Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Gondoliers" Will Be Given April 23-24-25

By Theresa Pagliassotti

The presentation of Gilbert and Sullivan has become a tradition at Youngstown College. On April 23, 24, and 25 the ninth consecutive Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "The Gondoliers," will be presented under the direction of Henry V. Stearns.

Twenty years before the opening of action, when Casilda, played by Phyllis D'Orsi, was yet a baby, she and the infant heir to the throne of Baratavia were married. Shortly thereafter he disappeared. At length, as the result of resurrection, the throne of Baratavia became vacant and Casilda's father wished to establish his daughter as queen. He, accompanied by his wife and daughter, went in search of his daughter's missing husband.

Upon reaching Venice, where they believed the infant heir was taken, they are told that the person they are seeking is either of two brothers, Giuseppe, played by Emile Lacivita, or Marco, played by Delbert Mook. The brothers are overjoyed and make plans for an ideal state at Baratavia.

At length the woman arrives who had been the nurse of the baby prince when he was married to Casilda, and she discloses that neither Marco nor Giuseppe is the rightful heir. The ending is a surprising and happy one.

Others in the cast include the Duke of Plaza-Toro, Harry Williams; Luiz, James Malin; Don Alambra, Robert Morris; Antonio, William Robinson; Francesco, Myron Thomas; Giorgio, Fred Anzino; the Duchess of Plaza-Toro, Edith Baxter; Gianetta, Helen Luchich; Tessa, Kay Sullivan; Fianetta, Mary Ferranti; Vittoria, Mary Woodside; Galia, Jean Vasconi; and Inez, Gertrude Rothermund.

The chorus of Contadine is made up of Leona Earnart, Theresa Pagliassotti, Elizabeth Cole, Jean Seel, June Bradshaw, Madeline Pucci, Ann Swartzwelter, Helen Humphrey, Lois Keck, and Shirley Tuttle.

The chorus of Gondoliers includes Robert Hum, Robert Schettino, Edward Reed, Dan Rich, Frank Savarino, Edward Zouck, James Hammond, Hal Davies, Marion Pagliassotti, and Florence Anderson.

The two solo dancers are Gertrude Rothermund and Angela Vagnozzi.

Of Course You're Going to Attend . . .

THE JUNIOR PROM TOMORROW NIGHT!

Bill Ost will be furnishing the background music for this semi-formal dance at the Stambaugh Auditorium. You'll want to see the "shining hour" of the prom queen and her lovely court. P. S.—These sparkling posters announcing the dance were made by Bob Burke and committee, Kay Baron, Maryetta Anderson, and Bob Chizmar.

THE SPRING TEA

April 26 is the date! Remember the place is the college auditorium, and the time is 3-5 p. m. All the sororities and the Y. W. C. S. will have a representative in the parade of spring styles. This is an all-girl, all-school activity.

Elinor Love has been chosen queen of the Junior Prom to be held tomorrow night at Stambaugh Auditorium. Turn to the "Limelight" and read about our charming queen who is a member of Gamma Sigma Sorority.

STUDENTS ARE ASKED TO CONTRIBUTE TO UNITED NATIONAL CLOTHING COLLECTION

"The United National Clothing Collection is counting on all college students to enlist in this newest war effort, the collection of good used clothing. With your understanding of the tragic conditions under which students overseas are existing, I am sure that you will achieve magnificent results in promoting a successful clothing collection campaign on your campus," states Henry J. Kaiser, national chairman, in a recent letter to the college.

Youngstown College, as a responsible organization in the community, has been asked to co-operate to the fullest in a concentrated effort to collect good used clothing for shipment to war-devastated countries. The United National Clothing Collection Drive began April 1 and will continue throughout this month only.

Student Council has appointed Lotus Koken general chairman for the collection at the college. A committee composed of a representative from each of the larger organizations of the school will aid in the drive.

Containers for the clothing have been placed at central points in the main college building, the Business School, and Dana's Music Institute. Students are urged to bring good substantial used clothing for both summer and winter wear, to be distributed free to the destitute (Continued on Page 2)

Paralysis Foundation To Grant Scholarships

To students who have graduated as a nurse, or physical educator, or who have two years college training including biology and other basic sciences, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is offering scholarships for training in physical therapy. The sum of $1,267,800 has been appropriated for training these vitally needed specialists. The scholarships which are available now for classes commencing in June and July cover tuition and maintenance for nine to 12 months' courses in approved schools.

B. A. R. Awards $50 Scholarships Here

Two Youngstown College students were recently awarded $50 scholarships by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Elinor Love and Howard Edsell were the recipients of this outstanding honor.

Our congratulations are extended to them.

Attention . . . Freshman Writers!

Sigma Tau Delta, national English fraternity, will award its freshman composition pin again this year to the freshman doing the most outstanding work in English composition.

All English teachers are asked to submit the name of the outstanding freshman writer in each of their composition classes (day and night) to Lois McCallister, fraternity secretary, in care of the Jambar box, as soon as possible. The announcement of the topics for the final contest will be announced to the candidates as soon as all the names have been submitted. The award will be made at the fraternity's spring banquet.

IT'S A LITTLE LATE TO BE SAYING . . .

. . . that the total offering following the Red Cross assembly was $27.

. . . that we should have reported the publicity office's bi-weekly project of sending out the Jambar to over 900 servicemen is completed in one single day! Such efficiency merits our special commendation!

IT'S HOUSECLEANING TIME

. . . and while attics are being invaded and overcrowded bureaus straightened out, you should be assembling your contribution for the United National Clothing Collection. Clothes, shoes, and bedding that you are not using can be put to work saving the people of war-ravaged nations from exposure and death! Every student must meet his five-pound quota if we are to have 100 per cent participation!

BOND DRIVE TOTALS TWICE AS LARGE AS ORIGINAL GOAL, REACHING $23,345!

By Jean Mellinger

Mr. William S. Miller, Mahoning County War Finance Committee chairman, presented Youngstown College with an identification tag, indicating the purchaser of equipment, similar to the one put on the plane the college bought. The presentation was made during the chapel program, April 4, as recognition of achievement during the equipment drive which ended April 1.

Sales went far over the original quota, $10,000, reaching $23,345.75 in bonds, purchase price, at the close of the two-month drive. This brings the year's total sales to $26,961.75.

Ten students have sold over $15,000 in bonds. Two of these—Jacqueline Smith with 87 bonds amounting to $3,993, and Virginia D'Isa with five bonds amounting to $3,750—have sold over $3,000 each. Four have sold over $1,000: Anne Tate has sold 32 bonds, bringing her sales to $2,361.75; Jean Mellinger, $1,687; Lilley Yee, $1,593; and Jenan Leeder, $1,480. Marjean Conkle is credited with sales amounting to $975; Mason Dyer, $900; Joseph Silva, $506; and Robert Burke, $506.

Seventeen salesmen have received the salute from General Eisenhower for selling five bonds to five different persons: Virginia Callaban, Marjean Conkle, Mason Dyer, Robert Hum, Jenan Leeder, Anna Mastorides, Jean Mellinger, Madeline Pucci, Danny Rich, Joseph Silva, Jacqueline Smith, Norma Steele, Anne Tate, Edward Zouck, Odessa Stacy, Robert Burke, and Lilley Yee.

Forty-four salesmen have sold over two bonds and have merited the captain citation. Recent additions to this list are: Robert Burke, Leona Ehrhart, Marilyn Patterson, Mary Pfeister, Lilley Yee, and Edith Rodway.

In accordance with the county office's request that Youngstown College continue its bond program during the Seventh War Loan Drive, the college committee has agreed to co-operate with schools and industrial plants to make the first phase of the drive successful. The county has been asked to meet a $9,347,000 "E" bond quota—the highest it has ever had! Youngstown College is proud to do its part in meeting this quota.

Greek Fraternities and Sororities Settle Down To Initiating Their Forty-Eight Pledges

By Edward Whalen

Rushing is over, and the fraternities and sororities have now settled down to initiating their 48 pledges. The rushees have enjoyed the limelight of parties, but for the next few weeks the activities will be taking over.

The three liberal arts school sororities were all active in rushing. Alpha Theta Delta Sorority pledged nine, Virginia Chill, Emma Schaffer, Yolanda Toth, Jean White, Edith Rodway, Virginia Blackman, Barbara Blackmer, Marietta Anderson, and Betty Lutze.

Phi Lambda Delta Sorority pledges are Beverly Ricketts, Jane Flickinger, Ann Swartzwelter, Irma Diamondstein, Pauline Thomas, and Pat Ford. Gamma Sigma pledged Mary Vesey.

Leading the fraternity pledge parade was Kappa Sigma Kappa with 20 pledges, Dan Rich, Bill Stalker, Mike Matune, Joe Simkins, Bob Burke, Kenny Love, Bill Bowie, John Hornak, Ed Simko, Bob Chizmar, Delbert McEwen, Jack Parker, Bob Ray, Ted Theodosoff, Bill Usselman, John Oltean, Charles Burlingham, Joe Midlick, Chuck Wilson, and Bill Sifka.

Phi Sigma Epsilon added 13 to its pledge roll. They are Mason Dyer, Bill Trube, George Libertine, Dan Marlos, Steve Christoffi, Bill Parmenter, Paul Serene, Art Williams, Joe Peyko, John Novicky, Jack Monahan, Ralph Rindano, and John Timko. Both Phi Gamma and Sigma Delta Beta fraternities are inactive this year.

There you have the newly pledged Greeks. In a few weeks or so they will be wearing their respective sorority and fraternity pins, using the frat grip and handshake and, in general, behaving like the Greeks that they will be.

Alpha Psi Omega-Mimes' Comedy Cast Announced Place High in Contest

By Sally Pitcairn

This year Alpha Psi Omega and Mimes are putting on that hilarious comedy, "You Can't Take It With You," which enjoyed such a long-run on Broadway a few years ago. The production of the play here at YoCo coincides with the recent revival which opened on Broadway March 26 for a nine-week run.

Our cast seems to be every bit as good as the previous casts. Many of the performers are old hands here at YoCo while others are newcomers to our stage. The play is under the direction of Bill Foley, a YoCo graduate.

The cast is as follows:

Essie	Virginia D'Isa
Ed (her husband)	Bob Ray
Penny Sycamore
Paul Sycamore	Irma Diamondstein
Grandpa Vanderhoff	Chuck Wilson
	Bob Chizmar
Alice Sycamore	Phyllis Wright
Rheba	Kayo Baron
Donald	Bob Hum
Mr. Kirby	Bob Hanssen
Mrs. Kirby	Jean Reel
Tony Kirby	Bill Sifka
Kolenkhov	Howard Sigal
Grand Duchess
	Grett Rothermund
Mr. Depinna	Mike Matune
Henderson	Bob Morris
First G-Man	Ed Simko
Second G-Man	Bill Reed
Gay Willington	Theresa Callan

On March 17, Wittenberg College, at Springfield, was host to eight Northeastern Ohio colleges who participated in a series of oratorical contests. Youngstown College sent five delegates with Dr. Blair and Miss Campbell as chaperons. Activities lasted from 10 in the morning until 10 o'clock that evening.

Dr. Blair, who judged in every event, felt that our representatives did extremely well. Many of their opponents were seniors who had majored in speech.

Kay Baron participated in Women's Poetry. Jinny D'Isa placed fourth in extemporaneous work. In Men's Extemporaneous, Frank Beshara placed third. Using the subject, "Something Must Be Done," Angie Vagnozzi placed second and won a cash bonus in Women's Oratory. Bill Bowie placed third in Men's Oratory. Congratulations to all of you. We are proud of your fine performance.

NOT LESS THAN 100%!

We cannot accept less than 100 per cent participation by our college students in the United National Clothing Collection. When the motion to launch a drive in our college in conjunction with the national drive was proposed in Student Council no decision except an affirmative one was possible. Now the goal of five pounds of clothing per student has been agreed upon, only action accompanied by the wholehearted, determined support of every student in the college will meet with approval. Each person must meet his personal goal if the college is to fulfill its pledge.

The need that we are attempting to fulfill cannot be over-estimated. Reliable sources report that in Europe more than 30,000,000 persons are "statistically naked" and 125,000,000 are in desperate need of clothing, shoes, and bedding. In Belgium, one family of seven shares one shirt. Crude shoes for children in Holland deform the feet permanently. In Poland, four families, living in a single, unheated, windowless room, pool clothing when one has to sally forth. We can sum the situation up by saying simply that millions of people who are living in the same world in which we find such bountiful plenty are in desperate need of clothing.

If facilities were available new clothing would be manufactured and sent to these people. The United States government is not shirking its duty and responsibility for helping the innocent sufferers in the war-ravaged areas in passing the job of clothing these needy people directly into the hands of the American public. It is in the homes of America that the most ready supply of clothing is available. Tucked away in drawers and attics are great supplies of unneeded clothing that can stem the tide of suffering from exposure which is claiming nearly as great a toll of victims as starvation is. We are assured that all the clothing will be distributed on the basis of the greatest immediate need and available shipping space. The clothing will be given freely to the needy without discrimination of any kind. All contributions should be good substantial used clothing that will be useful to the people who will receive it.

It is impossible for nations to recover from war's devastation and to rebuild their broken homes and towns unless they are given generous assistance by those people "who, but by the grace of God," might be in the same condition. We want these people to join with us in building a peaceful, prosperous world after victory has been won. Our job now is to help them in their immediate distress.

Looking Around

HELEN HUMPHREY

YoCo is really blowing its old top of late — ah, yes, we are really buzzin'. Once dance down, and dozens to go. The Phi Sig dance went over the top with a capacity crowd — and a swell time was had by all. The gang is going to buy MEHLER a set of TRAPS after his performance in the band (what he doesn't know is — what kind of traps we're going to buy). Friends that we are... It's LOVE, LOVE, LOVE! Yes, ELINOR LOVE the pride and joy of the junior class. This Saturday she'll be wearing the glory crown on her flowing tresses; she has all the poise, personality, and quiet beauty of a queenly person. We're proud of you, me gal, proud. And, in her court of honor will be two other beauties, JUNE and MARGE. This ought to be a charming sight to see... Every day we find out that our college professors and instructors are really human after all. A group of students got tired of putting up with a rampage of petty cheating that was going on in a certain class by college and post-college people. This cheating lowered the grades of those who didn't have the advantages of an open book or notes. This instructor listened and took action. Some people are going to learn a lesson the hard way. Our instructors are only too glad to listen to any problems that students present to them; they are fair, interested, and open for any suggestion for the betterment of their courses... Another romance seems to be in the flowering process on the campus — it's GINNY WILKOS and ED SIMKO — two cute kids... Well, I guess we brought it on ourselves and we'll have to take our medicine like grown-up adults and not over-grown kids. The behavior of students in the LOUNGE is now in the faculty's hands, and any violator of the rules will be dealt with by them. FRANK MACARTOR has practically done a one-man job of trying to keep proper order and people laughed it off because it came from a fellow student. Well, those who laugh last — and you know the rest. So, if you're willing to pay good money to be called a college student, why not act like one?... Enough for the sermon — I'll leave the preaching up to Malin, since he is going to take up the art... Speaking of art — have you noticed the art work in Miss Chapman's room?... Those poor kids in Content are really beating their brains out — drop in and see it some time... I used to think that Love made the world go around, but after taking a half semester of Geography I'll be darned if I know what makes the world go around, but I'll tell you this — it isn't as simple as love — no sir — not at all!... What we want to know is who were the two sharp men that CHILL and COVERT showed up with at the Phi Sig dance — nice stuff... Be sure and buy your tickets early for the Opera so you can get a front seat to see ANGIE and GRETCH do the cachuchu fandango — it's really darling... Well, chums, os gnol, siht si eht dne.

WHAT WOULD YOU CHANGE ABOUT THE LOUNGE?

Just to be different (we use the term loosely) Nell decided to use the LOUNGE as her subject this week. Seriously, the problem has become important; and since the Lounge means a lot to many students, Nell has procured a few opinions on it. As of last week, in Chapel, the discipline problem is taken care of — at least for the present. Most of the students are also interested in an improved Lounge since they are the ones who suffer or benefit by any changes. Here are a few ideas on the subject:

BILL SLIFKA — "I think we should have more attractive pictures, and ones that would be of interest to everyone. If the lights were cleaned the room would be more pleasant."

FLOY FAUCETT — "Outside of the mere detail of more ash trays, I am pretty well satisfied, now that the behavior problem is settled."

HAROLD MOREY — "I should like to see the card playing eliminated; not for myself, but for the good of the school and students. While card playing is not exactly wrong, it does create a bad atmosphere and often gives visitors a bad impression of the college. Do parents send their sons and daughters to college just to spend time playing cards?," is a frequent question. And I've often heard students in the Lounge say, "Guess I won't go to class; I want to finish this game."

JACKIE SMITH — "The main thing is improvement of personal conduct. I should also like to see the ash trays instead of the floor used to catch ashes. And, oh, the characters who don't put out their cigarettes and cause smoke signals to rise from the ash trays!"

HOWARD SIGAL — "I should like to see the Lounge made more attractive to a larger portion and more varied groups among the student body. Newspapers and magazines would help. And a larger room would be more inviting."

BEVERLY JACKSON — "We college students have been informed by our instructors that we are superior to the average run of young people, so I feel we should prove this by our conduct in the Lounge (which is certainly a good indication of what we're really like when we are unsupervised). To most of us, the behavior of some students is disgusting; and certainly none of us DO live, or WANT to live, in the filth we sometimes create in the Lounge. The only real change I see necessary in the Lounge, is the rapid improvement of personal behavior, and co-operation in keeping the Lounge a neat, attractive place in which to relax."

UNITED NATIONAL CLOTHING COLLECTION

men, women, and children in war-torn areas where clothing is very scarce, threadbare, or worn out.

- Most urgently needed are the following:
INFANTS' GARMENTS. All types are in urgent demand, particularly knit goods.
MEN'S AND BOYS' GARMENTS. Overcoats, topcoats, suits, coats, jackets, shirts, all types of work clothes, including overalls, coveralls, etc., sweaters, underswear, robes, pajamas, knitted gloves.
WOMEN'S AND GIRLS' GARMENTS. Overcoats, jackets, skirts, sweaters, blouses, dresses, aprons, jumpers, smocks, robes, nightwear, knitted gloves.
CAPS AND KNITTED HEADWEAR. Serviceable heavy duty caps and knitted headwear (such as stocking caps) are needed. (Women's hats, dress hats, and derbies cannot be used.)
BEDDING. Blankets, afghans, sheets, pillow cases, quilts. These are needed urgently if in serviceable condition.
SHOES. Either oxfords or high shoes, of durable type with low or medium heels ARE DESIRED. Shoes with high heels, open toes or open backs, evening slippers, and novelty types CANNOT BE USED. ALL SHOES COLLECTED SHOULD BE MATED AND TIED SECURELY INTO PAIRS.
USABLE REMNANTS, PIECE GOODS. Cut or uncut materials (cottons, rayons, woollens, etc.) ONE YARD OR MORE IN LENGTH — but NOT rags or badly damaged, dirty or worn-out fabrics.

The United National Clothing Collection is a united effort on the part of UNRRA (United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration) and 54 voluntary war relief agencies in the United States. Henry J. Kaiser is serving as national chairman at the request of President Roosevelt.

More than 125,000,000 people are in liberated, or to be liberated nations of Europe which are in dire need of clothing — 30,000,000 are children. Demands of armed forces and civilian needs prohibit the immediate manufacture of clothing for these needy and deserving people. They must depend on the American people — on the students of Youngstown College. If the college is to do its part — if each student is to do his part — five pounds of good used clothing must be collected per student.

LIMELIGHT

By Janan Leeder

TYPICAL COLLEGE GIRL is a label than can very well be attached to Elinor Love. This petite junior fits the title to a proverbial "T." She dresses always in casual suits or sport dresses of various descriptions, socks, saddle shoes. She's "neat, but not gaudy." Her hair is worn in a long, casual bob, and she wears little makeup except for lipstick. She's a picture of Vogue's idea of a college girl... which seems also to be Youngstown College's idea as well. She has just been chosen junior queen... a tribute to the intelligence and discrimination of those making the selection.

Her interests are a little out of the line of the usual 21-year-old college girl, for she is primarily interested in psychology and plans to follow the lines of psycho-therapy in a mental institution. This fascinating field intrigues her and she follows articles about it in leading magazines. Of course she isn't a bookworm, even though she is a member of Delta Epsilon, honorary scholastic fraternity which carries with it the privilege of voluntary class attendance. Elinor also enjoys tennis... swimming... and bridge.

In her choice of movie stars, Ingrid Bergman ranks first... and men... well, anything long, blond, and lanky... like, for instance... Joseph Cotton, comes high on the list.

Elinor spends her spare time at work. She is secretary to the health director at the Y. W. C. A. In addition to this she is prominent in school affairs, vice president of her sorority, the Gamma Sig. When asked what she would wear to the Junior Prom, she was vague... but she'll be there dressed like a dream. The lucky guy who will escort her is Jack Parker. So... there she is... your Junior Prom queen. Couldn't be better.

Alpha Iota News...

The members of the Alpha Eta chapter of Alpha Iota National Business Sorority began their rushing season March 2, with a party at the Y. M. C. A. for 12 rushees.

The evening was spent informally at cards and games, and Miss Mildred Scott told fortunes. The traditional St. Patrick's day green and white color scheme was carried throughout the appointments. The social committee was Dorothy Lyden, Donna Taaff, and Doris Taylor.

At the second rush party of the season 21 places were laid at a formal dinner, March 10, in the Blue Room of the Youngstown Hotel. Favors were individual gardenia corsages. The evening was spent at dancing and cards. Pat Greenwaut and Helen Barnes were on the social committee.

Miss Helen Barnes entertained at her home on Glacierview Drive at the formal installation of the pledges, March 20. They were presented their pledge pins and the traditional royal blue and white sorority colors. Donna Taaff, the pledge captain, instructed the pledges at the candlelight ceremony, at which Dorothy Lyden, president, presided. The lovely refreshment table was decorated with an oblong arrangement of snapdragons, iris, and daffodils placed between lighted green tapers.

The pledges included: Nadine Kildoo, Eileen Gevin, Glenna Hart, Betty Johnson, Delphine Ahn, Dorothy Diesler, and Dorothy Rudesill.

Tau Kappa Nu Sorority...

The Tau Kappa Nu Sorority recently held their pledge party at Buechner Hall. Luncheon was served by candlelight with Easter baskets as favors.

Installation and a banquet was held Tuesday, April 3, in the Blue Room of the Youngstown Hotel. The pledges included the following: Rose Fedyna, Josephine Anzovin, Florence George, Julia Aurillio, Mary Medovich, Nancy Adornato, and Mary Ann Rutkowski.

A breakfast will be held April 8, at Crandall Park Pavilion. Aurora Fortunato is chairman and will be assisted by Mary Ellen Rist, Elvera Rossi, Ruth Stevens, and Ruth Stephens. Angela Gamberale is president and Mrs. Grace Gettman is advisor.

Secondary Education Group...

On March 28, students majoring in secondary education organized into a group which will function as both a professional and social organization. The officers are as follows: President, Elvera Rossi; vice president, Olga Poiniski; secretary-treasurer, Maryalice Walker. Miss Stella Cassano is advisor of the group.

The group plans to meet twice a month with the next meeting on April 13. A committee will be appointed to draw up a constitution and plan a program for the remainder of the semester. All men and women enrolled in secondary education are welcome to attend the next meeting.

CAMPUS COMMENTS

By Lotus Koken

BACK AT THE SAME OLD STAND . . .

Officials of the college have found it necessary to take rather drastic steps to insure proper conduct among students in the Lounge. With an embarrassed blush for being forced to admit the need for such a measure, we sincerely hope the executive board plan proves effective. We hope it works. If this plan does not succeed, the only alternative is the abolishment of the Lounge. And at the moment, we can think of no movement that would be less popular among the students.

Student Council claims to have tried, and apparently failed, to make the Lounge a fairly quiet and decent place. Council members (with S. C. funds) redecorated the Lounge themselves in the hope that a more attractive room would command more respect. Council policing (unusual word to have to use in connection with college of the Lounge is more questionable. Here we state that there is ALWAYS a swift uppercut to the jaw, if all other methods fail.

Many on the campus feel that the matter boils down to the rugged individual. And, believe me, some of them are! There is an opinion that even with the threatened executive board judgment day, the solution rests with the all-over improvement of personal conduct. This faction believes the recent and forced hard-boiled tactics are still dependent on the individual conscience. Here we state that unless the personal angle is improved, an increase in the expulsion rate at the college will be the only concrete result of official action.

One thing seems to have slipped the minds of some students. YoCo is not a secluded spot far from the eyes of the world. Every day persons prominent in business and social organizations of Youngstown pass through our halls. The good opinion and friendship of these personages are important to the college. These passers-by form some of their opinions by quick glances in the Lounge, by chance meetings in the halls. But! What seems to have been forgotten by a few students is: That, although outsiders' opinions are formed on GENERAL concepts, within the school students are judged INDIVIDUALLY and are accepted or rejected on a much more specific basis. Personal popularity is ever so flexible. And so important to most of us!

If certain persons are incapable of any feeling for the college, or those about them, they should at least think of themselves — of their "reps." A bad reputation fosters coolness from others. And the cold shoulder definitely does NOT foster happiness in the long run.

In closing we resort to the old saying, "Everything in its place," and we add, "The place for SOME things is not the college Lounge!"

NOTE ON THE NEON . . .

The War Production Board gives an understanding smile to the NEON staff's plea for a bigger and better annual this year. But, at the same time, it raises a big war-restriction finger. The WPB has set the standard for all school annuals at the size of their respective 1941 editions — less 25 per cent. So-o-o.

COMMENT ON THE WEATHER . . .

Yippee! Spring!

Notes from Dana's . . .

By Ginny Putt

Spring house cleaning time is a good time to correct mistakes and start all over again. There was the time when it was printed here that Scenes from Operas was sponsored by Monday Musical Club when it was supposed to have been Youngstown Music Teachers Association. It wasn't just a typographical error in the programs for the recital recently that printed "Musetta, Waltz Song" from Madame Butterfly instead of the "Un Bel Di."

We cautiously announce the dates that the opera will be given: April 23, 24, and 25. The orchestration haven't arrived yet, but the rehearsals are progressing.

Is spring fever the reason that the cookin' at DMF lately hasn't been so successful? They burn the cocoa and over-estimate the amounts of ice cream in the punch. The YoCo Musical Division won't suffer any more—Veterans Trube and Anzivino came to the rescue with their K. P. experience.

Mr. Holzhausen and Miss Guarnieri are to be represented on the April 14 radio program. Carol Jones and Helen Lukich from Dana's will sing.

The "hoogey" fiends are kept happy now that we have Phil D'Orsi, Edith Baxter, Bill Robinson, and Emil LaCivita on hand to beat it out. We have several different flavors. By the way, some of the names for original compositions include such descriptive titles as "Buechner Bounce" and "Bryson Street Boogey."

As Douglas Brimmer says, "One of the worst words in the English language is Practice." He had a little difficulty convincing a professor that it isn't necessary. Doug has a special skill of organ building.

Here's a postscript about Mrs. Eidelman, new Dana faculty member. She came here from the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago, where she taught and did radio and solo work. There's lots more information we could reveal about her, too, but we'll reserve some of the facts for the new column, "Who's Who at Dana's."

Newman Club Plans For Day of Recollection

The Newman Club is completing plans for the Annual Day of Recollection to be held April 14. It will take place at the Cathedral and the two meals will be served at the Catholic Action Center. The schedule, which has not been completed, will consist of Mass, Holy Communion, breakfast, conference, meditation, dinner, conference, and Benediction. The plan of the day lasts from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m., and the officers, Jack Loney, Marge Thomas, Marcia Welsh, Virginia Wilkos, and Theresa Pagliassotti, are in charge.

The monthly meeting will be held April 8 at the Catholic Action Center. All Catholic students are invited to attend the business meeting, the weekly discussions held at 2:30 every Sunday at the Center, and the Day of Recollection.

With the Greeks . . .

By Elizabeth Patrick

Congratulations to the new pledges of the various Greek organizations. We wish all pledges the very best of luck.

ALPHA THETA DELTA

The Alpha Deltas' new pledges held their first pledge meeting March 28. The officers elected were: Edith Rodway, president, and Virginia Blackman, treasurer.

The Alpha Deltas are making plans for a party with the Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity on April 14.

PHI LAMBDA DELTA

At a recent meeting at the home of Lola Raptow, Ginny Wilkos was elected vice president to replace their former vice president, Scottie Gordon, who is out of school.

The first meeting of the pledges was held on Wednesday, March 28, at which time the pledge officers were elected. They are as follows: Irma Diamondstein, president, and Pauline Thomas, secretary.

Plans for initiations and installation of pledges are being made.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

The pledges of the Phi Sigma Fraternity held their first pledge meeting April 2. Paul Serene was elected pledge president.

The Phi Sigs wish to thank all who attended their dance, Saturday, March 31.

A sorority of Allegheny College has invited the Phi Sig Fraternity to be their guests for a May dance.

On April 14 the Phi Sigs are having a party with the Alpha Deltas.

SIGMA KAPPA PHI

Plans have been completed for the annual "Founder's Day" dinner, which is to be held in the Colonial Room of the Tod Hotel, Wednesday, April 11, at 6:00 p. m.

A very entertaining and enjoyable evening is promised for all brothers — so, all Sigma Kappa Phi members, turn out for this event and help make it a huge success!

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA

The Kappa Sigs will have their first pledge meeting April 2. Officers of the pledge group will be elected at that time.

The Kappa Sigs intend to make their pledges members as soon as possible.

CAMMA SIGMA

At the last business meeting of the sorority held March 21, arrangements were made for the social event of April. Virginia D'Isa was appointed general chairman of the affair.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 4. Co-hostesses will be Virginia Folkwein and Beverly Jackson.

Elvira Rossi Heads Potential Teachers

At a recent organization meeting of the students preparing for secondary teaching the following officers were elected: Elvira Rossi, president; Olga Poiniski, vice president, and Mary Alice Walker, secretary. Miss Stella Cassano is faculty advisor.

No name has been selected as yet for this organization which will promote the interests of students in this field. All eligible students are urged to join.

Who's Who — — On the Dana Faculty —

By Madeline Pucci

It is most fitting at this time to present Mrs. Mary E. Fankhauser, of the Dana Music faculty, since one of her pupils, Adrienne (Dorothy) Fisher, made her debut at Town Hall, New York City, April 4. Miss Fisher, a graduate of Julliard School of Music, studied with Mrs. Fankhauser for 11 years. Miss Fisher lived in New Castle before going to New York.

Mrs. Fankhauser, also of New Castle, received her B. M. and M. M. Degrees at Beaver College, Pa., and has spent many summers at Julliard, Chicago Musical College, and Teacher's College of Columbia University, where she studied pedagogy and conducting in addition to piano. Among her teachers were Stowoski, Ernest Hutcheson, Rudolph Ganz, and Harold Bauer, all famous artist-pianists.

Mrs. Fankhauser has been elected president of the Youngstown Music Teachers Association, effective September, 1945, and is chairman of the committee which presents music broadcasts every Saturday morning at 11:15 over WFBL. She was also a member of the committee which sponsored the recent "Scenes from Operas" program.

qualified physical therapists in the United States are in the armed services. Five thousand additional physical therapists are needed to meet the demands for the increasing use of physical therapy in the treatment of infantile paralysis and other needs. A physical therapist is a technician who uses physical agents such as heat, electricity, light, exercise, rest, muscle training, and similar methods in contrast to the use of drugs, biological and surgical methods.

Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, says, "The postwar possibilities in this field are almost without limit. Physical therapy is a vocation in which there is no overcrowding and the scholarships offer opportunities for professional careers." Applications for scholarships should be made to The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 120 Broadway, New York, 5, N. Y.

Chemistry Organization To Form Constitution

At a business meeting of the newly organized chemistry group on March 29, Donald Koontz was appointed to choose a committee to form a constitution for the organization. Lilley Yee was elected official reporter.

A name will be adopted for the organization from the selection of names submitted by the members of the group to Larry Blazina. A vote will be taken for the final choice at the next meeting, April 11, at noon.

Program chairman, John Hornak, has appointed a committee of four to lead the discussions at the next meeting on the four fields of chemistry. Those participating and their selected topics are: Frank MacArtor, organic chemistry; Donald Koontz, bio-chemistry; Mary Pfeister, technician; and Paul Serene, ammunition.

FROM THE SERVICEMEN'S LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SERVICEMEN:
KEEP YOUR LETTERS COMING — YOUR FRIENDS ARE WAITING TO SEE YOUR NAME.

PVT. CARL T. SCHROCK, 35921224
25th Evac. Hospital
APO 708, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

I wish to thank you very much for the copies of the Jambar which I am now receiving regularly. I was certainly happily surprised when I received the school's holiday greetings along with the first issue of the Jambar. . . I was very glad to see you start the column of letters from the servicemen. Each issue contains, so far, at least one or two letters from fellows who were in school when I was. In fact, the issue which I received today contains four. I am now located in the New Hebrides. I have been overseas about nine months now. The first seven months I was in New Caledonia. While there I was located in the same camp in which Phil Vergalito, a fellow YoCoite, is stationed. I also got to see Miss Carolyn Higgins, formerly registrar's secretary at YoCo when I was there, who is now a Red Cross worker in Caledonia. I came overseas with Ed Williams, also a fellow YoCoite. I am classified as a medical laboratory technician, but there is no opening in the lab. just yet so I'm working in supply now until I can get in the lab. . . I shall be glad to hear from anyone who cares to write to me.

CPL. ALVIN S. MARSHALL, 35750241
Hq. XV Corps
APO 436, New York City, N. Y.

Yesterday was a very important day for me. Reason why? The latest Jambar arrived. It is surely a treat to read the campus news. . . It is a wonder that our memories remain so long. No matter what happens to darken our days now, nobody can take from us the thoughts of pleasant history at "YoCo." Let's hope we all make it back for more good times. My situation is such that when I have a few moments to call my own, I can go downtown to a civilian church and get a little organ practice. Aside from that I'm afraid I'm getting rusty. Congratulations on the Rose Room. I am looking forward not only to seeing it, but also enjoying it. It sounds great and everyone concerned deserves a big vote of thanks.

O/C CED L. SMITH, 15132336
O C C No. 130—O. C. Hq.
F. A. S. Det., Fort Sill, Okla.

I have received several copies of the "Jambar" recently and it really is nice to get news from dear old "YoCo." I'm very glad to hear that the college is moving ahead even in these uncertain times. I was also happy to learn that the Kappa Sig's are still active. Hope to be in Youngstown about April 9.

PFC. HARRY H. CONNER, 33469729
U. S. Claims Service, Regional Office 1
APO No. 512, c/o Postmaster, New York City, N. Y.

I don't know exactly who is responsible for placing my name on your mailing list, but if they should happen to see this I hope they will accept my thanks for their thoughtfulness. Your paper seems to have lost none of its old touch, both for good news and for good reporting, and I hope you may continue to keep up the high standards set by your predecessors. Since entering the service I've spent a year seeing a great deal of North Africa, and almost as much time in Italy, where I am at present. I should like to say "hello" to all my old friends (if there are any left at YoCo now and provided I had any) and also to my buddies in the armed forces now in various parts of the globe. Will welcome any and all letters from both old and new friends.

PAUL L. GARL, A M M 1/C
N. A. S. A & R
Dallas, Tex.

My job in this man's navy is keeping the gremlins out of the engines of our aircraft, which is called "Trouble Shooting." Only those who have had a hand in this line of work realize the numerous things this covers. My tour of duty so far has been limited to the States, but I imagine I'll be riding a "Flat Top" in the near future. I enlisted in Detroit, was stationed at Grosse Ile, Mich., attended advanced engine school at Chicago and was at Glenview, Ill., for a short while. . . Dallas isn't too bad, but I sure miss the snow and cold weather of our vicinity.

PVT. EDWARD T. FAIREANKS, 35854668
Co. B. 52 En. Radio, 1st Platoon
Camp Wolters, Tex.

Although a lot of boys have written to you regarding the Jambar, I thought I might add that with me its "tops." I enjoy the editorials and am especially fond of hearing from and about the old gang. . . Youngstown College brings back old memories, such as Hell Week, the dances which I used to enjoy; these are my prize memories. I hope that these memories will become realities in the near future; not only for me, but for all the boys and girls who are in the service. As for me, I didn't do as well as "little" Woodie who is now a radio student. . . at present I have just about completed my training as a radio man in the ground forces (infantry). From here I expect to enter the high speed radio school at Fort Benning, Ga.

MILDRED F. PETERSON, Y 3/C
Allerton Hotel, Room 544
Cleveland, 15, O.

I have been receiving the "Jambar" faithfully for some time now and have enjoyed reading it. It helps to bring up to date the activities of the college along with the whereabouts of present and former members of the college. I am looking forward with interest to the coming issues of the paper.

SARAH E. RUKENBROD, Aer M 2/C
Aerology Office, Naval Air Station
Deland, Fla.

I am in the aerology department of the navy and what a time we do have with the weather down here. I realize now where the statement, "changeable as the weather," must have originated. However, it is very interesting work — especially the forecasting part. I should like very much to send a personal greeting to Phi Lambda Delta and wish them loads of luck. When reading the Jambar it enables one to slip back to the days when we, too, were part of YoCo and the memories that remain can't be beaten. Thanks again for making us still a part of YoCo and I hope some day we may all be back.

SGT. JAMES A. RAPTON
Co. D. Med. Trng. Bn. M. T. G. A. S. F. T. C.
Camp Crowder, Mo.

My stay at YoCo was very short. However, I expect to do something about a longer stay, postwar. Many familiar names appear in your servicemen's column. It sure is interesting to note that such a close relationship exists between the students and the servicemen. It will make things much easier after the victory is ours.

R. C. PALMER, S M 1/C
S & C School Staff, Bldg. 62
A. T. B., Little Creek, Va.

Just a line or two to let you know that I've been receiving that enthralling bit of paper known as the "Jambar" . . . This, being an instructor, has its "up and downs." One thing it makes very definite is my feeling of sympathy for those "dear pros." who once seemed rather tough to me. Now the shoe is on the other foot and I begin to understand their troubles. But this is not a letter of grief and woe, so enough of that!

Mrs. Malin Is Guest Speaker for Art Club

By Paul Beight
The Youngstown College Art Club held their second meeting Wednesday, March 23, in Room 201, with Barbara Blackmer acting as hostess. Mrs. Violet Stevenson Malin, a foremost Youngstown artist, was guest speaker.

Mrs. Malin gave a demonstration of oil painting, designing, and the method of organizing a landscape to show modeling of land, tree forms, and the development of space.

Mrs. Malin has studied with John Lloyd of Warren, Hugh Breckenridge of Gloucester, R. L., and the method of organizing a landscape to show modeling of land, tree forms, and the development of space.

After the demonstration, refreshments were served by the drawing and painting class. The next meeting of the club will be held April 13, from 12 to 1 p. m. Everyone interested in art is invited to join the organization.

R. I. L. Club Bi-Weekly Meeting Sunday, April 8

As usual, R. I. L. is full of activities. This Sunday, April 8, at 3:00 p. m., the regular bi-weekly meeting will be held; the speaker is to be our president, Dr. Howard W. Jones. Since Dr. Jones will be there we are anxious to have a good attendance. The meeting will be held in Dr. Stearns' room at the First Presbyterian Church, corner Wick and Wood.

Next week the long awaited social activity, a swimming party, will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday, April 13. This is under the chairmanship of Hal Davies. The party will start at 8:00 p. m. in the Boys' Division at the "Y." At 10:00 the swimming will begin, followed by a lunch. As you probably already know, this party is for members only. There will be no admission fee. Your membership card must be presented. So, come on, dig out those membership cards, find last summer's bathing suit and come down for a "Friday the 13th Party" at the "Y."

Sigma Alpha Iota To Discuss Coming Operas

The Sigma Alpha Iota Music Sorority of Dana's Musical Institute will hold its monthly meeting April 8, at Dana's. Mary Angela Miller and Madeline Pucci will speak on the operas which are coming to Cleveland and their composers. A musical program which will consist of several famous waltzes will follow.

Plans will be completed at the next meeting for a spring recital.

TO JOE FROM JUNE . . .

DEAR JOE,

Here at college the big topic of conversation right now is the Junior Prom, and who's going with whom — I mean whom. Ah, yes, spring is in the air. Someone, definitely not a poet, once said, "In the spring, a young man's fancy lightly turns to where girls' thoughts have been all winter." Is that why they hold proms in the spring?

Now to get the daffy-dills out of our way, we've had some nice spring surprises. Cheryl Stephany is home on leave from the Coast Guard Academy in Rhode Island, and Jack Cramer is home from the ordnance department of the army. It's nice to see all the familiar faces again.

"Je saime votre neveu!" — that was the first exclamation of a former YoCoite, Cpl. Richard Pierre Cowin, when he met his uncle, a city official in Boulay, France. Corporal Cowin, who has served with the Seventh Army in ordnance, has been in France since July, and recently paid a visit to some of his French relatives.

Here's some more news of a former Penguin star, Jim Heber, now a chief specialist (athletics), and assigned as a navy physical instructor at San Diego. Since Jim has been on the headquarters volleyball team in the Eleventh Naval District at San Diego, the squad has won 31 of its last 34 games. Sounds like the ripping games we had at the field house. (Yik! Where did I put my cough drops?)

Dick De Arment is now flying a B-24 bomber in the 15th Air Force in Italy. Dick, an army lieutenant, is typical of the way YoCo boys are knocking them out. In the navy, there's Ensign John Chrysal, pilot of an Avenger torpedo plane in the Navy Squadron 21. He helped destroy enemy tanks on Palau, escorted aircraft carriers, and saw action in the Philippines. He was commissioned at Pensacola, Fla.

Overseas since September, 1943, and now stationed in Colorado Springs, Colo., Cpl. William K. Doimoff holds the Bronze Star, two presidential citations, the Purple Heart, an oak leaf cluster, a good conduct medal, and a combat infantryman's badge. Corporal Doimoff saw action in France on D-Day and then as an American Ranger, he served in Belgium, Holland, and Luxembourg.

With the way things look now it won't be so long till more of you will be home. I promise there'll be proms to attend, too, so dig out that little black book. We'll be seeing you.

Sincerely yours,
JUNE GRIMSLEY.

Dana Music Forum Hears Miss Guarneri

The Dana Music Forum had a very successful open house party March 23 when Miss Kathryn T. Guarneri gave an interesting talk on the "Lure and Lore of Autographs." The autograph collection which she presented before the group was a unique one. It consisted of the autographs of famous composers, authors, and other famous historical figures.

Musical selections were rendered by a girls' trio, Virginia Furt, Mildred Vieweg, and Madeline Pucci, and a violin solo by Otto Jacoby. Refreshments were served after all the guests were escorted through the Dana Building.

Y. W. G. S. Business Meeting Held April 2

A short business meeting was held April 2 for the Young Women's G. S. members. Dawn McClelland has taken over the duties of president for the remainder of the year. A committee was appointed with Dorothy Gard as chairman for the next two social meetings. Plans are being made for a picnic to be held in May. All independent girls are invited to the next meeting. Watch for the announcements of the time and place.

I. R. Club Discusses "Bretton Woods Plan"

Larry Blazina presented a current topic on the "Bretton Woods Plan" at the March 26 meeting of the International Relations Club. The group seemed to agree that the "Bretton Woods Plan" would fall through without the backing of the "Dumbarton Oaks." Danny Rich led a lively discussion on a topic of great interest, "The Vatican and Religious Viewpoints on Socialism and Communism," at the April 2 meeting.

Dr. Gould also offers enlightening contributions on the subjects which are discussed from week to week. The attendance in general has been good this semester. However, anyone who is still interested is welcome to come. The next meeting will be April 9 at 12:00 noon in Dr. Gould's room.

T'es le bienvenu, vieux frère . . . Have a Coke

(GREETINGS, OLD MAN)

. . . a way to show friendship to a French sailor

Even foreigners visiting our shores for the first time respond to the friendliness in the phrase Have a Coke. There's the good old home-town American spirit behind it . . . the same as when you serve Coke at home. Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes — has become a bond of sympathy between kindly-minded folks.
