Birds trounce CSU, odds slim at Tampa

"We really shouldn't be playing Tampa, they have us out-manned in every position," said Coach Dwight 'Dike' Beede, yesterday. Coach Beede explained he scheduled Tampa four years ago when they were not as 'professional' as they are now. Tampa is trying to go 'big time'.

The Penguins walloped the Central State Marauders, 30-0 before 4,100 fans last Saturday night ending their 12-game losing streak that lasted since 1969 when YSU defeated South-eastern Louisiana, 20-7 and the first shut-out since blanking Southern Connecticut, 35-0, in 1967.

Beede also explained that he likes to schedule teams that have a chance at beating YSU and doesn't like to schedule a team he can push up and down the gridiron. He said, "the most important thing is to have a challenge."

Coach Beede's Birds dominated the game completely as the defense allowed CSU to cross the 50 yard line only twice. They also tackled a Marauder runner in the end zone for a safety.

The YSU offense was awesome as junior quarterback Ron Jaworski connected for two touchdown passes to Bob Ferranti. Tailback Larry Johnson and fullback Rosie Blackwell both ran for one touchdown each.

The Birds led at the end of the half by 14-0 with both TD's coming in the second quarter. Capping a 68-yard drive in 12 plays Jaworski hit Ferranti for a 10-yard touchdown pass. Four plays later, YSU's defense made CSU punt. This time the Penguins traveled 48 yards in seven plays as Johnson carried the ball on a sweep to score. Fred Bruderly kicked both extra-points.

YSU took the opening kick-off of the second half and scored again in seven plays. On first down and 15 Ferranti got his second TD on a 29-yard aerial from Jaworski. The score came with 11:25 left in the third quarter. Bruderly kicked the extra point.

A safety also came in the third quarter. With the Marauders down deep in their own territory, CSU halfback Bob Douglas tried a sweep but was stopped in the Marauder end zone by middle guard Bill Sperlazza and defensive end Butch Cheeks.

The last score came in the fourth quarter as Rosie Blackwell drove into the end zone for a one-yard run that climaxed a 54-yard drive in 12

New student health insurance covers more for lower cost

A newly adopted group insurance policy for YSU students will provide protection in several areas not covered under a former policy, according to Dr. Darrell F. Rishel, Dean of student affairs. Dr. Rishel said yesterday that the new policy is the result of more than a year of careful investigation.

The key difference between the coverage of the old and new policies, Dean Rishel noted, is that under the old Blue Cross/Blue Shield plan, medical expenses were paid only when a student was fully admitted into a hospital. Under the new program, medical expenses such as emergency room fees, ambulance fees and other outpatient costs are covered.

The twelve-month program is underwritten by the Continental Casualty Company of Chicago and administered by the McElroy-Minister Company of Columbus, Ohio. Under this plan, the eligible student is protected 24 hours a day, whether at home, at school or while traveling, on or off the campus, inside or outside the U.S.A.

"Of the several companies contacted, we found this policy to be the most effective at the lowest premium," he added. In checking with other universities, it was found that at least one half of Ohio's 12 state universities had policies administered by the same company, with no complaints.

There is also a substantial difference in the costs of the new policy as compared to the old. Under the Blue Cross plan, a single 12-month policy cost $75.00. Under the new plan, the annual premium for a single student enrolled in the fall would be $39.00. The student would pay this, at $13.00 a quarter, along with his tuition each fall, winter and spring quarter. A new

Bookstore is to move soon; will have browsing, space

The relocation of the university bookstore to a now empty supermarket at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Grant Street later this quarter will allow students to browse through open book shelves after the rush buying each quarter, George B. Conner, director of bookstore services said yesterday.

This temporary location was chosen because space is already available at the old supermarket for a larger sales area, a shipping area, and receiving lanes.

Besides dealing with current college required material, the bookstore hopes to soon carry trade books in stock as well as the regular novelties and campus items the bookstore now handles.

The book sections will be closed during the rush because "sales can then be handled in a much quicker and more efficient manner," explained Conner.

Remodeling of the food market is to be completed before the bookstore begins to move its current stock.

"We would like to wait until after this quarter's rush buying is over and books that are not needed returned before we start to relocate," explained Conner. "However, we hope to be in the building before winter quarter, and we will probably stay in this location for approximately two years," he added.

Conner stated that security changes would also be necessary. "The area has experienced problems in the past," Conner told the Jambar, "and tightening the security would be a wise move."

The bookstore is being moved to make way for construction of the new library.

Membership cases, advice to Pugsley at Council meeting

Questions concerning the eligibility of two council members, replacement of a member of the Discipline Committee, and several recommendations to the administration highlighted the Student Council meeting at 3:30 p.m. yesterday in the Buckeye Room of Kilcawley Student Center.

WEATHER - Morning Weather Line-Raindrops is likely choice today. Mercury should hit 80 in the first turn. It may be a little windy on the back stretch, it may not be but let's call it 50-50 and put 5-1 odds on a low of 58 for the finish.

Used Book Sale

Tomorrow is the last day in the used book sale sponsored by the Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity in the lobby of the Engineering Science Building. Students set their own prices on books they wish to sell and the fraternity charges a 10 per cent fee. Book sale hours will be from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. today and tomorrow.

Poddar Paper

Dr. Bhagwati P. K. Poddar, assistant professor of sociology and anthropology, delivered a paper entitled "Thoughts on the Human Cost of Gradual Change" at the annual meeting of Caucus for a New Political Science in Chicago, Ill., earlier this month.

OEA Meets

The YSU chapter of the OEA will meet at 4 p.m. Wednesday in Room 406 of the Lincoln Business Building. All interested faculty are invited to attend.

Ski Club

The Penguin Ski Club will hold their first meeting of the school year at 7:40 p.m. Wednesday in Room G-1 of Ward Beecher Science Hall. Anyone interested in joining the club should attend. Plans for the coming year will be formulated.

Gymnastic Team

Try-outs for the women's gymnastic team will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. today and Thursday in the Elm Street School gym.

Dance Club

Beginning or intermediate modern dance students interested in joining the Modern Dance Club should attend an organizational meeting at 4 p.m. Monday in Elm Street School Room 100.

YSU Theater Tryouts Tonight

Fifty parts are available in YSU theater's fall production, Camino Real. Tryouts are being held at 8 p.m. tonight in Strouss auditorium.

Writing Prize

Ronald W. Burr, a June graduate of YSU with a bachelor of engineering degree in mechanical engineering, has been selected as one of the five runners-up in the Charles T. Main writing contest of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

The judging was based on Burr's paper entitled "Technician to Politician—One Small Step for Man," which stressed the need for an association to engineers to represent the engineer in legislation.

Arts and Sciences Fall Graduates

The formal application for Fall graduates must be completed in the Arts and Sciences Office Building, Room 217, no later than Friday, October 1.

Soccer Club

The YSU Soccer Club opened its home season Saturday by defeating Lakewood Community College, 9-0. Scoring for the Penguins were Addy Kultan, Johnny Gangone, Fafael Talarera, Chet Sywarungmun, Vendy Tomlo and Kam Kasalan.

Eight Free University seminars begin this week in Pollock House

The YSU Free University's eight seminars will be held in Pollock House starting this week. Joseph Magielski, senior business major and the program's coordinator, said yesterday.

The seminars are offered by an unchartered group of YSU students and faculty, and free and ungraded, but carry no course credit. The currently-scheduled seminars, with their leaders, times, and room numbers are:

Cybernetics and the New Society—Dr. Joel E. Henkel, assistant professor of physics; 3-5 p.m. Wednesday in room 220.

Theory of Social Conflict—Dr. Thomas Shipka, assistant professor of philosophy; 4-6 p.m. Tuesday in Room 220.

Agitational Speaking—Dr. Daniel O'Neill, assistant professor of speech; 12 a.m.-1 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday in room 222.

Social Problems—Dr. Bhagwati P.K. Poddar, assistant professor of sociology and anthropology; 6-8 p.m. Wednesday in room 220.

Labor History—Albert J. Shipka, YSU trustee and president of the local AFL-CIO council; 10-12 a.m. Friday.

Collective Bargaining, Social Costs and Benefits—Mr. J.J. Koss, assistant professor of economics; 10-12 a.m. Monday and Wednesday.

Experience and Communication—Dr. Charles L. Reid, associate professor of philosophy; 6-8 p.m. Thursday.

Human Sexology—Dr. Assad S. Kassees, assistant professor of sociology; 6-8 p.m. Monday.

Additional information is available from:

Joseph Magielski 757-317, Armond Rossi 788-4922, Jeff Showman 534-1525, Kathy Pernotto 533-5774, Dennis Thompson, 793-1797, or Janice Driscoll 759-1445.

plays. Brudery made his fourth straight extra-point kick which wrapped-up the scoring.

The Penguins displayed their best ground attack in four years, rushing for 230 yards and 11 first downs. Johnson led the way with 99 yards in 21 carries. Wingback Rudy Florio gained 68 yards, Ron Ballas 35 yards and Blackwell ran for 34 yards. The rushing total was the best since the 242 yards gained against Eastern Kentucky in 1967.

Jaworski completed 9 out of 18 in a rainy cool night that proved that YSU could make the third down play.

Council was questioned by an anonymous letter to Darrell Rishel, dean of student affairs, are Dan Dunmire, liberal arts representative, and Becky Dixon, also from liberal arts.

Dunmire was questioned because his accum. fell below the 2.25 requirement for Student Council Spring Quarter. His accum. is now above 2.25 but the Student Council Constitution states that council members must maintain an average of above 2.25.

Representative Dixon was challenged because she carried 9 hours last spring. Council members must be full-time students. She returned to full-time status during the summer quarter and is currently enrolled full-time.

As of yesterday afternoon, no decision has been made in the cases which are to be investigated by the Student Council Discipline Committee.

According to the Council constituiton, ineligible members must be replaced by the candidate who in the last Council election has the second highest number of votes for the office in question. Accordingly, Dan Dunmire would be replaced by Angelo Giannini, however Giannini is also ineligible due to his current part-time student status.

Miss Dixon's replacement would be Terry Wilkes. Other Council members not returning to YSU this Quarter, Tina Serednesky, School of Education, and Peter Foster, Dana School of Music, are to be replaced by Jerome Parn and Candy Henderson respectively.

In other business, the Discipline Committee underwent a change of personnel as Elaine Pochiro, Vice Chairman of Council replaced Andy Bresko as one of the three student members of that committee. Suellen Stiffler was named to replace Peter Foster as Chairman of the Education Committee when it was learned that Foster was no Earthnotes is 100% recycled quality stationery. It's made entirely from waste material. Trash.

Using recycled paper saves trees, reduces pollution, and cuts down on waste.

But recycling only works when there is a demand for waste material. And this demand is created only when people buy recycled products. By buying Earthnotes, and other recycled paper products, you create a market for recycled paper. And help to save more trees.

Each box contains 50 Monarch size sheets, 30 matching envelopes and 30 "Save-a-Tree" stickers so you can spread the recycling message. It's available in white or pastel "earth colors".

Desegregate

The students on this campus have never had a student union like those found on nearly every campus. Everyone seems to understand and accept its absence and realizes it will be included in the new Kilcawley Student Center addition to be completed sometime in 1973. Most students uncomplainingly "make do" with the present cafeteria facilities as a substitute, if rather poor, a social gathering place.

The pathos of the situation is the lack of a common meeting ground for students and faculty members. What is presently the faculty lounge was, until last fall, a student lounge. To be deplored is not so much the lack of a lounge for students, but that the distinction between student and faculty facilities must be made at all. The segregation implies that students and faculty could not possibly have anything to say to one another beyond the classroom walls. Approximately one half of the educational process, through research, written expression and discussion, takes place outside the classroom. By not providing a common ground for the exchange of ideas between groups of students and faculty, this university is stifling a very vital portion of the university experience. Less obvious in the present set-up is the implication that faculty members are somehow above eating with students. After filing out of the often rigid atmosphere of the classroom, they relax in their own area, while students crowd into the cafeteria. Further characteristic of the segregation of the two groups is the designation of "faculty" on several lavatory doors on campus. Usually ignored, these signs should come down because their mere existence implies a discrimination against students.

The projected plans for this campus include recreational facilities which, hopefully, will not be designated "faculty" or "students". Many of the students presently on campus will not be around to enjoy the new areas which their student fees are helping to build. Their deprivation will not be in fact that they now have no area in which to play ping pong or shoot pool, but in the educational deprivation that comes when faculty file through one door to await the next class, and students through another.

We believe that the administration does regret the lack of student lounge facilities. But what is more regrettable is the segregation implicit in the present situation.

Letters to the Editor

Where do student fees go?

To the editor of the Jambar:

I am a full time student here at Y.S.U. I paid $190.00 for my tuition and fees. I have several questions I would like to ask the establishment: Why should the students here at this State College use a cafeteria for a lunchroom, and a student lounge? Why did the establishment take the student lounge and make it into a faculty lounge? Who had the authority to make this change? The money the students pay in fees—where is it going? Out of that money can't it furnish the students a lounge? Who is paying for the faculty lounge, is it coming out of the student fees? Doesn't this establishment feel the students want a decent place to sit and relax? Would the establishment print a paper showing how the student fees are spent? Would the qualified person, or perhaps even you, Dr. Pugsley, would you answer these questions?

But I do get the feeling these questions would not be answered, and the issue would soon be forgotten.

Forum and Letters Policy

The Jambar wants students, faculty, and staff to express their opinions on University subjects and issues. To this end the Jambar offers two avenues of expression, Letters to the Editor and the Forum.

The Forum is intended to permit comment on matters that are broader than immediate campus issues. The Jambar will print only those manuscripts which conform to accepted literary standards and which do not exceed 700 words. The author should fully identify himself.

Letters should be typed, triple-spaced, and should bear the author's signature, address, school-class, and phone number. Letters under 250 words in length will be printed in full, providing they contain no libelous or otherwise offensive material. The editor reserves the right to edit or otherwise condense letters which exceed 250 words.

Insurance

paying a total premium of $30.00. A student enrolling in the spring quarter would pay a one-time premium of $20.00, which would cover him through the summer quarter.

Dean Rishel added that a student must sign up for the insurance plan in his first quarter of the school year, if he desires insurance for any part of that academic year. For example, a student enrolled this fall must sign up for the insurance now or wait until the following policy year begins next September.

Other differences include a fuller Accidental Death and Dis-memberment clause and a Major Medical Plan, not included in the former insurance plan. However pregnancy, childbirth, or miscarriage are not covered by the new plan.

All undergraduate students carrying nine or more quarter hours and all graduate students carrying six or more hours are eligible for the insurance plan. Coverage is also available for spouses and dependent children of students participating in the program.

This year's coverage began September 22, 1971 and will continue through September 21, 1972.

All currently enrolled students have applications for the new plan in the mail which must be returned to the university by Oct. 1 with the initial payment or refusal.

Lack of experience plagues new YSU swimming team

By Rich Docherty
Jambar Staff Writer

Lack of experience and depth will be the major problems facing new aqua mentor Bob Leahy as competitive swimming returns to YSU after a year's absence.

The main ingredient in Leahy's rebuilding program is All-American diver Nick Gavolas who is in his final year of eligibility after sitting out last year. Other veteran tankmen expected to form the nucleus of the team include junior Rick Tatsch and sophomores John Carroll, Tom McGee, Chuck Nienhuis and Jeff Suain. Leahy also hopes to induce vets Bob Johnson and Jim Manchester out of retirement.

Filling the majority of the roster, however, will be swimmers with little or no team experience. Included in this group are Pete Johnson, Jim McDevitt, "Gentleman" Jim Sullivan, Tom Evans, Bon Webster, Dave Pankovich and Mike Manion.

Home meets again will be held at the Central YMCA and are slated to begin January 15, with the Penguins on the road at Allegheny. Other tentative opponents include Wayne State, Akron, Cleveland State, Slippery Rock, a triangular with Kent State and Kenyon, Fairmont State, Ashland and California (Pa.) State.

Despite the task facing him, Leahy is optimistic and looking forward to a "fun year." He admits that it will be a year of teaching and invites all YSU students interested in becoming a member of the team program to see him in his office in the rear of Pollock House. Practice begins October 4, and there will be no cuts.

Leahy, an All-American diver at Southern Connecticut State College in 1964, coached at Hamline (Minn.) University previous to his appointment at YSU and compiled a 36-13 log. The 28 year-old native of Milford, Conn., filled the post vacated by Ralph Johnson who resigned in September of 1970.

longer on Council.

Council also voted to send several letters of recommendation to the administration. Acting on a motion by Elaine Pochiro, Council will send a letter to the WYSU Broadcasting Committee suggesting that the station air "contemporary and progressive rock" music Saturday and Sunday nights from midnight to 4 a.m.

A letter will also be sent to President Pugsley, as a result of a motion by Dave Cappriotti, suggesting that handicapped people be given preference for jobs as YSU parking lot attendants.

On the motion of Len Azzaro, Council agreed to send a letter to President Pugsley regarding the allocation of facilities and funds for the establishment of a Day Care Center at YSU.

In a final order of business, Council granted a charter to the Kappa Chapter of Phi Lambda Pi sorority for married women students.

TIE-UP — At 10:00 a.m. yesterday the traffic on Bryson Street and neighboring streets was jammed with students awaiting parking spaces that were already filled. Until the parking decks are completed the problem of traffic will continue to exist.

TRAFFIC JAMS — Major traffic jams could be avoided by taking advantage of available spots around the university. Lots 1 and 2 are the last lots to be filled. Lots 3, 4, 5, are the first to fill and should be avoided after 9 a.m.

Parking help to come with phones, student aid

Help is on the way for students who have trouble finding a parking space.

A communication system linking student parking lots may be in use by the end of the week, Donald Swartzmiller, parking control supervisor, said yesterday.

Swartzmiller said that the actual installation of telephones in the guard houses is the only thing holding up the system.

According to Swartzmiller, student help in the lots is being tried for the first time this year. He expects that the students will help significantly in guiding students to available parking spaces once they are identifiable. Parking control vests to be worn by the students should be available tomorrow.

Grants open to YSU students, grads by NSF, Fulbright, Ford Foundation

Many YSU students can apply for graduate fellowships that several foundations are offering for the coming year.

The National Science Foundation offers three-year fellowships with an annual stipend of $3,600 for study or work leading to master's or doctoral degrees in the mathematical, physical, medical, biological, engineering, and social sciences, and in the history and philosophy of science.

Students studying for clinical or professional degree, such as those leading to medical, dental, or joint Ph.D. professional degrees are not eligible.

Applicants must be citizens of the U.S. and will be required to take the Graduate Record Examination which will be administered on December 11, 1971. Qualified students should apply by November 29, 1971 to the Fellowship Office, National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20418.

An overseas study program is available through the Fulbright Program to qualified graduate students during the 1972-73 academic year. Three types of Grants are available from this program; A full Grant, which provides round-trip transportation to any one of 29 countries, as well as tuition and maintenance for an academic year; a U.S. Government Travel Grant to 12 countries; and maintenance and tuition awards to 14 countries offered by foreign governments, universities, and private donors.

Requirements for eligibility for the scholarships include a U.S. citizenship, a bachelor's degree, language ability, and good health. The deadline for application in this program is October 15, 1971. More information and applications forms for this program can be secured from Professor Ward L. Miner of the Foreign Language Department.

The Ford Foundation has a limited number of Ph.D. fellowships available to qualified black undergraduate students. Each fellowship is available for full-time graduate study or up to five years and will cover full tuition and fees required by the graduate school, an allowance of $300 for books and supplies, and a monthly stipend for living costs depending on the marital status of the student.

These fellowships are available, however, only if the applicant meets all the following requirements: a recipient of a bachelor's degree before September 1, 1972, or since September 1, 1962, have not undertaken any other graduate or professional study, intend to pursue a career in higher education, is a citizen of the U.S., and plans to undertake full-time study in the fall term of 1972 towards a Ph.D.

The deadline for this program is January 10, 1972. Applications will be submitted only upon the request of the individual candidate and can be obtained by writing to Doctoral Fellowships for Black Students, The Ford Foundation, 320 East 43rd St., New York, New York, 10017.

Counseling seminar opens next Friday

"Counseling Services in Our Community" will be the program theme of a Cross-Cultural Seminar next Friday, October 8, at YSU, sponsored by the Subcommittee of the Student Development Senate Committee at YSU.

Designed to look into the various counseling services available within the community and explore areas of need that are not being met by any existing agencies, the seminar will start at 10:15 a.m. and run through 5 p.m.

Topics to be discussed in various workshop sessions are vocational and occupational counseling, educational (or school) counseling, minority group counseling, adult counseling and counseling for the aged, veterans counseling, industrial counseling, youth counseling and other special counseling services.

The program will begin with registration from 10:15 to 10:30 a.m. in the Audio-Visual Room of the University Library, followed by a welcome to the seminar and the University by President Albert L. Pugsley.

After a brief discussion of the purpose of the seminar, he keynote speech will be delivered by Robert O. Greer, assistant superintendent in charge of Urban Affairs for the State Board of Education.

The group will break for lunch from 12:30-1:30 p.m., forming workshop sessions from 1:45-3:45 p.m., followed by a reaction and summary session at 4 p.m.

Members of the subcommittee who are in charge of the seminar are Hugh A. Frost, assistant to the president, chairman; Mrs. Marguerite Foley, supervisor of the associate in arts program; Dr. Henry N. Fukui, assistant professor of chemistry; Mrs. Adoracion Gonzalez, reference librarian and assistant professor; Miss Sara Fitch and Mrs. Geneva Mason, both from the community.

Queen and senior class candidates will meet Thurs.

The Election Committee will hold meetings for students wishing to run for senior class office and for women wishing to be candidates for Homecoming Queen Thursday, in the Cardinal Room of Kilcawley Hall.

The meeting for seniors interested in running for office will be held at 2 p.m. and the meeting for those interested in running for Homecoming Queen is at 3 p.m.

Candidates for senior class office must have completed a minimum of 140 quarter hours of credit and possess at least a 2.25 accumulative scholastic point average. Candidacy can be declared by attending or having a representative attend the campaign meeting at Kilcawley.

Homecoming Queen candidates must be full time women students with a 2.0 accumulative point average. Each Queen candidate must have a petition signed by fifty students. Official petitions may be obtained in the Student Council office and must be returned by Friday, October 1.

Anyone with questions pertaining to the elections should contact Jim LaRosa, elections chairman, in the Student Council office, Kilcawley 108.

By the time Phil got through paying for tuition, late registration, student fees, books, and an outrageous deposit on his apartment, he didn't have a whole lot left for a stereo. BSR McDonald makes the RTS-40A for people like Phil. It's a complete AM/FM/MPX Phono component stereo system. The receiver delivers an honest 50 watts and boasts excellent sensitivity and separation specs. The turntable is our best-seller, and comes complete with a matched base, tinted dust cover, and Shure magnetic cartridge. The speakers are true two-way sealed acoustic suspension, with amazing bass response. We invite you to see the RTS-40A at your nearest BSR McDonald dealer. If you think it sounds good on paper, wait'll you hear it.
