Dean G. Wilcox Heads Vocational Guidance Service for Students Here

Students who are uncertain about their choice of a vocation are urged to take advantage of the new guidance service now available to them through the Veterans' Vocational Guidance Center, room 211. The office and personnel were recently enlarged to accommodate Youngstown College students.

The new college department is headed by Dr. G. W. Wilcox, dean of the college. Student tests are given by Mrs. Martha Thomas Boyer and Elinor Love. Dr. John W. Bare, former professor of psychology here, continues as director and counselor of the veterans' program. He is assisted by Mrs. Thomas Parker.

Various psychology, achievement, and aptitude tests will be given with permission of the student's advisor. In some instances advisors will request students to take tests to determine their vocational aptitudes. The tests, counsel, and guidance are given without extra charge. These services are covered by the advisory fee paid upon entry in the college.

Last year several hundred discharged servicemen were tested, processed, and then placed in civilian jobs through the Center. It is a branch of the Veterans' Administration program.

Work in Progress On Old Rayen Building

As part of the planned postwar expansion to take care of the increasing enrollment, the William Rayen School of Engineering is becoming a reality. Remodeling to fit the needs of our engineering department has been in progress for three months.

Included in the $120,000 remodeling cost is the cleaning and painting of the exterior and the entire redecoration of the interior. The smaller rooms have disappeared with modern classrooms in their place. The basement has been modernized to hold the 400,000-pound steel-testing machine.

When completed this new building will hold 200 day and 300 night pupils. (The building may be ready for use at the first of the new year.)

Servicemen . . . Attentun!

We want to send the Jambar to you. Will all servicemen who receive this issue and whose addresses have been changed from the last one on file at the college, please send us their new addresses as soon as possible? Rapid redeployment and shift of service personnel have put our address book somewhat out of date. So, if we are to continue sending you news of the college and old friends, we must have your current addresses.

The family or friends of any serviceman who attended Youngstown College prior to entering the service can also help if they will send his address to the office.

Balloting for Student Council Representatives Brings Out 195 Votes

One hundred and ninety-five votes were cast Wednesday in the election of representatives to Student Council, the student governing body of Youngstown College. Increased enrollment made the election among the most keenly contested in recent years.

The Council's main function is the allotment of the student activity fund for school and social purposes. It is indirectly responsible for publication of the Jambar and the Neon. Freshman receptions, the Snowflake Frolic, and the two proms are among affairs sponsored by Student Council.

All matters concerning activities of the student body are brought before Council. Appeals may be made by groups and individuals.

Assisting in all movements for the betterment of the college, Student Council is the voice of the students.

The newly elected Council will meet for the first time at noon today. Members are:

Senior class: Virginia Blackman and Robert Burke.

Freshman class: Bob Shreve and Alice Woodside.

At large: Joe Peyko and Marcia Welsh.

Sharon Steel Corp. To Give Scholarships

Four four-year scholarships to Youngstown College will be given annually by the Sharon Steel Corporation to sons of employees of the firm. Graduates of Farrell, Struthers, Sharon, and Lowellville High Schools, which are in areas of the corporation's plants, are eligible for the awards. One scholarship will be given to a graduate of each school.

Primary arrangements were made by Henry A. Roemer, president, and other officials of Sharon Steel Corporation, the principals of the above high schools, and George M. Wilcox, dean of Youngstown College. The recipients of the scholarships will be picked by officials of the high schools and Youngstown College.

Application forms are available at the employment offices of Sharon Steel Corporation, the aforementioned high schools, and Youngstown College. The program is to go into effect this year.

Forgiveness is the fragrance the violet sheds on the heel that has crushed it.—Mark Twain.

Buechner Hall, Bryson St., will hold open house Sunday, Oct. 7, from 3 to 7 p. m., with the public invited. The entire staff will be on hand to welcome guests. The entire building will be open for inspection, followed by a buffet tea served in Memorial Hall.

Welcome, Smiths!

This fall sees the return to the college of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Smith as dean of men and acting dean of women. The Smiths, well known and liked on the campus, are welcome indeed.

Doctor Smith is back after a two-and-a-half-year leave of absence during which he was area director for the War Manpower Commission. The area organization, including Trumbull, Mahoning, and Columbiana Counties, was dissolved Sept. 29. Mrs. Smith has been assistant registrar of the college for the past two years.

The new deans will act as personal and academic counselors to all students. They offer considerate, confidential advice on such problems. Signed excuses for class absence should be secured from them.

Mrs. Smith is completing work on her Master's Degree in physical and health education from Ohio State University. She came to the college in 1939 to work as a field representative. In 1943 she was made assistant registrar. Mrs. Smith has also instructed biology classes here.

Doctor Smith was a Rhodes exchange scholar to Oxford University from the University of Nebraska. His first association with YoCo was in 1922 when he was one of the first professors in the Y. M. C. A. College, the nucleus of the present college. He is offering a new course in crime and penal institutions this year. A labor problems class and social science sequence classes are also in his schedule.

The Smiths are anticipating an active and enjoyable school year with the students.

"A practical man," declared Disraeli, "is one who practices the errors of his forefathers."

You . . . Are Being Watched!

Yes, freshmen, we mean you. You are being watched from all sides by the Greeks. Don't be alarmed for it only means that very soon you will be swamped with invitations for the rushing season.

Rushing season extends from Oct. 8 to 20. The active Greek organizations will then begin outdoing each other to give you freshmen some of the most exciting times in your college life. Most of the parties will be kept a dark secret until after they have taken place, but we can give you some idea of the traditional parties which each group holds every year.

Re: Telephone Messages

IF YOU are expecting a telephone call, look for a notice of it on the small bulletin board between the bookstore windows. Students will not be summoned from classes for calls. The message will be posted on the board at once, and you are expected to check on calls at frequent intervals.

Faculty and Upperclassmen to Welcome New Students; Large Turnout for Affair Is Urged

The Freshman Reception, traditional "first event" of each semester, will be held in the college auditorium Saturday, Sept. 29. The reception line will form at 8:00 o'clock; dancing to the music of Phil King and his orchestra will follow at 9:00 o'clock. The affair is sponsored by Student Council and admission is by activity book.

College Registration Hits All-Time High

Registration for the fall semester has reached an all-time high in the history of Youngstown College. Approximately 1,400 students are enrolled in the day and evening classes. This tops last year's February high of 1,080 enrollment. Exact figures are not available since new students and ex-servicemen are still being registered.

Two hundred and fifty new freshmen and 175 veterans have been welcomed to the college. Full time students, those carrying 12 or more hours, number 490 in the Liberal Arts College. Eighty students are taking 11 hours or less in the day school.

Students registered for night classes at the college number 580. The business school has 125 enrolled in its day school.

Senior-Junior Notes . . .

Since seniors and juniors are not required to attend assembly programs at present, it is important that they read the bulletin board in the dean's office, room 209. Notices of interest to students, especially seniors and juniors, will be posted there.

Who's Who Candidate List

The list of YoCo student candidates for the 1945-46 "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" will be compiled soon. Seniors and juniors who wish to be considered for this distinguished list are urged to secure "extra-curricular activities" forms from Miss Cassano. These forms should be filled out and returned to the dean's office immediately.

Prospects are ten-pins of Desire set up in the alley of Hope, down which rolls the uncertain ball of Chance. Ten-strikes are usually accidents.

Co-chairmen Jeanne Grice and Jean Mellinger have named the following committees: Bill Parmenter and Hal Davies, orchestra; Bob Burke, Betty Boyts, Marietta Anderson, Bob Ray, and Paul Serene, decorations; Beverly Jackson, Bob Hum, Marcia Welsh, Polly Velker, and Elizabeth Patrick, refreshments; Olga Poinski, Yole Schiavone, and Pauline Thomas, publicity and invitations; Judy Megala, Bob Schettino, Charles Wilson, and Virginia D'Isa, dances.

The Reception has been held each semester for a number of years in honor of the new students. Its purpose is to acquaint them with Youngstown College, its administrative officers, faculty, and students. They will be given the opportunity to meet the president of the college, the deans, heads of the various departments, and faculty members, Student Council, representatives from social fraternities and fraternities, and presidents of various organizations on the campus.

All veterans attending Youngstown College this semester are asked to assemble for group pictures which are to be taken by The Vindicator. Veterans who are day college students will have their picture taken on Friday, Sept. 28, at 12 o'clock, and will meet on the steps at the front of the Butler Art Institute.

Evening college veterans are asked to come for a picture on Monday evening, Oct. 1, at 6:45 p. m., in the college auditorium.

The chairmen emphasize the importance of attendance both by new students and upperclassmen because of the large enrollment this fall. The committee is working especially hard so that new students will feel that they are really a part of YoCo and will be able to start on what promises to be one of the college's most successful years.

All Greeks to Rush

The newly elected officers of Pan-Hellenic Council, the student organization regulating the sororities and fraternities at Youngstown College, include: president, Jerry Watt; secretary-treasurer, Jean Mellinger.

The Pan-Hellenic Council is composed of the president and one elected representative of each sorority and fraternity in the college. The Council regulates rushing and pledging, and works for co-operation among the social groups on the campus.

A temporary by-law has been passed permitting the rushing of all students of the college. A former by-law limited rushing to students with 12 completed hours.

The rushing dates have been announced as beginning on Oct. 8 and closing Nov. 4.

Professor Dykema is the faculty advisor of the organization.

Looking Around

By Judy Megala

LO! A NEW SEMESTER—
and YoCo rolls out its WELCOME MAT to all new students. Yes, another semester and, with it, changes in the old Alma Mater: additions to the faculty—work begun on the engineering building—the influx of males on campus (THIS we still can't believe)—new college colors (red and white). Life is gay, life is sunny—and Sonny's come back to college. And the blood pressure of the C. C. C. (CAMPUS CONSCIOUS CO-EDS) has soared to new heights. After that vacation (there's really nothing quite like California, and NO, we DIDN'T see JOHN), it's good to see so many old faces: LONEY and WATT, BILL (girls, aren't you glad I'm back) SIFKA, former Jambar Chief LOIS McCALLISTER, ex-Looking Around JANIE O'BRIEN . . . Yes, life is gay—but we said that once before, didn't we?

GRETT ROTHERMUND, making us green with envy, sporting a diamond from WAYNE AGEY . . . MARGE THOMAS keeping that tall soldier in tow . . . Former Campus Columnist JEAN LONEY "down - the - aising - it" with the army—LT. HARRY "BUD" KRIEGER—lucky gal! . . . HAL and JEANNE—left-overs from last semester . . . "MUTT'S" frat pin adorning IDA ADAVASIO'S blouses.

PRE-SCHOOL AFFAIR—GENEVA-ON-THE-LAKE:
YoCoites buzzing in and about . . . IRMA digging up the sand looking for her lost (did she ever find them?) glasses . . . BOB BURKE taking those weird snapshots with his camera (don't feel inferior; I'm being blackmailed, too) . . . The song, "SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY"—after all these months, too. Phi Lamba and the Delts alternating automobile accidents . . . moonlight swimming . . . FRANCES POLOTSEE and her ever-so-beautiful sun-tan.

QUERIE DEPARTMENT:
WHO IS THE WOULD-BE WRITER NAMED ROMEO WHO LEAVES HIS COMPOSITIONS AROUND FOR EVERYONE TO READ? . . . WHAT'S THE CONNECTION BETWEEN BIG BILL REED AND LITTLE SMEDLEY HOOVER? . . . DIDN'T CAMPAIGNING FOR COUNCIL SEATS SEEM LIKE OLD TIMES? . . . WE'D LIKE TO KNOW MORE ABOUT A LAD NAMED TARAZLEWSKI . . . GINNY BLACKMAN: WHY DID YOU GET SO EMBARRASSED AT THE Y. W. C. A. THE OTHER DAY?

DOTS WHILE DASHING—
Good to hear the walls buzzing with so much activity . . . MARCIA WELSH, student math teacher (she wiggles her ears, too), all excited about her new classes—men, you know . . . BILL HARNEVIOUS, former Phi Sig, now a junior at U. S. C., coming back to visit us . . . Many, many ex-YoCoites turning school marms and liking it: HUMPHREY, PAGLIASOTTI, GRENGA, DIAMONDSTEIN, WILKOS, O'NEILL, GESSLER, VAGNOZZI, and CALLEN.

FAMILY AFFAIR—SCORES OF RELATIVES:
YoCo's LESKY No. 3—pert, little Miss MARIE; JEAN MELLINGER's kid brother, JIM (nice sense of humor, too) . . . ALICE WOODSIDE . . . MILDRED NOUFER . . . MARCHITA LARET.

INTRIGUING NEW FACES:
RAY DAVIS, who seems to "add" something; ALICE DETESCO, reminiscent of HELEN DECICCO; ED LUSZCZ, more personality than we've seen in a long, long time . . . ROSEMARY BACKUS, shy, but on the nice side . . . JANE OWENS, transfer from Ohio State . . . CURTISS HANNON, someone nice to know . . . BILL BALCHECK, because we like his grin . . . JEANNE MAYHEW, who looks a lot like MARY ELAINE MALLOY . . . The Elementary Education students getting ready to teach the veterans at the Deshon Hospital. I know, I know. You're changing your course to education, too.

OUR VOW OF THE FUTURE:
We'll NEVER, NEVER try introducing people again. A bright, little fresh came to us the other day wanting to meet a guy named DICK. Said DICK saw us coming toward him, smiled his No. 4 smile (the one reserved for garbage collectors and upstairs maids) and walked on. We repeat: NEVER again . . . That's the quota for now; see you at the FRESHMAN RECEPTION.

Here Comes the Band!

Now is your chance to march along with the newly organized Youngstown College band, and have the time of your life while earning college credit without extra charge. Plans are well under way for a concert band.
Mr. Dehnhofel, the director, has just recently arrived home from England where he assisted in the medical corps. He has organized three well-known bands in Warren: V. F. W., Antler, and the Girls' Fadette Bands. Besides being a member of our faculty (brass department), he is the Geauga County supervisor of music.
In the near future we hope to have football games again. What would football season be without a band? We want "red hot" players not only on our team, but in our band. This can be attained only by practice; so all of you musicians (and would-be musicians) come to rehearsals Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 3:00 to 4:30 in the Practice Annex of the Dana Musical Institute. You who are capable of playing any instrument whatsoever, are urged to join. See you at rehearsal!

CAMPUS COMMENTS

Back to a YoCo of renewed spirit and overflowing classrooms, we take delight in this, our first commentary in Peace.

The new social science classes practically spill out into the halls. They compare in size to the freshman composition classes since the new course is a requirement for all freshman and many secretarial students. The Social Science Sequence, as it is termed, is designed to give the student a well-rounded and coordinated picture of economics, sociology, U. S. history, and government. Prof. O. L. Reid, who heads the new department, is enthusiastic as to its success. Dr. C. P. Gould and Dr. J. E. Smith, with Professor Reid, are instructing the seven sections of the course.

A new and interesting course is being introduced in the biology department this semester. It sounds practical, too. A cultural general biology course is being offered to A. B. degree seekers, reserving the more technical zoology to the science and pre-med majors. It will teach students the whys and wherefor of everyday happenings in science and nature. Professor Webster, head of the biology department, states that most of the second semester work will be done in Mill Creek Park. Dr. Clair L. Worley, a newcomer to the faculty, is instructor of the new course.

DUE TO CIRCUMSTANCES BEYOND OUR CONTROL . . . NEON

The sign on the bulletin board, "The NEON will not be out until further notice," is a hang-over from the war. Leather for the Neon covers did not arrive until mid-July. And, although the copy has been in the hands of the printers for several weeks, rushed conditions and labor shortages have held up the final printing.

However, behind the above lies a far less justified reason for the delay. The Neon editor, whose job is year-round, was not appointed until the middle of the second semester last year! The covers would have been ready in the spring if there had been a staff to order them in the fall. Collecting and editing material for a college annual is no small job. It should be started early in the year to insure the best, complete coverage. Appointing a staff and thrusting such a task at it with less than two months to work in, is certainly poor encouragement for a good yearbook. It leaves little room for criticism of the staff and the book in the end.

Things of this nature do not require large endowments and famous names. An active, interested student body represented in an efficient student council will do the trick. We must start at the bottom, using foresight and good organization on the seemingly minor details. A sound foundation for bigger things to come will be the result.

So it is up to the new Student Council to start the ball rolling toward a successful year. Not just in the selection of a Neon editor, but in all matters that affect the everyday growth of Youngstown College. Let's have a well-planned year to fill a "radiant" Neon in the spring. A Neon that will not be limited in size by the War Production Board—or time!

Servicemen's Addresses . . .

Editor's note: The Jambar has received several requests from servicemen to print addresses of former Youngstown College students. Below is a list of those who would enjoy hearing from old friends and classmates.

A Sincere Welcome . . .

Crowded halls, filled lecture halls, enthusiastic elections—Youngstown College has returned to its peacetime status after four years of war! The faculty and upperclassmen extend a hearty welcome to you new freshmen and returned servicemen, for you will help make this year the successful one it promises to be.

Beginning the first full year of membership in the North Central Association of Colleges, the college faculty has been enlarged to accommodate the increased enrollment. Vocational guidance tests, which show students aptitudes, are now available to the entire school. Formerly they were restricted to use of the Veterans Administration. In readiness for the returning servicemen, The William Kayen School of Engineering of Youngstown College will be completed this year, furnishing science laboratories and lecture rooms. The college is growing as the people within it grow. You will benefit by your contributions and college support.

Social life on campus has a renewed vigor with rushing, the Freshman Reception and Breakfast designed to welcome you to the good times on campus. Memories of Youngstown College's football and basketball teams may become realities in the not-too-distant future. Echoes of Penguin cheers may again be heard. These traditional American college activities will return and will add to your college life. By your school spirit they will be maintained.

We, the upperclassmen, invite you to join our organizations, attend our social functions, and with us make this one of Youngstown College's most successful years. Again, we welcome you; we're glad you are here.

To Establish a Policy . . .

As Youngstown College takes a new lease on life, the Jambar editors and staff pledge themselves to do their best to see that the lease is not broken. We shall endeavor to give both students and faculty all they desire in their college paper within the bounds of good newspaper policy. We shall live and grow with the college.

Our aim is to bring a well-rounded news picture to the student body. Cultural and social activities will be viewed in their proper perspective. Believing it is the spice of life, we shall include enough "human interest" to satisfy that faction in the college.

A strictly non-partisan policy will be followed in reporting the college activities. Our interest is in the growth of the college as a whole. Criticism in the form of signed letters to the editor will be carefully considered.

We plan to build on the sound foundation laid by Lois McCallister and her staff last year. Repeating our promise made last June, "We'll Aim to Please."

"Counting sheep is no good," declared the Scotch victim of insomnia. "Last night I counted 10,000 sheep, sheared them, combed the wool, spun it, wove the cloth, made it into suits, sold them at OPA prices, and lost $3,287. That kept me awake all the rest of the night."

Pity the seagull watching the seagulls and yearning for sight of a bird with sense enough to stay on land and fly from trees.

"Listen, sugar, I've only a four-four pass. Are you looking for a date to take to a show, dinner and dance, or am I wasting my time?"

With the Greeks . . .

By Elizabeth Patrick

Hello, YoCoits!—it is good to see so many of the old crowd back! And all you new students make a super addition to our gang.

ALPHA THETA DELTA

On Tuesday, Sept. 25, installation of the officers of Alpha Theta Delta Sorority was held at Buchner Hall. Judy Megala was chairman for the affair. Last year's officers and graduates were presented gifts.

The new officers are: president, June Grimsley; vice president, Virginia Blackman; recording secretary, Jeanne Grice; corresponding secretary, Helen Lukich; treasurer, Elizabeth Patrick. Isabelle MacLennan was appointed social chairman, and Florence Anderson, historian.

GAMMA SIGMA

The Gamma Sigma Sorority held a meeting at Beverly Jackson's home Sept. 12, with Peg Downie as co-hostess. Plans for rushing were discussed and committees for the parties were appointed. Beverly Jackson was elected representative to Pan-Hellenic Council.

This year's officers are: president, Jean Mellinger; vice president, Virginia D'Isa; secretary, Beverly Jackson; treasurer, Polly Velker; social chairman, Peg Downie; historian, Mary Vesey; publicity chairman, Virginia Brugier. Mrs. Joseph Smith is advisor to the sorority.

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA

The Kappa Sigma Kappa Fraternity welcomes back a member, Jimmy McGovara, from the armed forces.

News of other Kappa Sigs include Bob Chizmar who transferred to Kent State this semester, and Bob Usselton, who is playing with Bubbles Becker's band.

Officers for this year are: president, Jerry Watt; vice president, John Hornak; secretary, Bob Burke; treasurer, Ed Simko.

PHI LAMBDA DELTA

The Phi Lambda Delta Sorority is making plans for the '45 rushing season. A sport dance will be held in the near future. The sorority welcomes Ida Aswad back as an active member this year.

Officers are: president, Grett Rothermund; vice president, Frances Polotsee; recording secretary, Lola Raptou; corresponding secretary, Olga Poiniski; treasurer, Polly Thomas.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

A business meeting of the Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity is planned for the first Saturday in October when social plans will be made. Ray Kurillo, a Phi Sig now in the army air corp, was home on furlough last week.

Officers for this season are: president, William Patrinos; vice president, Hal Davies; secretary, Chester Kazenski; treasurer, Robert Schettino; historian, Mason Dyer; sergeant-at-arms, Bill Reed.

Rose Csiss Is President E. T. P. Organization

Rose Csiss was elected president of the Elementary Teachers Professional Club at a recent meeting of the organization. To serve for the coming year are: vice president, Mary Bell Gilbert; secretary, June Grimsley; treasurer, Elizabeth Patrick. Advising the group is Miss Frieda Chapman.

Officers and advisors met Sept. 28 to plan the year's activities. This organization is open to all elementary education majors and all new students are urged to join the group.

Need for Disabled Vets Instructors at Deshon

The American Red Cross of Youngstown area is calling for volunteers to teach disabled veterans at Deshon Hospital in Butler, Pa. There is a demand for both beginning and advanced work in English, languages, mathematics, commercial subjects, motor, radio, and electric mechanics.

Transportation will be provided for the Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday afternoon sessions by the Motor Corps. The group will leave from the Ohio Edison Building at 1 p. m. and return by 6. Teaching hours are from 2:30 to 4:30, with each volunteer serving one session per week.

There will be a short training course of three lectures, one at Youngstown, the remaining at Deshon. Persons interested in this very worthy project should obtain an application from Frieda Chapman in room 303 without delay.

June Bradshaw Remains As R. I. L. President

June Bradshaw was re-elected president of the Religion in Life Club at the organization meeting Sunday, Sept. 23, at Westminster Church. The other officers for the year are: Howard Edsall, vice president; Lilly Yee, secretary, and Jeanne Grice, treasurer. Remaining as advisor to the group is Dr. Henry V. Stearns.

The Rev. J. Burdette Charles, associate minister at First Christian Church, was guest speaker at the meeting. As his subject, he chose interpretation of "Lead Us Not Into Temptation" as applied to modern society.

Following the election, a short business meeting was held at which plans for a party on Oct. 7 were made. Membership cards for the Protestant organization may be obtained from Jeanne Grice. Dues are 50 cents for each semester.

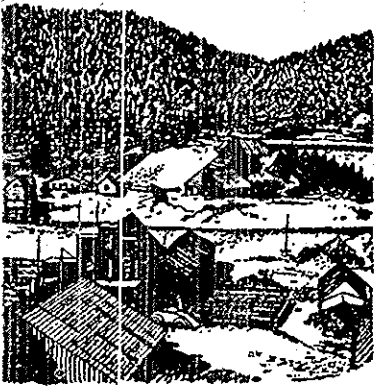

Newman Club Plans For Convention Here

At a recent meeting of the Newman Club committees were formed to serve for the Ohio Province, Four State Convention of the National Newman Club which will come to Youngstown in November. Jack Loney, last year's president; Marge Thomas, vice president, co-chairman; Marcia Welsh, secretary; and Father DeCrane, advisor of the group, are heading the committees.

The first Sunday in October has been set as the date for the next meeting at the Catholic Action Center. All Catholic students of Youngstown College are invited to attend.

Notes from Dana's

By Elvera Hrecz

Pop concerts, boat rides, corn roasts, the ole swimmin' hole episodes, and vacations have slipped by. Once again we resume our respective places at the fair college on the hill. "Fiddling around" at 616 Wick, we (future Rubinoffs) bid adieu to our past violin instructor, Michael Fecocelli, conductor of the Youngstown Symphony Orchestra, and greet Alvin (talent scout) Myerovich who has returned to fill his position on the faculty.

For the benefit of newcomers, whose flaming desires are to gain entrance to our secret halls of fame, we have posted on the bulletin board the "Dana Call" whistle. Danameters (so-called Dynamiters), effervescent with pride, will be more than happy to aid you in comprehending the significance of the password. Veterans in this field have some very modern variations which you will soon recognize as the "Call."

Vacationers found New York to be in the public eye (say nothing of Geneva). Even a few rare specimens from Dana's chose this vast metropolis as a resting spot for their weary bones. Through postcards we were informed of the high buildings, high prices, high skirts, and sleepless nights. Having "blown" away their money, not even an invitation from Paul Whiteman could persuade them to remain. Now we're positive New York will never be the same!

Graduates have taken the slogan, "Go West," literally. Dana graduates trying to expose humanity to more music have pushed as far as Missouri. We wish you luck!

Pianists need no longer fret, pout, or grumble as the pianos have been tuned, but what puzzles us now is: How could Nero be so calm as to play his fiddle while Rome burned?

Turning to the man back of her at the cinema the lady said, "Shall I remove my hat?" And the man replied: "Please don't. It's funnier than anything I've seen on the screen so far."

"I love you darling, as no one else could. I'd face death for you, I know I would. But that burglar downstairs does not sound like he's dying."

Whistling at one's work, speeds the task, as every traffic cop will tell you.

"Hello, hello, are you the Game Warden? Oh, I am so thankful I have the right person at last. I'm giving a children's party. I wish you to suggest some suitable games."

Happiness is contagious, but it will never become epidemic because so many of us manage to get immunized against it.

Those who look for reasons to hate, miss many opportunities to love.—Carmen Sylvia.

AMERICAN HEROES

by WOODY COWAN

INVESTMENT in War Bonds has helped win the war and was no sacrifice compared to Pvt. Furman L. Smith's. The brave Central, S. C. lad, who has been awarded the Medal of Honor posthumously, stood between two wounded sergeants and 80 advancing Germans with a lone Garand rifle and some clips. From a shallow shell hole he killed 10 of the enemy and littered the field with writhing wounded, in a hopeless stand before a machine gun burst ended his fighting. Your investment in Victory Bonds will care for his Buddies who were wounded in the same battle.

COUNTLESS THOUSANDS OF PURPLE MARTINS ANNUALLY CONCENTRATE ON SOUTH BASS ISLAND (PUT-IN-BAY) IN LAKE ERIE IN PREPARATION FOR THE MIGRATION FLIGHT SOUTH.

ONE REASON FOR THE GREAT FLOCKS OF PHEASANTS ON THE LAKE ERIE ISLANDS IS THAT THE HUNDREDS OF "SUNNYSIDE" HATCHES JUST WHEN THE PHEASANT CHICKS ARE OUT—PROVIDING EXCELLENT FOOD FOR THE YOUNG BIRDS.

Service Shorts --

Ellington Field, Tex.—First Lt. Philip P. Hickey, former law student at Youngstown College, and veteran of 41 combat missions in the South Pacific, has been made instructor of accounting in Ellington Field's newly opened school designed to give college credits to returned combat navigators stationed here. For his action against the enemy, Lieutenant Hickey was awarded the Air Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon with five battle stars, and the Philippine Liberation ribbon.

ATC Air Base, Tripoli, Libya.—Sgt. Thomas A. Gondelfi former graduate of Youngstown College, is currently stationed at Mellaha Air Base, Tripoli, important station in the operations of the North African Division of the Air Transport Command. This service is now in the midst of the greatest-air transport movement in history, speeding 30,000 veterans a month, from five theaters of war, to the States. Sergeant Gondelfi has served 14 months overseas duty.

Carlsbad Army Air Field, New Mexico.—First Lt. Robert O. Snow was among the first group of officers to be discharged since the final surrender of the enemy. Lieutenant Snow, former student of YoCo, flew 32 missions in a B-24, earning the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, and four battle stars.

Home on furlough: Pfc. Michael Kirwan, Pfc. Jerry Kahn, Dave Gundry, Frank D'Isa, Bill Fiore, Lt. Milton J. Hepler, and Bill Staff. Discharged: Capt. Lou Dolan, former Sig Delt, and Ensign Harry Sisek, who is now attending YoCo again.

Says Dorothy Thompson: "I don't understand why anybody pays me for expressing my opinions. I just love to do it." (Ah, don't we all?)

Why worry about what people think of you? — unless you have more confidence in their opinion than your own.

Some crooners sing with their eyes closed and their mouth half open. The practice should be reversed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR'S NOTE: Last year Youngstown College had a circulation of 850 Jambars sent to YoCo boys and girls in the armed services in various parts of the globe. In return, our servicemen and women wrote us letters telling us how much they appreciated receiving the Jambar. The following are some excerpts from letters received in our mail box, during this summer:

Philippines

Dear Editor,

"I was very pleasantly surprised a few days ago to receive two editions of the Jambar, and what a boon to a fellow's morale they were. The editions were dated in May, but I sincerely hope that I shall continue to receive them this coming semester. With only 19 months overseas, I see no chance of returning until Tokyo Rose tries to explain the presence of American soldiers on Jap soil.

"My congratulations to the editor and staff of the Jambar and my deepest appreciation."

Sincerely yours,

Lt. A. J. Moliterno

Dear Editor,

"Now that the war is over and censorship has been lifted, I can give you an idea of what I have been doing. We traveled from Bombay, India, to Rangoon, and then up the Burma Road into China. We are now flying from Kunming to Luichow since the end of hostilities. Incidentally, the first American flag to fly over Rangoon was from our outfit.

Sincerely yours,

Harry Deskin

Dear Editor,

"To date I have received several copies of the Jambar, and I want to express my appreciation. A lot of us servicemen are a long way from Youngstown, and are remembering the swell times we had back at YoCo. The little added touch of home that the Jambar gives us is a wonderful thing out here. Keep up the good work, and we'll be seeing you soon.

Thanks again,

Bob Hedlund

In dollars and cents, preaching what you profess to practice, frequently pays better than practicing what you try to preach.

Another thing that adds to the confusion is, we are woefully overstocked on ideas, opinions, theories, and plans, and frightfully short on facts.

Many a lovely theory goes around with a black eye and a skinned nose, due to bumping into a half-open fact in the dark.

Practically nothing can be done with the smartaleek who is "stuck on himself," until he gets into hot water.
