

FOR RELEASE:

IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed April 15, 1985

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Enrollment at Youngstown State University this Spring Quarter totals 14,009, which includes 8,721 full-time and 5,288 part-time students.

This compares with an enrollment of 14,199 a year ago.

Full-time students are defined as those carrying 12 or more hours of credit work.

Fall Quarter enrollment at the University, traditionally the highest of the year, was 15,254, dropping to 14,468 in the Winter Quarter.

This spring's student body is composed of 7,324 men and 6,685 women. A total of 12,944 are undergraduates and 1,065 are taking graduate studies.

The freshmen class again leads enrollment with 4,041, followed by 3,139 sophomores, 3,113 seniors and 2,651 juniors.

Of those attending Spring Quarter classes, 12,869 are Ohioians and 1,140 are from other states and nations. In the Winter Quarter, students representing 51 other countries of the world were attending YSU.

The Full-Time Equivalent this Spring Quarter is 10,431. (FTE is the student-credit hour formula used by the state to measure both part-time and full-time students into a full-time equation).

Spring enrollment by schools and colleges shows 4,813 in the College of Applied Science and Technology; 4,203 in the College of Arts and Sciences; 1,356 in the Warren P. Williamson Jr. School of Business Administration; 1,065 in the Graduate School; 894 in the School of Education; 879 in the William Rayen School of Engineering; and 799 in the College of Fine and Performing Arts.

MORE

ADD ONE

Current freshman class enrollment is 97.8 percent of last spring's figure; the sophomore class is 94.5 percent; the junior class, 101.4 percent, and the senior class, 101.8 percent compared to seniors in the spring of 1984.

###

NEWS BUREAU

84 - 492

1 a,b,c,d,2,2a

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed April 15, 1985

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - A Faculty Forum, "Free Enterprise: Benefits and Costs" will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday, April 25, in Lecture Room 132 of Youngstown State University's DeBartolo Hall (College of Arts and Sciences).

Faculty Forums are free and open to the public. They are offered by the university's College of Arts and Sciences to provide students, faculty and the public with information and insight into various topics by qualified experts from many fields.

There will be time for open discussion of the issues involved following the presentations. A reception will follow in Room 121-122.

Speakers and their topics are: Dr. Mervin Kohn of Boardman, professor, Department of Management, "The Framework of Private Enterprise"; Dr. John Smythe, Boardman, associate professor, Department of Economics, "Translating Consumer Wants Into Goods and Services Under the Free Enterprise System"; and Dr. Hassan Ronaghy, Youngstown, associate professor, Department of Economics, "Questions on the Viability of the Free Enterprise System."

Dr. Anthony H. Stocks of Austintown, chairman of the Department of Economics, will be moderator.

###

NEWS BUREAU - AB
84 - 493
1 a,c,d,f,3

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed April 15, 1985

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's fraternity and sorority system will present the 33rd annual Greek Sing at 7 p.m. Friday, April 19, in Stambaugh Auditorium, Fifth Avenue.

The program, which is open to the public, will feature three sororities and four fraternities performing a variety of musical selections.

Each year the Greek Sing is dedicated to an individual, and this year's dedication will be to Dr. Charles McBriarty of Boardman, vice president/Student Services.

Trophies will be awarded to each fraternity and sorority group selected by the panel of judges, which will be composed of area musicians.

Participating will be groups from Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Delta Zeta, Phi Mu and Zeta Tau Alpha.

The Main Street Singers from Youngstown, will be guest performers.

In addition to the musical competition, other honors will be presented for fraternity and sorority of the year, outstanding sorority woman and fraternity man of the year, scholarship awards for groups and individuals, special Panhellenic and Interfraternity Council awards, and an all-events trophy.

A reception will follow the program.

Jill Rindy of Masury and Albert Pompeo of Poland, co-chairman of last year's Greek Program Board, will be mistress and master of ceremonies.

MORE

ADD ONE

Also coordinating the Greek Sing is Jay Burlingame, advisor of the Interfraternity Council and Panhellenic Council.

Tickets, which are $3, will be available at the door.

For additional information, contact Jay Burlingame at (216) 742-3575.

###

NEWS BUREAU

84 - 494

l a,c,d,3

EDITORS: Awards will be presented between 9:15 and 9:30 p.m., if you wish to send a photographer. Contact person to assist with identification will be Jay Burlingame.

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed April 15, 1985

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Steven Ashby, national organizer for the Palestine Human Rights Campaign, and Victor Mashabena, African National Congress observer to the United Nations, will speak on two aspects of apartheidism at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, April 18, in Youngstown State University's DeBartolo Hall, Room 132 (formerly Arts and Sciences).

The lectures are free and open to the public.

Steven Ashby's talk, "Apartheid in the Israeli Occupied West Bank and Gaza," will include a 50-minute slide presentation in addition to observations from his recent trip to that area.

Victor Mashabena will lecture on "Apartheid and Zionism."

The event is sponsored by the YSU General Union of Arab Students, the General Union of Palestine Students, the Youngstown Council on World Affairs, the Black United Students organization and Student Government.

###

NEWS BUREAU
84 - 495
1 a,c

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed April 15, 1985

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's College of Fine and Performing Arts and its Dana School of Music, in cooperation with the YSU Office of Continuing Education, will hold its annual Keith Stein Memorial National Woodwind Clinic May 10-11.

Members of several of the nation's top woodwind quintets, along with members of the YSU Dana Woodwind Quintet, will conduct the clinic, which is in memory of the late Keith Stein, one of America's foremost clarinet performers and reknowned music teacher and author.

A professor at Michigan State University for 40 years, Stein also taught clarinet at the famous National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich., for more than 20 years and was a long-time co-principal clarinetist with the Chicago Symphony. He received MSU's Distinguished Professor Award, and was author of The Art of Clarinet Playing, the clarinetists' "bible."

Although severe arthritis eventually halted his playing, his masterful teaching continued. One of his first students to gain national acclaim was Clark Brody, who recently retired as principal clarinetist with the Chicago Symphony.

Dr. John Alleman of Poland, Dana faculty member and one of the coordinators for this year's event, originated the concept for the clinic, based on his association with Stein. Alleman studied and taught with Stein at Michigan State and studied clarinet with him at Interlochen. Alleman was also chairman of the national tribute held in Stein's honor when Prof. Stein retired from Michigan State in 1975. He died in 1980.

MORE

Barbara Ludwig and Dr. John Loch, both of the YSU Continuing Education Office, are also assisting in coordination of the clinic.

Scheduled events include lecture sessions, exhibits and recitals.

On Friday, May 10, events will run from 8^{a.m.}-10:15^{p.m.} a.m. Programs are scheduled from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, May 11. All sessions will be held in Bliss Hall on the YSU campus.

Members of the Richards Woodwind Quintet, which was co-founded by Stein at Michigan State in 1948, will be among the clinicians. Its membership includes two from the original quintet, Douglas Campbell, horn, and Edgar Kirk, bassoon. Additional members include Israel Borouchoff, flute; Daniel Stolper, oboe; and Frank Ell, clarinet. The group is recognized as one of the finest woodwind ensembles in the U.S., and has toured several foreign countries, including a recent visit to the People's Republic of China.

Clinicians will also include the New World Woodwind Quintet from the University of Wyoming. Its members are Katherine Kemler, flute; Julia Combs, oboe; Ralph Strouf, clarinet; William Stacy, horn; and Theodore Lapina, bassoon.

Members of the San Marcos Woodwind Quintet from Southwest Texas State University will also serve as clinicians. They are Adah Toland Moselle, flute; Beth Sanders, oboe; David Pino, clarinet; Stephen Hager, horn; and William Lewis, bassoon.

The Dana Woodwind Quintet is composed of Walter Mayhall, flute, and Loyal Mould, oboe, both of Youngstown; Lois Hopkins of New Wilmington, Pa., horn; Joseph Edwards of Poland, clarinet; and Donald Byo of Hubbard, bassoon. All are faculty members in the Dana School of Music.

In addition to lecture sessions on each instrument used in a woodwind ensemble, there will be performances by independent quintets chosen by a committee based on submitted information and taped previews.

ADD TWO

Prior to May 3, the clinic fee schedule is: general registrations, $40; full-time students, $20. The fee includes participation in clinic sessions, materials and recitals. A $10 late fee will be assessed registrations received after May. 3.

For more information, or to register for the Keith Stein Memorial clinic, contact the Office of Continuing Education, Youngstown State University, Youngstown, Ohio 44555, or phone (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS BUREAU - DS
84 - 496
1 a,b,c,d,2,2a,3

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Contact: Bob McGill

Mailed April 15, 1985

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - "Managing Assertively," a one-day seminar, will be offered by the Office of Continuing Education at Youngstown State University from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Friday, May 10.

This on-campus seminar is designed to assist participants in reducing defensive reactions in others, making negative statements without putting others down, responding to and deflating aggression, and accepting criticism without giving up one's own convictions.

Seminar leaders will be Kathy Chafee, coordinator of Children's Services at the Columbiana County Mental Health Center, and Anthony Cook, assistant administrator of Health Maintenance Plan, Warren.

The registration fee of $125 includes lunch, refreshment breaks, parking, and a certificate of participation.

To register or to obtain more information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, B087, Cushwa Hall, Youngstown State University, Youngstown, Ohio 44555, or call (216) 742-3358.

###

NEWS BUREAU - AB
04 - 497
1 a,c,d

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE
Mailed April 15, 1985

Contact: Bob McGill

CUTLINE

Members of the Dana Woodwind Quintet at Youngstown State University will be among those conducting music and instrumental clinics at YSU's annual Keith Stein Memorial National Woodwind Clinic May 10-11. From left to right are Loyal Mould, Youngstown, oboe; Joseph Edwards, Poland, clarinet; Lois Hopkins, New Wilmington, Pa., horn; Donald Byo of Hubbard, bassoon; and Walter Mayhall, Youngstown, flute. Other clinicians will include members of the Richards Woodwind Quintet of Michigan State University; New World Woodwind Quintet, University of Wyoming; and San Marcos Woodwind Quintet, Southwest Texas State University.

(YSU photo by Elise Cleary)

84-498