

President Jones Is Injured In Hunting Accident

During the past week President Jones has been exercising the duties of his office with his leg in a cast supported by several ingenious looking contraptions. The leg injury was the result of a hunting accident, no—not buck-shot!