Mailed April 24, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's fraternity and sorority system will present the 35th annual Greek Sing at 7 p.m. Friday, May 1, in Stambaugh Auditorium, Fifth Avenue.

The program, which is open to the public, will feature three sororities, three fraternities and two little sister groups performing a variety of musical selections.

Each year the Greek Sing is dedicated to an individual, and this year's program will be in memory of E. Mark Evans, former associate professor and assistant dean of YSU's School of Business and Phi Kappa Tau advisor for many years.

Trophies will be awarded to each fraternity and sorority group selected by a panel of judges, which will be composed of area musicians.

Participating will be groups from Phi Kappa Tau, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Delta Zeta, Phi Mu, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Little Sister groups.

In addition to the musical competition, other honors will be presented for fraternity man and sorority woman of the year, scholarship awards and a fraternity sports trophy.

Kim Orr of Warren and Jim Moran of Austintown, co-chairpersons of YSU's Greek Program Board, will serve as mistress and master of ceremonies.

Tickets, which are $3, will be available at the door.

For more information, contact Sondra McGirr, YSU Greek advisor, (216) 742-3573.

EDITORS: Awards will be presented between 9:15 and 9:30 p.m., if you wish to send a photographer/reporter. Contact person to assist with identification will be Sondra McGirr.
