EDITORS/NEWS DIRECTORS:

YSU's 12th annual Foreign Language Day will be held from 8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. this Saturday, April 20.

Photos may be taken during the contests or at the awards ceremony, which will be held at 1:30 p.m. in the Chestnut Room of Kilcawley Center. For further information or to make special arrangements, contact Dr. Herve Corbe, 742-3464.

Some 450 junior and senior high students from many area schools will participate in the contests, skits and readings in five foreign languages. The area schools include: Austintown Fitch, Boardman, Canfield, Crestview, Brookfield, Lordstown, Howland, Poland, McDonald, Girard, West Middlesex, Salem, Niles McKinley, Ursuline, and Woodrow Wilson. There will also be students from Akron, Kent and Cleveland.

All events will take place in Kilcawley Center or DeBartolo Hall (formerly Arts & Sciences).

This year's theme is "Foreign Languages: The Key to Civilizations".

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's Office of Continuing Education/Education Outreach and the College for the 60 Plus will present a program on "Recycled Math," featuring Dr. Joseph P. Altinger, from 2-3:30 p.m. May 17 on campus in room 2068 Kilcawley Center.

Dr. Altinger will present some topics from basic algebra courses and show participants that they have the ability to learn math trouble-free.

The program is free and open to those enrolled in the College for the 60 Plus, their guests, those interested in learning more about the 60-Plus program, and senior citizen groups. An informal social time with refreshments will follow.

Dr. Altinger, associate professor of Mathematical and Computer Science at YSU, received his doctorate in 1969 from Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, and has been on the faculty at YSU for 15 years.

The College for the 60 Plus enables individuals who are 60 years or older, and who have been residents of Ohio for 12 months, to enroll in regular credit courses at YSU on a non-credit, space-available basis. Participants are entitled to free tuition, but must pay any general fee charges.

Registration for the College for the 60 Plus will be held on June 13 and 14 for the Summer Quarter (June 17-Aug. 23), in the Office of Continuing Education/Education Outreach, Room B037, Cushwa Hall.

Reservations are recommended and may be made by calling the Office of Continuing Education/Education Outreach at (216) 742-3358 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
