YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Any Youngstown State University alumni wishing to play in the "Pep Band" at the annual Red and White football game April 26 are welcome to bring their instruments and join in, according to Joseph Edwards, YSU director of bands.

The Penguin intra-varsity game will be at 8 p.m. in Stambaugh Stadium.

Edwards urged alumni musicians who plan to play in the band to call the Dana School of Music, (216) 742-3636, and leave their name and instrument they will play so that he can provide music for the participants. He said there will be no rehearsal, but the musicians should meet in the band section of the stadium at 7:30 p.m. that evening.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - The Eastern Ohio Counselors Association and the Mental Health 648 Board of Mahoning County, in cooperation with Youngstown State University's Department of Counseling and Office of Continuing Education, will sponsor a half-day workshop, "Contemporary Issues in Guidance and Counseling."

This ninth annual workshop will be held from 12:30-4:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 7, in Kilcawley Center.

It is approved for three contact hours toward the 100-hour requirement by the National Board of Certified Counselors for counselor recertification.

The workshop is intended for community agency counselors, school counselors, psychologists, graduate students in psychology and education, clergy, and others in the helping professions.

Dr. Charlotte Huddle of Columbus will present the keynote address, "Ohio Counselor Licensure." Dr. Huddle is president of the Ohio Association for Counseling and Development and also serves as its legislative liaison. She is a licensed psychologist and counselor in private practice and has had nine years experience as a school counselor.

Participants may choose one section in each of the two sessions. Session I at 2 p.m. includes "Hypnosis and Imagery as an Aid to Counselors" and "Dealing with Acting-Out Adolescents." Session II at 3:30 p.m. offers "Transferring Secondary Counseling Skills to Elementary Counseling Skills" and "Play Therapy."

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education and Campus Security Department will join with the Tri-County Crime Prevention Association and the Mahoning Valley Chiefs Association to co-sponsor "Investigation of Child Abuse Crime."

The five-day seminar will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 6 through May 10 on the YSU campus.

The seminar is designed to help police departments, social service agencies, counselors, hospitals and juvenile personnel in their work in this field.

All areas vital to today's child abuse educational programs will be studied.

Specific topics will include: child abuse, modern techniques of sex crime investigation; types of crimes against children; crisis intervention with child abuse victims; and verbal and non-verbal interview techniques.

Seminar leaders will be Harry O'Reilly, director of Investigative Services for the Illinois Multi-Regional Criminal Justice Training Project, and Lt. William P. McCarthy, commanding officer of the Headquarters Unit, Public Morals Division of the New York City Police Department.

The fee is $150, which includes materials, five lunches, parking, refreshments, and a certificate of participation.

To register, or obtain an information brochure, call the YSU Office of Continuing Education at (216) 742-3358.
