Student-Faculty Talks Are Planned For You

Nothing to do between 11 and 12 a.m. on the even Tuesdays of the semester? Then earmark that hour for enjoyment, education and debate. All three are offered by the Student Faculty Talks, held in the audio-visual room of the university library.

Student-Faculty Talks are designed with the main purpose of offering extra, free and informative lectures on a variety of different topics. The Talks are given by experts on subjects of general enough interest for all students and faculty.

Dr. Charles Evans, of the biology faculty and chairman of the Talks committee, announces a full schedule of speakers for the fall semester. Names of popular faculty members are high on the list, with no two topics alike.

Speaker's Listed

Prof. Martin Ryerson, will speak on Ethiopia. Professor Ryerson, who will speak on November 1, specializes in anatomy, chemistry and physiology.

On November 15, Dr. George Wilcox, head of the department of education will speak.

The head of the department of Philosophy and Religion, Dr. Bruce T. Riley, will speak on the sixth of December.

On December 20, Dr. Gordon W. O'Brien of the English department will be speaker.

All students and faculty members are urged to attend.

Previous speakers have included, this semester, Dr. Henry V. Stearns, of the Dana School of Music; Prof. Bernard Yozwiak, of the mathematics department and Prof. John P. Gillespie, of the business school, who spoke on "Salesmanship - A Career."

A Woman Does It Again!

Two firsts are credited to Mrs. Esther Niemi of Warren, and a senior at the Youngstown University. She's the first woman to be installed as a member of the local honorary accounting fraternity, Alpha Tau Gamma, along with five male initiates.

Mrs. Niemi is also the first woman to have been re-elected to the Warren City School Board.

At the ceremonies held Friday, October 14, Mrs. Niemi was installed along with Harry Costello, Thomas Meyers, Joseph Nohra, Joseph Ross and William Schneider.

Is Open

Membership is open to accounting majors who have completed eighteen credit hours in accounting with a 2.0 average. But this year has seen a significant change, because for the first time women are eligible for membership.

Council Acts On H-C Court Chess Club OK'd

Action concerning the number of candidates for Homecoming, eligible for the court was the topic of Student Council for a considerable part of their last meeting. The election procedure will be published in next week's JAMBAR, to clarify Council's stand on this matter, based on the By-Laws of the Student Council Constitution.

Council, in other moves, finished off several pieces of legislation which included recognition that the university Chess Club successfully passed the probation period for a charter.

The Youngstown University Student Forum, aimed at creating discussion of current events and problems, is being considered for charter. Advisors to the club are Professor Verne Bullough of the Department of History, and Professor Frank O'Connor of the accounting faculty.

Plans are proceeding to obtain an incinerator in the near future.

NOTICE TO ALL ORGANIZATIONS ON CAMPUS

Due to the fact that many organizations on the campus have been delinquent in paying for their ads in previous NEONS, the staff of the 1955/56 NEON has set December 14, 1955 as deadline for payment of past bills and bills for the 1955-56 NEON. The penalty for not complying with this deadline will be exclusion from the 1955-56 NEON.

All copy for this coming NEON must be turned in by December 12, 1955.

We regret that such steps as these must be taken, but it is not fair for the staff to be working for two or three years on accounts that should have been paid long ago. Prompt payment of back accounts will be greatly appreciated.

Signed, William Livosky
Business Manager, 1955-56 NEON

Dr. E.B. Smith, of the university history faculty, who has just returned from a year of teaching in Japan, gave an account of his work there, at the last meeting.

Dr. Smith told of the devoted studying done by Japanese students and mentioned the fact that he "would have been willing" to give an "A" to any student proving that he had gotten frostbitten hands as a result of early morning studying.

Students are welcome at the Wednesday Chapel services held at noon each Wednesday in St. John's Church and also to the Monday Thursday Bible Study groups, when students carry their lunch to the second floor of the First Christian Church at noon, for discussion.

You will never get indigestion from swallowing your pride.

Lean years ahead. What every woman hopes for.

Queen Is Phi Lamb

Last night's Homecoming festivities featured the crowning of Jan Welsh, of Phi Lambda Delta Sorority, as Queen for 1955-56. Colorful ceremonies on Wednesday and Thursday capped a full two weeks of activities that included an election contest and float building.

The full last-minute details of the Homecoming schedule had not been completed by JAMBAR press-time.

The Queen's Court consisted of Mary Ellen Conlin, of Phi Mu sorority, Audrey Ward of Alpha Kappa Alpha, Barbara Wenta of Beta Sigma Omicron and Gay Wollitz, of Gamma Sigma.

Newmans To Hold Dance At Stambaugh

MEETING OF JAMBAR STAFF

There will be a meeting of the JAMBAR staff at 12 noon on Tuesday, November 1, at the JAMBAR office, second floor of Pollock House.

Why Take Social Science?

By Dr. Stephen V. Fulkerson of the History faculty.

There can be no question but what the incoming student takes Social Science 101 and 102 in the spirit of a newcomer who has sufficient respect for the experience of others not to engage in argument the first day.

Nevertheless, few are so naive as not to realize within a week or so that in these courses they are up against something unusual, not to say vexatious and bewildering.

Hence, it is my intention in a series of articles in the Jambar to explain the nature of this subject and to demonstrate the purpose that lies back of the decision, a number of years ago, to require every candidate for a degree at Youngstown University to take at least six hours of social science.

Had No Requirement

Students in my own college days faced no such requirement. They had to take a laboratory science, a foreign language, a course in English composition resembling Communications 105 and 106, and some History sequence like History 201 and 202, but nothing like Social Science 101 and 102.

In fact, colleges and universities offered no such course that we could have taken, though they offered many in various social science subjects - economics, sociology, political science, psychology, and so on - quite as all colleges did and still do.

These, however, have a wholly different approach with different objectives, and these differences account for the requirement that faces every Youngstown University freshman to register for social science.

Watch Jambar

If you want to know more about this, keep an eye on the Jambar each time it comes out, and I will work out as best I can an explanation for Social Science 101 and 102.

Library Has Art Display

Staff members of the Youngstown University library are arranging a series of shows for display of art works being done by present art students.

Harry Rowan, an art major from New Castle, Pa., is represented by a group of sculptured pieces. The work is highly individualistic with perhaps a touch of the primitive.

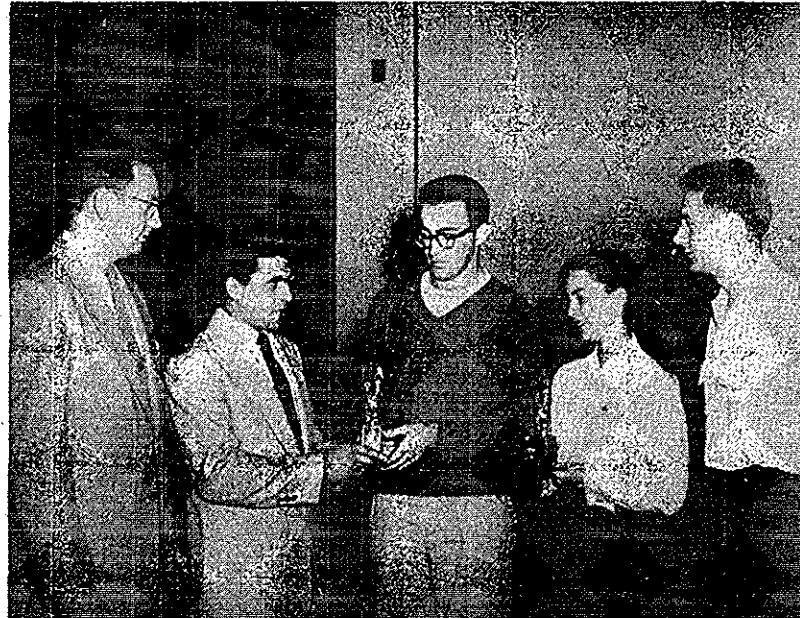

Mr. Rowan, like many contemporary sculptors, feels that the work must maintain the inherent qualities of the material being used.

The exhibit began on Oct. 24 and will continue for two weeks.

"Knock, Knock!"
"Who's there?"
"Sam and Janet."
"Sam and Janet who?"
"Sam and Janet evening."

WAC Commission Is Offered

Senior women students at the Youngstown University may apply for commissions in the Women's Army Corps while still in school, according to WAC Major Sanja A. Munter, WAC Procurement Officer from 2nd Army headquarters at Fort George Meade, Maryland.

Major Munter was here at the university recently to discuss careers and opportunities that are available for university women interested in entering the Women's Army Corps.

Graduates between the ages of twenty to twenty-seven years of age are eligible for commissions as second lieutenants. Graduates aged twenty-eight to thirty four are eligible for first lieutenants commissions.

Classes Scheduled

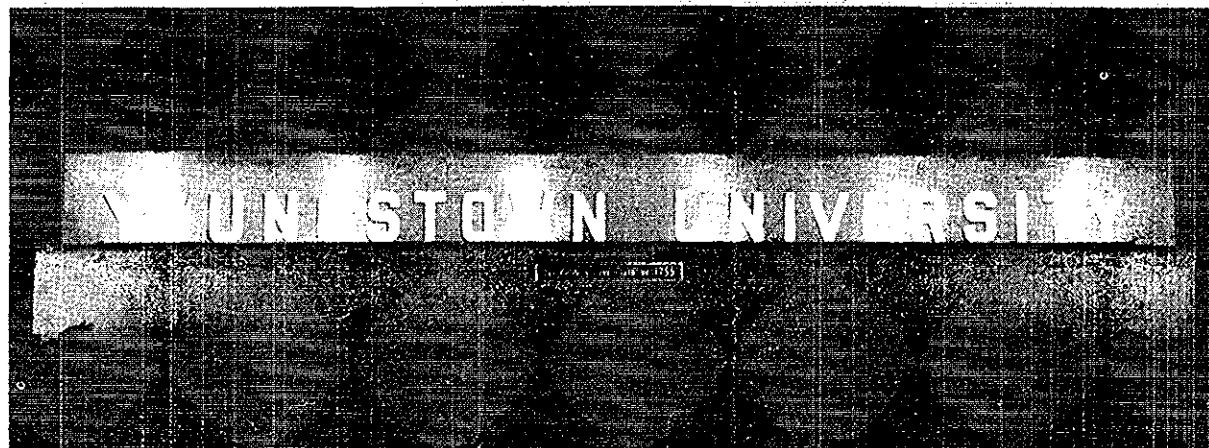

Processing and training of applicants usually lasts from three to four months. Classes are scheduled for February and August, 1956.

All university women interested are invited to contact either Lt. Col. O.R. Hummel, Professor of Military Science at the Youngstown University or Major Leonard E. Main, Assistant PMS&T. Their offices are on the third floor of Pollock House.

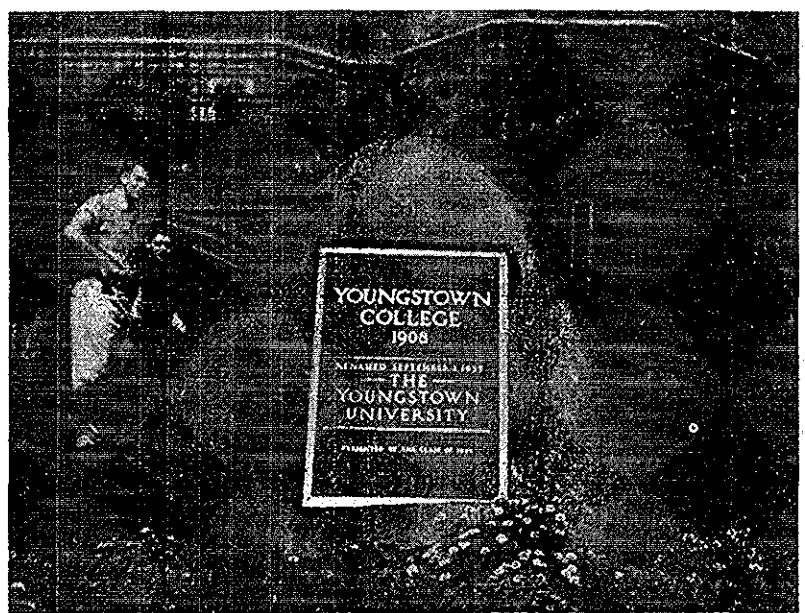

Careers offered officers in the WAC are aimed to fit the aptitudes of the candidate so that each will be placed in positions where they will be of greatest service.

Major Munter, during her visit here, emphasized that the Women's Army Corps is interested in quality not quantity and that opportunities for advancement in the corps are high for young women who are interested in and possess aptitudes fitting those required of a WAC Officer.

Two Markers Added

The new Youngstown University Title Marker, donated by the class of 1955.

The new Youngstown University Historical Marker.

Donated By Class of '55

Newest evidence of our transition to a University is the new campus recognition marker donated by the class of 1955. The marker is located on the front lawn of the main building on Wick Avenue, near the flagpole.

The words "Youngstown University" are formed of free-standing, four by six-inch, bronze letters, individually cast, set on a base of Indiana limestone, twelve feet long by two feet high. A low wall of the same material provides a background for the letters, which are silhouetted by fluorescent lights at night.

The idea was developed by Dean Boop, treasurer of the graduating class, William Nelson, assistant business manager, and Jon Naberezny, head of the University Art Department, who made the original drawings.

Credit Goes

Credit goes to the Buccini Concrete Construction Company, City Coal and Supply Company, and the Boardman Supply Company for concrete; to Mr. R.J. Siemons for the electric timer for the lighting; to Beno and Daley, nurseries and landscaping; to the Jenkins Sign Company; to the A.F. Bell Electric Company; and to Mr. Weber, Mr. Blick, and Mr. Nuby of the University Maintenance Department.

The original marker for Youngstown College, donated by the class of 1949 will remain as an historical marker. The words "Renamed September 1, 1955, The Youngstown University," have been added to the original inscription by the class.

Psychology Club Stirs Interest

Psychology Club held its most recent meeting Thursday, October 20, at Pollock House. Discussion pertained to this year's coming projects. Phyllis Pianin spoke on graduate schools and exhibited several pamphlets about the various schools.

The next meeting is to be held on November 4, at 7:30 p.m. at Pollock House.

Any student interested in the study of psychology is invited to attend the meeting.

Officers of the Psychology Club, in addition to Don DeMarinis, president, are Vice-president Phyllis Pianin, Secretary Marcia Geiger and Treasurer Wally Stein.

Advisors are Mrs. Alma Ebeling and Dr. Walter E. Mayer, head of the department of Psychology.

Art Club Names New Officers

Art Club held an election meeting October 20 and elected Jean Etchingham president of the group. Other new officers are Harry Rowan, vice president; and Bruce Lafferty, secretary-treasurer.

Between 20 and 25 interested students were present when the Student Exhibit program was discussed. Two-week shows, starting last October 24 will be set up in the university library.

Upper-class Art majors will have the first show, to be followed by other students. Students interested in having their work considered by the committee, which is to be chosen, are to let any of the officers or the art advisor, Mr. Jon Naberezny, know as soon as possible, so it may be scheduled.

"Last night I made an awful mistake."
"That so? How come?"
"I drank a bottle of gold paint."
"How do you feel now?"
"Guilty."

"But darling, I can't elope tomorrow. I have two cuts already."

Play Bill Given On Next Drama Guild Productions

Plans for an extensive year of entertainment activities occupy the fall program of Drama Guild, the organization on campus for amateur thespians. With an increase in membership several more projects have been added to accommodate the rise of interest.

Now It's IFC Sweetheart Dance, In '56

Pan-Hel Sweetheart dance has been changed to the Interfraternity Council Sweetheart Dance. Beginning this year the Sweetheart Dance will be sponsored solely by the Interfraternity Council. Other than the date, which will be January 28, 1956, plans are incomplete.

Rushing season, which began on October 10, will last until November 13. Rush party dates have been set and are well underway. This year's IFC meetings are being reorganized with several new delegates becoming accustomed to the methods of the IFC.

One of IFC's tasks this year has been that of co-ordinating the dates requested by all social fraternities for the calendar committee. No fraternity may request a date on the school calendar without the approval of IFC.

The freshmen interested in the Greek organizations were presented with the first edition of the "Fraternity Handbook of the Youngstown University" at registration this year.

The booklet was edited by George Miller, historian of Sigma Phi Epsilon and JAMBAR editor, who was assisted by John Tuohope, also of the fraternity.

The book was compiled during this past summer to give incoming freshmen an insight in what fraternities are and what fraternal life is offered on the university campus.

C.J. Strouss Memorial Auditorium has been reserved for "Yoccohoey," the all-university variety show; an evening of one act plays, and one or more productions to be named later, according to Gary Norris, Guild president.

The one-act plays have been cast and rehearsals are in progress. The play bill, entitled "Three for Tonight," will be presented Friday and Saturday night, November 18 and 19. Norris states, "The selection of plays is among the best of recent years."

Wilder Play Included

An outstanding selection is the "Happy Journey" by Thornton Wilder, which preceded his "Our Town" and "Skin of Our Teeth." The theme of the play is a homey quality, which will be sharply contrasted by "Trista," a grim, tense drama of witchcraft in the Tennessee mountains.

"Hope Is a Thing With Feathers," directed by Prof. William Foley, Drama Guild advisor, rounds out the evening's bill of entertainment. "Hope" deals follows the hilarious, yet pathetic actions of a pair of hungry bums in New York's Central park as they try to steal a duck from one of the ponds.

Sam Sanfilippo, a new comer to the Youngstown University, directs "Trista." Sanfilippo has had past experience with several little theater groups and U.S. Army entertainment shows.

Directs Play

Gary Norris, Guild president, directs the Wilder play. The plays will be presented in "arena style." That is, the action unfolds from a stage around which the audience is seated.

NEON Themes Are Announced

"Two themes will be featured in the 1955-56 NEON. This year's book will be the twenty-fifth anniversary issue and the book will be the first one of the Youngstown University. Those two main ideas will be featured throughout the coming NEON," announce the two co-editors, Bela M. Csejtcy and Charles Koutsourais.

Csejtcy is a member of Sigma Delta Beta fraternity while Koutsourais is a former president of Nu Sigma Rho fraternity. Business Manager is William Livosky, also of Nu Sigma Rho.

Csejtcy explains that "more emphasis will be placed on the activities of the engineering school, as it will be on all other schools. The color of the cover is a secret."

Ads Must Be Sold

"If enough advertisements are sold to cover the expense of printing a student directory, one will be included. It will be complete, covering all full and part-time students," he added.

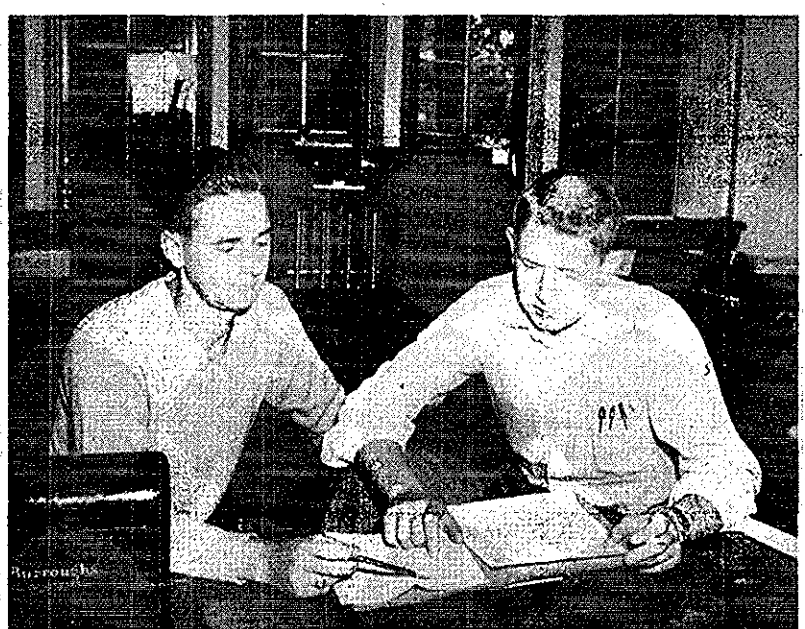

Several additional staff members have been announced by the co-editors. Marvin Jaffee, sophomore majoring in pre-med, will serve as Advertising Manager. Joseph Nohra, also a sophomore, will serve as Accountant.

William Petreck, a junior majoring in art, will be Art Editor and most recent member announced is Carmen Leone, who will be Assistant Editor.

Joe Shagrin, Jr., who served as Editor-in-Chief of the 1954-55 NEON, will serve as an Associate Editor, in an advisory capacity to the NEON staff.

Jack Chugden, a member of Sigma Sigma fraternity and this year's president of Student Council, will be serving in his second year as Sports Editor.

Work On NEON Plans

BEHIND LOCKER ROOM DOORS

Grid Stars Interviewed

Dave Kimmel

Frank Beck

By Don Infante

This week your JAMBAR in an effort to acquaint you with the players of your football team, has interviewed halfback, Dave Kimmel, and the nuclei of the backfield, quarterback Frank Beck.

Dave, who was all-city and all-state in 1952 and 1953 at Ursuline is in his second year of football for the Penguins and has scored 2 touchdowns thus far this year. Dave also holds, among his many records, the city record of 15 touchdowns in one season.

Frank "Fritz" Beck was all-city in 1951 during his high school career at Ursuline. More important though is the fact that last year the Penguin wizard was third string all-Ohio, and also received honorable mention on the International News Service Team.

Will They Make It?

The question on the minds of most of the Penguin players, is if the Penguins will be able to get into the Ohio Conference next year. Dave and Frank both agree that Youngstown does have a strong enough team, and a good season again this year will prove it.

Both men agree that even though losing to Xavier 26-0, (as compared with Cincinnati 35-0) the Penguins showed that they would be able to stand its own against the rest of the teams which are nowhere as strong as the powerful Musketeers.

Furthermore both players agree that the Penguins received more than their share of bad breaks, which aided Xavier to at least two TD'S. Regardless of the Xavier game, Youngstown has showed that they are strong enough to be in the Conference.

To quote both Beck and Kimmel, "We and the rest of the players think that the team is more than capable of holding their own in the conference, furthermore the teams we have been playing for the past few years are on the same level, if not better, than the teams in the Conference."

Fly To PR Nat'l Meet

Robert Hixenbaugh and Robert Frantz, two representatives from the Youngstown Pershing Rifles, Company P-1, at the Youngstown University, are attending this week-end the National Convention of Pershing Rifle Men, being held at the Skirvian Hotel in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Hixenbaugh is the commander of the Pershing Rifle Unit here. Frantz is the first sergeant.

Besides the regular business meetings, a banquet will be held Saturday night in the ballroom of the hotel.

The two representatives flew to Oklahoma from Lockbourne Air Force Base in Columbus yesterday morning. Expenses were paid by Company P-1.

Record Is Reviewed

By Tom Kolic

Coach Dike Beede has once more pulled a freshman sensation out of his magic hat. In 1953 it was Del-Signore, 1954 Vecchiarella and Kimmel and now the hard running Webster Dawson.

Web is taking to the college ranks like a duck to water. He has zipped through holes like a comet, blasted his way when there were no openings and outsped the defenders once into their secondary.

This flashy Girard product is currently leading the Penguins in their offensive attack with a total of 408 yards gained in 37 attempts, which averages better than 11 yards per carry. (These statistics are included only through the Morris Harvey game.)

The 180 pound scaback claims that he has found a considerable change between high school and college play. In college the play is much rougher and you also have to play both offense and defense whereby in high school you need not.

However offensive play is easier for you have better blocking. He has special praise for Rouse's and Carter's blocking on his end sweeps. Both are fast and thus don't slow him down on his jaunts to the outside.

At first Web had trouble getting accustomed to playing in the linebacker spot for he had been a safetyman in high school. He gives credit to coach Soko Gill for having the change being such a successful one.

Last year Web was the big gun in the Girard lineup as he tallied nine touchdowns while covering 747 yards. His longest run of the season was a 103 yard gallop against Fitch on a kickoff. He was the regular safetyman for the Indians in his sophomore and junior years and then as a senior moved into the halfback slot.

Web was also a standout in basketball and track. On the court he led the team in scoring in both his junior and senior years. In track he holds the school record for the 100 yard dash with a time of 10:2. He also ran the 220, threw the shotput and did the broadjump.

Among some of the honors given him were being awarded the most valuable player in Girard, having a berth on the Trumbull County All-Star team, and in basketball making the Yindicator All-Tournament Team.

V. Basketball Practice Starts

In the face of the current hot football season any mention of another sport would seem out of place, but never-the-less the fact remains that basketball will soon make its bid for the sports spotlight, and if expectations hold true Youngstown University promises to have a top-notch cage aggregation.

Basketball mentor Dom Roselli has announced that practice will commence on November 1, at 7 p.m. at the South High Field House.

All boys interested in playing should report with their own equipment and be on the floor promptly at 7. The 1955-'56 basketball schedule will be published in the next issue of the JAMBAR.

Shag's Sport Scoop

By Joe Shagrin

After witnessing last Saturday afternoon one of the most grueling struggles I have seen in a long time, I would like to enlighten the fans who missed the game on the conditions surrounding it. The score was 26-0 in favor of Xavier University, but in my book the score hardly indicates the true nature of the game.

Youngstown put on a terrific defensive show against a team that had two teams of equal caliber on the field all afternoon. Coach Harry "Mike" Connolly who formerly was assistant to Bernie Crimmins at Indiana University, is blessed this year with two fine quarterbacks and two crack lines.

All the credit in the world could not be enough to praise the Penguin line. Angelo Burrell played sixty minutes, Norm Stafford was close behind, taken out only once for a well deserved rest. Just for the records Norm and our brilliant end Dom Del-Signore either converged to make over 50% of the tackles or were continually lending a helping hand.

Rock Hard Field

Twelve high schools plus Xavier's freshman squad use this stadium. If a person looks hard enough he can spot traces of grass along the sidelines. The field from ten yards in from the sidelines to each goal post is just plain ground. Cincinnati had little rain the week of the game and all that was needed to carry a boy off the field was one jarring tackle.

Youngstown lost the services of Jim Vecchiarella, who received a slight concussion and Andy Starinchak who played a bang up game after being switched to tackle. Dean Rose hurt his arm early in the game and despite this fought his heart out all day. Tony Cougras was on the receiving end of a couple knees and elbows during the second half.

Proof that the ground was extremely hard was the fact that fleet Webster Dawson slipped twice because he had difficulty sinking his cleets into a bit of soft ground that just was not there.

IFS

If Xavier's interception of a Frank Beck pass early in the first quarter had not happened and if the Musketeers had not have recovered a fumble within the Penguin 30 yard line right after the first touchdown, it might have been a completely different game.

The last two touchdowns came about as a result of sheer exhaustion to the game Youngstown line. Of course Youngstown's scoring punch was not exactly what it could have been, but when the boys had to grind out yardage against two fresh teams it wasn't the easiest thing to do.

I do not want to take anything away from Connolly's fine team and I'm sure I don't have to, for the Musketeers knew they had a game on their hands. They proved their power in an earlier 13-12 loss to Miami University of Ohio and while the Penguins were putting up a losing effort again at Xavier, Miami was walking all over Ohio University 34-7.
