

New Instructor Is Added To Faculty

Harold E. Russert, member of firm of Clark and Collins accountants, is a new instructor at Youngstown college in the evening school of business administration. Mr. Russert will teach the course in federal and state taxes formerly taught by Charles F. Axtman who has resigned.

Mr. Russert, a certified public accountant attended Youngstown college, and Carnegie Institute of Technology. He formerly was auditor of the Industrial Commission of Ohio.