REMEMBER . . .

Don't Forget The Jester's Ball

by Joseph Pennell

TIMES A WASTING! Get your tickets now for the Jester's Ball to be held at the Elms Ballroom on April 1st. Bob Alexander's Band will play the sweetest music you have ever danced to.

Don't say we didn't warn you after you heard your friends talking about the wonderful time they had at the "Ball."

"The Day of Jest" is just around the corner, so don't be "A Little Jack Horner." Come to the Elms and have the time of your life.

In the way of a sneak preview of the event. You will dance to the hit music of Bob's band, which may be heard on WRN every Saturday evening.

The ballroom will be decorated in a never to be forgotten manner. Prizes will be featured throughout the intermissions. You can see that you are in for a very lively evening once you enter the virtual Jester's hall for several hours of dancing and merry-making.

Besides this and to top the program off Cabaret style will play an important role in the program. In charge of the affair are Jack Crandall, Joseph Kanik, George B. Snyder III, and Kenneth E. Johnson.

Proceeds from the dance will help to further the service projects of Alpha Phi Omega (National Service Fraternity).

Debaters Place High In N E O Tournament

Continuing their usual fine work, the YoCo debate team annexed second place in the North Eastern Ohio Debate Tournament. The meet was held at Baldwin-Wallace College on March 12, and was won by Oberlin College on a close decision. Members participating in the tournament were Joe Klein and Bruce Mills, affirmative; John Bartol and John Stevens, negative. The tournament was attended by 12 teams.

On April 2, YoCo will invade the Fairmont State College campus, at Fairmont, W. Va., for a decision debate. The Youngstown squad is also making plans to attend the Grand National Tournament. Last year the "Penguin" team went to Martha Washington College of the University of Virginia and took 11th place in a Grand National field of 67 top universities and colleges.

Attention Seniors!

Friday, March 25 is the last day you can order your class rings at Brenner's and have them delivered before graduation.

Urmson to head May Day Election Set for April 1

Harlan Urmson will manage May Day festivities this year, according to an appointment by the Social Committee of Student Council as Urmson, a Sig Delt, was chosen from applications submitted by interested senior men to Social Chairman Les Davies.

May Day is an annual celebration including the traditional May Pole Dance and afternoon festivities climaxed by the Senior prom in the evening. The date will be released soon.

Election Chairmen of Council Barbara Simpson has announced that the men of the college will nominate their candidates for May Queen on April 1. All candidates must be Seniors carrying 12 hours or more. A list of eligible girls will be posted before the election.

Strouss-Hirshberg Will Present Art Awards

Presentation of the awards won by YoCo artists in the recent Strouss College Art Exhibit will be made Friday, March 25, at 8:00 p. m. in the Music Annex. Mr. Bernard Hartzell, publicity director for Strouss will make the presentation. The first prize of $100 will go to George Traylor for his painting of "A Gray Dog." William Wolf will receive the second award of $50 for "His Hands, His Side, His Feet", and Nicholas Mackondy will receive the $25 award for "Five O'Clock Rush."

Miss Evans will speak to the group on "Why A Contemporary Art Exhibit?" The program will feature the singing of Mary Woodside, and a violin solo by Betty Jacoby. All students and faculty members are invited.

Fencing Is Added To Phys. Ed. Curriculum

by Matt Quinn

Thrust! . . . Parry! . . . Lunge! . . . Touche!!

No, don't worry, you're not "An Ohio Yankee in King Arthur's Court", and neither is this any "Miniver Cheevy-ish" dream. You are still in Youngstown, 1949, and you're reading the March 25th issue of the JAMBAR. But as I said before, this is no dream, it's all spring steel, muscle and training.

Just to clear things up, you are at this point, by proxy, in the gym at the YMCA, watching a class in fencing. The group is under the instruction of Howard Cook of the Graduate Exams Scheduled

The graduate Record Examinations will be given Monday, May 2 and Tuesday, May 3. The deadline for registration is noon on Thursday, April 14, Dean Wilcox has announced. These examinations are required for admission to many of the graduate schools.

Donna Lewis Is Selected Prom Queen

Dance To Be Held Saturday, April 23rd

Miss Donna Lewis will reign at the annual Junior Prom April 23. Miss Lewis, a member of Alpha Theta Delta Sorority, was chosen by a committee of judges including Police Chief Edward A. Allen, Mr. Robert D. Cooper.

Miss Lewis will be crowned at intermission by last year's queen Barbara Hengen of Alpha Theta Delta.

Attendants include the Misses Ruth Sweeney, Phi Lambda Delta; Penny Masterides, Independent; Jeannette Gibbs, Gamma Sigma; and Sally O'Horo, Gamma Sigma.

Jack Sandburg is general chairman of the prom and is still accepting applications for committee members.

RIL Sponsors Lectures

Mrs. Renwick Miller, President of the Youngstown Council of Protestant Women, will speak March 24th on "What American Church Women are Thinking About Vital Issues" in the second of a lecture series currently being sponsored by Religion In Life Club. These lectures will be a regular Thursday afternoon feature of the club's program. They will be held in Annex 2, open to all faculty members and students.

Rabbi Sidney Berkowitz of Rodef Sholem Temple opened the series last week with an open discussion on "What Christianity and Judaism Have in Common."

Reverend Charles Jack of the Boardman Methodist Church will lead a panel discussion including a number of local ministers March 31 on the subject "The Church and Social Action."

The purpose of the discussion group is to stimulate student thinking and encourage informal discussion of subjects of vital interest to all college students, Reverend Albert L. Linder, student religious counselor of RIL pointed out.

Alpha Mu Name Of New Campus Frat

Alpha Mu is the name of the new Advertising and merchandising fraternity, it is announced this week. The name is composed of the Greek letters for "A", which stands for advertising, and "B", which represents merchandising.

A constitution was drawn at the new fraternity's recent initial meeting. It has been presented to Student Council for approval, pending the issuing of a charter.

Students who are advertising or merchandising majors are invited to attend fraternity meetings of Alpha Mu. Time and place will be announced in the daily bulletin.

Professor Dykema To National Convention

Professor Karl W. Dykema, director of the division of languages and literature at Youngstown College and head of the department of English, will be a member of the organization committee for the conference on college freshman courses in composition and communication, to be held April 1 and 2 at the Stevens Hotel, Chicago, Ill.

Dykema will be on the program of the conference as discussion leader for the session on instrumental methods.

Sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English, the purpose of the conference is to study and improve college freshman courses in composition and communication.

Operettas to be Staged

The recently re-organized Drama Guild in conjunction with Dana School of Music is currently working on the production of the two operettas "Bastien and Bastienne" and "Down In the Valley."

During the past week members of the Drama Guild made a field trip to Westminster College to see a production of "The Glass Menagerie". The society hopes to return such invitations in the near future.

At the Guild's last meeting Miss Jeanne Lyons was elected to the executive board. Also Lillian Grodski, Nick Kekish, Marianne Navin, Jeanne Lyons, and Donna Lewis were selected for the program committee.

Betty DiMeno Wins Talent Show

In the Al Wagner Talent Show, held on March 21, Miss Betty Jane DiMeno was judged the winner. Miss DiMeno, an accordionist, and a student at the Dana School of Music, triumphed over a field of fifteen finalists. The show was aired by WFMJ from the Al Wagner show room on Market and was attended by a large crowd. From a field of one hundred and fifty contestants the field was narrowed down to 15 finalists before Betty Jane was picked as tops.

The winner will have her choice of a trip to New York with an audition for "The Original Amateur Hour", or $300 in cash. Miss DiMeno is a member of the Alpha Theta Delta Sorority. The Bob Kalafut trio was also in the finals. Bob is a student at YoCo and a member of the Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity.

Looking Around with TOM MANCHE

You poor students just about had no column to wrap your lunches in this week but "Hobo News" rejected this one so the cookies won't go stale tomorrow! (This copy will though.)

For you Mohogany Maniacs who think you've had your brew in all forms and ways, try this out on the next one you come across that has a head: Cook your beer with lemon juice and cinnamon then heat a pan of milk and throw, do not drop, a couple of well-beaten egg yolks in with it. Now add some salt. Now put some lemon peel in a glass and drown it. This will cure anything and it keeps you out of mischief for the half hour it takes to make it. . . . DICK BEES tells the tale of the drunken Eskimo who wandered into Joe's Igloo and ordered four fingers of Northern Comfort. . . . PAUL HAGEMAN, Youngstown's Ole' Man Mose, is in Cincinnati. . . . DR. HOWARD'S characterizations and voice changes are strictly from The Players. He is rivaled only by that boy with a hundred voices, HERB BRADEN, the poor man's Mr. Chamelon. . . . When we asked PAT (Plasma) MARINER how she happened to win the Pan-Hellenic Queen contest, she just shrugged her shoulders, scratched her head, spit, and said, "Oh, I dunno, just lucky I guess!" . . . JACK COLBURN sez that the No. One song in China is "Slow Boat to America." . . . Now that he is in the WEBW news room, we can call our ex-editor, WIRE. Get it? BOB WEYER? News wire? BOB WIRE? Oh nuts, forget it! . . . Donna forgot the famous ABC slogan: "Always Borrow (or buy) CHESTERFIELD" . . . BILL SCHWER says that this guy Anonymous never uses his first name and that if he had a name like ALCOHOLICS, he wouldn't either. . . . In case you didn't know, Artie Shaw, the clarinet player of whom Deems Taylor has said, "You just can't do things like that with a clarinet and I have books to prove it," never had a lesson on that instrument. He had five on a sax and took it from there. His first job, at sixteen, was back in Cleveland with a guy named Joe Cantor, no relation to Eddie. He is 38 now. . . . POAM: "A STUDY IN BROWNE" A textiles man of great renown Was that dapper professor, McKinley Browne. The faculty claimed, "So enterprising!" And told him to teach some merchandising. He taught us dopes about wool that's virgin, Pelts of mink (and fish that's sturgeon). And Mac showed facts of true blue whites, And flannel clothes both dark and light. He showed us shoes and glass and whether It's right or wrong to wash our leather. We've learned to choose, with captious eye What's cause to spurn, what's good to buy. On the fine we smile, on the false we frown And it's all because of McKinley's Browne! But, alas, I've learned, through McKinley's bunk That for years and years I've been buying junk. So now that I've learned with deep dismay, I've tossed my worldly belongings away.

Why the Lack of Interest?

The recent election of the Junior Prom Queen again brings to light the "wonderful" spirit the students of the college exhibit. In that election there were exactly 41 votes cast out of several hundred eligible Junior men, or should it be boys. Not that there is any complaint about how the election went. It was a fair election and there can be no cause for complaint about the results.

Now this is no new malady that has chosen this time to afflict the school. It is merely that this time it achieved new heights of lethargy. No, this is practically a traditional fault that everyone ignores. Perhaps they think it will with us as long as death and taxes. It will be too, if the present attitude continues. Even though the final selection is not by popular vote, the democratic method still controls the preliminary selection of nominees.

Until the student body wakes up, no college function truly can be called representative. —M. G.

Neon Cooperation Is Needed

It is a known fact that the success of this year's Neon is the determining factor in whether or not that publication continues in future years.

The Neon staff have been knocking themselves out trying to get copy and pictures in on time. But there are still some seniors who haven't seen fit to turn in their pictures yet. Why? Attempts to take complete class pictures were almost futile too, even though the JAMBAR published a time schedule.

But most important at present is the sales drive. Orders are not coming in fast enough yet. When students have to pay full price for the book in late spring, there will be regrets though. In the present campaign the Neon only costs you $2.50. This year the staff has promised more campus shots and student activity pictures than ever before.

It's still not too late to place your order. —S. O.

QUESTION: What Do You Think of Holding YoCo Dances In The New Auditorium?

JOE PENNELL Jun. The importance of the auditorium cannot be stressed enough. Dancing is one of the many uses for which the auditorium was planned.

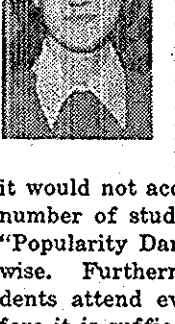

RALPH HARPER Jun. I think we should take advantage of our new auditorium for school dances. Having such affairs on the campus should stimulate school spirit to a great extent.

I am definitely in favor of holding dances in the auditorium; in fact, I think that YoCo should have at least one on-the-campus dance a month, even if recordings have to be used. This will give YoCoites a chance to get together, and make the campus a center of activity. Youngstown College has long needed a place for dances on the campus, and now that we have one we should make full use of it. This fact was proven recently at a dance held in the auditorium.

Also the atmosphere would certainly tend to be more relaxed and friendly. Another factor might be the convenience of attending the dances at the school instead of some ballroom where it would be necessary to drive a long distance.

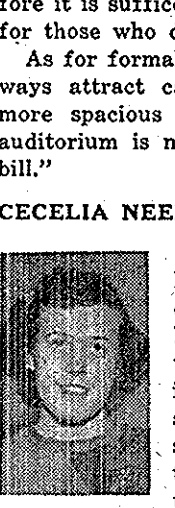

E. JANE STONE Soph. In my opinion college functions should be held on college premises. I think our new auditorium is the ideal place to hold dances. While a few big dances may need to be held outside, I believe that most of the dances should be held in the auditorium.

NATALIE PAVILON Soph. I believe our new auditorium is an ideal place for various dances. Not only does it eliminate the expense of renting a dance-hall, but it can be conveniently reached. Many have argued that it would not accommodate a great number of students, however, the "Popularity Dance" proved otherwise. Furthermore, not all students attend every dance; therefore it is sufficiently large enough for those who do.

MARY HYNES Fresh I think having dances in the new auditorium is a very good idea. The auditorium is large enough and very convenient; also it would seem more like a school activity and more students would attend the social functions. It would be profitable to the organization sponsoring the dance, the student body and the school.

CECELIA NEEDHAM Fresh. I definitely believe that school dances should be held in our auditorium because of its atmosphere and attractiveness. Also it is conducive to a feeling of better school spirit.

Silent Period Begins Mar. 28 For Greeks

Monday morning, March 28 Silent Week begins for all Greeks and prospective pledges. Bids will be issued on Wednesday and prior to that day it is a violation of the Pan-Hellenic Constitution to ask any rushee orally or in writing to join any organization. Rushees are expected to answer bids in writing on Friday of Silent Week by placing their notes of acceptance or rejection in a box in the main office by noon. During this week no Greek is supposed to talk to any rushee and vice versa. Pan Hel Council has interpreted this to mean that Greeks and Rushees may speak but may not converse about any Sorority or Fraternity matters.

Mr. Pricc Doyle, president of the National Association of the Schools of Music, will be on the campus Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, March 27, 28 and 29, for the re-examination of the Dana School of Music. This is Mr. Doyle's second visit to the Music School having been here two years ago.

James C. Babbitt, Trombonist, will give his senior recital Friday, evening, March 25th at 8:30 p.m. in the college auditorium. Mr. Babbitt's program will consist of works by Davis, Alschavsky, Maesteller, Blazewitch and Niverd. Students, faculty and general public are invited to attend.

The students and faculty wish to extend their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Dehnpostel, assistant dean of the School of Music, occasioned by the death of her mother, Mrs. Nellie Gwynn.

The Howard University Choir, under the direction of Warner Lawson, Dean of the School of Music, will appear in concert on March 25th, 1949, in the main auditorium of Third Baptist Church, at 8:15 o'clock p. m. The choir has become recognized as one of the outstanding groups of its kind in the country. Its membership is composed entirely of young collegians from all colleges of the University. Its soloists are undergraduate students in the School of Music. Appearances in concert in the larger cities of the East and broadcasts on coast-to-coast networks of both CBS and NBC have elicited high praise from major critics.

Chief credit for the development of the choir is due to Mr. Lawson, a member of a highly musical family. His father, R. Augustus Lawson, is an outstanding pianist and teacher. His mother was soprano soloist with the famous Fisk Jubilee Singers. Concerts last year in leading cities of the East aroused uniform acclaim from audiences and critics for the superb quality of their ensemble.

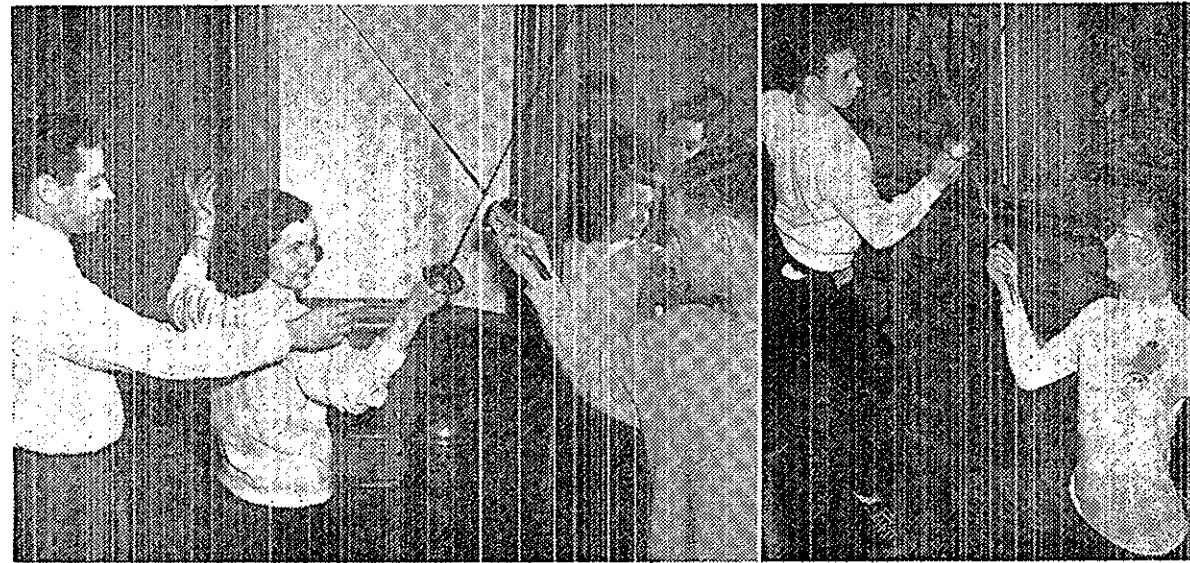

The critic for the Washington Evening Star, said, "Mr. Lawson is an imaginative director who achieves astonishing results with his talented group. It was a performance that could rank with those of the Russian Choral Singers in richness of tone and originality of effects."

The choir is being presented in Youngstown by The Ta-Wa-Si Club. Miss Ann Black is president of the organization; Miss Susie Freeman is in charge of affairs for the concert.

Mrs. Peggy Huebner Krohn, a Dana student of 1943-44, graduate of Northwestern University is currently making a name for herself in San Antonio, Texas. A faculty member of Our Lady of the Lake College, Mrs. Krohn is probably the only woman in the U.S. to give a French horn concert, according to San Antonio papers. Mrs. Krohn claims she has the stamina for a one hour concert.

We heard a woman say that she felt better and looked younger, now that she was taking care of her feet instead of her face.

Thrust! . . . Parry! . . . Lunge! . . . Touche!

The Business School is an old building, but this is probably the first time there's been any fencing on the stairway. Ray Grazier and Wilson Hamilton look serious about it though.

Instructor Howard Cook corrects a fault, although we don't see any, in Ruth Wear's stance, as Jack Andrews executes a new parry.

Student veterans enrolled at educational institutions under the G.I. Bill should report any interruptions or discontinuances of training immediately to Veterans Administration.

Failure to notify VA of training terminations usually results in overpayment of subsistence allowances to veterans, VA said. Such overpayments must be refunded to VA.

Veterans who receive unearned subsistence checks after interruption or discontinuance of training must return all overpayments to the government or make satisfactory arrangements for repayment of the indebtedness.

VA said veterans who fail to make arrangements to repay subsistence allowance overpayments while attending school may be prevented from re-entering colleges under the G. I. Bill. Also, if they later apply for unemployment or self-employment allowances they will have the amounts they owe the government deducted from their benefit checks.

Along this same idea, many subsistence checks mailed each month to veterans studying in schools and colleges under the G.I. Bill and P.L. 16 must be returned because the veteran moved and failed to inform Veterans Administration promptly of his new address.

Federal Law prohibits mail carriers from forwarding a government check from one address to another. It must be delivered to the address on the check.

Checks which cannot be delivered to the Treasury Department and held there until the veteran submits a change of address to the VA regional office holding his records.

Student veterans acquiring dependents after enrolling in schools or colleges under the G.I. Bill as single persons should notify the VA immediately so that an adjustment may be made in their subsistence allowances. Student veterans with one dependent also should report immediately any additional dependents they acquire. VA increases payments as of the date it is notified and not retroactively to the date the veteran actually acquired a dependent.

WANT A JOB?

A study just completed by the Occupational Outlook Service, Bureau of Labor Statistics, US department of Labor for the Veterans Administration shows the next few years will see an increased demand for college graduates in the fields of medicine, psychology, kindergarten, and elementary school teaching and certain phases of electricity. At the same time, competition will grow keener for positions in the fields of engineering, chemistry, pharmacy, law and personnel relations.

The nation's demand for health service is outstripping the supply of newly graduated doctors and dentists, the report said. It estimated that "about two-thirds of this year's 5,543 medical graduates and all of the 1,515 dental graduates will be needed to replace the physicians and dentists lost to the field annually because of death or retirement." As a result only a small expansion of the country's medical staff will be possible.

Although a record number of bachelor's degrees were awarded in psychology during the past academic year, there is still a need for well-trained persons in this field. However, the shortage of training facilities will prevent many of those with bachelor's degrees from entering graduate school.

"Over the next 10 years nearly 1,000,000 teachers must be trained if the educational goals recommended by leaders in the profession are to be met," the report said. The greatest needs will be for kindergarten and elementary teachers.

OCNA Convention is Set

Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, will be host to the annual Ohio College Newspaper Association convention Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30.

The convention will mark the 23rd anniversary of OCNA which was organized May 1, 1926, by 8 Ohio colleges. Since its beginning, OCNA has striven to further the interest of all Ohio college newspapers, to further the co-operation among the editors and business managers of the Association, and to raise the standards of Ohio College journalism.

Youngstown College last year won the Scripps-Howard award for the best bi-weekly in Ohio. The Scripps-Howard cup is presented annually at the OCNA convention which was held at Capital University in Columbus in 1948.

"PITCHING . . . HORSESHOES"

by Bette Savage

I guess I'll tell you a story—ala Billy Rose. Frankly I doubt if it's true, but I like it.

Seems there was a traveling salesman whose car broke down on a lonely country road. Now he had an important appointment in town that evening, and he simply had to find a way to get there. Spotting a farm house, he rushed in to talk with its owner. The farmer finally agreed to let the salesman take a horse and wagon into town. The car would be kept for security and the next morning each returned to their respective owners. Nonchalantly the farmer brought out the most decrepit wreck of a horse the salesman had ever seen. But the salesman was desperate, and hiding his disgust, started to drive the horse into town.

They hadn't gone far (nor very fast) when the horse looked over his shoulder and said, "I won the Kentucky Derby."

The salesman was stunned. "Must be the sun," he muttered. He hit his head a couple of times and tried to forget about it.

A few miles later the horse turned his head around again and said very distinctly, "I won the Kentucky Derby."

"Good lord!" he gasped. "A talking horse! I've got to buy him; I'll make a fortune."

The rush to the farm was hot and long. Grasping the farmer by the shoulders, he bellowed, "How much do you want for the horse?"

"Well now, I only paid five dollars for him. Saved him from the glue factory, you know, and as—"

"Fifty dollars!"

"For that horse? Why he ain't . . ."

"Five hundred!"

"Now look, son, he ain't worth five cents."

"One thousand and that's all!"

"All right, son, but I hate to see you get gyped. Now wait a minute—did that horse tell you he won the Kentucky Derby?"

"So what if he did?"

"Well, land's sake, don't believe him! He only came in second."

As I said I like it. Of course, I don't have any friends.

Gamma Sigma (S)

The sorority climaxed rushing last night with the traditional dinner dance at Mahoning Country Club. Advisor Mrs. Joseph E. Smith was guest speaker. Sigma Delta Fraternity joined the party after dinner.

The next meeting will be at the home of Jo Price, next Tuesday.

Phi Lambda Delta (S)

Thus far the sorority has sponsored two rush parties—the first, a progressive dinner planned by the alumni; and the second, a cabaret dance with the Phi Gams. Plans are underway for a dinner this evening to conclude rushing.

The last meeting was held on Tuesday, at the home of Jeanne Lyons.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

The Phi Sig Bowling Club is now tied with the Newman Club in the league. We'll leave our predictions to Johnny Pugh.

Now in the heart of rush season, the fraternity plans a final party Saturday night at the Mahoning Country Club held with the Alpha Deltas. Brothers got up early last Sunday morning and met at Pioneer Pavilion in Mill Creek Park for a hearty breakfast of bacon and eggs before the open fireplaces. First rush party was a movie of the Cleveland Browns football team with a lecture by one of the Browns' coaches. The gridiron party was held in the Manchester Room, YMCA.

Number one in the Phi Sigs now is the preliminary plans to present the April Showers dance next month. This annual event promises to be the best one to be sponsored by the frat. It will be held at Tri-Lan and Bob Alexander's band will furnish the music.

Sigma Delta (S)

The frat's and their dates had a festive time at the dinner dance recently at the El Rio. Attorney Irwin Kretzer, one of the founders of the fraternity in 1928 was principal speaker. Phil Maldino was in charge of arrangements.

The frat is rushing their semester, and up to this time, a smoker rush party has been held, also a joint rush party with Gamma Sigma is being planned. The frat extends congratulations to brothers Tom Lynch and J. B. Urmsion for a good job in handling the Pan-Hellenic dance. We also are glad to see Bob Boyd back in school after recuperating from his accident.

Alpha Iota (N-B)

All Occasion Greeting Cards are being sold by the active girls. A table has been set up in the main hall where these cards may be purchased.

The sorority is holding a date party tonight (March 26) at Bear's Den Cabin. The affair is open to all active members.

A meeting was held at the Business School on March 22. Plans for rushing were discussed.

Kappa Sigma Kappa (S)

Besides our regular weekly meetings at the YMCA, the frat has attended no less than four stag parties since the beginning of the semester. First we had a fine time one Wednesday night with the Phi Sigs at the American Legion Hall. Then a few weeks later we held another swell smoker with the Phi Gams at Krausky Hall.

We have held two smoker rush parties—one at the South Side Union Bank Building and the second at Lexington Settlement on the North Side. The frat should have a fine basketball team next season—along with a few ping-pong experts. Plans are well underway for our rush banquet with Jim McLaughlin as chairman.

Congratulations to Tom Lynch and Pat Mariner for a swell dance—sure was swell to see all the alumni again.

Alpha Theta Delta (S)

Rushing was started with a bang, at a "Coke Party," held Tuesday, March 15, at the Log Cabin in Mill Creek Park. We played cards and sang songs, and then we were entertained by the sorority's favorite trio—no, not the Woodsides, but the Wit sisters. There's Dim, Nit, and Half. The committee for the party consisted of Mary Lou Macko, Wilma Arbanis, Jane Woodside and Donna Lewis.

The second party was held Sunday, March 20, at the Pick-Ohio Hotel. After tea was served a talk was given on individual hair styling. The committee planning this party was headed by Mid Noufer with Pat Pennock, Mary Bloom and Carla Fenstermaker assisting.

Bev Walton is chairman for the formal dinner, the concluding event, to be held Saturday, March 26, at the Mahoning Country Club.

Phi Gam

The Phi Gams congratulate the winners of the popularity poll; Alice Chieffo and Augie Yahn, and thank all who helped make our dance a success.

Bud Schermer made the supreme sacrifice of the semester (for the dance) by obtaining a quality haircut. Thank you, Bud Schermer!

We wish to enlighten the student body that the Sig Delta again bowed in defeat to the Phi Gam basketball team. Hyuk! Hyuk!

The fraternity can now focus their attention to the rushing season and future joint parties with our sister sorority, the Phi Lams.

We refuse to go back into the weeds because our dance is now over, and look forward to the remaining social season. We even lost our heads and decided to field a softball team—yet!

In closing we wish to congratulate Pat Mariner on becoming Pan Hellenic Queen.

Sigma Alpha Iota (N)

Alpha Nu Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional women's music fraternity elected officers for the year recently.

The new president is Miriam Scosio; vice-president, Marilyn Hogan; recording secretary, Helen Lou Ceglie; corresponding secretary, Delores Thompson; treasurer, Jean Russell; chaplain, Dorothy Donehue; editor, Virginia Ayers; and sergeant-at-arms, Carol Lowry. Polly Meitzen is the retiring president.

A rush party was held on March 9 at the Log Cabin in Mill Creek Park. Ruth Willis and Miriam Scosio were co-chairmen for the affair. Games and refreshments made up an enjoyable evening. Guests were Miss Elizabeth Kreiz and Mrs. William H. Miller. On March 16 a pledge service was held at the Dana School of Music. The new pledges are Barbara Widing, Stella Floresco, and Mary Woodside.

Seniors Asked to Register With Mr. Cooper

Senior men planning to secure Sales or Allied Jobs in June or August, are urged to register with Mr. Cooper, placement officer in the Business School as soon as possible. This registration is urged to facilitate student interviews with the various corporation sales managers, who will be visiting the college in March, April and May.

Music Teacher Appears As Guest Artist

James Tavolario, member of the faculty of the Dana School of Music of Youngstown College, appeared as guest artist on the Greenville Symphony Concert series program recently at the Jordan theater in Greenville, Pa.

Tavolario is a graduate of Youngstown College and the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music where he studied with Severin Eisenberger as a scholarship pupil. He was a winner on the "Chance of a Lifetime" program on WLW radio station, and gave concerts in Cincinnati and the South. He spent four years in the army and played for thousands of soldiers. His original composition, "The Voice of Freedom," was performed before Gen. MacArthur in Manila at the Victory Parade, and has been used in schools of Bataan and the Philippines. The composition has been given locally by the Youngstown Symphony Orchestra and the East High Chorus.

As guest artist for the Greenville concert, Tavolario presented Tchaikovsky's "Concerto, First Movement," "Concert Etude" by MacDowell, "Polonaise in A Flat Major by Chopin, and "Preludes, No. 2 and 3," by George Gershwin.

While at Youngstown College, Tavolario was a scholarship student of Dr. Henry V. Stearns, and when a student at East High School was winner of the high school piano contest for the state of Ohio.

Local Merchandisers Continue Class Lectures

Hiram Kirchner, of the Kirchner Hardware Co., talked to classes in marketing and merchandising recently on the subject "Merchandising of Hardware." Mr. Kirchner was assisted by Clifford Hawkins of the same firm.

Claude Vasu, salesman for the R. G. Vasu Real Estate Co., addressed the class in salesmanship on "Selling of Real Estate."

What Goes with the ENGINEERS?

by John P. Barrett

Word comes to us that the cylinders and pistons for the 400,000 pound tensile testing machine have been returned, repaired and reground. The work was done (gratis) by the Youngstown Welding and Engineering Company through the efforts of Mr. Charles Watson. This firm has helped us many times in the past too, and we owe them a vote of thanks.

EXPLOSIVE RADIO SETS!!

You may have heard over the radio and papers about the electronic sets sold by the W.A. A. containing explosives. For the benefit of YoCo students who are wondering if they bought these specific sets, they are the I.F.F. (Identification Friendly or Foe) carrying the following serial numbers: ABK-1, ABD ABE, SCR-535, SCR-AN/APX-3, AN/APX-8, and AN/APX-13. I suggest that you check any set you bought against this list.

The Public Library was somewhat startled the other day when someone on the phone asked for a good book to read to a 6-pound baby. Turned out to be Bill Berry announcing the birth of his bundle of boy. Seems Mrs. Berry used to work at the Library.

Mu Pi Epsilon Elects

New Members

Mu Pi Epsilon, honorary Engineering fraternity announces that new members have been elected for this semester. They all have a point average of 2.00 and have completed at least 76 hours. The new men wearing the blue key will be James R. Anderson, William Bartley, Harris Beebe, Jr., Donald S. Bishop, James V. Cook, Richard C. Davidson, John Motiff, David Nephew and Mike Pustelnik. Congratulations, fellas.

Heat-Power Books Donated

We note with thanks that bound copies of the magazines "Heat Power" were given to the Engineering Library, Mr. D'Isa and Mr. Grabski.

The bound volumes include all issues from 1937 through 1946, and were given by Mr. Clifford Russell of the Foster Wheeler Corporation of Pittsburgh.

The President Invites . . .

Dean Deesz recently received an invitation bearing the presidential seal which reads, "The President invites Dean Louis A. Deesz to attend the sessions of the National Conference on Industrial Safety in Washington . . ." and so the Engineering School, is brought in to this conference. It opened Wednesday morning with a speech by Mr. Truman, and with Maurice Tobin, Secretary of Labor presiding. My! How we do get around!

Another place we went recently, represented by John G. Pugh and Charles Hart, was to the second annual Foundry Conference sponsored by Ohio State University. The Conference was held on Mar. 10th and 11th, in Columbus. There were two sessions given, one on gray iron, and one on steel. Of interest to strength students was one type of strain gauge that eliminated much of the calculation done in computing strain. By this method, an insulated wire is attached to the specimen which is then placed under stress. With each increase in the applied load, the wire is stretched further, resulting in a smaller cross-sectional area. When a current is passed through the wire and a galvanometer, the strain can be read directly from the galvanometer, and is, in effect, a measure of the current in the wire. Wouldn't that be a fine thing to have in strength lab now?

Carry Your Own Rock Wool

Rumor has it that turkish towels are going to be supplied for those having classes in the Student's Center. All of which reminds me of the annex (all of them). Some noble soul in the school administration would win the eternal devotion of the students by having the overhead steam pipes insulated. These, of course, act as a radiator that can't be shut off. In this day and age of high prices, it's a shame to pay for heat that you open the windows to get rid of. Seems downright silly, doesn't it?

Founder of Art Dept. Famed Artist, Writer, Dies March 7th

Ceylon E. Hollingsworth, nationally known writer and artist, died March 7th of respiratory diseases at the age of 80.

A native of Youngstown, he opened the art department of Youngstown College in 1927 and taught a life class for many years at the Butler Art Institute.

In early life he served as cartoonist and sketch artist for the Pittsburgh Dispatch. He later worked for the Denver Republican as reporter and writer. Returning to Youngstown in 1895 he began writing fiction stories based on his varied experiences.

Many of his stories appeared in leading magazines throughout the country, and it was through these stories that he gained national fame as a writer.

Mr. Hollingsworth was a member of the Youngstown Players and the Buckeye Art Club.

Faculty Members Guest Speakers in Local Clubs

Mrs. Marjorie Pilz, Business English teacher in the Secretarial School, recently conducted the first of a series of educational nights to be sponsored by Yo-Hah-O Chapter of the National Secretaries Association at the YMCA.

This series is a refresher course for members of the organization. Mrs. Pilz is a graduate of YoCo.

Guest speaker for the Parents' Study Club of Bennett School recently was Dr. J. W. Bare, formerly a YoCo psychology professor and now in the VA office in room 212. Dr. Bare discussed "Personality and Hearing Defects."

On the campus Professor Bare's influence is well established as is obvious by our annual spring picnic, The Bare Brunch held early in May, a holiday established by Dr. Bare about 20 years ago.

A perfect gentleman makes every other man in the room uneasy.

Believe it or not, more than two-thirds of Ohio's 850,000 veterans of World War II have never drawn a cent in unemployment benefits under the Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance program.

The Bureau has been handling the SRA program in Ohio ever since its inception in September, 1944. In so doing, the Bureau has been serving as an administrative agent for the Veterans Administration inasmuch as all SRA funds are provided by the Federal government.

The overwhelming majority of veterans had made a rapid occupational adjustment in the post-war period. As of December 31, 1948, only one out of every 12 veterans who drew unemployment benefits was actually paid the maximum in such benefits.

The maximum under the SRA program is $20 a week for a 52-week period. But veterans filing new claims under that program were unemployed for an average of only 14 weeks.

Physicians Lecture On Marriage Psychology

Dr. J. Allan Altdorfer, local physician, spoke to Youngstown College students Wednesday evening at the college. He talked on the psychology of birth and showed four reels of movies.

The students were members of the psychology of marriage class taught by Paul Luce, and a class of biology students.

Dr. E. H. Young also addressed the Newman Club at its last meeting on "Christian Marriage."

Penguin patter

by C. J. Partridge

If this column is depressing, blame it on the women who seem to have taken over the Jambar office. They painted the walls (ugh) green. Jeanne Lyons says (I quote) "I think it's pretty, we mixed it ourselves." If you really want to see something, drop in some sunny afternoon. By that time the girls will be serving tea —GREEN tea no doubt—and peppermint wafers. It ought to be really too divine.

The last few weeks I have heard three men from different fraternities make the claim that theirs was the oldest frat on the campus. This argument has been kicked around quite a lot for the past several years, so I figure it's about time to end the thing for all time. How? Easy! The simple fact is, according to a volume over in the Public Library, there is only one fraternity at Youngstown College. Since this is rush season, I don't think it is fair to name it, but it is one that I personally hold very dear. As for the question of age, can anybody here beat 1867? That's quite a while ago.

Although I am pleased with the way everything came out, it was a shock to find out that the election for Junior Prom Queen was held over a week ago. Was all set to splash a lot of ink around the fact that seemed someone was trying to keep it a secret. However, young in life I learned to investigate first and complain last.

and while snooping around found that the notice appeared in three consecutive Daily Bulletins and on the front page of the Jambar. Must be old age.

Take a look at the Sports page for next year's football schedule. There are eight games, everyone a humdinger. There'll be plenty of action on the YoCo gridiron next fall. Dayton and Mount Union are the two new additions. One of our rivals, Kent, is conspicuous by its absence.

There are two young ladies on the campus who are very angry with me. So I was informed after the last issue of the Jambar. So, rather than have anyone in the whole wide world angry, I'd better write a retraction. These girls did not write the note saying "CJ, You Smell!" However, they are not adverse to the idea, they say. Also they would like for me to learn to spell. I copied the names from the note—wasn't they spelled right?

Let's patter awhile: Tom Manche must have as many pairs of shoes as any one of his girl friends . . . Woody Van Cort sneaked up at the Pan-Hell Dance. Had nerve enough to tell that old story about Santa Clause being arrested . . . Stanley Strous stopped and was introduced to my wife. When he left, my wife turned to me and said, "Who's that, another one of your friends? . . . Marge Grimsley looks less and less like June's little sister every time she comes to a dance . . . One of these days there will be a lone man at a semi-formal dance who will not be wearing a Tux. I'll still stick to something comfortable. Tuxs are for weddings and funerals . . . Schermer says if you don't like the weather, stick around for fifteen minutes. It'll change.

Just found out that the women are going to hang up a MIRROR here in the JB office. That's it; the last straw. Time to buy a typewriter of my own . . . Somebody just leaned over my shoulder and said "Why bother?" There's something in that.

It's easy to organize a free ride, but when the party is Dutch treat and you're the treasurer, each member becomes a special problem. You're lucky if anybody is on hand at the time the train, plane, or ship departs.

INTRA-MURAL BOWLING

by Rudy Braydich
Newman Club and Phi Sigs are still battling for second half laurels. The intra mural bowling league will come to a close this week at the Champion Bowling center. As they hit the home stretch we have Newman

Ralph Harper with a 600 set enabled Kappa Sigs to take three games from Blue Ribbon. C. Heat-on rolled 487 for the losers. Pi Beta Chi defeated Tiny's twice with Jim Wester leading the way. Webster had a 507. Homsey had 383 for Tiny's. Phi Sigs won three via the default route. R. Braydich rolled a 602 set.

Club and Phi Sigs still in possession of first place. This week end all eyes will be on the two teams. Highly favored Newman Club will roll against the Blue Ribbon while the Phi Sigs engage the stubborn Kappa Sigs.

The winner of the second half will play Sigma Sigma, first half champs, for the title.

Information regarding double and single events can be obtained from Joe Ragan, the bowling secretary. These events will be staged on the 3rd of April.

The following are results of last weeks action:

Newman Club defeated Phi Gams on two occasions with Dutzler's 504 leading the way. For the losers Norm Bartlemay's 495 was high.

The Sharks captured three from A-Phi-O. Hurtuk's 529 was best for the winners, while Edmonds 485 was tops for the losers.

Sporting Views

Spring sports will soon be taking the spotlight here at Youngstown College and in the next issue of the "Jambar" we hope to have some knowledge of just how the various teams will shape up for their intercollegiate competition. The golf, tennis, and baseball teams will be ready to go in action before too many more weeks have passed.

by JOHN
PUGH

One thing seems certain regarding baseball and that is the fact that unless there is more backing for the team the sport will be discontinued. Student support of the team last year was practically nil and this condition must not exist this season or the baseball will have to be forgotten. Last year the baseball team was one of the best in the State and deserved more support.

YoCo is to get out whenever possible and support the team. The same applies to golf and tennis matches. The teams are representing the College and the students should make every effort to support them.

The possibility of swimming and track teams here at YoCo should interest many students. Although nothing definite has been planned there is a movement under way to promote these sports. Again, student interest is the thing necessary to advance such a program. The college will do all in its power to satisfy the wishes of the students so it is up to the student body to express themselves on these proposed matters. It is not always possible to meet student demands but this does not stop the students from expressing their feelings.

We will attempt to keep in contact with the advancement of this swimming and track program and inform "Jambar" readers of any steps taken.

Jankovich, Danilov Perform in Serb Meet

Sam Jankovich and Eli Danilov both had the honor of performing in the Serb All-Star meet held at Alliquippa recently.

In last years Serb Tourney, Jankovich made the first team All-Tourney and Danilov the second. In doing this they became eligible to play in the All-Star game with other members of the All-Tourney team.

The boys were hosts to Westminster College and soundly thumped the Titans 61-45. The Serbs were led by Chuck Mrzovich, Eastern Kentucky star, who racked up 26 points.

Sports

JOHN PUGH, Editor
Bob Trucksis Don Zangara
Jim Mahoney Chuck Perazich

The student body cannot be blamed too much due to the fact that nearly all the games are played during the afternoon and it is difficult to attend these games. However, it is believed that there could have been a few more students in attendance. Now many of you are going to ask why the college doesn't schedule the games for evening play. Well, there are several factors involved. First, the cost is greater in promoting night games. Then, too, the colleges that come here to play would have to remain over night. This creates another problem that is not too easily solved. Another bad feature in the scheduling of night games is the fact that the local "AA" league is in action on a good many evenings throughout the week. All these things make night games out of the question. The only solution to having baseball continue here at

Q—"What Do You Think Of School Social Activities?"

Bug-A-Boos Take A Holiday

by Irene Corrado

The Biology capers dropped their scalpels, probes, and microscopes to take time out for relaxation. Yes, the Omicron Lambda had an informal get together at the Log Cabin in Mill Creek Park on the third day of Spring.

The official "Bugaboos" were joined by guests, wives and friends of the members. Much to our regret Willy the skeleton couldn't attend due to the fact that he was simply dead on his feet that day.

Bugaboos do have other talents besides the ability to dissect cats. Mr. Marcy proved this by rendering a solo on his accordion. Adding to the talents was a duet rendered by the Shreves brothers, Bob and Howard.

Harlan Urmsen, lost without his cardshark buddy Willy, displayed his taste for black olives as well as a need for incisors when he bit into the ham sandwich. You probably have gathered by now that refreshments were served. Before the formaldehyde took effect, the Biology capers and friends left the cabin.

Showers Dance Is Hi-Lite of April

Bob Alexander and his "show time and dance time" orchestra will play for the Phi Sig April Showers Dance next month.

This year's April Showers event will be the third annual. The popular Phi Sig dance has been quickly accepted by YoCo students, making it a must on the collegiate social calendar.

Phi Sigma Epsilon announce that this year's dance will be held at the Tri-Lan Ballroom, April 29th. Dancing will be from nine to one.

Besides Bob Alexander and his band of entertainers, additional talent is being scheduled for intermission enjoyment.

The United States has matured to world leadership, so it is time we steered by the stars, not by the lights of every passing ship.—Gen. Omar N. Bradley.

Youth is a wonderful thing, but according to Bernard Shaw, it's a shame it has to be wasted on the young.

Fencing Is Added To Phys. Ed. Curriculum

Physical Education Dept., and all the boys (girls are welcome too) are, figuratively, killing each other right and left.

Although YoCo was active in fencing before the war, this class is an innovation as far as the post-war era is concerned. It isn't actually a class yet, but the Phys. Ed. Dept. has hopes of establishing it as a bona fide credit course before long. If and when this takes place, fencing will be a requirement for Dramatics, and a good thing for the rest of us too, since it's one of the top indoor sports.

If a class is started, it will be open to everyone. Don't get the idea, that because you're not a Dramatics student you can't take the course. "Tain't so." The course will be open to everyone, even coeds and members of the JAMBAR staff (boy they let anyone in). Also don't get the idea that it's a catch-all for the people who can't do any better. Nothing could be further from the truth. The sport is, in reality, a fine developer of poise, grace, confidence, and mental alertness. Then too, because it's an excellent conditioner, fencing may solve the problems of those artists of the dinner table (Larry Hyland please take note). Anyway, fencing has something for everyone and it's a lot of fun. Be sure and drop around . . . see you there.
