—Rock Intelligent Person—

PLEDGE INTERVIEWS ROCK — Fraternity pledges are often subjected to exasperating practices but none could be more so than interviewing the "rock" in front of the Kilcawley cafeteria. Phi Sig pledge Danny Carusone (right) concluded the "Rock" was the "most intelligent person on campus" while Woody Tillery and George Panno looked on.

Letters And Phone Calls Reflect WYSU Success

Over 3,000 letters and an average of 50 phone calls a week reflect the size and enthusiasm of WYSU's listening audience, although no formal surveys have been taken yet.

Stephen Grcewich, director of WYSU, explained that Pulse and Hupel surveys will be released in April for the first three months of this year and, although educational stations usually are not included in the reports, a station the size of WYSU will appear in the count.

W. Va. Prexy is Fan

The president of West Liberty State College in West Virginia, Paul N. Elbin, was one of the fan writers who wrote: "Congratulations on 'Prestige Radio!' Your splendid musical programs are being received with remarkable clarity." Other comments were: "Many thanks for the wonderful music you present every evening."; "This radio station is one of the finest things that has happened in Youngstown for years"; "For once I can turn on the radio and get genius instead of mediocrity. I think it's a real break through for Youngstown."

WYSU in "Top Forty"

WYSU, operating at 88.9 on the FM dial, is the most powerful stereo, educational radio station in Ohio and ranks with the top 40 in the country. The station boasts a total power of 22,500.

Responds To Kurfess Letter—

Pugsley Defends Campus Press

University president Dr. Albert L. Pugsley is defending the University press in response to accusations made last week by Ohio Speaker of the House Charles Kurfess and other Ohio legislators.

Attacks Student Papers

Rep. Kurfess, in a letter to the Presidents of Ohio's state universities, condemned shoddy journalism in Ohio's college newspapers. "Printing that is considered by many as vulgar, repulsive or in poor taste cannot be justified under the guise of freedom of expression," he said and suggested that university subsidies to student newspapers be trimmed.

President Pugsley will send a letter to Rep. Kurfess applauding the efforts and journalism of YSU's Jambar and pledging full support to the Jambar. Copies will be sent to Jambar advisors Dr. Robert Hare and Dr. Taylor Alderman, and Publications Board chairman Dr. Bernard Yozwiak.

The Ohio Legislature's concern with the State's university newspapers stemmed from several articles printed in the Ohio University Post.

The Post covered a campus "sex symposium" and quoted in text much of the language from the symposium's panel of three doctors. Many parents of students who receive the Post were shocked at the three, four and

Studio Funding Major Question In YSU TV

The funding and construction of television studios for the recently approved educational television facility will be the primary question facing University administrators in their dealings with YSU's new jointly operated television station, Dr. John J. Coffelt, vice president for administrative affairs, said yesterday.

YSU will share transmitting facilities to be built in Alliance, Ohio with Kent State University and Akron University. Each University will have to build individual broadcasting and production studios from their own resources however.

The $782,000 transmitting facilities in Alliance are being financed by state appropriations and are expected to be completed in two to three years.

Dr. Coffelt explained that the University has already planned for television studios Phase I of the master plan. The transmitting facility in Alliance will save both space and money since the University can hook up with the transmitter when the studios on campus are completed, he disclosed.

Will Share Transmitter

Dr. Coffelt said the transmitting station will be operated by the three universities immediately after it is constructed. Programming procedures will be divided up with KSU and Akron as a result of joint operation, Dr. Coffelt said.

All three schools had been bidding for the educational television station for over a year.

Capital Pushes YSU For Slot In NCAA

Whether YSU's nationally ranked basketball team will be invited to play in the NCAA Midwest Regional Tournament will be decided Thursday morning by the NCAA Tournament Committee at Albright College in Reading, Pennsylvania.

Officials from the Tournament Committee disclosed yesterday that the selection of the tournament fourth team will be based on reports and recommendations from committee members. The committee will consider individual teams' records, rankings and schedule before making their decision.

Ashland, 20-2, Cheyney State, 21-1, and Philadelphia Textile, 20-2, have already accepted bids to the tournament.

Reports from the Associated Press suggest that the remaining tournament spot will go to either Youngstown or Ohio Conference champion Capital.

Capital, 18-2, plays conference opponent Muskingum tonight, while the Penguins play Steubenville College. Of the two teams Youngstown has played the more difficult schedule and is nationally ranked in both wire service polls. Capital must also play in a conference tournament following their season final against Muskingum tonight.

Youngstown closes its regular season play next Saturday against Gannon College of Erie, Pa. Gannon has accepted a bid to play in the NAIA post season tournament.

"Godot" tryouts

Tonight is the last night of tryouts for the University's spring production of Samuel Beckett's "Waiting For Godot."

Tryouts will be held at 8 p.m. in Strouss Auditorium. Parts for five men are available.

Pollution Board To Hold Hearing

COLUMBUS, Ohio AP — The Ohio Pollution Control Board announced yesterday a public hearing scheduled for Feb. 25 regarding the upgrading of water quality control standards for many of Ohio's waterways.

The hearing will center on testimony relating to the amendment and upgrading of current standards for dissolved oxygen factors, pH, temperature and bacterial criteria.

Standards, if amended, will apply to the Maumee, Tiffin, St. Joseph and St. Marys river basins; Lake Erie and interstate waterways; Great Miami, Whitewater and Wabash river basins; Ashtabula River, and Conneaut and Turkey creeks; the Ohio River; the north central Ohio tributaries of Lake Erie; the Scioto River basin; the Rocky, Cuyahoga, Chagrin and Grand river basins; the Muskingum River basin; and the Hocking River basin.

The 9:30 a.m. meeting will be held in the Ohio Departments Building, Hearing Room 2, 65 S. Front St., in Columbus.

US Woman Killed As Arabs Attack American Bus

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arab terrorists attacked a bus carrying 37 Americans on a tour of the Holy Land Monday, killing one American woman and wounding two others and an Israeli guide.

The attack came shortly after Switzerland issued an order barring virtually all Arab nationals from entering the country and at about the same time Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir was calling on nations throughout the world to help stop Arab attacks on civilian airlines.

Forty-seven persons were killed Saturday when a Swissair jetliner bound for Tel Aviv crashed in Switzerland following an explosion in the baggage compartment. The same day, an Austrian airliner carrying mail bound for Israel made an emergency landing at Frankfurt after a similar explosion.

The bus, carrying a group of Americans on a Baptist-sponsored tour of Bible lands, was on the outskirts of Hebron in Israeli-occupied Jordan when the terrorists struck.

One of the wounded Americans Tabea Damico of Ventnor, N.J., recalled: "We were driving along out of Hebron about 3:20 when suddenly we were being shot at from all sides. We crawled under the seats for safety."

Mrs. Damico was slightly wounded in one leg. Lucille Draper, of Buffalo, N.Y., suffered slight wounds in both legs.

Israeli officials identified the dead woman as Barbara Ertle, 31 Grandville, Mich. They said her husband, a Baptist minister, was among the passengers who escaped injury.

Hebron is a center of Arab agitation on the Jordan River's west bank, seized by the Israelis in the June 1967 six-day war. Terrorists ambushed a bus traveling from Beersheba to Hebron last year and killed one American passenger.

Arab guerrillas have warned foreigners to stay out of the occupied territories and have advised Christians not to make pilgrimages to Israel because "we are at war."

Appropriations Bill Faces Nixon's Second Veto

WASHINGTON AP — The Senate's top Democrat said yesterday he is prepared to face a second veto if that is President Nixon's reply to a new version of the disputed health, education and labor appropriations bill.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the majority leader, said if there is another veto, there may never be a bill for the current year, which ends June 30.

Instead, Congress would let the agencies involved keep spending money under a resolution. The Department of Health, Education and Welfare, and the Department of Labor, along with an assortment of other agencies, have been operating on that basis since July 1, 1969.

The House passed on Feb. 19 a bill to supplant the one Nixon vetoed as too expensive for an inflation-troubled economy. But the new version is still $324 million above the level Nixon said he would accept.

Unless it is altered, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Robert H. Finch said he will recommend another veto.

Finch said the Senate should either cut out the $324 million, or add a clause permitting Nixon to withhold some funds which otherwise would be spent automatically under the system of federal education grants.

That includes funds for federally affected school districts, a program Nixon singled out for criticism in the initial veto.

Mansfield said he would oppose new cuts in the bill, and rejected the discretionary spending plan.

"If you do that, you're just going through a charade because you know what is going to happen," Mansfield said.

Manhunt On For Kidnappers Of Two

BUTLER, Ala. AP — Two small daughters of an oil hunter were snatched from a playpen Monday by two men who claimed the girls' father owed them a $4,000 gambling debt, Sheriff Leon Clark reported.

He said roadblocks were thrown up throughout southwest Alabama but that several hours after the late morning kidnaping no trace had been found of the men and the girls, meaning that the money would not be spent.

Mansfield said he does not know when the Senate will go to work on the bill. But there will have to be some action on the spending issue this week, because the resolution which keeps the agencies going expires on Saturday.

Tina Cain, 3, and Tiffany Cain, 2.

"We are looking at everything that comes by," the Choctaw County sheriff said. "The FBI, state, county and everybody are working on it."

The girls were taken from behind the trailer home of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rozzell, who kept them during the day while their father, Alan Cain, was at work.

Common Dollar Is Market Goal

PARIS — Long-term plans for building a single money for all Western Europe—a formidable rival to the U.S. dollar—are to get an airing at a two-day meeting of finance ministers and directors of central banks that opened Monday.

French Finance Minister Valery Giscard d'Estaing was in the chair.

The countries now concerned are the members of the Common Market: France, Italy, West Germany, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg. If negotiations begin later this year to admit Britain and other candidates, the pound sterling also will be involved.

Pollution Meet Draws Twelve Groups' Reps.

Support is growing for YSU's local Earthday Program as twelve organizations met Friday afternoon to make plans for the anti-pollution event slated for April 20 and 22.

About sixty students were present, representing the following groups: Gamma Sigma Sigma, Alpha Phi Omega, American Institute of Biological Sciences, American Chemical Society, Little Sisters of Alpha Phi Omega, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, Newman, Young Republicans, People Protesting Pollution Power, Community of Concern, Geological Society, and Omicron Lambda.

Jon Rawson, organizer for the Earthday Program, assigned an Executive Committee which consisted of members from each of the organizations present at the meeting.

The Earthday Program has scheduled a demonstration for 10-2 Monday, April 20. Plans include a march from Kilcawley Amphitheatre to Youngstown Central Square.

The plans for Wednesday,

Spanish Club Scholarship Available

Applications are now being accepted for the annual YSU Spanish Club scholarship, awarded to a University student interested in studying abroad.

Interested students should compile and present a program of studies to the Scholarship Committee headed by Dr. Ward Miner, professor of English.

Application forms can be obtained at the offices of the Dean of Men and Women, and the foreign language offices.

Deadline for applications is March 14.

Ideas For "Open" Caf And Bookstore Commuter Meet Result

Dan Crishon, Student Council representative, recently returned from a commuter campus conference at Wayne State University with ideas on bringing YSU students and faculty together.

Crishon said that many of the commuter schools at the conference have become no more than factories. Students go to buildings, get their assignments and leave. "Although Youngstown isn't this bad yet," he said, "we should try to keep away from this sort of thing by bringing the students in closer contact with the school and faculty."

Many solutions were proposed at the conference, but three which Crishon feels could be easily implemented here are a "open bookstore", and a "free university," and an open cafeteria.

An "open" bookstore, Crishon explained, would employ students rather than outside employees. It would also abolish the present counter system and become entirely self-service.

A "free university" would aid in bringing students closer together because students would help other students by volunteering their services in the evenings to teach some hobby or sport. This project is successfully being employed at Wayne State which presently "lacks academic atmosphere."

To close the gap between faculty members and students, Crishon proposes that the faculty cafeteria be open to students as well. "A closer tie is needed between students and faculty," Crishon said, "and this would help."

A full report of the conference will be prepared and presented to Student Council on Monday, March 2.

New Camaro. Feb. 26th.

We've never announced a car at this time before. But then nobody's ever announced a car like this before.

Super Hugger

If it were an ordinary sportster, we'd have introduced it at the ordinary time.

Instead, we took the time to build a whole new Camaro.

We started with a sleek new shape and a low road-hugging stance.

And added more hood. A faster fastback. Wider doors. And new deeply contoured bucket seats.

The instrument panel wraps around you. With enough dials to make you think you're piloting a 747.

There are four transmissions. And six power plants up to the Turbo-Jet 396 V8 that you can order.

Pick the one that best suits your driving. Then go pick on an open road.

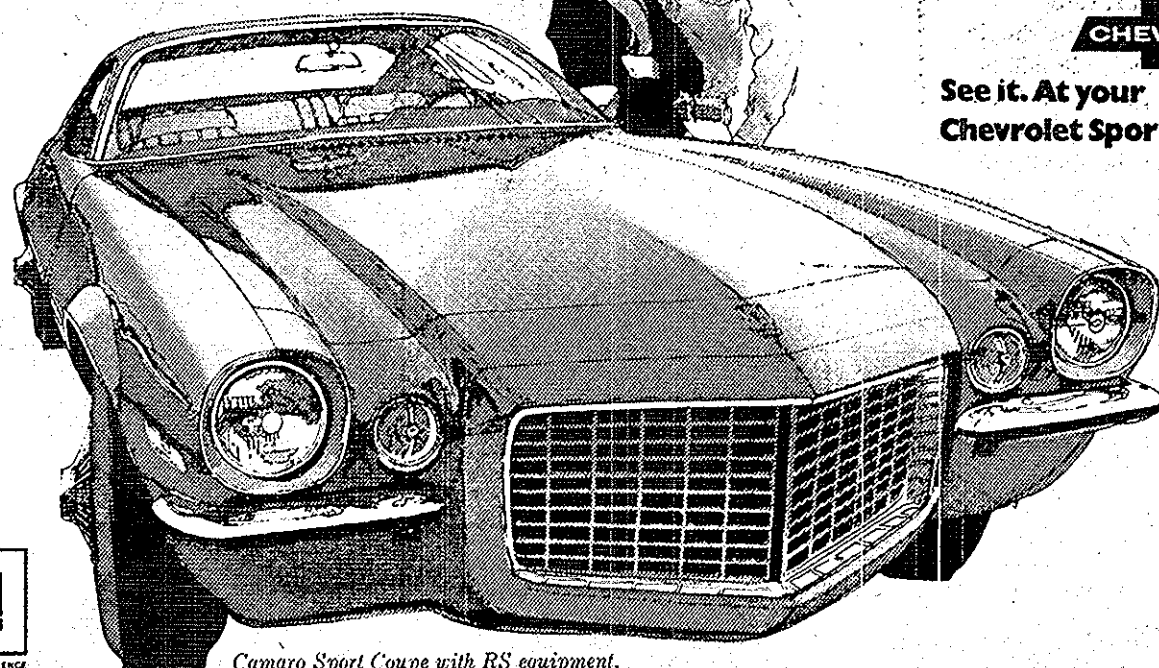

And make it one with plenty of twisting turns. Because Camaro has a remarkable new suspension. And standard front disc brakes for a leech-like grip on the road.

New Camaro. The Super Hugger.

Other sportsters always feared it might come to this.

And they were right. Only their timing was wrong.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

Letters To The Editor

Fears Student Rights Threatened

To the editor of the Jambar:

I found your news item of Tuesday February 17 (YSU to work with Ohio State police) disturbing. The purpose of the liaison between campus and police was given as being to make it 'easier to track down and apprehend (for what?)... "travelling disruptors", earlier in the article called by Chief Cress "non-students." Aside from the fact that the phrase "non-students" seems to me an example of non-thinking generality masquerading as fact (are "non-students" travelling administrators, people not registered at a University as students, faculty members commuting from Kent, students not studying, campus police, or cleaning ladies? it seems undesirable to encourage the establishment of one more list of names. If "non-students" are to be defined as the much maligned "outsider agitator" there is little justification for what is being done, and there is even less justification for establishing a police file on those students who putting their education to 'practical' use travel from campus to campus stirring up what some consider trouble and what others call liberation. Finally, who or which persons in their zealous regard for justice are deciding 'who is and who is not a "traveling disruptor"?'

The establishment of such a list can only be considered as tantamount to the assertion of guilt without trial, and the deprivation by threat of the right to dissent.

Wants More Efficient Registration

To the editor of the Jambar:

When will this university adopt registration procedures that are sane, clear, centralized, and humane? Everyone knows that late registration is hell, but this morning I found that even the most sincere and deliberate efforts at early registration can be equally disillusioning. I was among the first in line; having been told by my bulletin that graduate students "may register any time during the first five days." Thanks to a significant omission in that notice—or thanks perhaps to an arbitrary decision on the part of the screener outside the door (who had to be shown the graduate clause to know it existed)—I was turned away and asked to return at a more inconvenient and crowded time. The episode ended in tears, as has every other encounter I've had with this university. I have yet to meet a single university administrator who clearly understands his role in this sorry process—except perhaps the cashiers. They know precisely what they're for.

I am not basically an irresponsible or demanding person. I hold a BA from a good midwestern university so there is some proof I've proven capable of coping with registration. Registration at this institution hardly deserves the name. The Big Board of X's is an abomination in itself but it is only one of the unpardonable processes that found its way into this "system." The inconveniences and degradation it causes students is inexcusable.

Campus Drinking Survey—

Drinkers Prefer Liquor

Drink! Drink! Drink!
This is the opinion of the average YSU male on the consumption of beer, according to a recent Jambar survey. But the survey also indicated that the average student doesn't drink large amounts of beer because of taste—but because of its low cost.

The results show that the majority of males prefer liquor, namely Scotch, but are beer drinkers because of its cheapness and availability to under-age students.

Most students explained that beer was the leading beverage because it was the only alcoholic drink offered at local pubs. The students cited the Bavarian House, the Green, and the University Club as local hangouts, where only 3.2 beer is served in large quantities.

Female students claimed beer as "necessary for social functions, but awful to taste." Other males stated it was "an easy high—cheaper than drugs."

Most men interviewed said that they drank over two to five dollars worth of beer each week. One student commented, "I wouldn't drink so much beer, if I didn't get it free from my father."

The average student favored future beer sales on campus. One commented, "to get a drink I wouldn't have to walk so far."

Beer is the leading beverage across the United States according to the American Beer Distributor's Company. Their statistics show that 60% of beer drinkers are men, with the majority non-college students.

Industry Becoming More Selective In Hiring Grads

"YSU graduates are beginning to feel the pinch of the nation's economic sag in the decrease of job offers," it was disclosed by University Placement Director, Alfred J. Minotti.

Minotti's statement was in response to an editorial by the Cleveland Plain Dealer which stated that college graduates are no longer being "wooded so avidly" by private companies and government agencies. The article referred to the College Placement Council Survey which revealed that "...141 colleges and universities have reported that offers to bachelor's degree candidates are down 20% since last year and offers to master's degree candidates are 24% lower."

While the article stated that many universities have suffered from a large increase in recruiting visit cancellations, Minotti stated that cancellations at YSU have been almost negligible.

Rutgers Asks Lawyers To Work For Poor

The Rutgers Student Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild is now involved in a campaign to interest prospective college graduates in becoming lawyers for the poor and working class people.

These lawyers use the law to aid the disadvantaged in gaining real control over their own lives, defend political organizers and the citizens' right to organize, confront the law with day-to-day problems of the powerless, and raise political and economic issues among these people to make them aware of both their needs and their political strength.

Rutgers Student Guild believes that law schools should not train lawyers to serve only the business and government bureaucracies that perpetuate the inequities of our legal system, but instead train lawyers to represent those who suffer from these inequities. They feel that Rutgers Law School offers an opportunity to fill this need. Some first year and all second and third year courses are electives, including:

1. An outstanding clinical program in which students are actively engaged in actual constitutional litigation, supervised by Arthur Kinoy, a noted constitutional lawyer.
2. An administrative process project financed by H.U.D.
3. Other clinical programs on urban poverty, housing, welfare, and teaching law in high schools.
4. A third year program permitting actual courtroom practice.

The law school is located in Newark and has a large percentage of black law students, one of the lowest student/faculty ratios among law schools, and a low tuition—$500 a year. There is no tuition differential for out-of-state students. For more information write to Rutgers Student Chapter, The National Lawyers Guild, Rutgers Law School, 180 University Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, 07102.

Penguins Face Steubenville In Home Final—

Barons Pose Threat To NCAA Bid

The YSU Penguins close out their home season tonight in hopes of a NCAA tournament bid against Steubenville College at 8 p.m. at Austintown Field House. The nationally ranked, 21-2, Penguins are overwhelming favorites to defeat the Barons who are 4-17 on the season.

Youngstown destroyed the Barons 86-52 last month at Steubenville, and held 15-12 series edge over the Barons. YSU last lost to Steubenville in 1964.

The Penguins are closing fast on the best regular season record in Youngstown history, the 23-2 slate of the 1963-4. The Penguins are currently ranked 6th in both AP and UPI small college polls.

Sophomore sensation Bill Johnson is closing in on a YSU record of his own. Billy "the Kid's" 16 points against Alliance last Saturday leaves him only 38 points shy of becoming the highest sophomore scorer in Penguins annals.

Johnson, who had 35 points in YSU's earlier conquest of Steubenville, will probably be joined in the starting line-up by center Will Teague, forwards Ron Smith and Bob Patton, and either Chuck Montgomery or Jeff Skeeles at the other guard position.

The Barons of Steubenville will start the tallest line-up to face the Penguins in 6-10 Reg Wood, 6-6 Al Cantry, 6-4 Ernie Coffey, 6-4 Brian Wing, and 6-2 Pat Mulligan.

Five Steubenville players who were suspended by head coach Chuck Maschock prior to the game with Central State last Saturday have been reinstated and will play tonight.

Six Tankers In NCAA Meet As Swim Season Nears End

Ralph Johnson, Youngstown State swimming coach, has a two-pronged goal this week — wrap up his fifth straight winning season and qualify several more Penguins for the national championships.

YSU evened its record at 4-4 on Friday night by downing Buffalo State 69-43. The Penguins now need wins in at least two of three road meets including Slippery Rock State (4 p.m. on Feb. 24), Ashland (3:30 p.m. on Feb. 26) and Indiana U. of Pa. (2 p.m. on Feb. 28).

Six Penguins thus far have qualified for the NCAA College Division championships to be held March 19-21 at Oakland University in Rochester, Mich. Those who will make the trip are Nick Gavalas (New Kensington, Pa.) and Dale Welk (Youngstown South), one and three-meter diving; Tim Lafferty (Butler, Pa.), 100 and 200-yard backstroke and 400-yard freestyle relay; and George Kavish (Newark, O.) and Tom Parker (Middleburg Heights, O.), 400-yard freestyle relay.

YSU's first foe, Slippery Rock State, needs a victory Tuesday to gain a winning season. The Rockets are 7-7 on the year and close out their season with the Penguins. The Rock holds a 6-5 edge in the series and is led by breaststroker Joel Smmoke and individual medley star Dave Richardson. The Rockets bowed 64-48 to YSU last year.

The Penguins draw a tough assignment at Ashland since the Eagles have lost only once in eight outings. Ashland bowed 71-43 to Kentucky, a 57-56 winner over YSU. The Eagles have five All-American swimmers including Colin Montgomery, sprinter Mark Felkowski, breaststroker, Brad McCoy, individual medley, and Doug Reiser and Tom Oaty, freestyle relay. McCoy won the 400-year individual medley at nationals last year. Ashland won 71-44 last season to even the series at 1-1.

YSU closes out its regular season against an Indiana team that boasts an 8-3 slate. The Indians have lost only to Grove City, Clarion State and Penn State. Led by backstroker Mike Deaton and diver Bob Crowther, the Indians will be looking for their first win over YSU in three tries. The Penguins won 61-50 last year.

Prior to the nationals, YSU will compete on March 6-7 in the Penn-Ohio Championships to be held at Clarion State.
