Faculty Intercedes To Veto Amendment

Student Council Cooperates Rather Than Return To "Dirty" Politics

Pointing out that fair representation was not being given to the independent body in the new amendment which was unanimously passed in Student Council meeting last week, the faculty made use of their veto powers and "suggested" that a new amendment be drawn up.

Student Council, rather than return to the past "cut throat" method of electing council members, passed the following amendment: Each of the six fraternities and sororities will send one representative to Student Council. Students not affiliated with any social Greek Letter group will also elect six representatives. These elections will be held before the third week in May. Then at the beginning of each of the following two semesters, the two Freshman Classes will each send one representative to council.

A clause which caused quite a bit of argumentation was the one in regard to whether or not an independent representative should lose his Student Council membership upon pledging to a Greek Letter group. Again the faculty interceded and the result was that any member who changed his status would lose his council membership and a new representative from his former group would fill his place.

In other words, the balance of power—if such is now necessary—will rest with the two Freshmen representatives to Student Council.

May Day Pageant Is Based on Folk Tale

The May Day Pageant, which will be presented before the May Queen in honor of her coronation, has for its setting England at the time of Charles the Second. It has been adapted from an old English folk tale by Louis Davidson.

The story revolves around a beautiful villager, Patience, and the man she loves, Hugh. Her father wishes to marry Patience to Zerrubabel, a man she intensely dislikes. The intervention of the king makes all end happily, and the villagers celebrate May.

The pageant includes such items as a "Court of Love," and various dances known interestingly as "Gathering Peacocks," "The Black Nag" and "A Maypole Dance."

Virginia Johnson will be the pageant's reader. The cast includes Shirley Peterson as Patience Crosby, Fred Hill as Hugh, Peg Lovell as Phoebe, Rosemary Donnelly as Susan, Paul Emch as the father, Sir Giles Crosby, Fred Sigal as Zerrubabel, Bill Pound as Charles II, James Miller as a sailor, and Peg Kirchner as a lady of the court.

Villagers and dancers include—hum—practically the entire school.

Mary Black Is YoCo 1939 May Queen

Above is Mary Louise Black who will be crowned May Queen Friday afternoon in the coronation ceremonies which annually take place on the Youngstown College north campus. Miss Black, a senior, is a member of Alpha Theta Delta Sorority and resides in Struthers.

YoCo Gridiron Warriors To Do "Injustice" To Wm. Shakespeare

Ready to take its place in the dramatic world, along with the Mimes and Alpha Psi Omega, a new group of Thespians makes its first appearance on Thursday and Friday, May 25 and 26 in the College Auditorium. The football team, bored with spring inactivity, is hard at work rehearsing a brand new skit, Julius Caesar.

The dramatic spectacle, which wanders far from Shakespeare's Julius Caesar, is a burlesque on deep drama. Originality is the keynote.

The mighty Mike Leeson will portray Cassius, with the lean and hungry look. Joe Bush takes over where Mark Antony left off. Ambitious Caesar will be played by Dick Sonntag and will be murdered by Jim Heber, the treacherous Brutus. Cobby Warden, Ralph Skarrett, and Bob Burns are miscast as Casca, Trebonius, and Lucius. Those brawny warriors, Dave Nemeth and Johnnie Zban will be stage hands.

When the cast searched for period settings for the comedy, the old house next door was scuttled to the bare walls, and elaborate scenery has been constructed.

The proceeds from this exhibition of native talent are to be used in the interest of football. Bill Pound and Professor Bunn are the directors.

Silence Reigns And Men Mourn As Future Business Women Move Away

During the past week the cloistered old halls of our fair institution have been enveloped in a cloak of silence. The solemn hush has spread even as far as the lounge which has for years been a mixing bowl of weird and eerie sounds. Citizens have reported that on a clear day the activities of that most sacred room could be heard as far south as the Public Square. Imagine the interest which was aroused when four students were discovered actually studying in the lounge last Thursday, an event which has not been paralleled since Joe Fisher's undergraduate days.

The cause of this sudden and drastic transformation lies in the fact that we have lost our lovable little gum-chewing jitterbugs, those peppy business women of the future. Youngstown College has grown and expanded. No longer are we a one building institution, but we have two complete buildings, all our own. Our business school has been moved—lock, stock and barrel—from the second floor of the main building, to our newly acquired Wick Hall.

Little did the administration know, when they went to the great expense of making this change, of the heart-aches and the loneliness which they were causing. The first two days of operation of the new

May Day Festivities Planned for Friday

Mary Black Will Be Crowned May Queen; Pageant, Jitter Session, Tea and May Dance Fill Day

From two o'clock in the afternoon till midnight next Friday, Youngstown College will be seething with activity. The reason is May Day and with it comes the coronation of the May Queen—Mary Louise Black, an interesting pageant, a tea for all the many guests, an afternoon jitterbug session, and the grand finale at night with Shy Lockshin's orchestra furnishing three hours of dance music in the college auditorium.

YoCo Gets Chapter Of Alpha Psi Omega

Installation Held At Tri-State Convention of National Dramatic Fraternity

In recognition of its outstanding work in the field of dramatics, Youngstown College has been granted a chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity.

The formal initiation was held at Kent State University, recently at a tri-state convention which included the chapters from Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Ohio.

Those initiated into the Eta Phi Chapter of Youngstown College were, in addition to Professor Russell Bunn, Frank Stewart, Margaret Cassidy, Kenneth Ray, Paul Dean, Stella Cassano, Rosemary Sullivan, Victor Ramsey, Eoline Newhouse, Woodrow Van Court and John Scott.

Alpha Psi Omega, which contains approximately two hundred chapters in various colleges and universities throughout the country, will not replace the Mimes. The original dramatic fraternity will serve as a stepping stone toward achieving membership to Alpha Psi Omega.

As in the past the Mimes will continue to produce the plays, but the new group will sponsor them. Membership is open to all members of the Mimes who have satisfied certain requirements, and have had two major roles in college plays.

At a recent election of officers Paul Dean was chosen president, Kennedy Ray, treasurer, and Stella Cassano, secretary.

Councils To Put On Tea And Dance

Following the coronation of the May Queen and pageant Friday afternoon Inter-Fraternity Council and Student Council will work hand in hand sponsoring an informal tea and tea dance.

Inter-Fraternity Council will serve tea to all visitors to the campus at three o'clock in the lounge, thereby enabling guests to meet faculty members and students. Helen Gifford has charge of the affair.

At the same time, all of the jitterbugs will be given the opportunity to swing out to a nickelodeon for a couple of hours in the college auditorium. Student Council has charge of the tea dance.

Festivities will get under way around two o'clock when the May Day Processional starts its promenade about the campus. The leaders of the procession will be the two court pages and following them will come the twenty-two girls forming the chain of flowers through which will appear the 1938 Queen, Madeline Margo, and the crown bearer, Jean Zebroski. Making way for the queen will be honor maids Katherine Jones and Helen Gifford. And finally will come the 1939 May Queen, Mary Louise Black.

As train bearers Miss Black has chosen Katherine Wham, Virginia Van Brocklin, Cecilia Somple, and Eleanor Chirelli. Attendants will be Francena Moore, Ppal Weiss, Marion Parmenter, Zelpha Davis, Dorothy Bode, Margaret Olds, and Mary Margaret Cline.

The coronation will take place on the north campus which has been made more beautiful by new plantings and the remodeling of Wick Hall. Immediately after the coronation and obeisance by the court, a pageant and dance will be presented for the queen. The recessional of the court will follow the pageant and dance.

After this, tea will be served in the lounge to all of the guests and in the college auditorium a tea dance will be held. In the evening comes the annual May Day dance which this year will be a "sport affair." Admission will be by activity card.

Chairman Jean Zebroski has been quite busy making final arrangements and guarantees a successful event. Many guests are expected to attend the May Queen coronation which annually brings more outsiders to the campus than any other college event.

1939 Neon To Be Out In Two Weeks

Setting a record for early appearance, the Neon will be available from one week to ten days earlier this year. With its many new features, the book well deserves all the fine treatment of a limited edition.

Constant work since February has enabled the staff members to "keep ahead" of the printer, with the result that the 1939 Neon will be available no later than June 1.

Attracting special attention are the very fine division pages designed by the art editor, Betty Mae Jones. The pages are executed in black and white, each one depicting some scenes or events peculiar to college life at Youngstown.

Editor Zelpha Davis reports that if immediate action is taken, a few students may yet obtain copies by placing orders before the end of this week.

You Can't Complain Now

The many students who are not affiliated with social fraternities and sororities are now assured of at least half of the members on Student Council. Such being the case, any reason the independents might have had to complain should now be removed.

As we pointed out in our previous editorial, though, any independent student who had the proper qualifications and who desired to become active in extra-curriculars has always been able to do so easily. Too many independent students have done so to refute such a statement. Nevertheless, many felt they were "held back" whether or not they actually were.

Then too, the independents are now organized as an association which has the primary purpose of encouraging its members to take a more prominent part in all phases of student activity. We heartily endorse such a body, for the proper carrying out of its purpose will, in the end, benefit everyone in Youngstown College.

We have always advocated that every student get into as many extra-curriculars as possible, as long as these activities do not interfere with the more important scholastic requirements. Extra-curriculars serve as the most influential means possible in college for all-around social development. And this fact is important, for we all know that excellence in any field is void if a person is unable to associate happily with his fellow social beings.

At any rate, the independents have no reason to feel slighted now. The gates are wide open, and we encourage everyone to enter them wholeheartedly.

A New Student Council

At last, after years of "cut throat" politicking, Youngstown College has a representative Student Council which appears to satisfy almost everyone.

Though the future members to Student Council do represent particular factions, the interests of such factions should never become as important as the best interests of the entire college. Also, the purpose of the recent amendment was to clean up the political situation, and the fact that new members will be elected by certain definite groups should not serve as the signal for the use of politics within the new council itself. Each member should realize that his duty is to act and vote for what he honestly believes to be best for the entire student body of Youngstown College.

Also membership on this new Student Council should be an honor. The frame work is so set up that council should consistently be a good one. For this reason it should be given real tangible power—a Student Council whose members are merely "yes men" is not a college student governing body.

GENERALITIES

A little cogitation on this newspaper business has led us to believe that of all the offices on the paper a columnist holds by far the most desirable position. He may write practically anything he pleases. His choice of subjects is as diversified as a woman's choice of hats. He finds the number of his friends and enemies has been swelled enormously by publicity hounds and publicity haters. He is in a fair position to help correct unpleasant renditions. And all of this for the price of a few hours work every two weeks. So, taking advantage of our position, we propose at this time to unload on you, gentle readers, a few of our pet gripes merely for the sake of getting them off our minds.

- (1) Can't something be done about those "fruits" who insist on taking thumbtacks and sticking notices over those previously on the bulletin board?
- (2) We would like to see, just once, a queen election in which the girl was selected solely because of beauty and personality, without the let or hindrance of politics.
- (3) There should be a special limbo for the stags at dances who want to dance every piece.
- (4) The senior class would like to know where the five dollar class dues go. It is rumored that part of it is even used to pay for cleaning the auditorium on graduation day.

PETEY PENGUIN

Bouquets to Jane Holliday for as healthy a personality as we've seen in many a moon. It is rumored that the football players are planning on staging a burlesque of Shakespeare's Julius Caesar. (May 25-26). All advance reports indicate it will be a screaming success and well worth the nominal fee. John Scott is the brainy little man who has been panhandling his way through college as a hospital orderly.

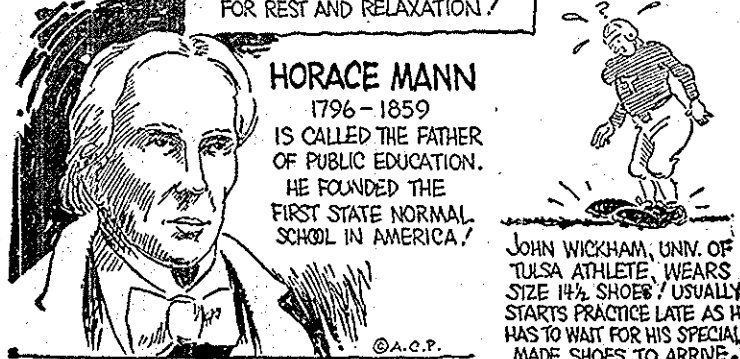

"Who is she?" Brunette, medium height, Liberal Arts, has one man, and is looking around for another. "Who is he?" They call him the Crisco Kid, and he's been mighty friendly lately.

Keep in touch with us, we will let you know.

Parade of Opinion

By Associated Collegiate Press

Hazing

Fraternities have long been vulnerable to attack on the one question of their programs for the initiation of new members. Chief contention of the fault-finders has been (and still is) that "hell week" activities are anti-educational and do not instill into neophytes true ideals of fraternalism.

Along with the passing of the green caps for freshmen on many campuses, "hell week" is being banned by many fraternities and is being replaced with educational and work programs that are of real value to the fraternity and the individual alike.

But college newspaper editors, close to the real situations on their campuses, are still pounding out strong editorials urging a continuation of the trend away from paddles and pranks. Paragraphs like the following are potent arguments for their case:

"If a fraternity is unable to build its freshmen into the desirable type of man without hell week, the logical conclusion to be drawn is that the fraternity is not a good one, for one of a fraternity's promises to a new freshman is that it will endeavor to make him better for the experience. Some fraternities are able to turn out men; others only succeed in producing over-grown high school boys." — University of Kansas "Daily Kansan."

"A bad year of hazing can develop a pretty rugged inferiority complex in a sensitive soul. It can make the first year of college a year of pure hell and can kill any further desire to pursue education." — University of Mississippi Mississippian."

Groups

Always important in indicating the trend of college thought is a survey of the latest developments in student organizations. During the past month four new groups have been formed that forcefully demonstrate the results of the various campaigns that have been carried on in the collegiate and the professional press.

At the University of Minnesota, students have formed two clubs for the promotion of Americanism:

The Constitution club and the American club both will campaign for democracy and the freedom and rights guaranteed in the U. S. Constitution.

At Geneva College, in Kentucky, students have organized an Anti-War club. An announcement from the group says that chapters have been organized already at Louisiana State, Western Reserve, Lehigh, University of Maine, Wesleyan, and Upsala. Members take an oath that they will not go to war except to defend our shores. Stated purpose of the organization is to awaken the youth of the nation to the proximity of war under present policies and to oppose those policies.

At Villanova College, students have organized laymen and clergy into a Legion of Justice to promote the ideal "living wage". Members will not purchase goods they know to be sweat shop and non-union made articles.

Polls

Important in charting the trends of opinion on the nation's campuses are the periodic polls taken by newspapers, yearbooks and class organizations. Following are the results of the more important of the recent inquiries.

Reflecting the growing optimism in regard to jobs, New York University seniors indicated overwhelmingly that they expected to be earning $5,000 annually five years after graduation. Interesting was the large percentage (78) which answered "no" to the question, "Have you utilized your four years at college to their greatest potentialities?"

University of Maine students voted with only a slight majority to favor of the provision to have war declared only by a national referendum.

At Case School of Applied Science, more than two-thirds of the students favor the T.V.A., the National Labor Relations Board and the social security and wages and hours laws.

Approximately 85 per cent of the McPherson College student body has voted against going to war for the U. S. if the battles are fought on a foreign soil.

Youngstown College Netters Meet Westminster Here, Today

Match Will Be Last Home Tilt of Year

Penguins Unsuccessful In First Three Matches With Hiram, Akron, and Ohio U.

The Youngstown College tennis team, defeated three consecutive times this year, will endeavor to win its first match when it encounters Westminster netters at Volney Rodger courts, this afternoon at 2 p. m.

The match with Westminster will be the last meet at home. Tomorrow afternoon they journey to Hiram to play a return match with the Terriers and next Monday they will meet Westminster again.

In a meet with Hiram at Volney Rodgers on May 3, the Penguin squad distinctly showed the lack of practice and the greenness of an inexperienced team as they were defeated 4-3. Jack Wagman playing number one on the YoCo team defeated Walter Logan, seeded number one on the Terrier squad 6-1, 6-3. Inglis (Y) defeated Abbott (H) 6-3, 6-1; Stafford (H) defeated Durivage (Y) 6-1, 6-2; Leppert (H) defeated Leedy (Y) 6-2, 6-1; and Corey defeated Sylak (Y) 7-5, 6-3.

Wagman and Sylak teamed for Youngstown in the doubles and defeated Logan and Stafford 5-7, 6-2, 7-5. Abbott and Leppert (H) defeated Inglis and Hedlund (Y) 6-3, 6-4.

The Red and Gold team suffered their second defeat of the season by losing one match when they were topped by Akron 5-4. Wagman was again triumphant as he played number one singles and beat S. Goldberg 6-3, 2-6, 6-4. Inglis (Y) defeated C. Weimer (A) 2-6, 6-4, 6-2; Nicholas (A) beat Sylak (Y) 2, 2-6, 6-4; Lukats (A) defeated Jurivage (Y) 6-4, 8-6; Bendur (A) defeated Enyeart (Y) 6-2, 6-2; and James (A) defeated Leedy (Y) 6-3, 6-3. In the doubles Wagman and Sylak defeated Goldberg and Weimer 6-4, 6-2 and Inglis and Enyeart (Y) beat Lukats and Nicholas 2-6, 6-2; Benur and Thornton (A) defeated Durivage and Leedy 6-2, 6-2.

A highly rated Ohio University team was extended more than expected when they defeated the Youngstown boys 5-2. Wagman won his third straight singles match by downing Steinhauer (O) 6-3, 6-3; Rose (O) defeated Inglis (Y) 6-1, 6-2; Hartman (O) defeated McLaughlin (Y) 6-2, 6-0; Sylak (Y) defeated Laskin (O) 6-4, 6-3; and Engleke (O) defeated Durivage (Y) 6-0, 6-0.

Youngstown was unsuccessful in both doubles matches as Rose and Steinhauer defeated Wagman and Sylak 6-0, 5-7, 6-3; and Laskin and Hartman defeated Inglis and McLaughlin 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

Fraternity House Men to Hold Open House Sunday

Members of Sigma Delta Beta Fraternity will again climb into their aprons when they hold "Open House for Parents" next Sunday at their fraternity house.

The purpose is twofold: First to enable the parents of the fraternity members to see the place where their sons have been spending so much of the time "studying"; and secondly, to enable the members to meet the parents.

Jim Heber heads the committee and will act as chief refreshments server while Dick Thomas will be the chief "oiler." Others on the committee are Patty Lynn, Jack Headd and Bob Sterling.

Penguin Patter

By JAMES BROWN

Since this is the next to the last edition of the Jambar for the year, it is considered only fitting by this corner to give to you a resume of Youngstown College's sport activity for the past year.

Youngstown College entered its first year of football last September, rather unheralded by general opinion. The Penguins met Geneva College under the South High flood lights in the initial game and were defeated 12-6. However, there is little doubt in our minds on the outcome of that fray had it been played later in the season. The mighty Red Cats of Western Reserve journeyed to Youngstown to encounter the Red and Gold in the second tilt of the season. Although they were forced into defeat with a 33-0 score, the Penguin squad began to show that trickiness and power that made them unbeatable in the closing games of the season.

Following in the same course they were downed by St. Vincent 31-6, and after a thriller with John Carroll they were subdued 20-12. A 19-10 win over Westminster started the YoCo squad on their winning streak, and with the exception of the West Virginia U. game which they lost 27-6, they scored decisive victories over Davis-Elkins 19-13, Clarion 46-0, and Detroit Tech 19-0.

With the launching of the basketball season this year the boys started off by making a very poor showing in their first five games. But as the season progressed and practice sessions grew longer they turned in six victories for the season. They scored their first win over West Liberty 36-34. In a return game with Davis-Elkins they were set back 51-36 but came back strong to defeat Alumni 37-29 and retaliate over West Liberty 34-16. They defeated Thiel twice within three weeks, 39-25 and again 39-25. In their last win of the season they gained revenge over Hiram for an early season defeat with a 45-22 score. Although Youngstown had one of its poorest showings on the hardwood in years, next season looks very promising to YoCo cage fans as the available material looks very good.

The Youngstown tennis team has up to the present time lost three consecutive matches. The first match with Hiram showed up considerably the lack of team work and practice, but the recent journey to Ohio U. seems to have given the boys back their speed and control. They should win over Westminster today and revenge Hiram tomorrow.

building brought such heavy traffic of college boys to Wick Hall, and vice-versa, that Mr. Pickard had a walk and set of concrete steps constructed connecting the two buildings. He stated that the amount saved in wear and tear on the campus would soon pay for the work. The building, which according to rumor, was once valued at close to a million dollars, has been completely remodeled, at a cost of about $10,000. Old walls have been torn out and new ones built. New floors and lighting fixtures have been installed with a general reconditioning throughout. The new typing room, which was formerly a sun porch, has ideal lighting for its purpose. It is also conveniently located as it is in view of almost any of our north side windows. Taken all in all, the proximity of Wick Hall helps to compensate for the loss of our second floor co-eds.

The increase in enrollment in the liberal arts college makes the additional space not only welcome but practically necessary. The former bookkeeping rooms will be transformed into laboratories for the chemistry department, while the major portion of the remaining space will be used as class rooms by the liberal arts and law schools.

Sig Delts Win 10-6 In Baseball Game

Although they were forced from the diamond in the last half of the seventh inning by a driving rain, the Sig Delts had already scored a decisive 10-6 victory over the Phi Gams in their battle which followed the recent May Day Breakfast.

Starting off on a scoring spree in the first inning, the Phi Gams were leading the victors 3-1 going into the first of the third. Here the losers tallied twice but the Sig Delts blasted in four runs to tie up the score. Gaining nothing more until the first of the seventh inning, the Phi Gams were banked when the Sig Delts scored one in the fourth, three in the fifth and one in the sixth.

Independents Form Incorporated Ass'n.

Sigal and Skerratt Elected To Head Group; Dykema Is Faculty Adviser

Following a series of well-attended meetings Youngstown College students not affiliated with Greek letter social organizations recently incorporated under the name of the Independents.

According to Fred Sigal, chief organizer and president, "The new group has the welfare of the college rather than the society as its dominating objective. The members intend to become more active and aggressive than they have been in the past. They are organized for the expressed purpose of improved student representative government and believe that just recognition should be given to all groups and organizations. They shall endeavor to raise themselves to such a prominent level that they shall be worthy of and demand their due respect and recognition."

Besides President Sigal, Ralph Skerratt has been elected Secretary-Treasurer while Professor Dykema has been selected as the faculty advisor. An executive council of twenty will formulate the plans and policies of the organization.

A constitution, embodying the organization of the group, has been given to Student Council for approval.

Independents Whip Phi Kaps 12 to 3

The YoCo Independent baseball team, made up mainly of the varsity gridmen, went on a scoring spree when they completely smothered a hapless Phi Kap ball club 12 to 3.

The game took place at Volney Rodgers' while the Sig Delts and Phi Gams were playing on an adjoining ball diamond.

The Phi Kaps were unable to score until the Independents changed their line up and became lax in fielding.

Society Notes

By Margaret Findley

Another redeemer from the drearier aspects of this mundane world is the announcement that the Phi Kaps are in the party-giving mood and on May 18 will have initiation at Tom Anderson's. With no time out they will have a rickety rackety picnic the next Sunday, probably at Nelson's Ledges.

It's nice—it's news—for in addition to the activities already listed is the formal scheduled for May 27 at the Marble Room.

Steaks with just the right amount of wood ash to give that delectable tang were the featured Phi Gam specialty at the picnic given by the pledges for the Actives last Sunday in Mill Creek.

Exciting and revolutionary it is, although, alas, it is still in the indefinite stage for as things now stand the Phi Gams are having their dance the 29th at the Mansion and Tommy Tucker will play for dancing. Remember, it is allentative.

An impish party—a la Patrick and Moore and very sassy—is being planned by the Gamma Sigs and is to be held at the house of Coopie and Totty. Ah, Fellows, take those white flannels out of the moth balls where you have so carefully hidden them from the nasty old moths and make ready for the streamlined Gamma Sig dinner dance that is scheduled for June 13 at ### Southern Hills.

A never forgotten occasion for the Phi Lambs occurred a week ago when members treated their mothers to a dinner at the Stoneleigh. Everyone had lots to eat and a good time. It is the fashion to be pleasingly indefinite and vague, and with that in mind the Phi Lambs are still in the haze about their dance scheduled for June 14, no place, no orchestra, so far.

A pleasantly intimate evening is planned for the last week in May by the members of the National Inter-Fraternity club. The place—Birch Hill cabins; the entertainment—dancing and cards; added attractions—the filling and deliciously delightful food.

Diversions for A T Dees recently have been parties. The last was when the sorority advisor, Mrs. McKissock entertained and the next is tonight at the hang-out of Mary Dignan. Games to test the wisdom of the A T Dees will be played.

Sunday the Sig Deltas will play host to their parents when they hold open house from 2 to 4 o'clock. Then within a week or so these "men about YoCo" are planning a good old fashion stag party.

Their formal, which was not certain because of the expense involved in keeping a fraternity house, is now definite. It is planned for Monday, June 12th at the Mansion. Blaine Gerdes is chairman while Dave Mackil will serve as toastmaster.
