

RELEASE IMMEDIATE

Mailed May 12, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Elizabeth Hanford Dole, U.S. Secretary of Transportation, will be a Skeggs Lecturer for Youngstown State University's Special Lecture Series on May 26.

Her presentation will begin at 8 p.m. in Powers Auditorium, Federal Plaza West, in downtown Youngstown.

YSU's Special Lecture Series is free and open to the public. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. These programs are designed to enhance and enrich community and university life by bringing to campus prominent social, political and intellectual leaders.

As transportation secretary, Mrs. Dole sets policy direction for the nation's aviation, highway, railway, mass transit and maritime resources. She is the first woman to head a branch of the armed services, the U.S. Coast Guard.

Elizabeth Dole graduated with distinction in Political Science from Duke University. She received her law degree from Harvard Law School and a master's degree in education and government from Harvard University.

The secretary also serves on the National Drug Enforcement Policy Board, and was appointed by President Reagan to serve on the Vice President's Task Force on Terrorism.

Before joining President Reagan's cabinet, she served as assistant to the President for public liaison at the White House. From 1973 until 1979, she served on the Federal Trade Commission. In addition, she has served on several consumer affairs committees.

Add One - Dole

Mrs. Dole is a former member of the Board of Trustees of Duke University, and currently serves as a member of the Board of Visitors for the Duke University School of Business. She is honorary chairman of the Visiting Committee of Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

She recently received the Humanitarian Award from the National Commission Against Drunk Driving.

A native of Salisbury, N.C., she is married to Senate Majority Leader Robert Dole, the senior senator from Kansas.

Skeggs Lectures are endowed by the Skeggs Foundation in recognition of the vital role played by the late Leonard T. Skeggs, Sr., in the founding of YSU. Mr. Skeggs was educational secretary of the YMCA and later became general secretary. Funds for YSU Special Lecture Series are derived from student general fees.

###

NEWS SERVICE - SC
86-505
1a,b,d,e,h+

NEWS DIRECTORS/EDITORS:

There will be a press conference for Secretary Dole at 7:45 p.m., just before her address, backstage of Powers Auditorium. Reporters may use the rear Stage Door Entrance off Commerce Street.

RELEASE IMMEDIATE

Mailed May 12, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Elizabeth Hanford Dole, U.S. Secretary of Transportation, will be a Skeggs Lecturer for Youngstown State University's Special Lecture Series on May 26.

Her presentation will begin at 8 p.m. in Powers Auditorium, Federal Plaza West, in downtown Youngstown.

YSU's Special Lecture Series is free and open to the public. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis. These programs are designed to enhance and enrich community and university life by bringing to campus prominent social, political and intellectual leaders.

As transportation secretary, Mrs. Dole sets policy direction for the nation's aviation, highway, railway, mass transit and maritime resources. She is the first woman to head a branch of the armed services, the U.S. Coast Guard.

Elizabeth Dole graduated with distinction in Political Science from Duke University. She received her law degree from Harvard Law School and a master's degree in education and government from Harvard University.

The secretary also serves on the National Drug Enforcement Policy Board, and was appointed by President Reagan to serve on the Vice President's Task Force on Terrorism.

Before joining President Reagan's cabinet, she served as assistant to the President for public liaison at the White House. From 1973 until 1979, she served on the Federal Trade Commission. In addition, she has served on several consumer affairs committees.

Add One - Dole

Mrs. Dole is a former member of the Board of Trustees of Duke University, and currently serves as a member of the Board of Visitors for the Duke University School of Business. She is honorary chairman of the Visiting Committee of Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

She recently received the Humanitarian Award from the National Commission Against Drunk Driving.

A native of Salisbury, N.C., she is married to Senate Majority Leader Robert Dole, the senior senator from Kansas.

Skeggs Lectures are endowed by the Skeggs Foundation in recognition of the vital role played by the late Leonard T. Skeggs, Sr., in the founding of YSU. Mr. Skeggs was educational secretary of the YMCA and later became general secretary. Funds for YSU Special Lecture Series are derived from student general fees.

###

NEWS SERVICE - SC
86-505
1a,b,d,e,h+

NEWS DIRECTORS/EDITORS:

There will be a press conference for Secretary Dole at 7:45 p.m., just before her address, backstage of Powers Auditorium. Reporters may use the rear Stage Door Entrance off Commerce Street.

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed: May 12, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's College of Arts and Sciences will present a Faculty Forum at 3:30 p.m. Monday, May 18, in Rooms 121 and 122 of DeBartolo Hall, Fifth Avenue and Spring Street.

There will be a reception with refreshments at 3 p.m., before the forum begins.

The program is titled "Censorship: Language, Purpose and Result."

Faculty Forums are free and open to the public. They are offered by the College of Arts and Sciences to provide students, faculty and the public with information and insight into various topics by qualified experts from many fields.

"Authoritarian Personality" will be presented by Joyce Segreto of Austintown, assistant professor of Psychology.

Dr. Victor Wan-tatah of Youngstown, assistant professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies, will discuss "Religious Censorship: The Forbidden Tree Syndrome."

Dr. Lauren Schroeder of West Middlesex, Pa., professor of Biological Sciences, will present "Science, Evolution and Religion."

"Censorship and Books: The Magic Power of Words" will be presented by Dr. Gary Salvner of Boardman, associate professor of English.

Dr. Michael Finney of Kent, YSU associate professor of English, will discuss "The Good News."

"Censorship and Health Education" will be presented by Dr. Loretta Liptak of Boardman, associate professor of Health and Physical Education.

A panel discussion, moderated by Dr. James Houck of Youngstown, professor of English, will be offered from 4 to 4:30 p.m. Audience participation will follow the panel discussion.

#

FOR RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed: May 12, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University's College of Arts and Sciences will present a Faculty Forum at 3:30 p.m. Monday, May 18, in Rooms 121 and 122 of DeBartolo Hall, Fifth Avenue and Spring Street.

There will be a reception with refreshments at 3 p.m., before the forum begins.

The program is titled "Censorship: Language, Purpose and Result."

Faculty Forums are free and open to the public. They are offered by the College of Arts and Sciences to provide students, faculty and the public with information and insight into various topics by qualified experts from many fields.

"Authoritarian Personality" will be presented by Joyce Segreto of Austintown, assistant professor of Psychology.

Dr. Victor Wan-tatah of Youngstown, assistant professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies, will discuss "Religious Censorship: The Forbidden Tree Syndrome."

Dr. Lauren Schroeder of West Middlesex, Pa., professor of Biological Sciences, will present "Science, Evolution and Religion."

"Censorship and Books: The Magic Power of Words" will be presented by Dr. Gary Salvner of Boardman, associate professor of English.

Dr. Michael Finney of Kent, YSU associate professor of English, will discuss "The Good News."

"Censorship and Health Education" will be presented by Dr. Loreta Liptak of Boardman, associate professor of Health and Physical Education.

A panel discussion, moderated by Dr. James Houck of Youngstown, professor of English, will be offered from 4 to 4:30 p.m. Audience participation will follow the panel discussion.

#

YSU news

Youngstown State
University
News Service
Youngstown,
Ohio 44555
Telephone 421-1211

RELEASE IMMEDIATE

Mailed May 12, 1987

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University has announced plans to permanently close a section of Spring Street between Fifth Avenue and Elm Street on Monday, May 18.

Regular two-way traffic will continue on Spring between Wick Avenue and Elm Street, and the west end of Spring will remain open to permit access to the F-2 parking lot by DeBartolo Hall, Stambaugh Stadium, and the bookstore's receiving dock.

The city has approved vacating the section of Spring Street between Fifth and Elm. That area will eventually be redesigned and landscaped as part of the YSU campus.

###

NEWS SERVICE
86-507
1a,d,e

YSU news

Youngstown State
University
News Service
Youngstown,
Ohio 44555
Telephone 742-1711

RELEASE: IMMEDIATE

Mailed May 12, 1987

Tues

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio - Youngstown State University has announced plans to permanently close a section of Spring Street between Fifth Avenue and Elm Street on Monday, May 18.

Regular two-way traffic will continue on Spring between Wick Avenue and Elm Street, and the west end of Spring will remain open to permit access to the F-2 parking lot by DeBartolo Hall, Stambaugh Stadium, and the bookstore's receiving dock.

The city has approved vacating the section of Spring Street between Fifth and Elm. That area will eventually be redesigned and landscaped as part of the YSU campus.

###

NEWS SERVICE

86-507

1a,d,e