students who share a special interest in the cultures and expressions of other peoples.

Students from schools in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania will have individual entries in poster and/or reading contests, and groups will be presenting original skits in other languages. Prizes will be presented to the top three winners in each category. Anyone, regardless of age or language level, may enter the poster contest.

Free parking will be available.

Registration will be at 8:15 a.m. in the lobby of the Arts and Sciences Building, Fifth Avenue and Spring Street. Contests will begin at 9 a.m. Awards will be presented about 1:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room of Kilcawley Center.

Detailed information and entry blanks may be obtained from the Department of Foreign Languages and Literature, or by calling (216) 742-3461.

###

News Directors/Editors
Best time for photos of winners is about
2:30 p.m. Saturday (April 11) in Kilcawley
Center Multi-Purpose room (big room on ground floor). Ask for Dr. Mario Veccia,
who will have release ready listing winners
and their schools.

NEWS BUREAU
80 - 262
1 a,b,c,d